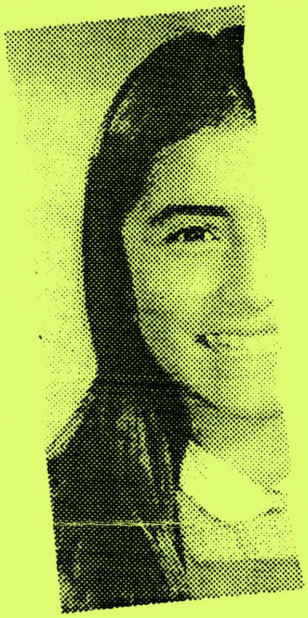
CHICANO STUDENT PROGRAMS

POESIA PELIGROSA

Featuring Los Angeles Poet

MICHELE M. SERROS



Chicana Falsa

and other stories of death, identity, and Oxnard

Michele M. Serros , who is originally from Oxnard, California, is a student at UCLA. She performs regularly and was introduced by the 1994 Los Angeles Poetry Festival as a "new and important poet." She was selected to tour nationally as a Road Poet for Lollapalooza '94. Chicana Falsa, now available in its second printing, is a required text in many high schools and university classrooms.
