Nakamoto, William Odaka, Masao Tsubota, Hideo Tochiura, and Henry Tsuruoka were the Bronco's stars.

Jeeps were in the cellar position along with the Fowler Rams in the league standings. Jim Murashima, Mas Amano, Ken Masuda, Monroe Fujisawa, Jack Sakai, Shig Sanbongi, and Robert Kimura were the best players on this team.

Fowler Rams picked several casaba tossers from the outside to compose their team. Hug Sugimoto, Fred Harada, Lloyd Kumataka, Tommy Tominaga, and Ben Fujii were the Ram's usual starting lineup. Ted Kondo, Frank Urabe, Yosh Tanihara, Setsu Kikuta, and Nobu Suda were the substitutes.

FOWLER--B WINNERS

The Fowler Trojan emerged as the champions when they routed the Hanford Spartans, 21-18, in an exciting, nip and tuck battle. The Trojans lost to the Spartans in the first game of the season, 21-16.

The members of the Fowler Trojans were James Renge and George Toyama, forwards; Kiyoshi Renge and Roy Kato, guards; and Kiyo Norikane, center; I. J. Iwamoto, Ted Iwamoto, Masao Sakoda, reserves, and Thomas Toyama, manager.

B BASKETBALL STANDINGS

Fowler Trojan	11	1
Hanford Spartans	10	2
Mess D	9	2
Lindsay	7	4
Canteen	7	4
Broadway Clowns	5	6
Monterey	5	6
North Fresno	4	7
San Luis Obispo	4	7
West Fresno	2	8
Scrappers	1	10
Warehouse Crew	1	10
Fowler	6	1
North Fresno	5	2
Olympic Club	4	2
West Fresno	3	2
Hanford	2	4
Selma Ramblers	1	4
Section B	0	5

CEE TITLISTS

The Fowler Hurricanes upset the North Fresno Cees, 24-21, in the championship playoff in a close game.

The Hurricanes were under the able coaching of George Norikane, star player on the Bay Region team. The team consisted of Kenge Norikane, George and Jack Tanaka, Toshio Soga, Seico and Seikyou Hanashiro, Saburo Kataoka, James Yamagata, and Akira Tanouye.

GIRLS PLAY, TOO

The Fresno basketball team shaded the Fowler girls, 23-24 in an overtime period to take the league in the women's division. The winning of this game earned Fresno the championship in the first round, as they went undefeated in the next coming games.

The Fresno Sextette was coached by Nori Masuda and consisted of Masayo Arata, Hiro Kamikawa, Toshi Nishimura, forwards; Patsy Omata, Michi Nishimura and Mitsue Kamikawa, guards; while Gladys Yoshikawa was frequently in the lineup.

	Won	Lost
Fresno	7	0
Florin	5	1
Fowler	4	2
Biola	3	3
Bowles	2	4
Hanford	1	5
Del King	0	7

HANFORD GIRLS STAR

Taking the B Girls' league crown were the Hanfordites, who upset the North Fresno sextette 29-23 for the league gonfalon.

The Hanford girls were under the instruction of Teruo Chono and the team consisted of Mary Nishi, Kaz Tsubouchi, Isako Inokida, Tsuneko Mayeda, Mits Matsunaga, Yoshiko Tsutsui, Jane Hiwano, Florence Masai, Grace Tomita, Nancy Inokida, Yayeko Mayeda, Mitsuko Matsunaga, Shizue Ishida and Fumie Yoshida.

