Business:

1. SAC has been asked (Via Laurel Holmstrom-Keyes and Napoleon Reyes) to help bring attention to the fact that ALL DEPARTMENTS (A.C.s) need to collect ALL SYLLABI. Syllabi should also be delivered to both ACs and then to Victoria Liptak, the accreditation officer. The Academic Freedom Subcommittee is also interested in this, as some faculty use 'academic freedom' as an argument to turn in incomplete Syllabi or to not turn them in at all.
2. Relationship between SEIE and SSU policies: Syllabus collection policies for SSU Academic Credit Courses. Academic Credit Courses through SEIE (any courses that lead to an academic degree that is awarded through SSU but are taught through the School for Extended and International Education) should be held to the same standard for syllabus purposes, among other things.
3. Plagiarism Policy. Apparently the Plagiarism policy is not being followed. Faculty are not reporting all examples of Plagiarism and the result is that some serial plagiarists may not be tracked.
4. Evaluation of any policies that may need revision, as many of our policies are out of date.
5. UndocuCenter.
