THE AUDIENCE CHEERS NOT SO MUCH FOR ISAO'S VICTORY AS THEY DO FOR ARAM'S ATTEMPT TO DERAILED HIS WINNING STREAK. ISAO KNOWS THIS. HE CAN HEAR IT...

... BUT ISAO DOESN'T CARE.

NOW THAT THE FIGHT IS OVER ARAM'S CORNER TREATS ISAO LIKE ONE OF HIS OWN. ALMOST.

A FIGHTER'S BLESSING IS GIVEN

IN AN EGOLESS MOMENT WORDS ARE EXCHANGED THAT NO ONE HEARS.

THERE IS NO REGRET IN THE WORDS. THERE ARE NO EXCUSES OFFERED. THERE IS NO GLOATING. JUST MUTUAL RESPECT.

THE LOSER WANTS TO ACT LIKE HE ISN'T IN PAIN. HE WANTS SO MUCH TO WALK AWAY ON HIS OWN TWO FEET.

SOME FIGHTERS MIGHT TELL YOU THAT WINNING OR LOSING HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH WHO TOOK THE WORSE BEATING.

BUT HOW MANY BEATINGS CAN ANY MAN TAKE BEFORE THERE'S NOTHING WORTH FIGHTING FOR?

THE WRONG LOSS CAN PUT A FIGHTER AWAY FOREVER.

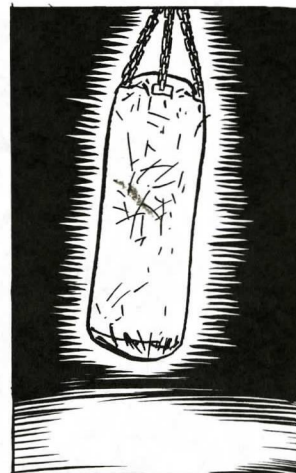

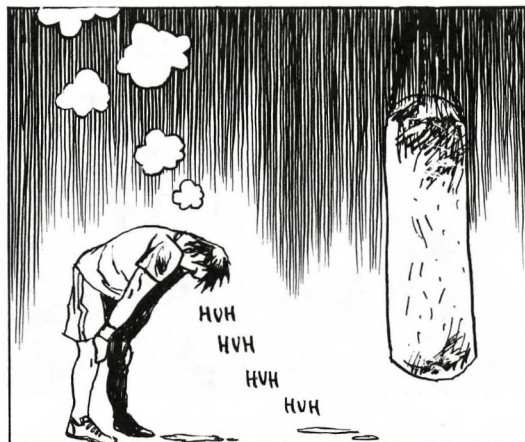

DAD DAD DAD

ISAO HAD GOOD HANDS FOR AN AMATEUR BUT HIS LOVE WAS TO GRAPPLE. ON THE MATS HE WAS A LION.

JUDO AND JIU-JITSU WERE HIS BREAD AND BUTTER. EVEN AGAINST THE TRAINING PARTNERS ISAO COULDN'T BEAT HE COULD ALWAYS AT LEAST KEEP HIS BALANCE.

USUALLY THOUGH, YOU COULD ALWAYS FIND HIM IN CONTROL.

WHATEVER DIRECTION YOU MOVED TO ATTACK OR DEFEND HE WOULD MAKE IT YOUR MISTAKE.

GOOD TRAINING PARTNERS ARE HARD TO COME BY. YOU WON'T KEEP THEM IF YOU INJURE THEM. AGRESSION AND ABILITY ARE ALWAYS PUSHED BUT SO IS COMPLETE CONTROL.

EVERYBODY WANTS TO BE A FIGHTER BUT NOBODY WANTS TO TRAIN.

EVERYBODY WANTS TO STEP INTO THE RING BUT NOBODY WANTS TO SACRIFICE THEIR SOCIAL LIFE.

IT'S EASY TO BE A TOUGH GUY.

IT'S ANOTHER THING TO TRAIN LIKE A PRO.

Cauliflower Ear Grand Prix

People who train in the fighting arts can get a condition called Auricular Hematoma more commonly known as cauliflower ear. The nick name is derived from the bulbous shape and thick folds resemblance to the vegetable. Cauliflower ear can be caused by many things including constant friction (headlocks + chokes) and repetitive impact (punches+kicks to the ears). Come now, let's see who has the strongest cauliflower ears in the Cauliflower Ear Grand Prix!

👊 Daijiro Matsui's ears have evolved so far in their cauliflower that they are no longer used for hearing, they are the tied knots of inflated balloons. Matsui has never won a belt but is a contender for ugly ears division.

👊 Fedor Emelianenko is widely considered to be the most dangerous man in Mixed Martial Arts today. His ears are pretty friendly though. His ears are in good shape because nobody ever get's a chance to hit him.

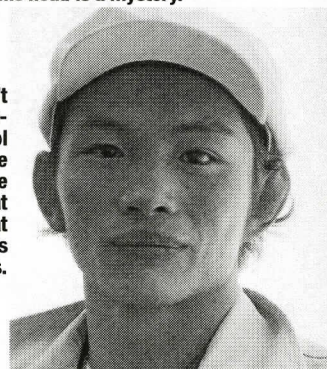

👊 Randy Couture is a possible champion of the Grand Prix. His ears are legend and no longer serve any auditory function. They are just for show.

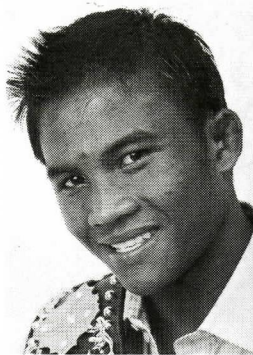

👊 Tatsuya Kawajiri wins the special award for most symmetrical cauliflower ears. Almost. How they remain on his head is a mystery.

👊 Even a giant hat can't hide the massive cauliflower ears on Caol Uno's head. These ears have achieved the status of "albino-bat wings". Uno fights at middleweight but his ears are heavyweights.

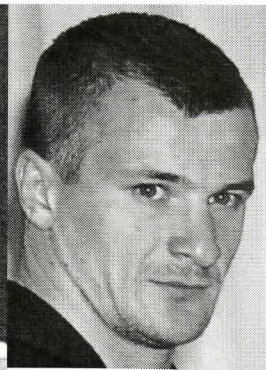

☛ Buakaw Por. Pramuk has achieved what is commonly known as "The Radar Dish".

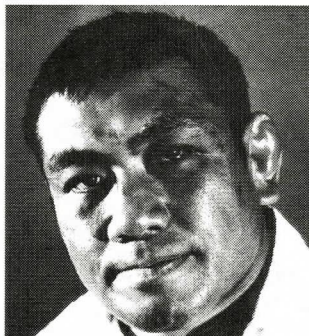

☛ Rickson Gracie, the living legend of Mixed Martial Arts, has a undefeated record. The Cauliflower Grand Prix may be his first loss.

☛ Mirko "Crocop" Filipovic will kick you in the throat if you even look at his ears funny.

☛ I have yet to see Tyronne Glover fight but his ears are saying "I'm here to chew bubblegum and kick some butt" and you know the rest. His ears look like the chewed up bubblegum.

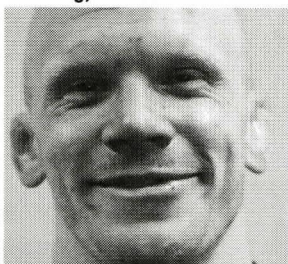

☛ Kazuyuki Fujita's ears are so bad it looks like his brain is hemorrhaging out of his skull. Will Fujita take the Grand Prix? You decide. This is nature's way of saying "stay away".

☛ Kazushi Sakuraba's ears are world famous and have achieved "OMG" status. They inspire you to ask "What are they?" and "Can you hear me?". Sakuraba will give Couture a run for his money in this Grand Prix.

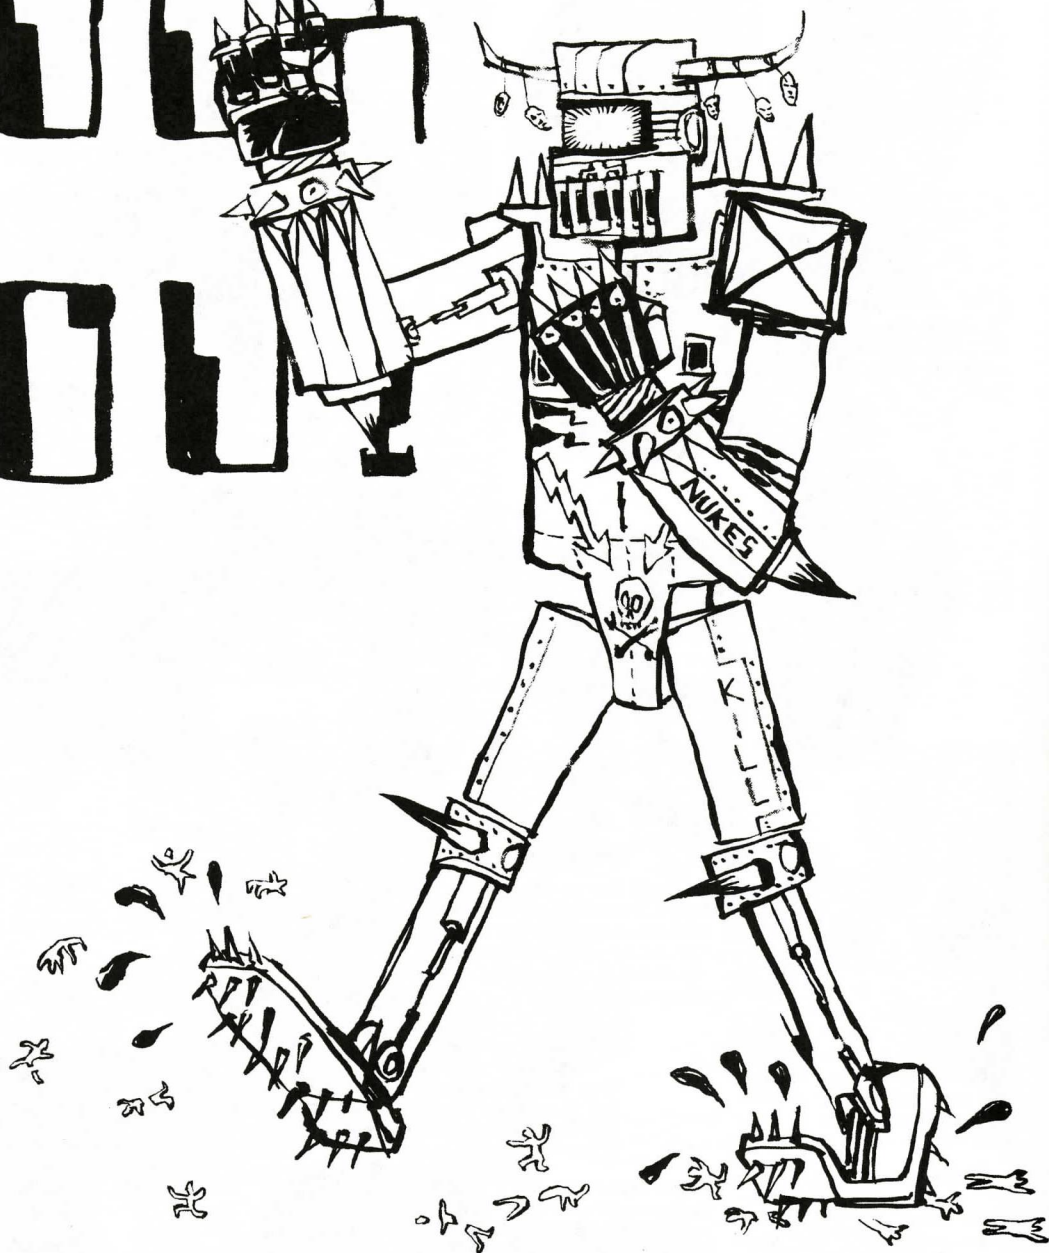

☛ Joachim Hansen. If you ever see ears like this run the other way. These ears equal B-A-D. If the guy's smiling, even worse.

☛ Royce Gracie can still hear you criticize him.

Artwork by James Franklen

I did some artwork for musician Kiyoshi Graves (no relation), You might remember the melting swallow on the cover of DM Special Mini, that was originally done for Kiyoshi Graves ep "Past, by its waters". Well K. G. was possessed by ancient Kamikaze spirits and had my illustration tattooed across his heart. I am at once disturbed and profoundly honored by this act. Now it's like we're practically related.

Arm wrestling is the gateway drug to cat fighting.

Speaking of girls gone wild, this is Edie Rei, she's passed out from too much partying. Her parents try to keep her on the straight and narrow but nothing works.

MUSIC

Superpower: Prey For The World. I met this guy and the first thing he asked me was what kind of music did I like, before I could even finish saying "Pancake Mountain" he shoved a CD into my hands and ordered that I listen to it. I'm not sure how he even gave me his CD because I also noticed that he was drinking with beers in both of his hands. This is a straight-up hardcore album with songs about alcohol, drugs, corruption and of course love. The singer of this band, Dave Tree, is obviously out of his mind so please standby for great things soon. (demo)

The Unlovables: Heartsick. Taking influences from The Go-Go's to The Smiths this is pop punk at it's tightest. Heartsick is fluffy and sweet like cotton candy but without all the calories. These guys get everything to work for them; the songs are sing-a-long fun (even break-up songs), the back up vocals lend more depth and the singing is heart-felt. Pop Punk doesn't go with my tough guy image but it's fun to have this kind of treat now and then. (Whoa Oh Records)

Ninja Academy: Ninja Academy at the Echo.

This is a live recording of the notorious "Sayonara Donkey Punch" show that also included The Mormons and 8-Bit on the bill though not included in this recording. Most of the songs can be found on Ninja Academy's prior albums but there is something captured on this recording that makes the songs completely original again, maybe it's the addition of Gongis Kahn and Ninjamalickum? To bad the audio recording didn't capture the martial arts mayhem of Donkey Punch or the Lion Dance. (SpaceLand)

Demander: The Unkindness of Ravens.

Are these kids the best unsigned band in NY? What the hell is up with that? If you are lucky this band will turn your apartment into backstage when they play your town. This is a highly anticipated self released album and pretty close to a perfect first album. Where do they go from here? (Self Released)

Red Sparrows: Every Red Heart Shines Toward The Red Sun.

Instrumental atmospheric rock from Los Angeles. Completely epic and mysterious like a Russian novel but without any of the words. Recommended. (Neurot Recordings)

Wild Billy Childish: Heavens Journey.

A dirty, bluesy and paired down masterwork. Julie (of the A-Lines) adds a understated texture of haunted romance to the recording. The second half of the album is spoken word medicine for your soul. (Damaged Goods)

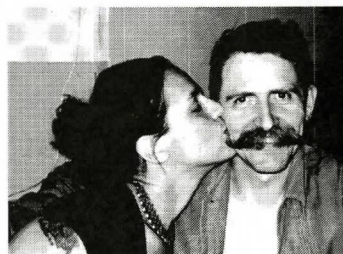

Switchblade Kittens: The Weird Sisters.

An entire album about Harry Potter? Is it a gimmick? A concept album? A coded message to initiated children who read books? I may never know. (self released)

Pistolera: Siempre Hay Salida.

A rad name for a band and a rad sound that reminds me of ranchera music I heard while growing up in El Granada CA. Pistolera's music has been called Latin Alt-Folklorico and I can't understand a word of Español but it just adds to the image the music paints in your head. I saw them play Bordello and they put on a good show, maybe they even sounded better than their album recording. (self released)

d.i.y. self defense

A edited more user friendly version of this article originally appeared in Giant Robot magazine issue 48. This is the Directors Cut.

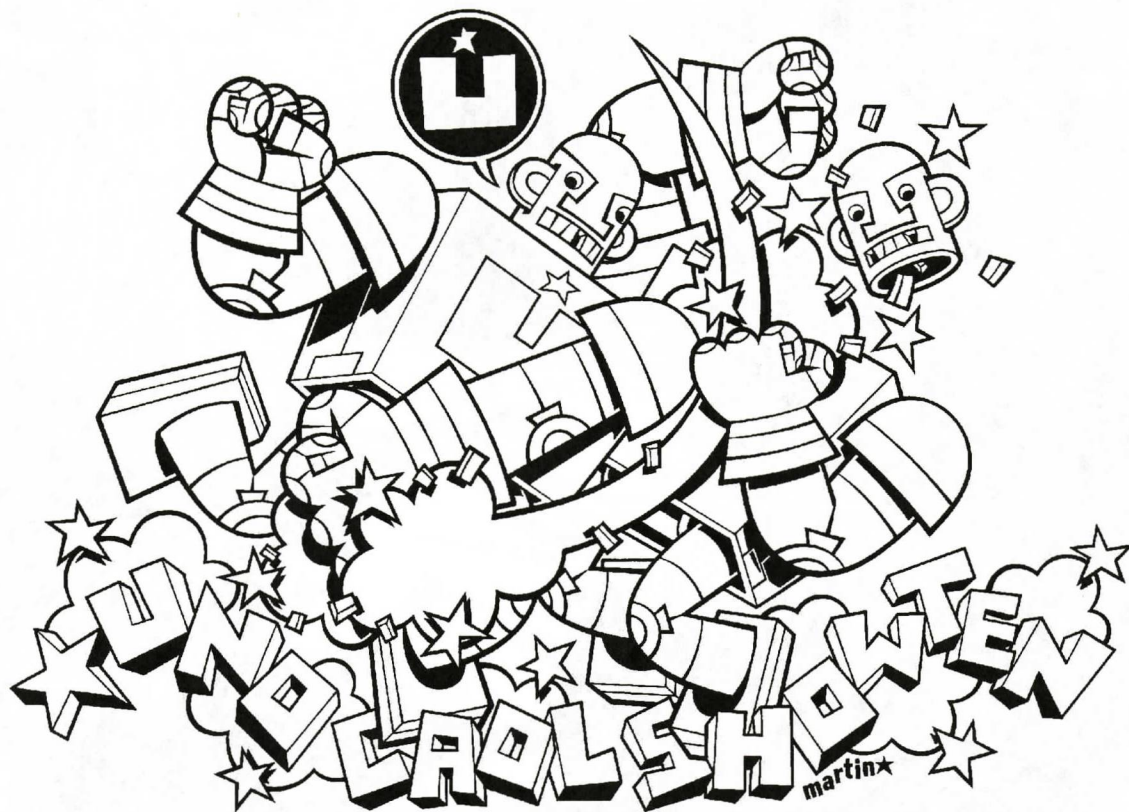

There is no mercy on the streets. If you can't escape an attacker you are left with only one option – defend your life with everything you've got. There is no such thing as "taking it easy" when it comes to protecting your life or the lives of your loved ones. But what do you do when you are confronted with a vicious attack from the fairer sex and you are a gentleman? How do you defend yourself against the attacker you have sworn to never hit?

When confronted with a female attacker, here is some advice for boys and even girls who don't want to physically hurt their assailants. This article is not about copping free feelies or taking sexual advantage of your attacker it is about self-defense so please bear with the explicit details.

The Big Hug. Embrace the attacker with both arms and say "I don't want to hurt you. I love you. I. Love. You." Repeating the words in a calm manner might help break their raging urge to kill you. The hug could be stomach to back or face to face but stay away from her teeth unless you want to lose your nose. Hold her close in a manner to protect your groin from knee strikes. You'll know you are in control when you can sway her back and forth gently.

Enemies With Benefits. When the woman is attacking, grab (not in a manner of a titty twister attack) her bosoms with your hands. Nobody likes to be fondled against their will and this is a non-lethal way to discourage an attack. If the attack puts you in a compromising position where her breasts are unattainable (i.e. she has you in a rear naked choke) go for her groin. That's right I said it - go for the groin. When a woman asks how to physically defend herself from a male assailant you would tell her to go for the groin and the same holds true in the case of lady attackers, you just have to be more gentle with girls – don't kick it. But what do you do if your hands are occupied defending your eyeballs from being raked out of your skull? How do you execute a fondle defense? The answer is use your mouth. When your hands are tied, so to speak, kiss your opponent in a firm yet loving manner to get them off of you. Kiss what is available. The breasts, the groin, the neck, the bumbum or their mouth just don't get bit back.

Golden Shower Defense. If you have the time and the preparedness you can micturate onto your opponent. No one usually likes to get peed on and the urination stream can act as a first line of defense before anyone can get a hold of you.

Fighting Disorder. When a woman is about to attack you try vomiting on your assailant. Vomiting is a non-lethal projectile attack that can have a disabling effect on a person. Depending on what you ate prior to regurgitation the puke may even have a blinding effect if you can shoot it into the eyes of your attacker. If you can't summon the power for long-range projectile vomit just short-range vomit on yourself to transform yourself into an undesirable target.

Sister Poop Fighter. If you are truly fearing for your life you can even defecate on yourself. Covering your body with your own feces creates a compelling force field of safety. Nobody wants to hit poo. It may seem difficult to spontaneously soil yourself but it may actually be quite easy when you believe you are about to die. This is also something you could practice in private to fully mastery.

These techniques do not necessarily stop any attack I am aware of but it may shock and awe enough to buy you those precious moments to make your escape or even make a new friend for life.

Never use these techniques for evil only in self-defense when you cannot run away. If you use these moves improperly you may only cause yourself injury and even death. ☆

Band of Ninja

Ninja Academy have been earning a reputation as great live performers with a active roster of mystery ninja that make guest appearances. Training diligently for years in the secret temple they have mastered their respective weapons - the drum and bass guitar. As a ninja must be deadly quiet to stalk their prey they do not sing. I was blindfolded and taken to a secret location where they allowed this interview to be recorded. Thanks to Dan Kusunoki who first told me about this band.

L to R- Outdo-Ninja: Drums, Donkey Punch: Martial Artist, Indo-Ninja: Bass
Back- Gongis Kahn: High Priestess & Taiko Drums, Ninjamamalickum: Vocal Destruction

DM: First off what is up with the Ninja vs. Samurai rivalry?

Outdo: Man, Samurai just suck.

Indo: I heard there's supposed to be a Ninja vs. Pirates rivalry. I think there's even a Ninja vs. Pirates day set aside for that particular thing.

DM: Did you perform for that day?

Outdo: Well, I killed a pirate.

DM: Just to watch him die?

Outdo: Yeah, just to watch the expression change on his face. It was like "AAARRRR!"

DM: You play a song called Neckface. Are you influenced by the artist Neckface at all?

Indo: I was just talking to this artist Eduardo, a painter, and he told me about Neckface. We were just messing around, we were high, he was all "You should have a song called Neckface!" That's how stupid it came about really.

DM: You also play a song called Fenster's Theme, is that a reference to the movie...

Indo: The Usual Suspects, yeah.

DM: Are you fans of the movie?

Indo: Yeah.

DM: Why is it important to hide your identities?

Ninja Academy: (silence)

DM: Are you wanted criminals?

Outdo: If we were we wouldn't tell you! It's cool because putting on a mask is (becoming) a different persona when we play. It's a kind of an alter ego.

Indo: When you put the mask on you don't care anymore because nobody knows who you are. You can act as stupid as you want to be or as serious as you want to be. So it helps. It helps because you don't see my expressions when I fuck up! (Laughter). Behind my mask I'm all "Fuck! Shit! Aw!" But from the outside it just looks like I'm really getting into it. Like "He's really feeling that!"

DM: Do you think you'll ever hit the Kiss level where you're playing stadiums and then you would think "We gotta take off the paint."

Outdo: We've had that conversation.

Indo: Kiss never takes off their paint though, right?

Outdo: Well they did. They went through that ... unmasked in the 80's.

DM: It ruined it for them. They had to put the paint back on. No one recognized them without the paint.

Indo: I'm into maybe altering the suit a little bit but I don't know if we'll ever go unmasked.

DM: When you guys play in the snow do you wear the white ninja suits?

Outdo: We've never played in the snow but that's a good idea.

DM: I'm sure you get asked this all the time but when you travel, instead of taking cars do you run on top of the grass?

Outdo: We don't even run dude, we float.

Indo: We just appear.

DM: Do you guys ever switch your instruments just to see if people are paying attention?

Outdo: We do whole shows where I play bass and he plays drums.

DM: I'm still curious who you really are and there is a rumor that you are actually Les Claypool and Buckethead on drums. Is that true?

Outdo: (laughter) Never tell.

DM: Would you guys ever jam with Snake Eyes from G.I. Joe?

Outdo: (laughter followed by silence) No we killed him.

Indo: His timing was iffy, his tempos were slow.

DM: (to the other two female ninjas) You have to introduce yourself because your name is amazing

Ninjamamalickum: Ninjamamalickum.

DM: And you are?

Gongis Khan: Gongis Khan

DM: What is your connection to the Ninja Academy?

Gongis Khan: I am the High Priestess of the ninja clan. I hit the gong and I play taiko for them.

DM: And what is Ninjamamalickum going to do tonight?

Ninjamamalickum: What they call Ya-Kyo-Ku. (Editors note: I don't know if this is the correct spelling for the mentioned singing style as I can't hear clearly in the interview tape. Apologies.) It comes from Japanese Noh theater. It's a kind of theatrical vocal figures in classical Japanese on top of other sneaky stuff. Sneaky ninja vocal damage.

DM: I'm sure if I had a metal detector there would be weapons hidden in your outfit. It's pretty much recognized that the core of Ninja Academy is a duet but you often collaborate with other musicians. Can you talk about that?

Indo: Doing the collaborations just makes the songs alive again. It's always morphing into different things and while jamming, other people will put their flavor in it. It makes it new again. I like it like that.

DM: It's just that I thought that one of the ideas behind Ninja Academy was to minimize.

Indo: We have that as well. No limitations, know what I mean?

Outdo: Usually it is (minimized). But we have our guest ninjas just to change it up. It's cool to have flavors like you said. Guitar or vocals...

Indo: Another bass sometimes.

Outdo: Just to change it up. From a audience perspective maybe I would get bored seeing the same shit all the time.

Indo: And also from the audience perspective, you never know what you're going to see next from Ninja Academy. "Are they going to be a duet? Who? What? What?"

Gongis Kahn: It's scary

Indo: There is a ninja aesthetic where you don't know what's going to go off.

DM: Going to the song Your Kung Fu Sucks...

Indo: Inspired by...

DM: Yeah! When I first heard of you guys a this band, they have this amazing song called Your Kung Fu Sucks" And I said "That's funny! I actually made a T-shirt that said Your Kung Fu Sucks." So tell me a little bit about how this happened.

Indo: Okay. I walked into this store, Giant Robot, just shopping and I saw the shirt Your Kung Fu Sucks and I thought it was the coolest thing ever. You know what I mean?

Outdo: I have one. We both have one.

DM: So you saw the shirt at GR and you know Audrey (the person who I hire to screen my T-shirts).

Indo: But I didn't know she made the shirt.

DM: (To Gongis Kahn) And she's your cousin?

Gongis Khan: It was destiny.

Indo: I had to call the song Your Kung Fu Sucks.

DM: I'm honored. It's a great song. You guys are going on tour soon.

Indo: We will plan our world domination soon enough.

DM: I thought you already did?

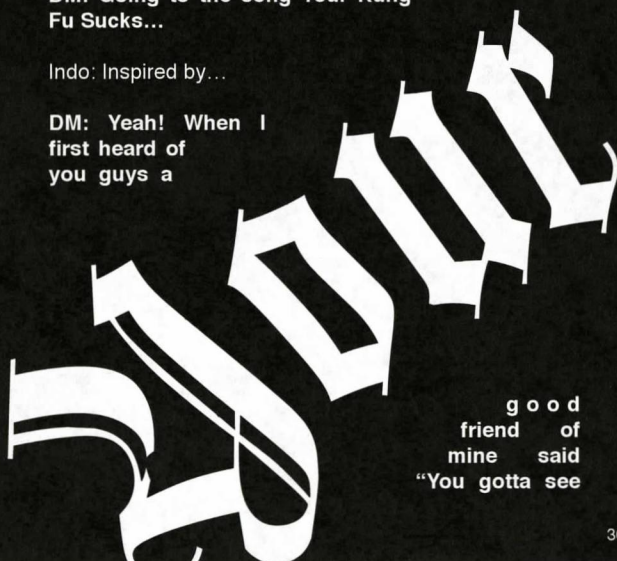

Indo: Well, we gotta do another one.

Outdo: time to dominate again.

DM: Gotta kill a few more pirates. So tell me about Donkey Punch.

Outdo: He's our martial artist. Tonight is his last night with us because he is leaving on a long mission and won't come back probably. He is a brother of a friend. Our friend was like "Donkey Punch does nun-chuks and shit." (so I said) "Well, what the hell, come jam with us.". He jammed with us at The Mint like a year or two ago and ever since then he's been totally into it and kicking ass with us so...

good friend of mine said
"You gotta see

DM: But now he's gotta leave the temple. Leave the Academy.

Outdo: Yeah, It's sad to see him go. He'll always be a part of the Academy.

DM: Why does he have to go though?

Outdo: He just has another mission to go on.

Indo: He's going to go to the Gulf Of Mexico and Alaska eventually.

DM: Has anyone suggested that you might actually be beautiful women underneath the costumes and that the reason you wear the costumes is that you want people to pay attention to your talents as musicians and not for your good looks?

Outdo: It's funny that you say that because I have said before that it would be cool if we played a show and somehow did a switch where we took off our masks and it would actually be hot chicks. That would be so cool. Like "Whoa the whole time they were hot chicks!" But I guess we don't have the resources to do that sort of stuff.

Indo: That's some David Copperfield shit! Ha ha!

DM: Who do you guys look up to in terms of musical format?

Indo: There's What

a lot of people.
do you mean?
The bass and drum thing or musically? We listen to all kinds of music from Jazz to punk rock. To name a few: Mingus, Pixies. That right there is one spectrum to the other

Outdo: I used to play jazz, I played in orchestras, classical music, classic percussions and stuff, I mean, everything like you said. Basically though; rock. I was always into rock.

Indo: It's important to keep an open mind and listen to a lot of different things, you know? It all goes into this pool of ideas.

DM: Do you ever get sick of being evil ninja?

Indo: No! (Laughter) No really, no! I'm not tired of it. It's the cherry on top of my day knowing I'm going to play a show later on. No matter what kind of day I'm having, if I'm going to bust a show later, it's all good.

DM: Okay. Indo-Ninja and Outdo-Ninja, how did you get those names?

Indo: It's kind of stupid but I was looking through The Chronic, Dr.' Dre's album, and there's a line in there where he says "Now it's smelling like Indonesia". I was like "Dude!". It's a Endo reference from Dr. Dre.

DM: And Outdo is riffing off of Indo?

Outdo: Yeah pretty much. Like the movie Friday. He's all "Endo? More like outdo!"

Indo: I guess you could say it's pot references for both... but we don't do that shit though. (laughter)

Outdo: Don't do drugs kids!

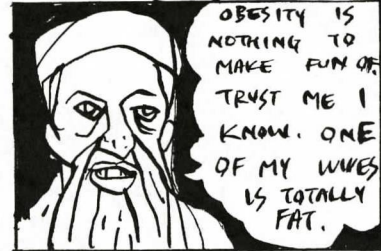

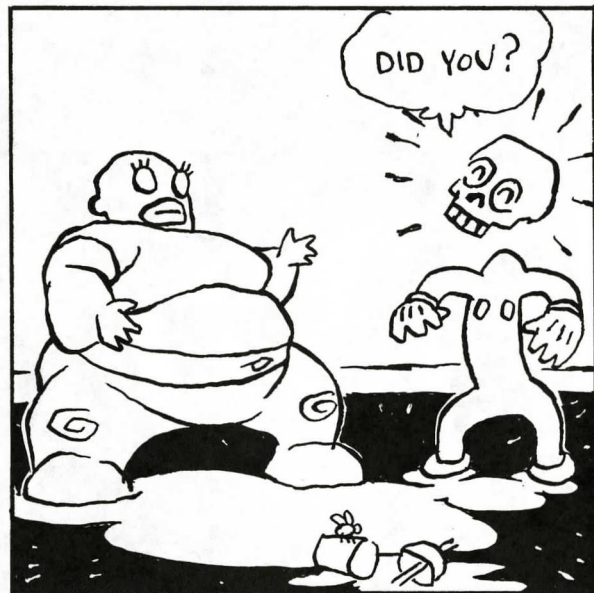

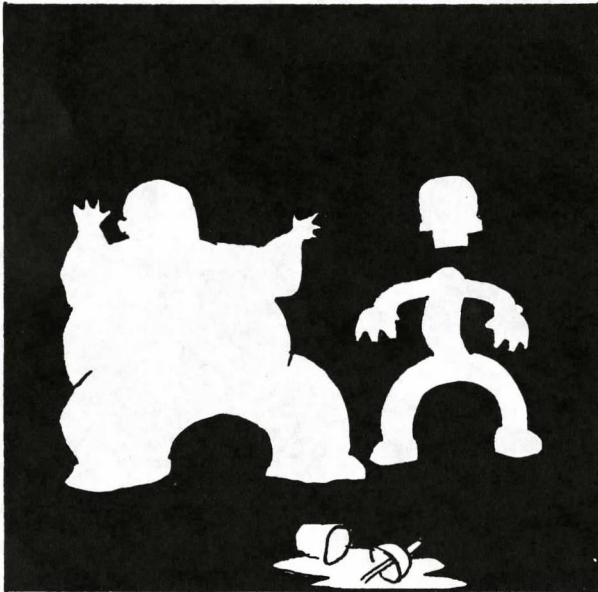

DM: Any closing remarks?

Indo: Buy our shit!

And in a quick burst of smoke the ninja disappeared and all that was left were four leaves whirley giggling in the air. I was left alone in the forest with only a tape recording of the meeting as proof. ✱

Sodium Benzoate. You see those words written on the ingredient list of many of the foods and beverages you consume. If you see these words written along with the words "Citric Acid", or "Vitamin C", there is a hidden, unmentioned ingredient in the product you are about to consume; BENZENE.

Yep, that's right. Benzene. As in cancer, leukemia, fuck you way, way up benzene.

Benzene is formed in these items when they are left in the sun, exposed to light, or exposed to heat. Sodium benzoate (also potassium benzoate and calcium benzoate) which is used commonly as a food preservative reacts with the vitamin C to form one of the most aggressive carcinogens known to mankind.

So what the hell is it doing in my food you may ask? Apparently, the FDA didn't think it was that important, as long as no one knew about it. Over 15 years ago it was brought to their attention, but no action was taken to have it removed from items which enter consumer's bodies. Recently one of the scientists involved in the research for the FDA came forward to the press with the information. Surprisingly, the information is just starting to trickle out, thanks mainly to the Environmental Working Group.

Some of the biggest offenders were Kool Aid, Crystal Light, and Tang, but pretty much any drink containing these ingredients were perpetrators. When I was pregnant I went in for my routine gestational diabetes test. The test involves drinking a sugar drink called "glucola". Upon inspection of the ingredients, sure as shit, the Benzene cocktail was there. I told my doctor I refused to drink it, and that they were exposing every pregnant woman to Benzene by giving this out. They told me there was nothing they could do, that it was supplied by their lab. So I wrote the lab and complained. I received a response that they were well within the FDA guidelines and had done nothing wrong. I wonder what the guidelines are for exposure to unborn infants? They had no answer to this.

I also noticed that these two ingredients were in my toddler's bubble bath (she frequently drank her bath water), Johnson & Johnson's "night time bath". So she was essentially being immersed in Benzene. Isn't that super.

Read your labels, and tell your friends. ★

YOU ARE A SPECIAL SNOWFLAKE

ONE OF MY EARLIEST SEXUAL MEMORIES IS FROM WHEN I WAS WATCHING T.V.. I WAS ABOUT 6 OR 7 YEARS OLD.

IT WAS AN OLD ANTHONY QUINN MOVIE ABOUT THE AMAZING INUIT ESKIMOS.

KEEP IN MIND I DID NOT GROW UP WITH PORN READILY ACCESSIBLE.

I VIVIDLY REMEMBER GETTING TOTALLY TURNED ON (DARE I SAY I GOT A BONER) BY ONE SCENE IN PARTICULAR.

QUINN'S HOT AND MUCH YOUNGER ESKIMO WIFE TOOK HIS COLD FEET BENEATH HER ANIMAL FUR COAT ONTO HER BARE BOSOMS TO WARM THE BARKING DOGS.

SOMEHOW I UNDERSTOOD THAT THIS ACT WAS MORE THAN JUST SOME INUIT SURVIVAL TECHNIQUE. IT WAS AN ACT OF ULTIMATE SEXUAL FULFILLMENT. FOR SURE.

SHE DIDN'T SEEM VERY HAPPY IN THE SCENE.

I BUMPED INTO MY OLDER BROTHER AFTER T.V. TIME.

HE PROCEEDED TO HIT ME.

TO THIS DAY I CAN SEE THAT ESKIMO WOMAN WARMING THOSE ICY FEET AND I CAN HEAR ANTHONY QUINN SAY

Zagoran the cyclops kaiju from Gargamel. Standing at just over 9" tall, is made of clear soft vinyl (that's right this is transparent) and painted both on the outside and inside with paint that is also translucent creating a bizarre X-Ray vision effect that has to be seen. Zagoran seems to be Gargamel's flagship character and all the different color ways will blow your mind.

Gargamel is a indie vinyl toy company based out of Tokyo that works with artists such as Tim Biskup, Martin Ontiveros and Bwana Spoons. All toys are sculpted by the young madman Kiyoka Ikeda and made in small batches sometimes as low as editions of 3! Good luck finding these.

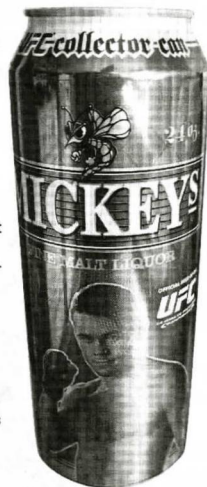

Vinyl Fighter figures from Gargamel. This character stands at 4 3/4" tall. Check out the logo on the back, that's right ND is for Napalm Death. No joke the guys at Gargamel are way serious about the metal. There are six different characters (not counting color variations) in this series so far that I know of and they all have a heavy metal, wrasslin, bootleg, small production run feel to them. Beautifully created and totally overlooked in the urban vinyl/limited edition collector glut, Gargamel will redeem your faith in new toys.

Mellow from Wheaty Wheat Studios stands at 8" tall but seems even bigger because of its rotund volume and freakishly depressing appearance. Mellow comes with a backstory that includes a weakness for foods and chocolate desserts not to mention the fact that he frightens the neighborhood children. I recommend the version with flocking. This is the ideal gift to those people trying to lose weight and on the verge of killing themselves.

Mickey's UFC Fine Malt Liquor. I enjoy drinking and I enjoy the fights but is this a good idea mixing the two? Seems like a good way to get fucked up and I don't mean drunk. But what the hell, I'm the Drunken Master so pass me the Fight Malt Liquor. The award winning like graphics on the can shows UFC fighter Forrest Griffin (an amazing MMA fighter who does in fact deserve to be on his own can of beer) and includes his stats. Under "Favorite Technique" he says "Anything that will work." that's like what every Mickey's fan says when asked "What do you want to drink?".

After 20 years of service to the community of Los Feliz and Hollywood at large Jerry's Video Rerun has closed its doors forever.

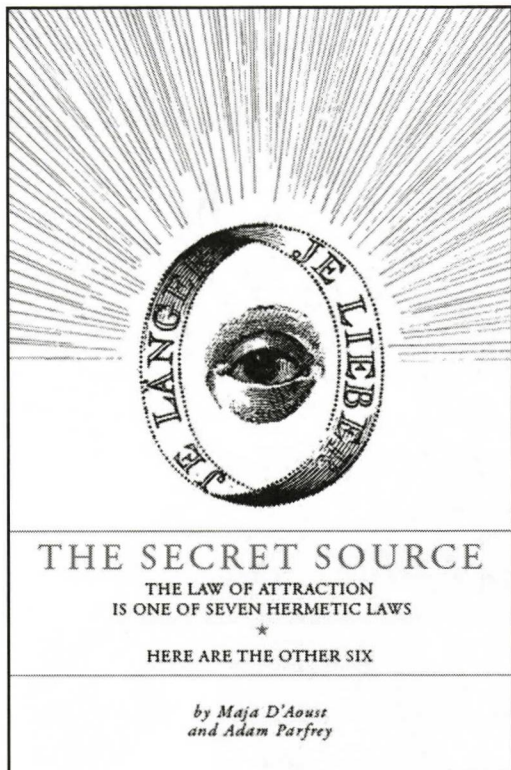

Quite possibly the best video rental store east of the 405 no other place had quite the selection of obscure, weirdo, hard to find stuff that is usually only available through the bootleg market. Where will the hard core video junkies go to get their salty fix of cinema criticism and round table trivia? Jerry, we wish you and your wife the best in your new adventures! The landmark that was your store shall forever be dearly missed and fondly remembered.

Congratulations to Riyoshi and Maja on their new baby girl Namiye Innana...

Ancient Wisdom or Self-Help Prosperity Racket?

The Secret Source takes you behind and beyond the marketing phenomenon known as The Secret, revealing how believers and visionaries have improved their well-being and enhanced their wealth for centuries through the power of the mind.

These powers come through many different teachings:

- The Emerald Tablet
- Alchemy
- Animal Magnetism
- Rosicrucianism
- New Thought Prosperity Consciousness
- Hermetic Wisdom

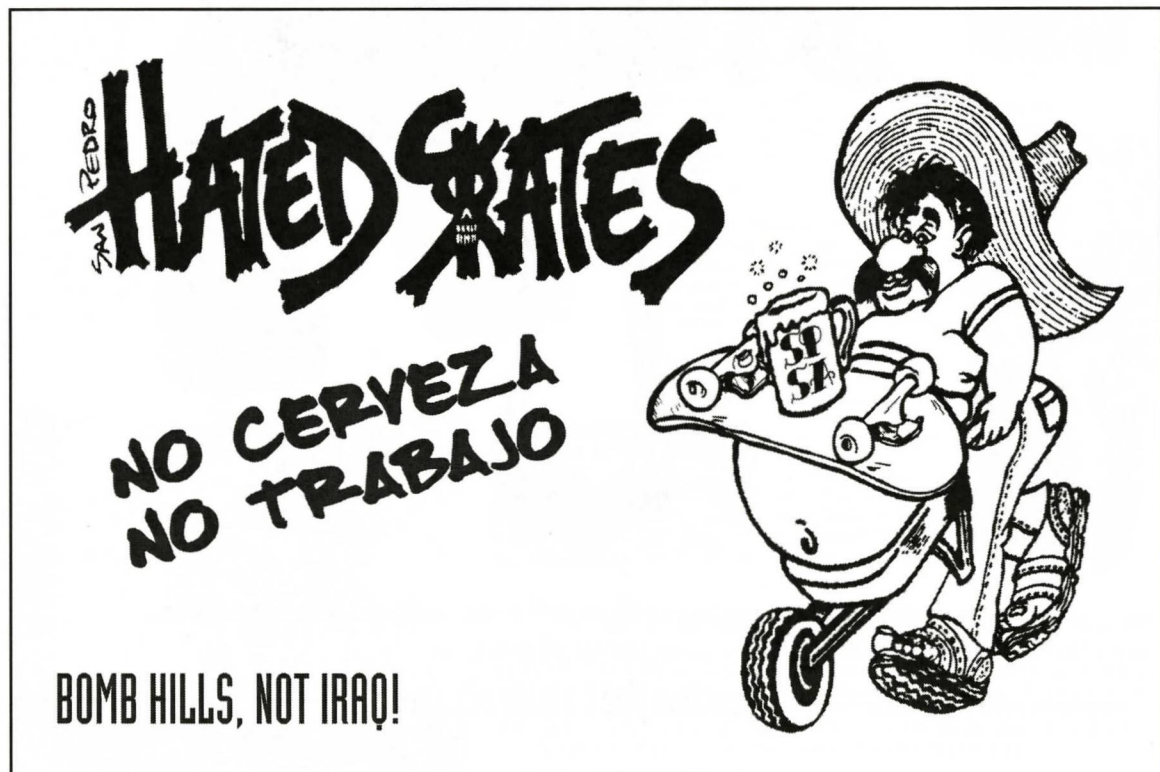

The Secret Source traces their strange and fascinating origins back to the horned Moses and flying serpents, Hermetic Christ figures, and shows how they filtered through various religions and into the modern world.

Author Maja D'Aoust lectures at the Philosophical Research Society; this is her first book. Among Adam Parfrey's books are Cult Rapture and his Apocalypse Culture series.

...your new daughter will be here soon!!!! I don't know what you are thinking about for the first name, but as for a middle name, I know you like inventors. so my suggestion is "Colonel Sanders" the inventor of "Kentucky Fried Chicken". Everyone loves "The Colonel". Think about it.

(Remember, it is pronounced "kernal").

Her nickname would be "the Colonel". Pretty cool huh? You remember your nickname growing up? Pretty mean, (Jap Sub) but to grow up being called "The Colonel" would kick ass.

Kana "Colonel" Nakazawa

Asuka "Colonel" Nakazawa

Riko "Colonel" Nakazawa

The list goes on and on.

So when Maja is in a good mood, that would be a good time to bring up the middle name, "Colonel Sanders". If she freaks out and gets mad don't tell her it was me that suggested this name!

But if you two choose another middle name, I will still give her the nickname "Colonel". After all, your days of running the house are almost over. 3 women... you don't stand a chance!

I hope you two are well, I miss you guys!!! And I can't wait till "Colonel" Nakazawa is here!

AOD

Dear Army of Dave

Namiye Inanna Nakazawa was born July 19. It was a close toss up between Colon (That's short for Colonel right?) and Innana. In the end we flipped a coin. Your contribution and effort are duly noted.

Hey Kiyoshi!

I received your package! Thanks a lot for sending me those! (I made a note to write you back only when I had finished them all) How far apart was DM#2 to now? There's a big jump in terms of your storytelling! It's interesting to see how things have progressed into a grander story, involving MMA and the history of your characters. I always wondered about what makes someone a fighter? Not just any fighter, I mean the best fighter. At what point do you put away the anger and passion and fill that with occupational duty? Is that what kills a fighter? Or is that what makes the fighter?

btw, I'm writing a script that has elements of street life/fighting. I'd like to send it to ya when I'm done my first draft.

Sam Chou

Sam

You hit the nail on the head. What makes a fighter the best? Do you have to hold on to all the things in life that make you want to hurt people or do you have to let that all go? I appreciate your observation.

Dear Drunken Master,

My brother Jason is in the hospital because he drank too much, got dehydrated and his kidney's failed. He is getting better and his kidney's are working again but I was wondering how the Master gets drunk and stays hydrated without his kidney's or liver giving up on him. Can you recommend any special training or exercises?
thanks

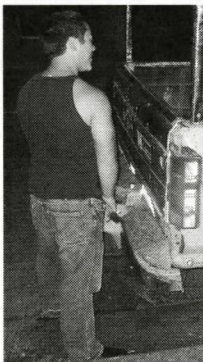

Not Kidneying Around

I wear a good looking hat.

Kiyoshi!

What is up!? Glad to hear you're on the #9 DM now! It's almost like having 9 kids. Man, that meltdown at Virginia Tech is really distracting me from Operation Iraqi Liberation. Speaking of distractions, what happened to that Don Imus cover story? Sorry I can't make it to the big APE blowout this year. Cecilia Ann is a handful. I'll be in San Jose in mid May though. I finally read the Sin City graphic novel you gave me! It reminded me of a really gritty Bukowski. Thanks again. Talk to you soon.

Eulogio

I missed you at Alternative Press Expo but anybody that names their daughter after a Pixies song is okay in my book.

Dude,

Thanks for the stickers! Your face now lives on my bumper and fridgerator! I put a "fuck you" robot on my sketchbook so that people would keep out! I don't usually put stickers on my car because I have this theory that the more noticeable you are driving, the more likely you will be pulled over! It was true with my first car. It was punk rock and rollin'! But I got many tickets. With my Honda, its strictly FBI anonymous. But you can be on my 61 Comet because there is no not noticing it. Plus Comet's are not known for being tough guy cars, they are grandma cars. Hopefully DM will change that stereotype.

How is the family? It's crazy because now you are officially a family force to be reckoned with! Not just a one hit wonder, no sir, you have an entourage, a posse! Is your baby behaving for you? Did you break that bottle of vintage wine over her head to christen her yet? I keep realizing how lucky it is to have kids. Sure it is a huge investment/sacrifice but I have a friend who just had a miscarriage on monday. It was really sad. She was bummed. We both have two babies each. Crazy. Lando is so funny because he is so different than Lily is/was when she was a baby. It's like throw everything out the window because this one is from scratch. There is no cheating on these tests. Lando loves cheerios and grapes. Lily likes strawberries and Spiderman. They both like mac and cheese so that is a freebie.

Luster Kaboom

Word. You named your son Lando Calrissan and that's still okay in my book.

Hey,

Just got home from a nice night at Bordello! I have missed you! But on a serious note, your mom must have some very strong juju. Strong Shinto spirits are with her. Think of it, both her crazy sons now live in houses full of women. mmmmm. All those days when you two drove her crazy are now coming back to haunt you. Payback time!

I will be at Bordello tonight with Nano. Your days of hanging with the boys are rapidly coming to an end. Your daughters are getting bigger and stronger everyday and when they unite with Maja you are done (she can almost kick your ass now). Just wait until the girls get bigger and back her up!

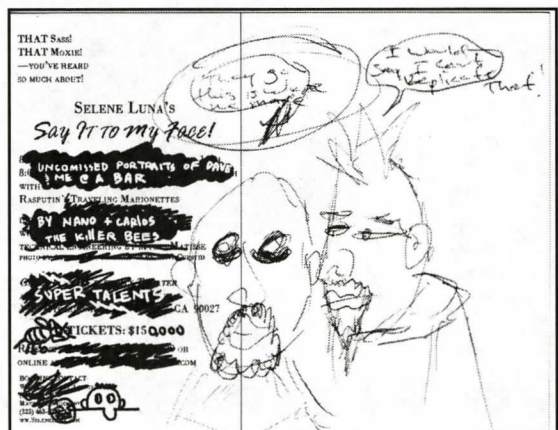

Oh my friend, in the future I see myself visiting you at your house because I can never see you out and about, and with every photo I take of you, you will have a trickle of sweat coming down from your brow. As for me, all my movements will have to be slow. I am getting scared thinking about it!

So if you can make it out, I will see you at Bordello tonight. If not, I understand. I don't want you getting hurt! I send my love to all of you!!!!

AOD

Dear AOD

The girls and their mom are starting a band, a power trio. They won't let me manage them and I am not allowed to watch them rehearse but they do let me carry their equipment at shows.
