McQuivey, Lorraine get most votes

Bob McQuivey, with 731 votes, and Marge Lorraine, with 719, votes were elected to the Board of Directors for a term of two years.

Bob is a relative newcomer to the Village, and Marge was re-elected.

Harold Goldwasser received 421 votes, Bob Bond received 418 and Ted Lansing received 11 write-in votes.

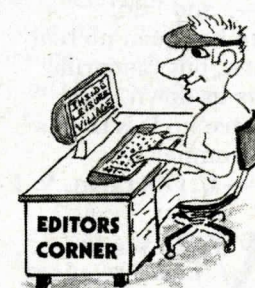

Following the election, the Board met in working session and elected R. Carol Sweeney-Zimmet as President, Marge Lorraine as Vice President, Bob McQuivey as Treasurer, Mike Shapiro as Secretary and Philip Woodward as Director at Large.

The best of luck to the Board, and let all Villagers support the new Board.

The time to vote on the CC&Rs has been extended.

The election is over, and now is the time to give our full support to our new Board. To all of the candidates — winners and losers — thank you for a job well done.

There is a very interesting article pertaining to recognizing a stroke. Please read this on Page 10.

Ronnie Steigerwald: Secret 'service man'

Ronnie Steigerwald has helped put on many events in Leisure Village.

By Milan Weiss

There is a man in the Village that most Villagers recognize, but don't know! That man is Ronnie Steigerwald.

You see him walking in the Village, sitting in the AR lobby and attending many Leisure Village events.

Most everyone responsible for putting on these events knows that if they need some immediate extra help to service their event, Ronnie is there to help. He is a best-kept secret "Service Man!"

Ron is 58 years old and has lived in the Village with his mother for 11 years. He has three younger sisters.

Two of them live within 15 miles of the Village; the third sister lives in Erie, Pa.

Ron was born in Pittsburgh. He grew up in the farm area of Saxonburg in Pennsylvania, and he lived there 15 years. When his parents bought the farm, the farm was planted with rhubarb. The family soon fixed that — they made the rhubarb field a "ball field" and this became a part of their playing area.

They had lots of animals on the farm: dogs, cats and sheep, and Ron had a pony named Dolly. They raised rabbits and grew vegetables.

Ron received special education and enjoyed living the farm life. He had lots of fun.

The family left the farm and moved to Madeira Beach in Florida, where they lived for 20 years. Ron worked for 10 years at the Madeira Beach Recreation and Parks Center. He worked as a groundskeeper and maintained the dugouts on the baseball fields.

Ron is an avid bowler. He started his bowling activity when he was 15 years old. He continues to bowl regularly here in the Camarillo area. He belongs to a bowling league at the Conejo Valley Recreation Center and bowls every Saturday

Please see RONNIE on 15

The greensward in our Village is such a vibrant color of jade and such a lovely change. Having had a poor lawn for so long and what seems like finally, and overnight, we now have grand grass! Our wonderful rains gave us a real kickoff. Now I can enjoy walking barefoot in the park within our community — and I do!

There has been no real springtime, but Camarillo never lets us down, and we can have no less than a glorious summer.

When the LV Board required replumbing before selling an LV unit — a requirement now rescinded — I investigated other, less expensive solutions.

By contacting the Camrosa Water District manager, I found one that I decided to install. It is made by FloLogic, Inc., whose toll-free telephone number is 1-877-356-5644. I have found it to be a valid substitute, since replumbing could have even more damaging leaks than the current system because it is in the attic.

Also, it is much less expensive, costing less than $900 to install compared to $3,500 for replumbing.

It is like a circuit breaker for plumbing, in that it will stop water flow once preset time limits and drip rates are reached, thus minimizing damage and letting homeowners find the leak and fix it.

It also reduces the risk of leaks, since it can be programmed for different lifestyles and shut off easily everytime you leave home.

Furthermore, it greatly reduces the risk of a leak in a unit from damaging a roommate's unit, with the high liability risks.

I have no financial interest in FloLogic and am sending this letter so that fellow Villagers will be informed of this solution. While there are other systems on the market, I did not investigate them, since Camrosa told me about this one. I would be willing to show my installation to you or a limited number of Villagers.

— L. Macon Epps, V. 17

FEMA flood plain update

By Alan Rosin

The panel presentation on the FEMA Flood Plain Map held in the AR on Thursday, June 1, made three important points.

First, most of Leisure Village will remain within the proposed FEMA Flood Plain map for 100-year and 500-year floods, after the map is finalized in October 2006 or later.

Secondly, Leisure Village homeowners with mortgages then must have flood insurance.

Finally, some attempts then can be made to remove Leisure Village from the Flood Plain Map through development of some mitigating device, such as building a five-foot wall or barrier between the Village and Conejo Creek.

Regarding the formation of an assessment district, Leisure Village will not be involved in that. The formation of a district to collect funds for flood control along Conejo Creek will be made up of those property owners who will be affected by the improvements needed to control floods. We are just one of those — others will be the farmers, commercial property owners south of us, and other residential neighborhoods that border the creek or will be affected by it during a flood.

Regarding funding by the county: It will take years to accumulate the funds, Ventura County Supervisor Kathy Long provides Leisure Village residents with an update on the flood plain proposal by the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

as there are many other priorities that the watershed district has. The county has little flexibility to funding, as funds collected for one watershed area cannot be used or transferred to other watersheds.

The most logical approach is to form the new assessment district (after voter approval) and float bonds and start getting the wall built as soon as possible. We were told that the wall is already in design and that construction could begin within two to three years. So it is better to form the district, get the wall built and get us and others out of the 100-year plain. At that point, people could drop flood insurance. If we wait for the county to accumulate funds, you will be paying flood insurance premiums for years to come, rather than just a few years. It is estimated that the cost of funding the district will be cheaper per person, than if each had to get flood insurance.

Space permitting, whatever was not printed in this issue due to space limitations will be considered for the next issue.

Car show set for July 8

July 8 will mark the date of the first car show in Leisure Village.

It will be held in the west parking lot of the Recreation Center from noon to 4 p.m.

New law says ballots must be kept secret

By Ethel Ann Pemberton

Have you ever wondered how secret your vote is? Although it's handled by a double-envelope system, the General Manager has admitted to opening the ballots, checking off voter names, and tabulating the ballots as they come in.

It appears that our Board has used this procedure because no method was specified in the codes as to how to handle the ballots prior to the date designated for receipt and counting of ballots. However, all of this is changing.

California Senate Bill (SB61) was passed and signed into law by the governor on October 3, 2005, and became effective on July 1, 2006. This delay is typical of legislation since it intentionally allows time for homeowner associations to be able to comply.

This new legislation adds

Civil Code Sections to the Davis Sterling Act regarding voting procedures, and it provides monetary penalties for violations.

Briefly, in addition to double envelopes, no director, candidate for the Board, or relative of these individuals shall be an election inspector. No member or employee of the association shall open or otherwise review the ballots prior to the time and place when the ballots are opened and tabulated at an Open Meeting, duly announced.

The Board has been aware of this new law since October but has been pushing for passage of the revised CC&Rs and Bylaws by using methods which were outlawed on July 1. At that time, the new amendments will also be outdated. So why the rush?

Cancer relay is Oct. 7, 8

Calling all cancer survivors: Come join in a cancer survivors celebration, the 2006 Relay for Life, on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 7 and 8, at Adolfo Camarillo High School.

Relay for Life is a 24-hour community event to raise funds for the fight against cancer and to raise awareness of cancer detection, treatment and survival.

If you are a cancer survivor, the American Cancer Society wants to honor you in a Survivors Lap on Saturday, Oct. 7, at 10 a.m. Come to the Survivors Tent at 9 a.m. for light refreshments and to check in. There is no cost.

Anyone interested in taking part should call the American Cancer Society's Oxnard office at 983-8864, press 3.

Once-simple task becomes complicated

By Caroline Pratt

Why all this fuss? All we are trying to do is get an important housekeeping task completed so the Association has up-to-date governing documents.

The method of counting CC&R votes has been the same for at least six years. This includes the vote for the second CC&Rs amendment in 2000, when I was Board President and Ethel Ann Pemberton was Board Secretary. It is a procedure for which there was guidance and approval by legal counsel. On completion of the current voting process, new laws will apply for future applicable voting procedures.

There is no secrecy, no illegal actions. The CC&R ballots are being opened and tabulated in the same method used in 2000 when

Ethel Ann was a part of the process. Why try now to attach some illegality to this supervised opening and tabulating of the votes? It is not the same as counting votes for Board candidates, which always has and will continue to involve a large number of Homeowners and will all be done immediately after the voting closes. Why is it so important to keep trying to throw roadblocks in the way of approving the amended CC&Rs?

As of this writing, we need another 300 "Yes" votes to pass the CC&Rs. It is an important document that serves for the betterment of the Association. If you have not yet voted, we need your "Yes" vote now!

— Caroline Pratt is Chair of the Ad Hoc Committee for CC&Rs and By-Laws.

THE GOLDEN YEARS

Better Breathing classes

By Lorraine Comer

The June Gloom has been with us even in Camarillo. We usually have a breeze, but we also have the marine layer. This is good for those walking in the earlier hours of the day. Hope everyone is taking advantage of the great weather and getting some exercise.

Along with spending more time outdoors, allergies are more of a problem with pollens and many more triggers to irritate normal breathing.

Let's get together and discuss how to avoid getting into trouble as all the wonderful plants and trees around Leisure Village start to bloom.

As you know, we discuss improving our breathing patterns so that shortness of breath does not become a problem. Let's get together to practice good breathing techniques so that daily chores become easier to accomplish, leaving more time for fun.

During each of the Better Breathing sessions, we discuss how to conserve energy when doing daily activities, which will allow us to perform many of the things that make life here in Leisure Village so good. Proper breathing techniques will give us the added benefit of making tasks and/or fun times easier to participate in during the day. We discuss any special problem you might have, either with all of those in attendance or privately at the end of the session.

Hope to see all of you looking to improve your everyday life the second Wednesday of the month at 10 a.m. in the Sun Room.

Disney, early TV double feature

By Bob Koster

My father took me to see my very first movie at the age of 3. We saw "Bambi," the Walt Disney film about the fawn who ... well, you know. It's a classic.

I had never seen a movie before and did not entirely understand the process. When the forest fire started to chase cute little animals all over the place, I became very upset and my father had to take me out of the theater. He explained that it was only a story, the characters were not real, and nobody was hurt. That didn't help much for a 3-year-old, and I stayed away from movies for awhile after that. Oh sure, I visited Dad on the set while he was making movies, and all the actors and actresses always came over to be nice to the director's cute little boy, but I don't think I entered another movie theater for quite a few months after that.

Disney had a tremendous effect on audiences, on the cinematic art, and especially on the movie industry in general. He holds the record for having been awarded the greatest number of Oscars, 32. His movies had a great hold on the American public, at least until Warner Brothers came up with Bugs Bunny and his merry crew.

Walt himself won a technical Academy Award for inventing the multiplane camera, with which animation is photographed. Various planes at different distances from the camera can be moved relative to the lens, so that, for instance when someone walks through the woods, the bushes closest to him appear to move the fastest, and the trees farthest away move the slowest, exactly as in real life.

Walt didn't have it easy starting out. After serving as an ambulance driver in World War I, he went to the Art Institute of Kansas City. There he honed his already formidable cartooning skills. He also met Ub Iwerks there, another promising animator.

The two left school to produce a series of animated comedies called "Newman's Laugh-O-Grams." They soon were bankrupt. They caught the next train to Hollywood, however, and there began producing a series of films about a funny little girl, Alice, who walked through a world of animated characters. This was the "Alice" series, and it thrived from about 1923 to about 1927.

Just before folks lost interest in Alice, Walt and Ub began work on a new character called "Oswald, the Lucky Rabbit." This became immensely popular and remained so until 1928. Then Walt discovered that his backers had stolen the rights to Oswald from him. Broke again, he, Ub, his brother, Roy Disney, and Roy's wife, Edna, turned out three quick cartoons based on a doodle Walt had made on the train home after his last financial disaster. This was a mouse he named "Mickey."

The first two cartoons were somewhat pedestrian, and Walt and Ub realized that they were not going to become millionaires based on that. However, Walt decided to gamble and spent their last few dollars adding a soundtrack to the third cartoon, "Steamboat Willie." Walt himself did the voice of Willie, who later became Mickey. Walt's sister-in-law did the inking and painting.

The rest, as they say, is history.

Walt and his company have made literally thousands of short and dozens of feature-length cartoons. The company, which had suffered in the financial doldrums after Walt's death in 1966 at age 65 due to lung cancer (he was a chain smoker), was unable to recover until the reins fell into the confident hands of Michael Eisner. Now a showbiz powerhouse, Disney owns some dozen movie companies, TV stations, a whole network (ABC) and theme parks from Anaheim, Azusa and Cucamonga to Tokyo and Paris.

CONTINUATIONS

The one element that marked Disney cartoons from first to last was a cheerful optimism and limitless humor. The characters always seemed to have a good time doing whatever they were doing, and the good guys always vanquished the bad guys in the end.

We will spend an evening with Walt on July 9. We will see some of his earliest films from the 'Alice' series, some early Oswalds, and go up into the '40s and '50s when his musical short subjects were even then breaking new ground in their combination of classical and popular music, and brilliant visuals to complement. This natural talent for music manifested itself in a series of short cartoons which Disney called the "Silly Symphonies." They delighted audiences the world over for many years.

We'll wander through this treasure trove of animated and semi-animated films, and for an evening appreciate the real art of Walter Elias Disney.

It all starts at 7 p.m. Sunday, July 9, in the AR.

See you at the movies!

Also on July 9, we will have another blast from the past of early television.

Television, as you all know, was invented in the mid-1920s by several people, including Vladimir Zworykin and Ernest F. W. Alexanderson in America, and John L. Baird in England. The first public demonstrations of TV were made in 1925, but the equipment was far too cumbersome and the broadcasts were far too jittery and unreliable to allow for home use at that time.

One of the first public broadcasts occurred in 1927, when AT&T broadcast to TV experimenters in New York a picture of the soon-to-be Republican presidential contender Herbert Hoover. On September 11, 1928, more broadcast tests included a science-fiction drama showing a guided missile attack on New York City. The sound was broadcast by WGY, Schenectady, N.Y., and the picture by W2XAD.

In those days, the best TV screens were 3-by-4-inches, about the size of a postcard. But the picture moved, and that made it exciting!

It should be noted that the first feature-length movie, "The Jazz Singer," had premiered a year earlier, on October 6, 1927.

Not long after, in 1934, radio was saturated with talent and non-talent of all kinds. TV was still in its infancy, but radio was king. Movie theaters actually shut down their shows so people could listen to "Amos 'n' Andy," so popular were they.

A new source of talent was needed. This was supplied by Major Bowes, who started the first "Amateur Hour." Many talented folks began their careers under Major Bowes' kindly mentoring, and later also under Ted Mack, who had been a director for Major Bowes and knew the drill very thoroughly. Major Bowes was strictly a radio personality. He passed away in 1946. In 1948, ABC Radio and Dumont Television decided to revive the show with its erstwhile director, Ted Mack, as emcee.

Variety is the spice of life on Channel 25

By Ben Perry

One of the pleasures of living in Leisure Village is our Channel 25, which has made every effort to keep our residents informed of coming events, what the various clubs and committees are doing and important information relative to the Village.

One facet of Channel 25 has been the beautiful music that it emanates 24 hours a day and seven days a week with the hope that it would give you some sort of listening pleasure. We have tried to give you a full spectrum of music that we have experienced during our lives. Although there may be some type of music I may not like, I know there are many of the residents that would enjoy it, so we have to include everything that I feel would be acceptable to some folks.

What I have not included for our listening is today's rap, heavy metal and rock, which I feel is not music but is instead uncontrollable noise.

We have been having trouble with some of our equipment causing a break-off of the music from time to time. I'm sure that everyone has noticed that. So, when that happens and we become aware of the situation, I would run down to our Channel 25 studio and reset the equipment.

Well, I am happy to inform our residents that this situation has been corrected. Channel 25 has just purchased a new carousel with the capability of holding 300 CDs. You may wonder what that means.

We now have the capability of playing between 4,000 and 5,000 different musical arrangements that are going all day long. I don't know of any radio stations in our country that can give you this variety of music without commercials.

In passing, may I bring to your attention that if you have any CDs that you think would be good listening and would like to contribute to Channel 25, please do so.

Music from various Hollywood or Broadway stage shows would be highly enjoyable. Just bring it to Channel 25 or to Susan at the Recreation Center and have it made to my attention, Ben Perry.

THINGS TO KNOW

Symptoms of a stroke

Submitted by Rick Deeley

My friend sent this to me and encouraged me to spread the word. I agreed. If everyone can remember something this simple, we could save some folks. Seriously, please read:

During a barbecue, a friend stumbled and took a little fall. They offered to call paramedics, but she assured everyone that she was fine, that she had just tripped over a brick because of her new shoes. They got her cleaned up and got her a new plate of food. While she appeared a bit shaken up, she went about enjoying herself the rest of the afternoon.

Her husband called later saying that his wife had been taken to the hospital and passed away. She had suffered a stroke at the barbecue.

Had they known how to identify the signs of a stroke, perhaps the woman would be with us today.

A neurologist says that if he can get to a stroke victim within three hours, he can totally reverse the effects of a stroke — totally. He said the trick was having a stroke recognized, diagnosed and then getting the patient medically cared for within three hours, which is tough.

Here's how to recognize a stroke. Thank God for the sense to remember the three steps. Read and learn!

Sometimes symptoms of a stroke are difficult to identify. Unfortunately, the lack of awareness spells disaster. The stroke victim may suffer severe brain damage when people nearby fail to recognize the symptoms of a stroke.

Now doctors say a bystander can recognize a stroke by asking three simple questions:

- S: Ask the individual to smile.
- T: Ask the person to talk, to speak in a complete sentence, coherently. For example, "It is sunny out today."
- R: Ask the person to raise both arms.

Another sign of a stroke is this: Ask the person to stick out their tongue. If the tongue is crooked, if it goes to one side or the other, that is also an indication of a stroke.

If the person has trouble with any one of these tasks, call 911 immediately and describe the symptoms to the dispatcher.

Preparing for a quake? Don't forget aftershocks

By Joe Foraker

Past studies of earthquakes have made it possible to predict a pattern of seismic activities that will inevitably follow the main shock. Unfortunately, the foreshocks, main shock, and aftershocks probably won't be properly sorted out until the series of seismic events have ended.

The California Office of Emergency Services issues an aftershock alert almost immediately after all significant shakers. There's always the possibility that the first tremor felt was a precursor, or pre-shock. Earthquake alerts usually remain in effect for up to 72 hours after the initial shock.

The Landers/Big Bear earthquakes provided an interesting example. On June 28, 1992 at about 5 a.m., the magnitude 7.0 Landers earthquake awakened nearly everyone in Southern California and thousands more in western Arizona and southern Nevada. Tall buildings swayed at places as distant as Boise, Idaho, and Albuquerque, New Mexico. Water splashed out of suburban swimming pools in Denver.

The surface rupture began near Landers and in less than 30 seconds ruptured 42 miles northwestward through the Mojave Desert. Aftershocks began almost immediately, but the strongest one, a magnitude 6.7 temblor near Big Bear Lake, rattled most of Southern California a few minutes after 8 a.m. In this event, most area residents became believers of the value of earthquake alerts.

California's most devastating seismic event, the 5 a.m. April 18, 1906, earthquake, triggered unusual phenomena on nearly 700 miles of the San Andreas Fault. A strong pre-shock awakened most residents, but less than a minute later, the main magnitude 8.0-plus earthquake ripped more than 250 miles of the fault, with horizontal displacement of more than 27 feet in some areas. About 16 hours later a strong earthquake struck near Brawley in Imperial County. Every building in or near Brawley was severely damaged or destroyed. Seismologists believe that this magnitude 6.7 quake was an aftershock, even though it struck nearly 500 miles from the initial shock.

Five days later the opposite end of the San Andreas Fault still delivered another damaging shock. This quake's epicenter was near Ferndale in Humboldt County, about 200 miles north of San Francisco. This estimated magnitude 6.4 temblor was felt over most of Oregon.

In 1935, Helena, Montana, was hit sharply by earthquakes that tormented the area for 19 days in October. Heavy damage was sustained because the shocks occurred almost directly beneath Helena. The first foreshock occurred on October 12. Damage included toppled chimneys, broken plaster and cracked windows. A second foreshock struck on October 15, causing cracks in school house walls. Officials wisely closed schools until the nearly constant seismic activity ended.

The first of two main shocks struck on October 19, causing the collapse of school buildings and extensive damage in the business area. Two people were killed and hundreds were injured. The last damaging aftershock, almost as powerful as the main temblors, hit on October 31 and two more people were killed.

ODDS AND ENDS

Gilchrists celebrate 70 years together

By Joyce Belcher

Leisure Village residents Charles and Jeanette Gilchrist celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary at a surprise party given by their daughter and son-in-law, Joyce and Leonard Belcher.

The event was held Sunday afternoon, July 2, in the Recreation Center's Assembly Room and was attended by family and friends of the honored couple.

Dinner was catered by Ottavio's Restaurant and music was by Mr. O (Fred Olivas). All had a wonderful time.

Jeanette M. Miller married Charles Gilchrist in New Jersey on July 5, 1936. They had six children: Daniel W. Gilchrist (deceased), Jeanette A. Gilchrist of Oxnard, A. Joyce Belcher of Leisure Village, Ronald C. Gilchrist of Simi Valley, Thomas A. Gilchrist of Branchville, Fla., and Bernadette T. Philip of Newton, N.J. They also have nine grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Charles worked for the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad in Union City, N.J., for 35 years. He also was a circulation manager for the Paterson Morning Call newspaper in Paterson, N.J. They moved to Tarzana in 1967. They owned a donut shop and later a cleaners.

Charles worked as a salesman at Community

Chevrolet in Burbank and then at Jack Wall Chevrolet in Pasadena. They traveled many places during their long and happy life together, but being the gamblers they are, their favorite place is Las Vegas.

In 1979 the happy couple moved to Leisure Village. Charles and Jeanette have enjoyed bowling, golfing, poker, Pan and bingo. They have lived here for 27 years and hope to be here for many more.

Mourn passing of Common Sense

Today we mourn the passing of a beloved old friend, Common Sense, who has been with us for many years. No one knows for sure how old he was, since his birth records were long ago lost in bureaucratic red tape.

He will be remembered as having cultivated such valuable lessons as knowing when to come in out of the rain, why the early bird gets the worm, life isn't always fair, and maybe it was my fault.

Common Sense lived by simple, sound financial policies (don't spend more than you earn) and reliable parenting strategies (adults, not children, are in charge).

His health began to deteriorate rapidly after hearing reports of a 6-year-old boy charged with sexual harassment for kissing a classmate and teens suspended from school for using mouthwash after lunch. A teacher fired for reprimanding an unruly student only worsened his condition.

Common Sense lost ground when parents attacked teachers for doing the job they themselves failed to do in disciplining their unruly children.

It declined even further when schools were required to get parental consent to administer sun lotion or a sticky plaster to a student, but could not inform the parents when a student became pregnant and wanted to have an abortion.

Common Sense lost the will to live as the Ten Commandments became contraband; churches became businesses; and criminals received better treatment than their victims.

Common Sense took a beating when you couldn't defend yourself from a burglar in your own home and the burglar could sue you for assault.

Common Sense finally gave up the will to live after a woman failed to realize that a steaming cup of coffee was hot. She spilled a little in her lap and was promptly awarded a huge settlement.

Common Sense was preceded in death by his parents, Truth and Trust; his wife, Discretion; his daughter, Responsibility; and his son, Reason.

He is survived by three stepbrothers: I Know My Rights, Someone Else is to Blame, and I'm A Victim.

Not many attended his funeral because so few realized he was gone.

If you still remember him, pass this on. If not, join the majority and do nothing.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

OK, Judge, what would you say?

An old farmer named Clyde had an accident.

In court, the trucking company's fancy lawyer was questioning Clyde.

"Didn't you say at the scene of the accident, 'I'm fine?'" asked the lawyer.

Clyde responded, "Well, I'll tell you what happened. I had just loaded my favorite mule, Bessie, into the...."

"I didn't ask for any details," the lawyer interrupted. "Just answer the question. Did you not say, at the scene of the accident, 'I'm fine?'"

Clyde said, "Well, I had just got Bessie into the trailer and was driving down the road...."

The lawyer interrupted again and said, "Judge, I am trying to establish the fact that at the scene of the accident, this man told the Highway Patrolman on the scene that he was just fine. Now, several weeks after the accident, he is trying to sue my client. I believe he is a fraud. Please tell him to simply answer the question."

By this time, the judge was fairly interested in Clyde's answer and said to the lawyer, "I'd like to hear what he has to say about his favorite mule, Bessie."

Clyde thanked the Judge and proceeded, "Well, as I was sayin', I had just loaded Bessie, my favorite mule, into the trailer and was drivin' her down the highway when this huge semi ran the stop sign and smacked my truck right in the side. I was thrown into one ditch and Bessie was thrown into the other. I was hurtin' real bad and didn't want to move. However, I could hear ol' Bessie moanin' and groanin'. I knew she was in terrible shape just by her groans.

"Real soon a Highway Patrolman came on the scene. He could hear Bessie moanin' and groanin', too. So, he went over to her. After he looked at her, he took out his gun and shot her between the eyes. Then the Patrolman came across the road, gun in hand, looked at me, and said, 'How are YOU feeling?'" on a team called the Royal Strikers. He presently carries a 136-game average. Ron has also participated in bowling at the Special Olympics, where he has won eight gold medals. How do you like that achievement? Wow! He also has an impressive collection of medals and trophies from various bowling tournaments. He's just too good!

"Now what would you say?"

His major interest in sports is, of course, bowling. He wants to learn to play paddle tennis, and that is on his list of things to do in the near future.

He's also learning to play pool and is being coached regularly by a Villager.

Ron doesn't watch a lot of TV, but when he does, he likes to watch bowling and softball. His interest in music is songs of the 1940s and '50s, including doo-wop. He loves organ music.

Ron's favorite foods are stuffed peppers, both apple and pumpkin pies and ice cream. He states he could eat out every day. He loves picnics.

He is a volunteer in many clubs, including Showtyme, the New York Club, the Womens Club, the Players Guild, the Sing-a-Long Group, the Keyboard Club, the Saturday Night Dance Party and others when he is called upon to help out. He states he is most involved with clubs where his mother has contributing activities.

Ron's mother is Ann Steigerwald, the Queen Mother of the Red "Hat" Chili Peppers, a lovely lady whose singing voice is both beautiful and captivating.

Ron leaves the Village daily, with his mother, to attend various events such as the Camarillo Community Center dances and to attend a social club called Happy Friends, which meets twice a month and has many parties for their members. In the future, he hopes to go to Disneyland, Sea World and Las Vegas, where he loves to play the slots.

On a daily basis, he walks every morning to the businesses just outside the main gate and stops in every store or office just to greet the owners, employees or guests with a friendly "Good Morning."

He remains a busy man. This best-kept secret "Service Man" is not so secret anymore. You now know a lot about him. Just say hello to him, and he'll return your salutation.

And, he states he "loves to see people happy!"

Health Q&A for fun

Q: I've heard that cardiovascular exercise can prolong life. Is this true?

A: Your heart is only good for so many beats. That's it. So don't waste them on exercise. Everything wears out eventually. Speeding up your heart will not make you live longer. That's like saying you can extend the life of your car by driving it faster. Want to live longer? Take a nap.

Q: Should I cut down on meat and eat more fruits and vegetables?

A: You must grasp logistical efficiencies. What does a cow eat? Hay and corn. And what are these? Vegetables. So a steak is nothing more than an efficient mechanism of delivering vegetables to your system. Need grain?

Eat chicken. Beef is also a good source of field grass (green leafy vegetable.) And a pork chop can give you 100 percent of your recommended daily allowance of vegetable products.

Q: Should I reduce my alcohol intake?

A: No, not at all. Wine is made from fruit. Brandy is distilled wine. That means they take the water out of the fruity bit so you get even more of the goodness that way. Beer is also made out of grain. Bottoms up!

Q: How can I calculate my body/fat ratio?

A: Well, if you have a body and you have fat, your ratio is one to one. If you have two bodies, your ratio is two to one, etc.

TIP OF THE MONTH

As we get older, we all need to keep up our level of exercise. Here is an exercise suggested for seniors, to build muscle strength in the arms and shoulders. Just don't overdo it.

Begin by standing on a comfortable surface, where you have plenty of room at each side.

With a five-pound potato sack in each hand, extend your arms straight out from your sides, and hold them there as long as you can.

Try to reach a full minute, then relax.

Each day, you'll find that you can hold this position for just a bit longer.

After a couple of weeks, move up to 10-pound potato sacks. Then 50-pound potato sacks, and eventually try to get to where you can lift a 100-pound potato sack in each hand and hold your arms straight for more than a full minute.

After you feel confident at that level, put a potato in each of the sacks.

Summer Health Tips from the American Red Cross

- Apply sunscreen with at least a SPF-15 or higher, to all exposed skin. Minimize your exposure to the sun between the hours of 10:00 am and 4:00 pm. Reapply sunscreen every two hours, even on cloudy days and when swimming.
- Wear clothing that covers your body and shades your face -- long sleeves, pants, hats, and sunglasses.
- Drink large amounts of water regularly to prevent heat stroke and in most cases heat stroke comes on suddenly.

Summer Travel Gas Saving Tips from the US Environmental Protection Agency

- Remove Excess Weight - By carrying an extra 100 lbs. it can increase fuel consumption. Remove roof racks and items on the roof to avoid extra weight.
- Avoid Idling - If you anticipate a lengthy wait, turn off the engine. Idling uses more gas than restarting the engine.
- Drive Smoothly - You can save up to 33% in gas by driving smoothly. Avoid quick or rapid acceleration.
- Using Higher Gears - When on the freeway make sure you shift to the highest gear possible.
- Close Your Windows At High Speed - This will also prevent wind resistance.
- Regular Maintenance - Wheel alignments and tires properly inflated. Tune-ups improve performance as well as gas mileage.

Annual Picnic: Do not forget the date Sunday, August 6. This year it will be an old-fashioned catered picnic with grilled hot dogs and hamburgers. It will be held at the picnic grounds. It is for members only. The tickets are $10 each. Tickets will be available at the July meeting, or call Eileen at 388-0618 or Leatrice at 388-6440.

The Big Apple Dinner Dance was magnificent. Kudos to Rose and Mannie Abbate and their committee. It is going to be very difficult to top this dinner. Everything was wonderful.

The program for July 6 will feature two very talented entertainers. Italya Ferro will be singing the beautiful songs that we all can relate to. She will be accompanied on the piano by John Rodby, who also sings and will act as M.C. They are a great team. Please do not miss this performance.

The Travel Committee has planned a great trip for September 12 and 13. It's lunch and a show at the Lawrence Welk Resort. Stay overnight at the Pechanga Resort and a visit to the Callaway Winery the next day. For information, please call Irene at 388-7089, Irv at 384-9153, Selma at 383-2817 or Marilyn at 482-6446.

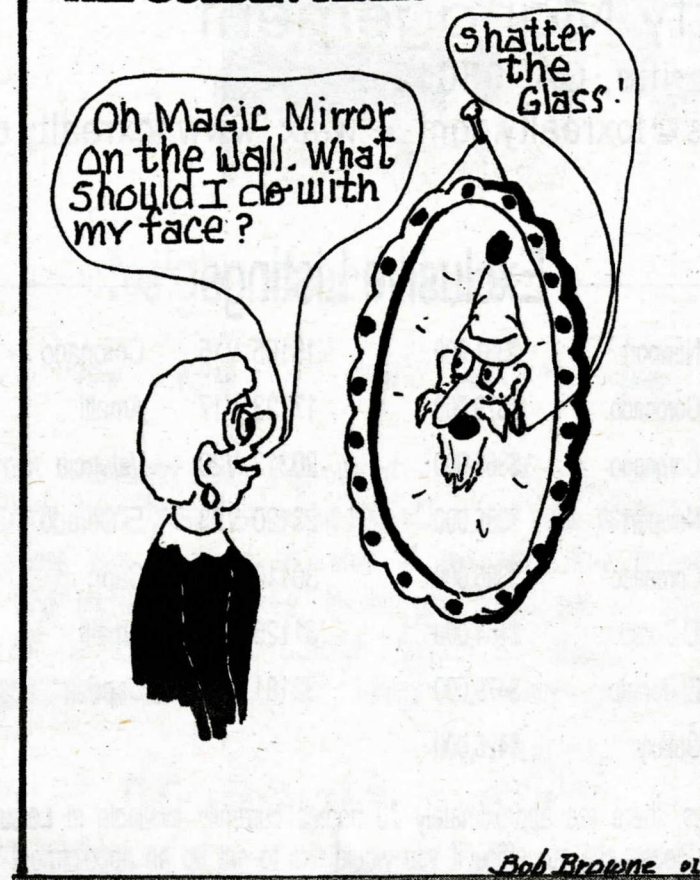

If you haven't paid your club dues, please do so. They are only $5 for the period January 1 to December 31. Your dues help the club put on the great entertainment that we continually enjoy. It also permits attendance at members-only events.

Women's Club

By Eldora Barton and JoAnn Burens

The Women's Club has recently been commended by two county entities for donations made in 2005.

The Ventura County Board of Supervisors presented a certificate to recognize a $500 donation to assist in the county program for caring for abused and neglected children, and our Board received from the Ventura County Fire Department a commendation for a $1,000 donation to the Fire Department's holiday toy drive.

The Women's Club will have no general meeting in July, taking one month off for vacations and such.

However, the Workshop group will continue to meet in July on Tuesdays in the MPR at 9 a.m.

At the June meeting, we had a high old time listening and clapping to the Old Time Fiddlers and their classic country music.

Get ready in August for that favorite activity, bingo. Come see us in the AR at

L.V. Mens Golf Association

By Mannie Abbate

The next monthly meeting of the LVMGA will be Tuesday, July 11, at 2 p.m., with social time starting at 1:30 p.m. Come to the 1st Tee about 7:30 and have continental breakfast with us.

The slate of officers elected at the April meeting took office at the Annual Installation and Awards Luncheon on June 21. They will serve from July 1, 2006, to June 30, 2007. There were 59 monetary awards presented for the major tournaments and the Most Improved Golfer Certificates were presented.

This time we had a catered luncheon that really was a dinner. Jack Kirkland outdid himself with a gala swan song as he completed his term as the 2nd Vice President.

Ernie Ohmstedt and Mannie Abbate were given the task of securing door prizes. There were many more valuable prizes than in the past because the Board made some of the club funds available to purchase items beyond the donations from the various vendors and courses that support us. In addition to several rounds of golf awarded, there were golf lessons and gift certificates, ending with a grand prize of a complete set of Jack Nicklaus golf clubs, including a signature golf bag. As of this writing, the winner is still unknown, but if he is left-handed, he will have to convert.

On July 27, we play regulation golf at Buenaventura Golf Course, and on August 24, we play at Cam Springs Golf Course. Tell your golfing friends that do not belong to our club about the special events the LVMGA presents during the year and invite them to join our club and share in the many benefits they are missing.

The best way for members to keep up with the various events available to club members is to come to the monthly meetings, check the bulletin boards at the course and to watch Channel 25.

Oh, my mistake! My thanks goes to Bea Berger for helping to make the Pizza Party so perfect!

There will be no News & Views on the Fourth of July, but do remember to bring your articles, etc., on August 1. But I'm a little ahead of myself.

Although the new Camarillo Library won't be ready until the fall, we are lucky to have Bruce Feng, Assistant City Manager of Camarillo, come and speak to us about this great addition to our community. He'll be in the MPR at 7 p.m. July 11.

Academy Award winner Phillip Seymour Hoffman will star in "Capote" on July 18 in our very own Annex at 7 p.m. Don't miss this great movie!

And on July 25, our game players will again gather in the Annex for Manipulation.

It's time for our Annual Picnic. This year, it will take place on August 8 in the Barbecue Area. We also supply drinks, snacks, prizes and entertainment. Reservations are a must. Call Sharon at 389-6834. Cost is $12 for members and $14 for guests.

Call for your FREE Policy Appraisal if you:

- Have a policy with a face value of $100,000.00 or more.
- No longer want - or can afford - your policy.
- You can greatly enhance charitable contributions.

Do you know the fair market value of your life insurance policy? You should - because more than 20% of all senior (age 65 or older) life policies are worth many times more than the cash surrender value.

In a recent case, a 77-year-old man had his policy appraised for $740,000.00 - four times its cash surrender value!

That's why you're urged to get your policy appraised. It's quick and easy. There's no risk or obligation.

Best of all, it's FREE.

The National Association of Insurance Commissioners estimates that in 1996 nearly $1.5 trillion face amount of life insurance policies expired, lapsed or was cancelled by policyholders*.

At our last meeting, we were very pleased to have Josette Wingo, a former Navy WAVE, who helped train sailors and man guns on transport ships. Bocce Ball

There is no meeting this month.

L.V. Exercise Group

By Milt Mankoff

June 23 marked the annual gala picnic of the Leisure Village Exercise Group. A catered dinner, games and many prizes were enjoyed by those attending. President Shiprah Mailer and all the volunteer helpers did their usual fine job in putting it all together.

This is just one in a number of social events planned each year. Now the group looks forward to the always popular Halloween Potluck Dinner Party in October. The good food and scary costumes make this an outstanding event each year.

Many new residents have discovered the LV Exercise Group and its friendly atmosphere.

Exercises are held Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 9 a.m. at the Pool Pavilion. Volunteer leaders conduct each session so that newcomers can properly learn the various body movements and obtain the maximum benefit. This program was developed by physical therapy specialists with senior adults in mind. Periodic review assures its continued effectiveness.

Annual dues are $4, and all residents are welcome. It's a good reason to get up each morning, so "start your day the exercise way."

Ceramics Plus

By Martin Ettinger

Our May meeting was a well-attended show-and-tell. A variety of completed ceramic works were displayed by Helen Caruth, Gil Chuck, Marty Ettinger, Al Pachter, Irma Shapiro, Gertrude Stern and Aurelie Zachary.

The "Plus" in our Ceramic Plus Club is the Origami Group. The meeting came to a great finish by Louise Waln, demonstrating her group's intriguing Origami items.

At our June meeting, we were fortunate in having Irma Shapiro demonstrate her Kachina figures.

Writers Club

By Josette Wingo

Mondays are sometimes dreary, but not so for the members of the Writers Club, which meets every Monday in the Sun Room at 1 p.m.

Beginning writers, novelists, grandparents, jokesters, those who remember the days gone by in Oxnard and Los Angeles, travelers and family historians all bring an endless fascinating array of subjects to the table. We are not a class, listing rules that cripple creativity. We are not a critique group, endlessly pursuing errant commas. We come together to listen to each other or to hear our own words out of the desk drawer at last, or even to encourage a new work.

Come by the Sun Room any Monday at 1 p.m. and listen. We welcome everybody.

Saturday Night Dance

By Milan Weiss

The Memorial Day Saturday Night Dance Party may have been the best yet! There was more of everything: more couples dancing, more music of the '50s and '60s, and if you think the SNDP group can't Rock & Roll, you should have seen them! Wyatt Haupt "amped" up his group, and the dancers really went to town! It was spectacular and this group loved it!

Even the decor was changed, lighted by the Stars and Stripes, to celebrate Memorial Day. This bit of electrical showmanship was designed and put up by the joint efforts of Art Thomson and Bill Foeller.

And, for the first time at the SNDP, a Sadie Hawkins Day tradition where a lady asks a gentleman to dance was introduced. And, those who asked, danced. It worked! If this suggestion, which was made by Mannie Abbate, remains popular, it will no doubt be repeated at future dances.

There was more. A dual birthday was celebrated. Ernie Ohmstedt and Mannie Abbate each had a birthday and celebrated it on this day. After a rousing "Happy Birthday" song a delicious slice of cake was enjoyed by all.

Birthday" was sung to Cathy Busch, who was enjoying the evening with her husband Pat and with two of their seven children, Michael Busch from Fairfax, W.V., and Linda Busch from Fairview Heights, Ill.

If you think the action stops here, it doesn't. Sometimes these evenings provide enough entertainment to last until the following Saturday.

You didn't have to exert your eyes too much to see that two of Rose Abbate's sisters were there — Clare Dordon from Cape Coral, Fla., and Bridgit Muradian from West Covina — and they lit up the dance floor.

Frank Stanisci, also from Cape Coral, who regularly partners in dance with Clare, performed some award-winning dance routines. They were very impressive doing "The Pea-body." Wow! Truly a sight to behold! And Bridgit, who has attended many Leisure Village dances, also danced with Frank, and she really likes to step out. Another wow! It was a double treat!

All of them, dancing for their own enjoyment and willing to dance for you. Now that's entertainment!

Here is the Saturday Night Dance Party schedule for July: July 8, Tunes R Us; July 15, Jerry Dokken; July 22, Music by Choice; July 29, Moore Music. All dances are $5 per person. All dates are Saturday nights. All dances start at 7:30 p.m.

Remember, every Saturday night (there are occasional exceptions) come to the AR SNDP. Grab your spouse, grab a friend or two, a neighbor, a family member or anyone you know who might like to glide over the dance floor with you. Everyone is always welcome. Punch, coffee, ice, cups and popcorn are provided. But remember to BYOB if you please. Come to have a good time, and it will happen!

Village Painters

By Aurelie Zachary

The theme of our June 7 meeting was "Show and Tell." We delighted in the stories by each participant of the items they chose. Participants were: Bob Bond, Bea Metzler, Aurelie Zachary, Marge Curry, Lindy Stein, Gwen Zimring, Naja Kim, Margaret Buxkemper, Lorraine Corner, Rea Williams, and Sylvia Wachter.

On May 8, at our Art Workshop in the Lanai Room, we bid Ruthella King a fond farewell with tea and cake. Ruthella moved to Solvang, where she lives in an apartment in the Lutheran Home Assistant Living. Please see CLUB NEWS on 28

Billiard Club

By Jack Quinn

Once again, the Leisure Village Billiard Club Picnic in the Park on June 11, catered by Jessica's Café, was a huge success. Fun and games started at noon, and the catered dinner of tri-tip, chicken, barbecued beans, cole slaw and homemade cookies was at 1 p.m. as planned.

Jessica's Café is relatively new in the catering business, but they acted like pros. Jessica's restaurant is located in Camarillo at the corner of Mobil and Pickwick across from the Post Office. For those that have not been to their restaurant, try the breakfast there. However, my favorite is the fish and chips they serve on Friday evenings.

The Billiard Club will not have meetings in the months of July and August. However, a straight 8-ball tournament is scheduled for the end of August. Please watch Channel 25 for updates on this exciting event. Sign-up sheets will be posted in the Billiard Room two weeks prior to this tournament.

Have a safe and fun-filled summer.

Keyboard Club

By Anne Shane

Attention! Are you one who enjoys music? Boy! If you weren't at our concert on June 2, you really missed something. Ask anyone who was there. Our President was told that we have just set a new standard of entertainment for the Village.

We had seven young musicians who set the audience on its ear. Longtimers or new move-ins, we invite you to bring your family, friends, and neighbors to our July 28 meeting, where you will enjoy music provided by artists who play classical, jazz and popular music on the organ, electronic keyboard and piano — plus a newcomer: fantastic sax, clarinet, flute and piano.

What do you play? All instruments are welcome. Contact Jules Nayfack at 388-2196. Our meeting is at 1:30 p.m. in the AR the last Friday of the month.

Sing-a-long Group

By Jules Nayfack

Hey! Want to have some fun? Come to the sing-a-long! Our attendance is growing, and we are very happy to see new people coming in to our sing sessions. We have three different books of songs, so we are not always singing the same songs.

If you like to sing, great. If you don't want to sing but just want to have fun, this is the place. Whether you are a new move-in or longtime resident, you are all welcome. So are your friends, family and neighbors. Please wear your I.D. badge so we all get to know each other.

Our next two meetings are Monday, July 10, and July 31. Socializing and music starts at 7 p.m. Singing and fun starts at 7:30 p.m. in the AR.

Racquet Club

By Anne Wolfson

The Racquet Club meets the second Wednesday of the month in the Multi-Purpose Room at 7:30 p.m. All Villagers are invited to come to play tennis, paddle tennis and table tennis, and to come to our lively meetings!

please get your dues in now! Our treasurer, Kay Bell, will be glad to take your checks or cash.

A truck driver was driving along on the freeway. A sign comes up that reads, "Low Bridge Ahead." Before he knows it, the bridge is right ahead of him and he gets stuck under the bridge. Cars are backed up for miles.

Finally, a police car comes up. The cop gets out of his car and walks around to the truck driver, puts his hands on his hips, and says, "Got stuck, huh?"

The truck driver says, "No, I was delivering this bridge and ran out of gas."

Selling real estate is simple, but it is almost never easy. Having an open mind and never looking at two transactions the same is critical for me. Everyday is a learning process for any Realtor because the real estate world changes constantly. Ask a Realtor when was the last time C.A.R. updated or change a policy? What are the interest rates today? How about market trends in your area? See my point? I enjoy this occupation of being a Realtor, because I found the ingredients of a specialized professional early in my career. Knowledge. Experience. Confidence.

I have had so many opportunities to meet new people, I had the privilege to represent new home Buyers and also to demonstrate my experience with Sellers who felt it necessary to be in good hands before hiring a Realtor to sell their home. I like to assist my friends who are also Realtors. These experiences can be priceless. I know because I work in the trenches everyday with everyone from the Clients to the Realtors to the Professional services we choose in all our transactions.

I look forward to meeting you. I look forward to satisfying your real estate needs. I look forward to hearing you say thank you!
