Mr. John Francis Weylan,
Crocker First National Bank Bldg.,
San Francisco, California

Attantion: Mr. John D. Costello

Dear Sir,-

In connection with the protest of duties charged on two shipments recently consigned to Mr. Hearst, we hand you herewith the following papers,-

Shipment of 25 cases of Lamps from F. Romanelli, Florence:-

1. Shipper's declaration.
2. Consular invoice.
3. Shipper's original invoice.
4. American Express Co. Notice of Protest.
5. American Express Company's protest.
6. American Express Company's invoice for additional duty.

Shipment of 39 cases of Lamps from M. Montani, Florence:-

1. Shipper's invoice.
2. Consular's invoice.
3. Shipper's declaration.

The latter shipment was entered by Mattoon & Co., and we are informed by them that they protested the duty as assessed by the appraisers.

If there is any assistance we can give you in this matter please advise.

Very truly yours,

Julia Morgan
