

Reminder: AOL will never ask you to send us your password or credit card number in an email. This message has been scanned for known viruses.

From: Mediumbrowngirl
To: Mediumbrowngirl
Subject: Fwd: HBC 2 notes
Date: Tue, 11 Apr 2006 1:58:38 PM Eastern Daylight Time

Attached Message

From: Lynn Weingarten <lweingarten@alloyentertainment.com>
To: mediumbrowngirl@aol.com
Subject: RE: HBC 2 notes
Date: Fri, 7 Apr 2006 14:35:57 -0400

Hi Michele!

Glad you're on board with all this. You can go ahead and get started writing the chapter outline definitely...(but should hold off on starting the actual BOOK until we all agree on the outline....)

xo!
Lynn

-----Original Message-----

From: mediumbrowngirl@aol.com [mailto:mediumbrowngirl@aol.com]
Sent: Friday, April 07, 2006 12:37 PM
To: lweingarten@alloyentertainment.com
Subject: Re: HBC 2 notes

-----Original Message-----

From: Lynn Weingarten <lweingarten@alloyentertainment.com>
To: Mediumbrowngirl@aol.com <Mediumbrowngirl@aol.com>
Sent: Fri, 7 Apr 2006 11:50:14 -0400
Subject: HBC 2 notes

Hi Michele,

Thanks for your hard work so far on this next book. We're very excited about this! Overall this plot is quite good. It's time to go forward to a chapter-by-chapter outline, keeping these notes/questions in mind.

1. What exactly is the relationship between Dee Dee and Raquel? It'd be fun if there was some teasing that went on between them. They ARE friends and they care about each other, but they're very different as people. They should make fun of each other a little bit, even though they love each other deep down.

Yes!

2. What does Evie learn at the end of this story? What is the conclusion of the Guillermo story and her Alex story? Evie needs to learn that her actions have consequences. She needs to do something to redeem herself to the readers.

Okay...will work on this.

3. At the end of the story can she get a license plate AND a saddle? Also, how does she end up earning her party?

about how diff. they are.