

First Annual Home-Coming Banquet, California Polytechnic School, November 15, 1924

ALUMNI OFFICERS

President, Frank Murphy '14
Vice-President, Leslie Davis '18
Secretary-Treasurer, John Perozzi '12
Press Correspondent, Alta Mayhall '23

We welcome you, alumni,
We're glad you're here to-night.
Your presence on our campus
Makes all things seem just right!
We one and all sincerely hope
You'll come back every year
To see the school, to meet new folk
And greet each other here.
Poly was born in nineteen three
And this is twenty-four;
Twenty-one good years of usefulness,
May she have many more!
Why should we now Home-Comings plan?
Our answer's short, but sage.
It's "Wisdom grows with growing years
And Poly's come of age."

SCHOOL SONG

Hail Polytechnic, allegiance most royal,
We pledge, Alma Mater, to thine
and to thee,
Dame Fortune may threaten but still we are loyal,
Ere long she'll learn her error and her smiles we'll see.

Chorus

So hail Polytechnic, allegiance
most royal
We pledge Alma Mater, to thine
and to thee,
Thy green and gold standard in triumph we'll carry,
And spread the fame of thy dear
name by victory.

OUR SCHOOL SONG

Come all ye jolly students,
Come join our merry throng.
There's no place like our Poly,
So come along.
She is our Alma Mater;
She trains both head and hand;
So here's to you, Old Poly,
For you we stand.

Chorus

Our colors, green and orange,
We proudly will display,
Nor let dishonor mar them,
In life's rough way.
And when school days are over,
Our love will not grow less;
We ever will remember
C. P. S.
Beneath Old Bishop's shadow,
Our campus stretches fair;
'Tis bathed both morn and evening,
In beauty rare.
And all our girls are loyal,
And all our boys are true;
So here's to you, Old Poly,
Yes, here's to you.

(Chorus)
