EMERGENCY SERVICES ORGANIZATION DISCUSSES DISASTER PREPAREDNESS

By Elmer Eymann Deputy Manager of Resident Resources

The L.V. Emergency Services Organization Advisory Council met with representatives of the City of Camarillo and the Temjam Corporation on Wed. March 13, 1985. Mr. Jerry Bankston, asistant City Manager represented the City of Camarillo. The Temjam Corporation is a consulting firm whose services have been contracted by the City of Camarillo to develop an emergency plan for the City. Mr. Terence P. Haney and Eu-R. Streich, gene specialists in disaster planning and earthquake preparedness presented a program which summarized the major disaster events which could threaten the City of Camarillo and specifically, residents of L.V.

Utilizing all data available in forecasting earthquakes, the San Andreas fault has a 50 percent probability of producing a high magnitude earthquake in Southern California during the next 30 years. While it is 28 miles to the nearest point of the fault, severe shaking would be felt in Camarillo. Good news for residents of L.V. is that all construction is one-story and meets the new earthquake building code. We would not expect substantial structural damage. However, breaking glass and tumbling contents (china closets, cabinets, heavy pictures, etc.)

SENIOR LEGISLATURE ELECTION

By Rube Davis

Election of Legislators On Monday, April 15 at to the California Senior Legislature was held on March 12 and 13. Joe Gaynes of L.V. and Lee Strobehn of Ojai were reelected as Assemblymen. Also, Tony Lamb of Newbury Park, running unopposed, was re-elected to the State Senate.

Voting was open to all registered voters who are more than 60 years of age. Polling took place at the Camarillo Community Center and Leisure Village.

The Senior Legislature meets once a year to discuss statewide issues and legislation affecting seniors. Their recommendations are then submitted to the appropriate committees of the State Legislature for consideration.

L.V. contributed the largest number of votes in Ventura County. Credit for this showing, according to Rube Davis, Poll Manager, is due to the excellent coverage provided by Channel 12 and to Inside Leisure Village for publicizing the work of the incumbents and encouraging all residents to vote.

OPINION

CRITICISM MAY NOT ALWAYS BE BAD

The right to criticize is not only a privilege, but may be an obligation.

Sometimes it seems that we villagers have an inordinate number of complaints. We complain about anything and everything. We even complain about complaints. Criticism of things that cannot be helped is counter-productive, only sapping the spirit of the criticized.

On the other hand, being able to voice dissension aloud is the very essence of democracy. Any suppression of public complaint nurtures dictatorship and fosters anarchy. Our forefathers who constructed the Constitution understood this and guaranteed our right to protest. The right to disagree publicly, freely and unafraid, is the very keystone of democracy.

With this in mind, it then becomes obvious that it is the quality of the complaint that becomes important. Angry ravings can serve little purpose, for they can seldom be convincing.

On the other hand, a well thought-out, objective criticism delivered to the right place at an appropriate time can be extremely valuable.

Therefore it becomes not only a right, but actually a duty for an alert citizen who disagrees, or sees where an improvement can be made, to exercise his right of dissent and make it known in a dispassionate, considered appeal for change.

In a small self-governed community such as Leisure Village, this is especially true. We have many experienced, alert minds here. Their constructive criticism, carefully given in the right spirit can be most helpful.

Is anybody listening?

LETTERS

VILLAGE MANAGEMENT

There have been recent letters in these columns complaining about the actions of certain department heads, the inability to see our Gen. Mgr. Roberts, etc., etc. While I am opposed to censorship in these columns of anything other than religion, race, or political activism I believe there is a better way for Villagers to express their ideas other than these published complaints because the Department Heads have no recourse for rebuttal, nor would they dignify these attacks by doing so.

After eight years in the Village there has never been, in my opinion, a better General Manager nor Department Heads than we have at present. Skip Roberts runs a tight ship. If we continue to snipe at these people we will lose them because the job isn't friends and neighbors for worth the hassle. It is costly and time consuming to break in new department heads. It takes at least six months for them to get the feel and past history of the Village. There is a mistaken idea among some Villagers that we, the residents, are their bosses. It is true that our monthly fee does cover their salaries but not by the wildest dream should be consider that they answer to us as individuals, whether they be the mowing crew, department head, or the General Manager. Our Village is a corporation, with a Board of Directors that we elect.

The Board may very well have decided, in view of meeting a tight budget and the expense of heating the pools, even during the coldest days, that the temperature should be decreased. It is not written in stone that it has to be any certain temperature. The statement that some Villagers are dirty is true. It is impossible to keep any pool clean when people do not shower, or go back into the pools after lathering with sun tan oils, etc. If you doubt this statement, go see for yourself. At times the water is covered with oil and scum and the outdoor shower is seldom used.

This letter is not a criticism of those people writing their opinion but merely suggesting how to get results by using patience, consideration for busy people, and just common courtesy. ..... .. I suggest that people bring complaints to the appropriate committee. If the Committee and Chairmen feel the complaint is justified, that Chairman will bring the matter to the attention of the Board of Directors and the General Manager at their monthly meetings.

My wife Hazel suffered an acute angina attack at three o'clock in the morning of February 13th. Excellent care at the Pleasant valley Hospital contributed to her slow but sure recovery. Thank you for your prayers, cards, calls and visits. Having worked for Security, Frank had many friends here and loved the Village. Life without him will be very difficult, but I shall always feel grateful to be living here and having such wonderful friends and neighbors.

Thanking you in print seems inadequate for the overflow of love and good wishes that I received before and after, my recent surgery. My recovery is now complete, and leaves no doubt that your sentiments played its big role therein.

Residing in Leisure Village the past five years has been like a fine romance — the courtship between friends and neighbors runs the gamut of caring in all areas of happenings.

I look forward to greeting each one of you in person very soon.

could cause substantial injuries to residents. Prudent planning requires self-sufficiency for 72 hours without outside aid. This means living with no own food, water, sanitation and medical aid for three days.

Another concern with high priority of the City of Camarillo is generating a plan for orderly evacuation of a portion or all residents of L.V. in the event of a toxic spill on Rte. 101 or Santa Rosa Road. In the near future the L.V. Security Administration will meet with the Camarillo Police to work out a plan by which an emergency evacuation procedure can be established.

The L.V. Emergency Services Organization is accepting emergency worker volunteers in all categories. Complete a City of Camarillo Emergency Service Worker card available at the Recreation Office to receive an official identification card.

He also opened several successful businesses of his own, and devoted 1,000 hours to training in C.P.R. He spent seven years as a Red Cross Volunteer in teaching and practicing this skill.

As the years went by, Mary had two careers in appliance sales for Sears and Penney's. During the sixties, Viet Nam erupted, and Mike, despite commercial successes, felt he had to leave and head for the action, this time on the aircraft carrier, Kula Gulf which was ferrying helicopters to Nam. (He can't account for the fact that he missed getting involved in Korea.)

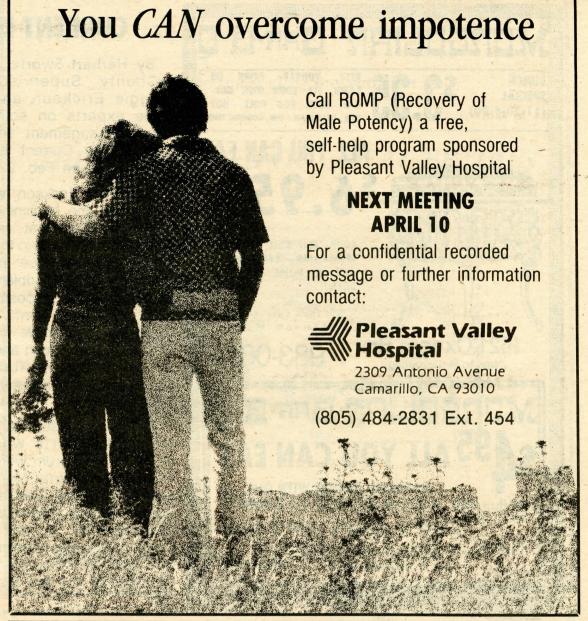

By retirement time, Leisure Village looked good to Mary and Mike. She continued to work and commuted for a while and he joined the Security Staff. Every Security man was to learn C.P.R. and Mike also taught many classes for Villagers. He said that there are two or three hundred people liv-

Mike is looking forward to resuming his C.P.R. classes very soon. C.P.R. is so valuable, requires no equipment, does not take a lot of strength, and can make all the difference while other help is on the way in any illness or incident. Watch "The Voice" and "I.L.V." for announcements of the instruction. Mike says everyone should learn C.P.R.

And everyone says somebody should write a whole book about Mike.

CURRENT ISSUES FORUM

By Herbert Swartz

County Supervisor Maggie Erickson and three experts on solid waste management addressed the Current Issues Forum on Feb. 22.

Supervisor Erickson remarked at the beginning of the meeting that we should be interested in the subject because we all contribute to the problem of solid waste disposal. Each resident of Ventura County is responsible for a ton of waste a year, and the total for Ventura County is approximately 700,000 tons.

The solid waste management experts who spoke to the Forum were Tom Berg, County Manager of Solid Waste; Wayne Bruce, General Manager of Ventura County Sanitation District, and David M. Long, Environmentalist for the District

The Villagers were told that there is some recycling of solid waste, but that 90% is disposed of in three landfills in Ventura County. The speakers explained that more can be done about recycling, but that conversion of solid waste to energy is now too expensive.

In the short run, a new landfill is needed for West Ventura county. There are two sites being considered near Ojai, but permits are needed from many agencies. There is a question of access — the problem is known as "NIMBY" (not in my back yard).

In summarizing, Supervisor Erickson said that there must be an agreement on new landfill. Who should run it — public or private operators? Each City Council will have to make a decision. We must look at it both economically and environmentally.

"Separation of Church and State — Is the Wall Crumbling?" is the topic to be discussed at the Mon., April 22 meeting of the Current Issues forum in the AR at 7:30 p.m.

LEISURE VILLAGE WOMEN'S CLUB

By Eva Divin

Just as Women's Club members took their seats on March 7, sixteen young ladies in blue trooped into the AR. Called "The Entertainers", they are Camarillo High School students, who, directed and accompanied on piano by Bruce Colell, presented a delightful medley of songs, both choral and solo; new and nostalgic. Their novel renditions, accompanied by syncopated steps and arm gestures were charming, and too soon, they hurried back to their classes, taking with them our warm thanks.

Following the financial report, Bazaar Chairman, Dorothy Fencl, displayed models of workshop items, a basketful of tiny lovable cloth kittens, the creation of Alice McMahon. Grace Lane, meanis making handsome purses of varimade and presented a beautiful doll for a miniraffle.

Workshop is in operation each Tuesday morning from 9:30 to 11:00 in the MPR. A call is out for help from other talented members, in order to insure a lavish inventory of wares for the Bazaar.

Meanwhile the Trading Post reported another great sales day, despite the reduction of the sales crew by two, due to illness. Chairman Kay La Prell was cited as Saleslady of the month. She and Workshopper Frances Donahue each was presented with an African violet.

Membership Chairman, Betty Walker announced that membership has grown to 307! President Jeanne was delighted to announce that two of those members, Beverly Peck and Lillian Ballonoff, have come forward to fill the club's need for a refreshment committee.

ous sizes. Dorothy Kelly They have our appreciation.

Projecting ahead to the May meeting, Program Chairman, Eleanor Evans has scheduled a style show, featuring fashions by Ladi Bug. The president has tantalized members with a promise of "two surprises, besides". Meanwhile, don't miss the April 4 meeting, which is Salad Luncheon Day -12:00 noon in the AR. Bring a salad for 6 and your own china and silverware. Rolls, coffee and tea will be provided. As you enjoy your luncheon with friends, enjoy also a parade of vintage hats, brought out from closets and attics and modeled by members. This is a time for glancing back to earlier eras, and perhaps wondering whatever caused us to give them up.

On meeting days, stop and examine the greeting cards displayed for sale: a scene of our own West Gate, designed by artist Helen Nash.

armacy offers drug consultations

By JOHN THOMAS rillo Daily News staff

Camarillo Pharmacist Paul Dwork has opened Charter Oak Pharmacy, 2460 Ponderoas Drive North, Suite A-104, with a brand new approach to the practice of pharma-

Instead of restricting his business to filling prescriptions, Dwork said his new practice will emphasize personal consultations with customers and patients. The consultations will include discussions of the benefits and side effects of various drugs that doctors have prescribed.

"People just don't seem to realize how important it is to take drugs properly," Dwork said, "so I've established a practice of consulting with patients to cover thoroughly every drug they take and how to get maximum effectiveness from it.

'I'm also providing nutritional and skin care quidance in connection with the use of various drugs," he Dwork owned of Pharm Reprint 19 Feb. 24, 1985 Camarillo Daily News Tee I took the approach to dispensing drugs," he said, "But here at Charter Oak, we're taking this unique, entirely new approach. I've been open about one month now, and the response of clients and their doctors and many pharmaceutical manufacturers I've worked with has been fantastic. I'm extremely pleased with the response, and believe our service will prove to be a tremendous benefit to the community.'

Dwork said during a typical consultation, he will discuss how the proper combination of drug therapy, good nutrition, the avoidance of alcohol (if necessary), or the use of supplemental vitamin dramatically improve the desired results.

"For example," Dwork said, "a young girl who's having trouble with acne also wants to wear makeup. Instead of using any makeup and closing up her skin pores, we can usually work out a method of treating the acne and finding a makeup that won't cause her any trouble. We can also put medication into makeup, if that is appropriate.

"All of this, of course, is done in full consultation with the patient's physician," he added. He said that customers often don't realize that drugs should not be mixed nor that a certain drug's effectiveness can be either reduced or enhanced depending on what foods are eaten.

Dwork said he is also establishing a reference center at the pharmacy with information on numerous illnesses and the steps taken in their treatment. He said he also welcomes calls from the public about drugs and their possible effects.

'People need not give their names if they don't want to," he said, "it's more important that they have some good, reliable information than for me to have their name.'

Dwork stressed that he is not a medical doctor and does not attempt to drift into that role.

'My field is drugs, and knowing how they should be taken, and definitely how they can be taken better."

Josh Fallick, V.13 is really enjoying himself these days. He is visiting different schools and teaching the kids about Haiku (Japanese) poetry. He shows slides, plays tapes and sometimes plays Oriental music. The kids just love it because it is something entirely new to them. They often send him letters, with the teacher's help, asking him to please come back again. You know, many of our villagers visit the schools and encourage the students to follow certain fields. In today's times especially, I think this is a wonderful service and our people deserve lots of credit. Stand up and take a bow, all of you.

VILLAGE SWINGERS SQUARE DANCE

By Al Siegel

The Swingers enjoyed the special events planned for February, and want to thank Lou and Midge Dektor, the Activities Chairpeople, for a job well done. The February 12 dance, designated as a Sweetheart Dance/Ice Cream Social, was highlighted by everyone bringing their wedding picture or one of that era.

Also in February, were two Jackpot dances and club visitations to outside clubs.

March was active with two Jackpot dances, a Hat Dance on the 5th, a St. Patrick's Day Dance, and a guest caller dance with David Mee calling.

The Spring Fling, our 11th annual anniversary dance on April 21, is taking shape in all departments and it looks like this will be our biggest and best yet.

All Swingers are urged to be where the action is! You'll have a great time at weekly club dances with Jon Hed doing a super job, and everyone reaping the benefits of all the activities being planned in your behalf.

The Garden Club is beginning to burst at the seams. Why? More and more villagers are finding out about the interesting programs presented at the meetings to help with their plants and gardens.

Join us on Thursday, April 11, at 9:30 a.m. in the W.C.R.

The Art of "Sand Painting" will be demonstrated by Ann Wolfson. This is done by putting colored sand, a teaspoonful at a time, in a glass container.

The African Violet is a favorite in many homes. To have profusely blooming plants, there are a few tricks. We will have the opportunity to learn the proper amount of light, water and food needed to have beautiful violets.

The desert in the Lancaster area will be the destination for our April outing.

People are busy making plans for our extravaganza, "The Floral Tea", on Thursday, May 16. Tickets will be $3.00 each. Watch for further information.

THE CERAMIC CLUB

By Don Holmes

Irma Shapiro hosted the Ceramic Club at her home in Village 28 for the February meeting, where she had on display a large part of her extensive ceramic and papier mache' collection. She had made many of the items herself, but most had been collected on her travels and during her long career as a ceramist. She knew the history of each piece; who made it and when; and where and when she had acquired it. Where a piece had been constructed by the artist using an unusual method, she explained it; and where that method could not be used in our ceramic shop, she explained why.

The March meeting will be on the 28th at 10:30 in the MCR, where Irma will demonstrate the use of "press molds", which are

VARIETY GUILD

By Amy Puro

The February 14 Valentine meeting of the Variety Guild was a sweetheart of a meeting. President, Renee Greene, hostessed with her own delicious baked cheescake hearts. and the Hospitality Committee augmented these goodies with an array of heart-shaped cookies and coffee.

The program was devoted primarily to tryouts for the forthcoming summer production of "A Salute To Entertainment.' Members were invited to stay and observe; or participate. There will be many opportunities for members to assist in various departments, such as props and costuming.

GEM AND MINERAL CLUB

By Don Holmes

At the March meeting of the Gem and Mineral Club, Bill Marshall of Village 15 told about opals: the various kinds, where they are found, and their relative values. It was interesting to learn that opals are opals because they contain water; some nearly ten percent. Because of this they are sensitive to heat and rough handling, and sometimes will crack for no apparent reason.

The April meeting will be on Wednesday, April 24, when Dorothy Lyman of Village 20 will "show and tell" about her rock (stone) paintings.

Watch Channel 12 for announcements of upcoming field trips. Dorothy Levy is making plans for Jalama Beach, for the Lancaster Gem Show and nearby flower fields,

Orchestral Society

By Betty Murray

Now that Director Arthur Kates is regaining strength after his illness last year, the Orchestra is preparing with renewed enthusiasm for the next concert, scheduled on June 2.

There is a constant need to find musicians to fill every section of the orchestra. Members take vacations, or develop unpredictable problems associated with the mature nature of our group. Therefore, it is paramount that new, strong, vigorous people be recruited to fill the musical roster.

The orchestra as a group has matured, so the calibre of musical achievement has risen, and now can attract professional level musicians who previously scorned playing with "amateurs".

However, this should not deter people who have not played their instruments for many years, because parts are arranged for every level of ability.

"Tex" Kates with a group of violinists and a string bass made a cameo appearance in the Chorale's presentation "All About Love" on March Rehearsals continue at 7:30 p.m. on Monday evenings at 41055 V.41. Please call Maestro Kates at 484-9975 for further information. Don Holmes is Assistant Conductor, 482-

CALIFORNIA SENIOR LEGISLATURE

By Joe Gaynes

This week has brought two banner headlines to California and all of the United States. Governor George Deukmejian has provided strong support to upgrade the Camarillo State Hospital and California's Mental Health Program. Both the inpatient and outpatient services will be expanded.

The second action by the Governor is to fulfill his promise to the Senior Legislature, made last October, to pass the Nursing Home Bills when put into acceptable form. This all took place and now California will move forward raising the level of action to a quality long overdue.

May I remind those of you about to complete Dahl has specific data your State Income Tax to make a contribution on the State form, line 89, for Senior Services much needed.

There's nothing more memorable about childhood than a baby's first words, especially if it's your grandchild speaking.

And because so many things in childhood happen only once, make sure you, don't miss a single word — or question. If you don't always hear all of the lovely things the children you love want to share with you, it may be time to have your hearing tested professionally. With today's many medical and technical advances, there's probably no reason for you to miss a word - or giggle.

BOOK REVIEW GROUP

By Jeanne Carlson

The March meeting of Book Review was very educational. Persons attending learned two foolproof (?) ways to commit murder. In addition they also learned about some interesting new chillerthrillers. The books reviewed were William Kinzle's "Shadow of Death"; "The Novena Murder" written by a teaching Sister (formerly in Oxnard parochial schools) about a new super-sleuth, Sister Mary Helen, who is also a retired teaching nun, and Tony Hillerman's newest "Ghost-Watch" which features his Navajo policeman, Jim Chee. The last two books are being presented to our Rental Library.

April's meeting will include another writer of mysteries, Dashiell Ham- in the WCR.

LIBRARY

By Janine J. Blymyer

The Village Rental Library had its official Grand Opening, Monday morning February 25. Some seventy-five Villagers enjoyed donuts, cookies, cake, Hawaiian Punch, and admired the shelves built by George Mustaparta and Carl Sparks.

Large print books will be available in the near future. Also, there are some beautiful books published by the Heritage Club for sale for $5.00 each; the list of the available books is posted in the library.

会会 公立 会 Meet "NewAmerican" Elsie Yarbrough, M.D.

on't mention the word, "retirement" to Dr. Elsie Yarbrough, even though she's a Leisure Village resident, and many of her neighbors are retired. "I'm not retired now, and I doubt if I ever will be ... even when I'm old enough," she says emphatically.

In Dr. Yarbrough's case, "not retired" is the understatement of the year. She's on the staff of Camarillo State Hospital, treating a group of around 100 autistic children. "It's so tragic," she says, "because they're unable to tell you where it hurts. It takes all the patience and experience I acquired in my 30 years of private practice." She's also involved in a research project to test the effects of a new drug in treating autism.

As if that isn't enough to keep her busy, she's also working with her Apple computer to catalog her several thousand volume library...or you might find her buried in one of her 200 cookbooks prior to whipping up a delicacy for a visiting son, daughter, or grandchild...or she may be off training at Los Alamitos where she's known as Colonel Elsie Yarbrough of the California State Military Reserve...or possibly attending. a meeting of Appleholics Anonymous.

If this sounds like a description of Wonder Woman, her family agrees. They recently presented her with a plaque that reads, "Wonder Woman Lives Here."

A Chicagoan by birth, but a Californian most of her life, Dr. Yarbrough received her M.D. from Marquette University in 1940, the only woman in her graduating class. She maintained honor roll status, even though she worked nights and weekends as a medical librarian. Soon after, she married John Yarbrough, also a physician. John was an OB/Gyn and

Elsie a pediatrician, a relationship that allowed them to practice together and serve families on a long-term basis. "It was a beautiful relationship," she reminisces, "and our patients loved the unique care we could offer."

The Yarbroughs, their children and foster children lived in a rambling Encino estate. "We usually had 11 or so at the table," she says. "We kept chickens, grew vegetables, and even raised a steer every year. We also raised and exhibited Tennessee walking horses." Since hunting was John's first love, Elsie became an accomplished deer and bird hunter. They remained in private practice until John's retirement in 1976, at which time Elsie joined the Los Angeles City School system.

In 1978 she accepted her present position at Camarillo State Hospital. And when John passed away, Elsie moved to Leisure Village, where she's delighted by the friendliness of her neighbors and the safety of the community. "I only wish I had the time to participate more in village activities," she sighs.

When looking for a place to handle her savings, she relied on her neighbors for advice. "They told me NewAmerica Savings always pays very high interest, and that since they are locally-headquartered, they would bend over backwards to be accommodating...no 'home office' policies from afar to worry about Well, I checked them out carefully, and met members of the staff, including the president. I liked them, and that's where my money is now."
