Student Assistants: Michael Browning, Luis Gonzalez, Janeen Hill, Kristi Knutson, Tim Murphy, Jason Pommier and Vianey Vasquez.

PRESS ROOM: Room 162 in the eastern wing of the gymnasium serves as the press room for Titan basketball. Three telephones are available approximately 10 minutes after the final buzzer.

PRESS TABLES: Primary beat reporters and broadcasters will be located on the south side of the playing floor, around the scorer's tables. Auxiliary media seating and scout seating will be available at tables along the base lines.

GAME SUMMARIES: Will be collated and distributed in Room 162 of the gymnasium building. Halftime box scores, play-by-play accounts and final box scores will be provided.

PRESS/PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Will be issued on a per game basis only. Requests should be made as far in advance as possible. "Visiting" media may make their requests through their respective "home" SIDs. Photo credentials must be worn in plain sight at all times. Photographers may shoot only from the designated areas behind both baselines.

PARKING: On Monday through Thursday evenings, parking is available by: a) Using Lot A at State College and Yorba Linda Boulevards and paying $1.50 upon entry for a daily permit, or: b) Obtaining a complimentary pass upon presentation of news credential to the Visitors Information Booth located on the south side of campus, northwest of the intersection of Commonwealth and Nutwood Avenues. At other times, ample free parking is available in Lot B, immediately west of the gymnasium.

FAX/TELECOPIER: One FAX machine will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

BROADCAST SPACE: One table is allocated to each team's designated commercial radio station. Each holds three persons comfortably across the working counter with one cramped seating space available to the rear.

TELEPHONES: There is one telephone at the press table -- (714) 773-3970 -- which must be kept free for messages, out-of-town scores, etc. Additional telephones CANNOT be installed at the press table due to the physical limitations of the building. Please call if you have special telephone needs.

LOCKER ROOMS: Located off the hallway on the north side of the playing floor. John Sneed will conduct his post-game interviews in the equipment manager's office just outside the Fullerton players' locker room, which is closed to the media. Players will be brought to the office area upon request after a reasonable cooling-off period.

SCOUTS: Requests should be made at least one week in advance. Seating is very limited.

The University

California State University, Fullerton is a broadly based liberal arts institution that also offers many professional studies such as business administration, education, engineering and nursing. The main campus is located in Fullerton and a Mission Viejo campus was opened in August, 1989. The latter offers only upper-division and graduate courses.

Classes were offered at Fullerton for the first time in 1959 and the first commencement — for five students — took place in 1960.

The University's 25,000 students come primarily from Southern California with many from other states and nations. Most students commute each day to and from classes, although nearly 400 now live on campus in residence halls opened in 1988.

Drawn from throughout the world, the 775-member faculty is noted for its commitment to effective teaching and scholarly activity. Research is actively pursued, typically with students involved.

The University is fully accredited and enjoys national recognition for both its array of traditional academic programs and a growing list of independently accredited professional programs, including art, athletics training, business, chemistry, communications, computer science, dance, education, engineering, music, nursing, public administration, speech and hearing and theater. All told, there are 86 degree programs — 41 of them at the graduate level — plus a wide variety of credential and certificate programs.

Reinforcing classroom instruction is an internship and cooperative education program that allows students to gain on-the-job experience while continuing their regular studies.

Another amenity is the extended education program. It provides classes, workshops, conferences and study tours without the formalities of regular admission to the University.

Still another strong point is the University's cultural events program. It includes a series that brings nationally known professional artists to the campus for residencies as well as public performances.

An extensive recreation program aimed chiefly at students, but also open to community members, is another highlight, as is the network of community support groups, including the Titan Athletic Foundation.

Further examples of community outreach are the Ruby Gerontology Center, which serves as an educational and research facility for the study of aging and a meeting place for the Continuing Learning Experience support group.

Through a series of joint ventures started in 1979 with the establishment of the Fullerton Arboretum and continuing with the 1989 opening of the Marriott Hotel, the University and the City of Fullerton are working to complete an on-campus sports complex in 1992. Already in use are two lighted softball fields. When the main part of the sports complex is finished, it will include a stadium for football, soccer and other activities plus a pavilion for baseball.

To reinforce the University's commitment to high academic standards and community services, Cal State conducts comprehensive fundraising. Its purpose is to raise the necessary non-state funding to make a very good university a great university.

Administration

Dr. Milton A. Gordon, President

Dr. Milton A. Gordon was selected the fourth president of Cal State Fullerton by The California State University Board of Trustees on May 15, 1990. He assumed his duties on Aug. 6. He replaced Dr. Jewel Plummer Cobb, who had served since 1981.

Gordon previously had served as Vice President for Academic Affairs at Sonoma State University in Rohnert Park in Northern California.

"Dr. Gordon has a superb academic and administrative background," said Marianthi Lansdale, CSU board chair. "I'm certain that Fullerton will continue to flourish under his able leadership. We offer him our warmest congratulations."

Prior to his Sonoma appointment where he also held the rank of professor of mathematics, Gordon was dean of Chicago State University's college of arts and sciences for more than eight years. An associate professor of mathematics at Loyola University of Chicago from 1966-77, Gordon also directed that institution's Afro-American studies program. He also taught at the Illinois Institute of Technology, the University of Detroit and in the Chicago Public School System.

Gordon has a Ph.D. in mathematics from the Illinois Institute of Technology, an M.A. in mathematics from the University of Detroit and a B.A. in mathematics and secondary education from Xavier University of Louisiana.

Athletics Department

Ed Carroll, Director of Athletics

The rapid climb of Ed Carroll through the ranks of the Cal State Fullerton athletics department culminated in his appointment as Director of Athletics on July 1, 1985.

Former University President Dr. Jewel Plummer Cobb made the announcement on May 28, 1985, after a nationwide search and Carroll, now 40, immediately ushered in an era of "positive thinking" for Titan athletics.

"One of my priorities has been to enhance the image of our athletics program by stressing positives," says Carroll. "We must use the power of positive thinking to overcome our limitations and build our program to greater heights."

One of Carroll's first moves was to upgrade the football schedule. The Titans have played LSU, Florida, West Virginia and Auburn in recent seasons and have a date with Georgia next year and Syracuse and Temple in the near future. With the new stadium complex now under construction, Carroll has signed Mississippi State, Colorado State, Texas Tech, UTEP and Army to home-and-home series.

Carroll scored his first hiring coup when he was able to replace Augie Garrido with equally successful Larry Cochell as the baseball coach for 1988. Cochell took the Titans to the College World Series twice in three seasons and was selected national Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball in 1988. When Cochell left for Oklahoma last summer, Garrido was rehired away from the University of Illinois.

The long-awaited Sports Complex will provide a playing facility for football, soccer and baseball as well as an all-weather track. An on-campus Marriott Hotel opened in October, 1989, and the revenue it generates will help finance the $10.7 million athletics project.

Fund-raising levels have reached record numbers during Carroll's tenure. The Titan Athletic Foundation's 1990 spring drive raised more than $414,000.

Carroll began his Fullerton athletic career as a wrestler. In 1972, he served as captain and was selected the "Most Outstanding Wrestler" in the California Collegiate Athletic Association championship meet. He later served as an assistant to former head coach Don Matson.

Carroll earned bachelor's degrees in history (1972) and physical education (1974) from Fullerton as well as a secondary teaching credential. He taught physical education classes at Fullerton and earned a master's degree in recreation administration from Long Beach State.

After serving in various capacities in the Fullerton recreation department, Carroll left briefly in mid-1980 to serve as a recreational sports programmer and doctoral intern at Indiana University. He returned to Fullerton in November, 1980, as an assistant athletics director and later served as acting director of the Titan Athletic Foundation. He then served under athletics director Lynn Eilefson, who left in January, 1985. Carroll and Utah State's Rod Tueller now rank as the "deans" of athletics directors in the Big West Conference.

Ed and his wife Connie live in Fullerton with young children Brandon and Kimberly.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The athletics department wishes to acknowledge the support of the CSUF Associated Students, Inc.; the Instructionally Related Activity (IRA) Committee and the CSUF student body they represent. Their support is critical to the success of the Titans' Division I-A program.

Titan Athletic Foundation

Walt Bowman, Executive Director

The Titan Athletic Foundation, or the T.A.F. as it is usually called, is a non-profit volunteer organization established solely for the purpose of generating financial and other support for the Cal State Fullerton athletics department.

Membership is open to everyone and the current rolls include not only alumni, faculty, staff and students but also a great many friends of the university, area businesses and respected community leaders.

Gifts received by the T.A.F. are used to provide a quality education for deserving student-athletes. Because the state of California is forbidden to allocate funds for the purpose of scholarships, the fund-raising efforts of the TAF are critical to the success of the entire athletics department. Gate receipts, road game guarantees and television income are insufficient to cover the full range of needs facing a quality and competitive intercollegiate athletics program on the Division I level.

The Spring, 1990 fund drive directed by Brian Fairley and Henry Tran was very productive with more than $414,000 in cash pledged for 1990-91 scholarship aid.

All inquiries should be directed to: Titan Athletic Foundation, California State University, Box 34080, Fullerton, CA 92634-9480, or by calling (714) 773-3480.

Past presidents have included Kevin Forth, Ken Henderson, Don Karcher, Buck Johns, Pierre Nicolas, Larry Slagle, Jim Woods, Bud Steffen, Den Hood, Don Outlaw and Kevin Forth.

Walt Bowman assumed the role of executive director in April, 1989, after serving more than nine years as athletics director at Chapman College in Orange. While also serving as Associate Athletics Director for Development, Bowman oversees all external affairs of the athletics department including marketing and public relations.

Nickname and Mascot

“What exactly is a Titan?”

“Why do you have an elephant for your mascot?”

Those are two of the first questions that pop into the minds of media and fans when a Cal State Fullerton athletic team makes its inaugural visit. While the relatively young institution carved out of the Orange County citrus groves may be too new for many traditions, here are the recognized legends.

“It was the students’ decision in a vote,” explains Dr. Ernest Becker, founding Dean of Students, of the nickname ‘Titans.’ “More than a hundred names were suggested, and the Student Council took on the job of narrowing the list down to a few for the purposes of an election. The vote was close, with Titans narrowly prevailing over Aardvarks and Rebels.”

It was a unique student body at the outset, all upper division students until 1963. There were 453 of them, mostly female, in 1959, the first year of classes at what was then known as Orange County State College. They voted to organize as a student body and to assess themselves a fee of $10 per semester.

“Even when it was decided that ‘Titans’ would be the nickname, there was confusion as to what it represented,” said Becker. “I was thinking of a large mythological figure from Greek history, not unlike Tommy Trojan, but with perhaps straighter, more modern lines. In the same vein, the original dormitories were named Othrys Hall. There were others, however, who related the name to the Titan missile then in prominence.”

Nothing official was done about a mascot because no one knew quite what to do. Until, of course, the “First Intercollegiate Elephant Race in Human History.”

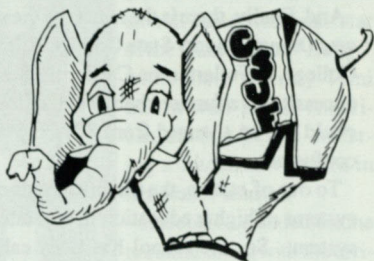

What began as a practical joke turned into probably the biggest “happening” on the campus to this day. The “gag” attracted elephants from universities around the nation and even Oxford from England. A crowd estimated at more than 10,000 people turned out on “Dumbo Downs” as the hastily graded field became known that spring afternoon in 1962.

To publicize the event, a circus-like elephant called Tuffy the Titan was used and it began appearing on sweaters and notebook covers around the campus. With no other mascot, the elephant was unofficially adopted. Several revisions in the caricature have been made in recent years to create a more tenacious Tuffy, or Titus as he also was called in an attempt to make him Greek.

The mascot outlived the race. In 1963, one elephant charged the crowd causing minor injuries and an early sign of a now-common liability insurance crisis nipped a tradition in the bud.

The origin of the school colors also bears discussion. The students voted for royal blue and white when they chose Titans, but the athletic equipment manager at the time thought orange was an appropriate color on uniforms for a school known as Orange County State College. The unofficial color was "adopted" and finally was formally acknowledged by the Athletics Council in 1987.

An early Tuffy

The current emblem

When Lynn Eilefson was appointed athletics director in 1982, he furthered the cause of orange because of its uniqueness and brightness compared to the wide variety of blues. Thus, the "Orange Crush" booster group was born and the color remains prominent in most team uniforms.

And, finally, there is the matter of the school's name. As mentioned earlier, the name originally was Orange County State College. It's also been Orange State College and later California State College at Fullerton or California State College, Fullerton. The change to university status necessitated a further change to California State University, Fullerton, but the school's address could not be changed from 800 N. State College Boulevard. And that's only the start of the confusion.

To out-of-staters, the picture clouds quickly because most don't realize there are two distinct systems of higher education in the state — the University of California and the State University system. So, the school has been called everything from Cal-Fullerton to UC Fullerton to California State Fullerton State to simply Fullerton State. The preferred moniker is Cal State Fullerton, with no hyphens or commas, which is what most of the more than 80,000 graduates recognize. But since there are only two other major institutions known as Titans (University of Detroit and Oral Roberts University), just call Fullerton teams the "Titans!"

History of Titan Athletics

Obstacles and adversity. Grass-roots support and coaches with "sandwich board" signs. Stunning upsets and courageous performances. All have been a part of Cal State Fullerton athletics as "Titan Pride" has taken limited resources to athletic successes disproportionate to such a young institution.

How many universities can claim national championships in seven different sports, a star major league third baseman, men and women basketball players in the Olympics, two rookies in the Super Bowl and the subject matter of a Walt Disney feature film?

The tenor was set by the first Titan intercollegiate team - men's basketball. In only their second season, the Titans of coach Alex Omalev advanced five rounds into the NAIA national playoffs in 1961-62.

Sixteen seasons later, the entire nation watched another "cinderella" Titan Five advance to within one victory of the "Final Four" as Bobby Dye's 1977-78 team won the Pacific Coast Athletic Association post-season tournament and then beat nationally ranked New Mexico and USF to gain the finals of the Western Regional.

The basketball tradition, which included a women's national title in 1970 and coach Billie Moore and star Nancy Dunkle on the women's 1976 Olympic team, was continued in 1984 as Leon Wood helped the men to a gold medal before he became a first-round NBA draft choice. Coach George McQuarn's teams were usually factors in the PCAA race and had national Top 20 rankings and a victory over the nation's No. 1-ranked and undefeated team to their credit. Fullerton, which has seemingly specialized in last-second wins under current coach John Sneed, also has competed twice in the post-season NIT Tournament while the women have recently been in both the WNIT and the NCAA fields.

Gymnastics has brought Fullerton more fame. Coach Dick Wolfe won three college division titles (1971, 1972 and 1974) and has had recent teams in the Top Ten at the Division I level while winning 10 PCAA titles in a row. His 1987 squad was ranked No. 1 in the nation led by former Chinese Olympian Li Xiao Ping. Lynn Rogers began the women's program in 1976 and the Titans have finished sixth or better in the nation virtually every year and won the national title in 1979. One-armed Carol Johnston was an All-American and star of the Disney film, "Lefty," while more recently Tami Elliott won 10 All-American awards before suffering a fractured vertebra in her senior season.

Baseball exploded on the national scene with the arrival of coach Augie Garrido. He broke the USC monopoly in the western regionals in 1975 and won the national title in 1979 behind the play of Tim Wallach, now of the Montreal Expos. He won the College World Series again in 1984 with players such as pitcher Greg Mathews of the St. Louis Cardinals and CWS Most Valuable Player John Fishel. The Titans won their first six-team regional and finished third in the CWS in 1988 under the direction of coach Larry Cochell, who in 1990 guided them to a Big West title, a regional championship at Texas and a sixth trip to Omaha. A total of 15 Titan products have gained the major leagues and now Garrido has returned.

Women have sparkled on the Fullerton diamonds, too. Coach Judi Garman founded the softball program in 1980 and the Titans have been a powerhouse, making seven trips to the College World Series in 11 years. The Titans brought home their first NCAA Championship in 1986 and have been ranked No. 1 in the nation often during the past three seasons.

There have been national titles in men's cross country and women's fencing and individual standouts like golfer Martha Wilkerson and runner Mark Covert. But football is the only sport that matches the popularity of men's basketball and the Titans have had their share of success on the gridiron as well.

Dick Coury was the inaugural coach in 1970 and he built an instant winner at the Division II level. The Titans were 27-16-1 over the first four years under Coury and successor Pete Yoder before the growing pains of moving up to Div. I were endured. But the program eventually came of age under the guidance of Gene Murphy, who guided the Titans to two conference championships and four second-place finishes during the 1983-1989 seasons.

Head Coach John Sneed

Third Year

Career & at CSUF: 29-29

Long Beach State '71

John Sneed begins his third year as head coach at Cal State Fullerton where he has gradually placed his personal trademark on the basketball program.

The 1990-91 season will be the first truly "Sneed" season with only two players left on the roster from the George McQuarn era in the person of junior guard Wayne Williams and junior forward Agee Ward. In 1988-89 Sneed carried an "interim" tag around his neck and last year's starting five were all McQuarn recruits.

While posting a .500 record at Fullerton at 29-29, Sneed has picked up the playing pace with more open-court defensive pressure and a less deliberate offense. He has launched a successful "Playmakers" booster group that supports fifth-year scholarships and drastically improved the program's graduation rate. It's been a hectic pace since he was handed the reins in November of 1988 when McQuarn suddenly resigned three weeks before the season opener.

Sneed officially was named head coach on March 11, 1989 when he signed a 3-year contract. The appointment after an open and thorough nationwide search came the day after the conclusion of an "interim" 1988-89 season that saw him bring renewed energy and excitement to Titan basketball.

After three years as an assistant at Arizona and San Diego State and eight years under McQuarn at Fullerton, Sneed was thrust into the head coaching role on Nov. 3, 1988. What he lacked in time was compounded by other shortcomings — no returning starters, a roster of barely 10 healthy players and no chance to hire another assistant coach.

"I told the players that we could hopefully surprise one another and surprise others out there," Sneed recalls. "There were not a lot of expectations for us."

The Titans responded with a thrilling 16-13 season. Picked to finish ninth in the Big West Conference, they tied for fourth and gained the semi-finals of the post-season tournament. They went 8-2 in games decided by 3 points or less and were 5-1 in overtime games including their first win over UNLV in six years. Last year's team, with basically the same personnel, had less good fortune in close games and finished 13-16 including 6-12 to finish seventh in the Big West.

"A lot of people stood behind me that first year in a difficult situation, and I am thankful to them," said Sneed, 42. "The faculty, administration and fans... everyone was very positive and gave me a lot of help. I was fortunate to get the opportunity. A lot of assistants never get that chance."

Sneed has paid his coaching dues. He began at Verbum Dei High School in Los Angeles as an assistant to McQuarn. After two years he succeeded McQuarn and immediately won the 1974 CIF Championship and Coach of the Year honors when he guided the Eagles to a 30-2 record and the mythical national championship by National Sport News Service. He followed that up with two more Camino Real League titles with 28-1 and 23-5 seasons for a three-year prep record of 81-8 (.910).

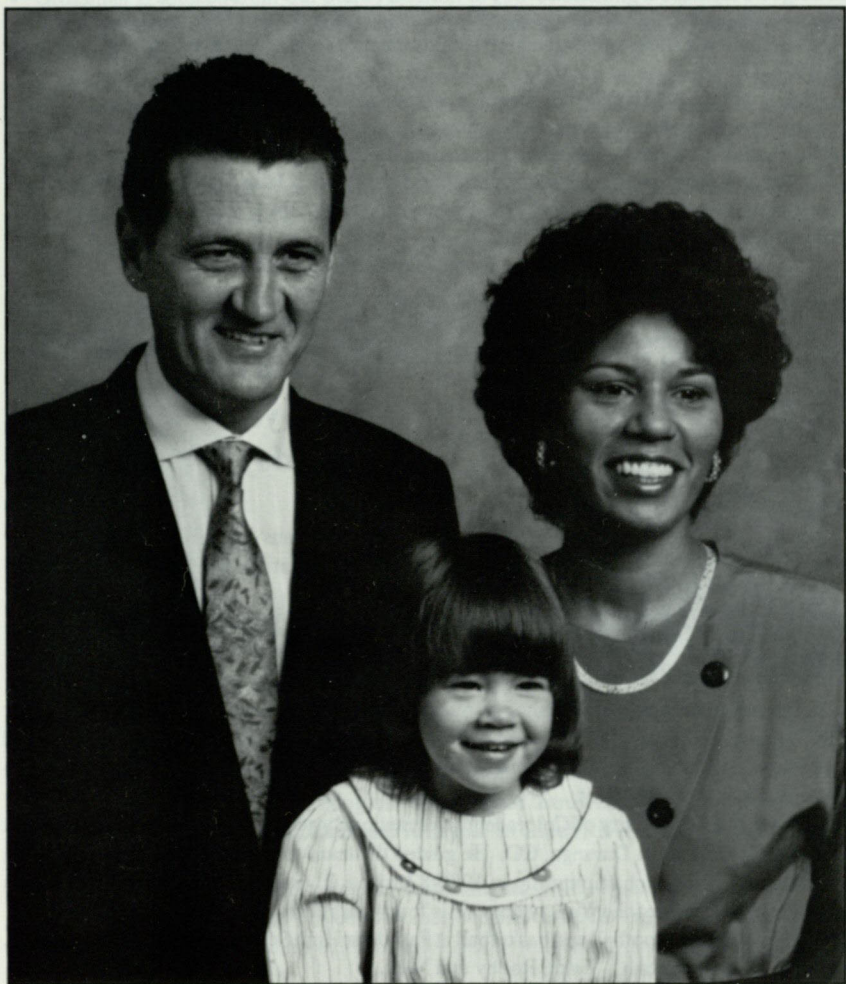

He went to Arizona as an assistant to Fred Snowden for the 1976-77 season which saw the 21-6 Wildcats compete in the NCAA Tournament. He was at San Diego State under Tim Vezie for two years. The 1977-78 Aztecs won the Pacific Coast Athletic Association title but were eliminated in the post-season tournament by Cal State Fullerton.

After 11 years as a college assistant, Sneed has special compassion for the assistant coach and his chances of becoming a head coach.

"The goal I had for a number of years was to be a Division I head coach," he explained. "Sometime you don't get that opportunity, because it's not like a player, who can walk on to show his ability. A coach never has that opportunity.

"One of my priorities is to improve the academic situation at the university," said Sneed. "We have been working very hard at that, to bring about a change in attitude in our athletes and to raise our graduation rate. We're not going to complete that immediately, but we are off to a good start. Full realization of that goal will be over a longer period of time."

Sneed and his wife, Rose, live in Anaheim with 3-year-old daughter Ashley.

Dan Dion Second year St. Mary's ('76)

Dan Dion returns for a second year on the Titans' coaching staff for the 1990-91 season.

Dion, 36, was an assistant to Coach Neil McCarthy for seven years — three at Weber State (1982-83 through 1984-85) and four (1985-86 through 1988-89) at New Mexico State. The Aggies posted a 70-54 record during his tenure and annually were in the top half of the Big West standings. Dion also played for McCarthy at St. Patrick's High School in Vallejo and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Weber State in 1976-77.

Dion was an All-Big Sky Conference selection as a sophomore at Weber State before transferring to St. Mary's, where he was team captain. He served as head coach for five years at St. Patrick's, where he had scored more than 2,000 points in an illustrious prep career.

"Dan is a quality addition to our staff," said head coach John Sneed upon his April 19, 1989 appointment. "I've known Dan for several years. He is a hard worker with great knowledge on and off the floor."

Dan and his wife, Karen, have an 8-year-old daughter, Lindsay.

Bob Hofman First year Colorado ('74)

Bob Hofman joined the Titans' coaching staff in June after a successful run as head coach at Eastern Washington University.

Hofman, 39, took Eastern Washington to within a last-second 3-point shot of last year's NCAA Tournament. The Eagles, who had finished second in the regular season Big Sky Conference standings, lost to Idaho, 65-62, in the finals of the post-season tournament. For his turnaround after combined records of 14-43 the previous two years, Hofman was selected Big Sky Coach of the Year. He resigned his post in May and took a position as Special Assistant to the Vice President.

The former University of Colorado guard previously served four years as head coach at Fort Lewis College in Durango, CO. He guided the team to an inaugural Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference championship in 1986-87 with a 21-6 overall record and 12-2 league mark to win Coach of the Year honors. His four-year record was 68-47.

Hofman played football and basketball at Pasadena High School (1969). He and his wife, Nancy, have three sons -- Luke, Robby and Nick.

David Grossman

Fourth year

Cal State Fullerton ('87)

David Grossman returns to the Titans' basketball program as a part-time assistant after a one-year hiatus. Grossman, 28, served on a volunteer basis during the 1986-87 season and was a graduate assistant during the 1987-88 and 1988-89 campaigns, the first under George McQuarn and the second under John Sneed. When not assisting on the floor, he has been in charge of study hall and film exchange.

Grossman graduated from Cal State Fullerton in 1987, obtaining a bachelor's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports management. He is working on his master's degree in physical education.

A two-year varsity letterman at Emil R. Buchser High School in Santa Clara, Grossman played one season at West Valley Junior College in Saratoga. There he earned an associate arts degree in business administration before matriculating to Concordia College in Portland, Oregon.

A native of Brooklyn, New York, Grossman came to Fullerton to concentrate on academics. He assisted with recruiting and player development at West Valley and his goal is to coach basketball at the collegiate level. Grossman is single and lives in Fullerton.

Academics Coordinator

Alison Cone

Eighth year

Washington State

Alison Cone is in her eighth year at Cal State Fullerton as Academics Coordinator, assisting student-athletes in reaching their academic goals. She organizes the tutorial programs, sets up study halls and conducts advisement sessions with each athlete.

Cone previously served as assistant athletics director and advising and eligibility coordinator at Cal State Dominguez Hills.

A native of Washington, Cone earned her bachelor's degree at Washington State and her teaching certificate at Central Washington. She coached tennis, basketball, track and soccer at Auburn High School and basketball and volleyball at Green River Community College in Washington.

Cone worked on her master's degree at Dominguez Hills, where she also lectured in physical education classes and served as women's tennis coach for the 1982-83 season. She is single and lives in Fullerton.

Season Preview

Two years into his first head coaching assignment, John Sneed already has come full circle as he heads into the 1990-91 Cal State Fullerton basketball season with only one full-time returnee from his starting lineup of a year ago. He was faced with a similar situation in 1988-89 when he was thrust into an "interim" head coaching position in November with no returning starters and responded with a surprising 16-13 record.

While he isn't promising a similarly successful run with this year's newcomers, he does forecast an exciting, cohesive unit that will play together better than last year's 13-16 squad.

"I like the chemistry of this year's team," said Sneed. "They should be an enjoyable group to work with and coach. It will be a big change for us, but the drawbacks are our lack of experience and depth.

"You look around the conference and you see everyone else has a lot of returning starters. We have the least returning starting experience. We are counting on some junior college newcomers to come in and make a major contribution. They are promising but haven't played a minute of Division I basketball."

Leading scorers Cedric Ceballos and Mark Hill have moved on, Ceballos to the Phoenix Suns and Hill via graduation along with center David Moody and forward Van Anderson. Two-year starter Wayne Williams is back at point guard but forward Agee Ward, who split starting time with Anderson, is the only other returning Titan who has seen significant playing time last year. Other lettermen returning are perimeter players Dareck Crane and Bruce Bowen and inside players Ron Caldwell and Aaron Wilhite. Sneed is also counting heavily on redshirt J.D. Green, who transferred a year ago from SMU and practiced with the team, to step in and assume a major scoring role.

Williams led last year's team in assists with 209, the third best total in school history, and has a chance to break Leon Wood's career record of 744. Williams averaged 9.8 points and hit three more long-distance "buzzer beater" baskets but shot only 34 per cent from the floor.

Ward averaged 6.4 points and 4.8 rebounds despite Fall injuries and illness that prevented him from attaining optimum physical condition. He averaged 19 minutes per game. Wilhite played surprisingly well, particularly in non-conference play, and averaged 3.7 points and 3.1 rebounds over 29 appearances. Caldwell became eligible in December and averaged 4.0 points and 2.4 rebounds in 12 games, starting only once.

Crane and Bowen played sparingly behind Hill and Ceballos, respectively, who averaged 70 minutes between them. Crane played in all 29 games and averaged 2.3 points while Bowen played in only 18 games and averaged 1.7 points.

Five newcomers including two junior college transfers provide a large dose of new blood. A probable starter at shooting guard is Joe Small, who led all California JC players in scoring with a 25.3 point average for College of the Sequoias. Kevin Ahsmuhs, a 6-8 forward, averaged 16 points and 10 rebounds while earning all-state honors at San Diego Mesa and should see considerable action.

Four freshmen, two of whom signed in November, returning walk-on guard Tom Parada and a walk-on JC transfer complete the roster. Michael Bloodworth (14 ppg, 10 rpg) is a 6-foot-6 wing player from Palisades High in Los Angeles. Marcus Bell (23 ppg, 5.5 apg) is a 6-1 point guard from Etiwanda High while 6-foot-3 Greg Vernon averaged 23 points and 7 rebounds in the backcourt for University High of Los Angeles and was the MVP of the annual City-CIF All-Star game. Walk-ons Jason Kerian, a freshman center from Minto, North Dakota, High School, and junior guard Randy Allen from Chabot College in Hayward are new to the program.

"This is our first real recruiting class," said Sneed. "With the addition of two or three more players next year of the same caliber, we should be competing at a solid level in the Big West Conference."

Yr.: Senior Ht.: 6-2 Wt.: 180 Age: 22*
Birthdate: 12-20-68 Birthplace: Torrance
Residence: Compton
High School: Compton HS
College: Orange Coast JC
Major: Communications/Advertising

Dareck Crane will try to step out of the shadows of Mark Hill and assume a more prominent role in 1990-91... the perimeter shooting guard played in all 29 games last year, averaging about seven minutes per contest behind Hill, the conference's No. 3 scorer... averaged 2.3 points... a transfer from Orange Coast College in Costa Mesa, where he was the Co-Player of the Year in the Orange Empire Conference.

LAST YEAR: Shot 50 per cent from 3-point field-goal range, hitting 6 of 12 attempts... shot only .356 (21 for 59) from 2-point land for overall mark of .380 (27 of 71)... best effort was 15-minute stint at Colorado State when he scored season-high 8 points, hitting pair of treys and both of his free-throw tries... his only longer performance was 17-minute effort in opener vs. Lamar... had two solid efforts vs. Pacific, hitting 4 of 7 shots while averaging 4.5 points in two games... sparked a 10-0 Fullerton rally late in the Feb. 17 home game vs. New Mexico State and his bucket gave the Titans a 56-55 lead that the Aggies eventually overcame for a 65-62 win.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: All-state selection as sophomore at Orange Coast College in Costa Mesa, where he was the Co-Player of the Year in the Orange Empire Conference... averaged 17.5 points, 5.1 rebounds and 4.3 assists for the Pirates and Coach Tandy Gillis... is the Pirates' No. 3 scorer with 992 points... as a freshman averaged 13

Major: Communications

Tom Parada is the crowd favorite in Titan Gym when the hustling, 5-foot-6 guard gets into the games... flashy ball handler who doesn't hesitate to put the dribble behind his back and throw the no-look pass... will likely fill the same role in 1990-91.

LAST YEAR: Appeared in 5 games with a high of 4 minutes vs. Lamar... hit free throws vs. West Texas State (Nov. 29) and UC Irvine (Jan. 25) to account for season's scoring output and shake the dust out of the Titan Gym rafters... also grabbed a rebound vs. West Texas State.

HIGH SCHOOL: All-San Gabriel Valley and all-league selection at guard in 1988-89 at St. Francis High School in La Canada, where he was a two-year letterman... averaged 11.1 points and 9 assists as a senior... the latter figure was 10th best in the CIF... also lettered as a junior for Coach John Jordan and averaged 5 points and 5 assists.

PERSONAL: Credits Coach Jordan for the greatest influence on his career... "he was the most knowledgeable man about

Greg Vernon made great strides in his basketball career during his senior high school season and continued improvement could elevate him to a contributing role for the Titans in 1990-91... averaged 23 points, 7.9 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.1 blocked shots last year for University High and Coach Jim Nakabara... shot 56.3 per cent from the floor and 75 per cent from the free-throw line... Co-Most Valuable Player of the league... all-city and all-west side selection... nominated for McDonald's All-America team... was leading scorer for the City All-Stars in their 137-124 victory over the CIF Southern Section All-Stars on Apr. 13, 1990 at The Great Western Forum... was MVP of both the Hamilton and Bosco Tech Tournaments, scoring six consecutive "triple doubles"... as a junior was all-league first team, all-westside second team and honorable mention all-city... split time between varsity and junior varsity as a sophomore... credits coach Roger Milstein with improving his skills both on and off the court... business major who hopes to own a chain of businesses... during the summer did office work for a collection agency... signed his national letter during the April, 1990 signing period... has two younger sisters... parents are Herbert and Gloria Vernon.

33 Agee Ward F

Yr.: Junior Ht.: 6-5 Wt.: 225 Age: 20
Birthdate: 9-28-70 Birthplace: Compton
Residence: Los Angeles
High School: Washington
Major: Physical Education

Agee Ward is being counted upon to blossom into a frontline Big West Conference player in 1990-91 for the Titans... excellent athlete who plays bigger than 6-5 height... second only to Wayne Williams in experience on this year's young squad... an inactive year and a pre-season injury last year kept him from getting into optimum physical condition and he didn't have the stamina it will take to be a full-time starter... showed flashes of brilliance in his sophomore campaign... started 13 games, mostly in the first half of season... scored well off the bench during conference schedule but output declined in final weeks... averaged 6.4 points and was second on team with 4.8 rebounds per game... excellent at the quick outlet pass to launch the fast break... has the ability to post up and score inside.

LAST YEAR: Nagging illness and an ankle injury foiled his early season conditioning program... started 9 of first 11 games... came off the bench in opener vs. Lamar and missed Cal State Northridge game

10 Wayne Williams G

Yr.: Junior Ht.: 6-1 Wt.: 175 Age: 20
Birthdate: 3-8-70 Birthplace: Los Angeles
Residence: Los Angeles
High School: Manual Arts
Major: Accounting

Wayne Williams will carry a major load on his shoulders for the 1990-91 Titans... as the "veteran" of the team and only returning fulltime starter at point guard, he will be asked to enhance his playmaker's role and help mold a young and inexperienced team into a cohesive unit... two-year starter who helped make Cedric Ceballos and Mark Hill two of the conference's most prolific scorers the past two seasons... will try to do the same for the likes of J.D. Green and Joe Small this year... has the third-best Titan single season and career assist totals with 209 and 359, respectively... has a shot at Leon Wood's career record of 744... has developed into a consistent 3-point field goal shooter who won't hesitate to take the shot in crunch time... has earned the nickname "Buzzer Beater" after hitting at least six long and/or clutch shots as the scoreboard clock was running out.

LAST YEAR: Was team's No. 3 scorer at 9.8 points per game and averaged 7.2 assists, a figure topped only by Leon Wood in Titan history... had team's best 3-point field goal percentage at .391 (43 of 110)... started 26 of 29 games and averaged 35.5 minutes while committing only 3 turnovers per game... scored career-high 21 points in victory at Long Beach State on Jan. 18, when he converted both ends of five consecutive one-and-one free throw situations... had high of 14 assists vs. Cal State Northridge on Dec. 16... most memorable shot came on Jan. 13 against Pacific when he picked up loose ball at midcourt, took two dribbles and swished a 32-footer to beat the buzzer and Pacific, 76-73... the previous game he had hit a 45-foot 3-pointer to beat the halftime buzzer vs. Fresno State... he settled for a 2-point "buzzer beater" on Feb. 1 to send the San Jose State game into overtime... came up short on a hurried 30-footer at the buzzer in an 83-82 overtime loss at Utah State... best 3-point shooting game was Feb. 10 contest at Pacific when he hit 5 of 8.

FRESHMAN YEAR: Started all 29 games at the difficult point guard position and compiled brilliant freshman campaign that saw him make numerous clutch plays and eventually earn a berth on the Big West Conference's All-Freshman squad... his mid-season emergence in 1988-89 coincided with the Titans' late-season surge that saw them win 11 of their final 16 games... averaged 8.3 points and 5.2 assists... his season total of 150 assists is sixth best in Titan history... his game-winning heroics began in his first collegiate contest... his basket with 0:55 to play put the Titans ahead to stay at Utah in the season opener and his free throws at 0:07 clinched it... two games later it was his steal that set up Derek Jones for a last-second game-winning basket at the University of San Diego... two games later at Portland, his free throws at 0:37 clinched another win... his mid-season streak was incredible and earned him Big West Conference Player of the Week honors as well as "Buzzer Beater" nickname from teammate Mark Hill... on Feb. 4 at home vs. UCSB, his 35-foot 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer catapulted the Titans to a win over the Gauchos... on Feb. 9 he hit a 25-footer at the buzzer in overtime to give the Titans a 93-92 win over UNLV... two nights later at UCI he scored a career-high 20 points including a 30-foot 3-pointer at the buzzer to give the Titans a 1-point halftime lead and then he converted a pair of one-and-one opportunities in the final 27 seconds for the decisive points in the 78-75 win over the Anteaters... during the 3 games he hit 8 of 9 3-point field goal tries... he preceded the run with a 12-assist home loss to UCI... over the four games he averaged 40 minutes and committed only 6 turnovers.

HIGH SCHOOL: Led Manual Arts High School of Los Angeles to a 27-3 record and the California large schools state championship in 1988... team upset city champion Crenshaw in the regionals and then beat Bishop O'Dowd of Oakland in the Oakland-Alameda Coliseum for the state title... Williams scored 25 points including the game-winning basket... in the regional, Williams scored a regional tournament single-game record 30 points in the 89-82 victory which avenged two earlier losses including a 16-point defeat in the city title game... averaged 18 points and 7 assists for the season... earned first-team all-state honors and was state's Most Valuable Player... two-time MVP and twice all-city... three-year varsity letterman... averaged 15 points and 5 assists as a junior and 12 points and 5 assists as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Accounting major... credits Manual Arts coach Reggie Morris for the most influence on his career... "he taught me just about everything I know"... parents are Gilbert and Marie Williams of Los Angeles... has three older brothers and one older sister.

The Big West Conference is in its third year of existence since changing its name from the Pacific Coast Athletic Association prior to the 1988 football season. The name is seen as a simpler, more accurate description of the league's 11 member institutions -- Cal State Fullerton, Fresno State, Long Beach State, New Mexico State, San Jose State, UC Irvine (no football), UC Santa Barbara (Div. III football), Hawaii (women only), UNLV, Pacific and Utah State.

When the league was formed in 1969, it consisted of seven charter members, all of which were located in the state of California. In its 20 years of existence, however, the conference has expanded to include universities from states which are not on nor near the Pacific Ocean (Utah, Nevada and New Mexico).

Basketball success among Big West institutions has been growing over the years and reached its apex in April when UNLV won the NCAA championship in convincing fashion over Duke. The Rebels, who have become permanent members of the Top 20 polls the past few years, did not win the Big West Championship outright. New Mexico State tied the Rebels for the regular season title and earned the No. 1 seed in the post-season tournament by virtue of the tiebreaker and the Aggies' sweep of third-place UC Santa Barbara, which went on to beat Houston in the first round of the NCAA tourney.

In fact, the Big West had the best overall record (7-2, .778) in the tournament. UNLV went 6-0, UCSB was 1-1 and New Mexico State lost to "Cinderella" team Loyola Marymount.

Prior to conference play, the Big West had a memorable season, posting a 71-37 record against non-conference foes. All but two Big West teams had winning non-conference records. A total of 35 starters return from the 10 Big West rosters with five teams returning as many as four starters.

RADIO

Rebenstorf

John Rebenstorf returns for his tenth season as the radio voice of Cal State Fullerton basketball in 1990-91 with all games to be carried live on KMNY (1600 AM), with studios in Anaheim and transmitter in Pomona.

This will be Fullerton's sixth season on KMNY (formerly KWOW), which features an all-business news format for its regular programming. The Titans and the station are contracted through the 1993-94 academic year.

Rebenstorf began broadcasting Titan sports during the 1981-82 school year and has handled the play-by-play duties for eight seasons of football, nine years for basketball and five years for baseball. He has brought to Titan fans the excitement of the California Bowl, National Invitation Tournament men's basketball, NCAA Tournament women's basketball and the College Baseball World Series.

During the summers of 1986 and 1987, Rebenstorf was the voice of the Oklahoma City 89ers of the American Association. In 1990 he provided color commentary on UCLA football while producing Titan football. He previously did play-by-play for Cal Poly Pomona and UC Riverside as well as filling in for Long Beach State. His radio station work has included stops at KBON and KMEN in San Bernardino, KNTF in Ontario and KFI in Los Angeles.

Rebenstorf, who served as interim executive director of the Titan Athletic Foundation from December, 1988, through April, 1989, also serves as salesman for Titan radio and game program advertising. He can be reached at (714) 525-2475 or Box 9097, Brea, CA 92622.

Kent Briggs returns for his fifth season as color commentator. He has worked Titan football for the past three seasons after stints with UC Irvine basketball and Edison High football. The University of Nebraska graduate is a successful insurance broker.

TELEVISION

Cal State Fullerton will be featured three times on SportsChannel, where the Big West Conference has a 20-game schedule. The regional cable network will broadcast live Fullerton's game of Jan. 4 at UNLV, Jan. 9 in Titan Gym vs. San Jose State and Feb. 7 at home vs. Pacific. The Big West Conference post-season tournament also will be televised. The complete Big West SportsChannel schedule:

Review of 1989-90

Forward Cedric Ceballos completed a brilliant two-year Titan career as he won first-team All-Big West Conference honors for a second season. Also for the second year, he won the Big West scoring championship and finished second in rebounding. His total of 618 rebounds is fourth best in Titan history and his 1,284 points are sixth best despite playing only two seasons after transferring from Ventura College. He was selected in the second round of the NBA draft by the Phoenix Suns.

The Titans opened the 1989-90 season at home against a young Lamar University team and Fullerton's full-court press paved the way to an easy victory.

The Cardinals got a strong effort from Verbum Dei High School product David Jones, but he needed help. His jumper pulled Lamar to within 11-9 at the 15:27 mark of the first half before the Titans went on an 18-4 run that made it 29-13 with 7:00 to go before halftime, which Fullerton ended up leading, 49-28.

Lamar never got closer than 17 points after intermission and the lead grew to 30 as early as the 9:46 mark.

Freshman Aaron Wilhite was the most pleasant surprise in the game, scoring 16 points and grabbing 5 rebounds in 18 minutes of action. The Titans also unveiled crowd favorite Tom Parada, a 5-foot-6 walk-on who played four minutes.

Fullerton's first of two Div. II opponents of the season provided a stern test until a brilliant second-half performance by Cedric Ceballos put the Buffaloes away.

West Texas State, which would go on to an excellent season, scored the game's first five points and held a 33-31 lead with a minute to go in the first half. But an Aaron Wilhite follow shot and Mark Hill's 3-pointer at the buzzer gave the Titans a 36-33 lead at intermission.

Fullerton stretched the lead to as many as 17 points at 56-39 with 13:52 to go but the Buffaloes countered with a 13-2 spurt that cut the deficit to 58-52 with 10:42 to play. Then Ceballos took over. He hit consecutive 3-pointers and went on to score 16 of the Titans' next 24 points as the lead grew to 83-65 with 4:21 to go. Ceballos finished with 25 second-half points to finish with a career high 34 points.

Fullerton's first road game of the year appeared on paper to be an easy test. St. Mary's was rebuilding after graduation depleted a championship team and was 0-2 in a tournament at Fresno. New Coach Paul Landreaux missed most of the week's practices and the game due to the death of his father in Louisiana.

But in playing their home opener, the Gaels found their previously absent shooting eye. With forward James Dailey leading the way, the Gaels overcame a 29-20 Fullerton lead in the first half to draw within 31-28 at intermission.

The teams traded baskets most of the second half before the Gaels took the lead at 49-48 and were within a point at 56-55 at the 8:25 mark when Mark Hill came alive for the Titans.

Hill scored on a drive, a 3-pointer and a layup and Cedric Ceballos contributed a driving shot and Agee Ward hit a baseline jumper to give Fullerton a 67-55 lead at the 4:24 mark. St. Mary's finally got a bucket from Dailey but the Titans continued to pull away with Wayne Williams converting six consecutive free throws in the final minutes to preserve the Titans' third victory.

An experienced Tulsa team with four returning starters loomed as the Titans' first real challenge. For about 10 minutes, the Golden Hurricane and its hard-nosed man-to-man defense and strong rebounding had Titan fans squirming.

Tulsa took an early lead and stretched its advantage to 15-11 and 18-14 before the Titans got rolling. John Sykes' follow shot and a Mark Hill jumper tied the game. Fullerton soon went on a 12-2 run for a 35-24 lead that was 41-31 at the half.

Tulsa, which hit only 10 of 27 shots in the first half, didn't warm up after intermission. After Michael Scott drove for a basket to cut the Fullerton lead to 51-35 with 15:52 to play, the Golden Hurricane didn't get another field goal until the 4:35 mark and by then they were down, 71-46. They ended up shooting only 20 per cent in the second half and had to hit four of their final five shots to do that well.

Fullerton renewed a dormant series with Cal State Northridge, a team on the verge of entering the Div. I ranks. With guard Derrick Gathers leading the way, the Matadors gave a credible performance and played the Titans closer than anyone had all year.

Fullerton overcame a slow start with an 11-0 run late in the first half that stretched a 23-19 lead to 34-19. But the Matadors controlled the next four minutes and pulled within 41-37 at intermission despite Mark Hill's 5-for-5 performance at the 3-point line.

The Matadors kept up the pressure in the second half and pulled within two points at 46-44 with 16:57 to go. Hill hit a couple more 3-pointers that allowed the Titans to gradually pull away. Hill broke his own school single-game record for 3-pointers with 8 in 12 tries on his way to 29 points.

The Matadors crept within 8 points on 3 occasions after the lead had been built to 14 points and Fullerton Coach John Sneed had to play his regulars until the final buzzer.

Fullerton's unbeaten season came to a decisive end on a frigid night in Fort Collins, where the host Rams were red hot.

With Fresno State transfer Mike Mitchell leading the way, the Rams scored the first 10 points of the game before Mark Hill hit a 3-pointer. Mitchell scored 14 of CSU's first 20 points and the game was virtually over at halftime with the Rams holding a 44-30 advantage.

Fullerton cut the margin to 10 points at 45-35 on a Hill 3-pointer, but a 7-minute span without a field goal doomed the Titans.

The Rams could do no wrong, shooting .667 from the floor, .571 from 3-point land and .857 at the foul line. Only Hill's performance from 3-point land kept the Titans from a worse defeat. As it was, the 29-point defeat was Fullerton's worst since a 34-point loss to UNLV in the 1987 Big West Conference post-season tournament.

Fullerton's third venture into Pauley Pavilion proved to be a case of poor timing. The Titans' confidence was shot after their lopsided loss at Colorado State and they ran into a UCLA team that played its best ball of the young season in the first half.

Shot selection and accuracy proved the Titans' undoing as they fell behind quickly, 8-2, 12-4, 19-7 and 29-10 as the Bruins scored virtually every time down the floor. UCLA sliced up the Fullerton full-court press and the Titans would shoot only 25 per cent before intermission.

Fullerton made a game of it in the second half. More patience on offense and better luck with the press fueled a 17-6 Titan surge that made the score 72-64 with 6:26 to play. The Titans had three chances to cut the deficit further but were unsuccessful and the Bruins padded their lead at the foul line.

Warm Wyoming hospitality negated the cold Casper weather and the opportunity to play someone on a neutral floor proved the difference as the Titans snapped their 2-game losing streak in the opening round of the Cowboy Shootout.

Middle Tennessee State shot a frigid 28 per cent from the floor in the first half and the Titans jumped out early, something that hadn't happened at Colorado State or UCLA. The early 15-2 lead held up for most of the first half as the Titans got timely contributions from Bruce Bowen and David Moody in moving out to a 37-27 halftime lead.

Fullerton scored the first 5 points of the second half and the Blue Raiders could get no closer than 5 points at 48-43 at the 14:40 mark. Buckets by Agee Ward, Dareck Crane and Cedric Ceballos opened it up to 11 points and this time Middle Tennessee could draw no closer than 7 points.

The floor of the Casper Events Center may have been neutral but a vocal crowd of Wyoming fans gave the host Cowboys the home-court feeling and they rode the enthusiasm to an easy win over the Titans for their fifth tourney title in seven tries.

Fullerton never led as ice-cold shooting cost the Titans again. They hit only 8 of 30 shots in the first half and fell behind quickly. They managed only 11 points in the first 10 minutes of the half and trailed, 32-11, before a 9-2 flurry just before intermission.

As at UCLA, the Titans made a second half surge. An 18-4 run sparked by a trio of Mark Hill 3-pointers cut the gap to 58-46 with 4:45 to play. But the Titans didn't score again until the 1:41 mark when Hill hit a pair of free throws.

Meanwhile, guard Kenny Smith made the clutch plays for Wyoming. After scoring Wyoming's only four points during the Titan run, he nailed a pair of bonus opportunities in the final 1:25 to seal the win.

Ceballos and Hill made the all-tournament team and MVP honors went to Wyoming's Reggie Slater, who totaled 36 rebounds.

The Titans had the misfortune of opening their Big West Conference schedule in the Thomas and Mack Center against a No. 11-ranked UNLV team that had just beaten Arkansas and was playing well after the semester eligibility of centers David Butler and Moses Scurry.

Fullerton led briefly at 3-0 and 5-4, the result of a bucket by Agee Ward and a free throw and bucket by Cedric Ceballos. But the Rebels reeled off the next 8 points for a 12-5 lead and UNLV was on its way.

Ceballos, who entered the game with lifetime averages of 29 points and 12 rebounds against the Rebels, continued his fine play in the first half. He scored 16 points and hauled in 10 rebounds but it couldn't offset 5 for 23 shooting by his teammates and the halftime deficit was 47-30. Mark Hill got hot after intermission, hitting five of Fullerton's first six buckets and assisting on the other, but the Titans could cut only a point off the lead at 60-44. The Rebels pulled away and led by as many as 32 points at 84-52.

Logan and The Spectrum have not been kind to Titan basketball over the years and the 1989-90 visit proved no exception. In fact, it may have been the most frustrating loss there to date as Fullerton let a 13-point lead get away in the final 8:33 of regulation and saw Kendall Youngblood toss in the winning basket with only 6 seconds to play. The Titans barely got off a shot before the buzzer but Wayne Williams' 30-foot attempt was short.

Cedric Ceballos was hot from the field and Mark Hill was camping at the foul line and the Titans built a 41-32 lead at the half. It peaked at 13 points and still was 11 at 73-62 with 6 minutes to go. A pair of offensive rebound baskets by Rich Jardine and Jeff Parris helped fuel a rally that caught the Titans at 76 all with 52 seconds to play. Fullerton had a chance to win in regulation but Van Anderson missed the front end of a one-and-one at 0:07.

In overtime, the Titans twice got the lead. Hill hit two free throws to make it 79-78 at 3:19. Aaron Wilhite converted a clutch bonus situation at 1:46 to forge an 81-81 deadlock that Hill broke at 0:31 with one free throw. But after making 14 free throws in a row, Hill missed the second attempt and that proved deadly when Youngblood made his basket.

Fullerton opened the home portion of the Big West Conference schedule with a bizarre victory over Fresno State.

The Titans appeared to have the game in total control when they opened up a 50-25 lead three minutes into the second half. But the Bulldogs came back with a 17-0 run as Wilbert Hooker hit a pair of 3-pointers and Tod Bernard added another. Mark Hill ended the 6-minute drought with a 3-pointer and a basket by Aaron Wilhite and two free throws by Cedric Ceballos quickly hiked the lead back to 15 points at 57-42. The Bulldogs didn't get the deficit under 10 points again until the 2:47 mark but Ceballos responded with a pair of successful bonus opportunities.

The Bulldogs had a horrible first half, hitting only nine baskets and committing 11 turnovers. Meanwhile, the Titans pulled Fresno State out of its zone defense as they hit 7 of 14 3-pointers including a pair by Van Anderson in two tries and a 45-footer by Wayne Williams to beat the halftime buzzer. The latter capped a 10-0 run over the final 3 minutes of the period. Bernard was held scoreless as only four Bulldogs scored before intermission.

Pacific was off to its best start in years and the Tigers showed the improvement was no fluke as they rallied from a 14-point second-half deficit to take a last-minute lead, only to fall prey to the "Buzzer Beater." Wayne Williams fired in a 32-foot basket at the buzzer to give the Titans the victory that evened their Big West record at 2-2.

The Titans went ahead 73-71 with 0:25 to play when Anthony Woods made the first of two free throw tries. But he missed the second and the Titans tied the game with 11 seconds to go when Agee Ward hit his fourth basket of the final 4:33. The Tigers called timeout with 0:09 to go and the Titans applied a full-court press. Cedric Ceballos slapped the ball away from Dell Demps at midcourt and Williams picked up the loose ball, took a couple of dribbles and let fly with a shot that brought the Titan fans swarming onto the floor.

The Titans had their best shooting day in four years and needed every bit of it to overcome the Tigers' 45 per cent effort from 3-point range led by Reggie Ricks. Fullerton had led by as many as 10 points in the first half but UOP came back and took the lead at 38-37 early in the second half. A 16-2 Titan run built the lead back up, but a 16-6 spurt by the Tigers put them on the verge of victory.

Fullerton's first visit to the new San Jose State on-campus arena to meet a new team under new coach Stan Morrison brought back memories of previous years' battles in the old Civic Auditorium with Coach Bill Berry's defensive oriented teams. The young Spartans squandered an early 17-10 lead to trail at the half by 7 points only to outthrust the Titans in the second half for the victory.

Center Kenne Young handled the Titans inside and Troy Batiste came off the bench for some inspired backcourt play to pace the Spartans, who surpassed their 1988-89 victory count. A 12-0 run in the middle of the second half turned a 42-39 deficit into a 51-42 lead. The Titans made a late run behind Cedric Ceballos but Mark Hill missed a jumper and Ceballos had the ball taken away in the paint in the final minute with San Jose State clinging to a 3-point lead. The smaller Spartans outrebounded the Titans, 32-25, and handed them their fourth consecutive road loss.

Fullerton's road losing streak came to an end in an unlikely spot — the cozy campus gym at Long Beach where the 49ers had not lost this season. The Titans weathered the aggressive, full-court press of Long Beach, committing only 13 turnovers while the hosts committed 18 of their own.

Cedric Ceballos had his third consecutive outstanding game and got the Titans off to a good start. The 49ers had their biggest lead at 25-18 but Fullerton went ahead to stay at 31-30 and held a 7-point halftime lead. The 49ers scored 6 points in the first minute of the second half to close within 1 but Ceballos scored 7 points in a 9-0 Titan run that got the lead up to 10. The 49ers cut it to 1 again with 6:15 to play but Fullerton responded with an 11-0 run as Wayne Williams began a streak of converting all 10 free throws in five bonus situations. Williams ended up with a career-high 21 points and ran his record in the Long Beach State gym to 2-0.

Fullerton ran into a buzz saw at Las Cruces as the host Aggies could do no wrong in the opening five minutes and jumped to an insurmountable lead. Playing their first home game since an inaugural victory over UNLV, the Aggies bounced back from a loss five nights earlier at Long Beach that came at the end of a 7-day, 3-game road trip.

New Mexico State scored virtually every time down the floor at the outset and forced several turnovers with its aggressive zone defense. The Aggies led 5-0, 14-2 and 22-5, the latter at the 13:23 mark of the first half.

With David Moody posting the best statistics of his career, the Titans made a mild run in the second half while the Aggies were missing 13 of their first 15 second half free throws. They cut it to 12 on a Moody dunk at 52-40 with 8:10 to play. They got it down to 11 at 65-54 with 3:30 to go and 67-56 at 2:17 on Cedric Ceballos buckets but could never get closer. They headed anxiously toward home, having played nine of their past 11 games on the road.

Fullerton returned to the friendly confines of Titan Gym and caught a UC Irvine team about to begin a transition to a youth movement. With none of their starters making more than one basket and the team shooting only 29 per cent from the floor, the Anteaters were no match for the Titans, who were able to clear the bench.

UCI managed only 14 points in the first half, a Big West Conference low for the season. The Titans jumped to leads of 10-1, 12-5 and 26-5. Not until the 6:37 mark of the first half did UCI score on something other than a free throw or a put-back of an offensive rebound. For the half, UCI hit only 5 of 25 shots including just 1 of 11 from 3-point range. UCI hit only 3 of 7 free throws and committed 13 turnovers.

Things got no better after intermission for UCI, which trailed by as many as 35 points at 81-46 with 1:50 to play. Take away Jeff Von Lutzow's 8-for-10 shooting and the rest of the 'Eaters were 8 of 45.

Fullerton suffered one of its most frustrating losses ever in its first appearance on national television (ESPN) since the finals of the Western Regionals in 1978.

With Cedric Ceballos playing an unbelievable game to offset Mark Hill's worst shooting night ever, the Titans held an 11-point lead at 62-51 with 2:20 to play. Then everything went right for UCSB and wrong for the Titans.

Idris Jones, who scored his first points of the game at the 2:24 mark with a 3-pointer, hit two more at 2:13 and 1:40 around a 3-point play by Eric McArthur and two missed bonus free throws by Wayne Williams. That made the score 62-60. Hill had a shot blocked and Carrick DeHart tied the game with two free throws with 0:36 to play.

Ceballos missed a free throw with 0:07 to go and the game went to overtime. McArthur and Ceballos traded buckets before McArthur scored twice more and Dareck Crane missed a pair of free throws. When the final buzzer sounded, UCSB had outscored Fullerton 21-2 in the final 7:20 and taken full advantage of Fullerton, the leading free-throw shooting team in the Big West coming into the game, missing its final six attempts.

Luck swung back to Fullerton three nights after the Santa Barbara disaster when an upstart San Jose State team let an apparent victory slip away in regulation and couldn't handle the Titans in overtime.

Fullerton let an 11-point lead dissipate early in the second half but came back to erase an 8-point San Jose State lead. It appeared the Titans had no chance when the Spartans grabbed a defensive rebound with a 4-point lead and only 22 seconds to play. But Robert Dunlap traveled on a breakaway to an apparent game-sealing dunk and the Titans seized the opportunity. Agee Ward hit a short jumper and Troy Batiste, who otherwise played a brilliant game, missed a free throw with 10 seconds to go, allowing Wayne Williams to dribble the length of the floor and scoop in a bank shot with a second to spare before the buzzer.

In overtime, Andre Brooks gave the Spartans an 83-82 lead at 3:45 but buckets by Mark Hill and Cedric Ceballos put the Titans ahead, 86-83. Williams then got the maximum out of a pair of bonus opportunities in the final 28 seconds and Fullerton won its first overtime game after two losses.

A record-equalling performance from the floor offset a poor free-throw shooting night for the Titans, who avenged their overtime loss in Logan to Utah State.

Mark Hill came full circle from his frigid night in Santa Barbara, hitting 8 of 9 shots including 4 of 5 from 3-point range to help Fullerton tie its school record for field goal percentage at .682 — matching the 30 for 44 performance vs. McNeese State (and Joe Dumars) in the 1983-84 season opener in Hawaii.

Fullerton trailed only in the early going, the last time at 12-11. With Hill having a perfect first half (5 for 5 including 4 3-pointers), the Titans built a lead as large as 11 points before the Aggies rallied to within four at intermission. Fullerton went on a 10-2 run to open the second half for a 57-45 lead and Utah State got only as close as 6 at 72-66 after an 11-0 run of its own over a three and a half minute span. But Wayne Williams and Mark Hill managed four free throws in four tries and the Aggies never got closer than 8 points the rest of the way.

Fullerton picked a most inopportune time to lose its scoring ability.

The Titans were nursing a 61-57 lead with 10 minutes to play at Fresno State when a lid formed over their basket. When Cedric Ceballos grabbed an offensive rebound and put in a reverse layup, the clock had run down to 3:04 and the Bulldogs, although not exactly scorching the nets themselves, had run off 8 unanswered points for a 65-63 lead. After a FSU timeout with the score unchanged at the 1:48 mark, reserve guard Dave Barnett hit the third of his trio of 3-pointers for a 70-63 lead. Any chance Fullerton had to retaliate was lost when David Moody's layup try was blocked and the Bulldogs regained possession.

A Moody follow shot would be the only other points the Titans would get in the final 10 minutes of a game that would innocently launch a long losing streak.

Fullerton's demise began with turnovers as the Titans made 18, many unforced, against the Bulldogs' aggressive yet not fanatic defense. With both teams shooting around 50 per cent, every possession was critical and even a 9 of 11 free-throw performance by Agee Ward was not enough.

Fullerton slowed center Don Lytle and finally cooled off 3-point shooter Reggie Ricks, but still the Titans couldn't find a way to handle Pacific. The Tigers got excellent games from forwards Daryl Wolfe and Ron Tabron and held off a late 3-point barrage to leave the Titans with a winless road trip.

The Titans held their own in the equal first half thanks to excellent perimeter shooting (7 of 12 from 3-point range) that offset a surprising Tiger edge on the backboards (25 to 14). But a flat start after intermission allowed UOP to gradually pull away and even a mass substitution by Coach John Sneed (5 subs at the 15:32 mark) failed to ignite a spark.

It was a 4-point game at the 6:32 mark when Aaron Wilhite hit one free throw. Dell Demps and Lytle each hit two free throws and Wolfe and Demps added buckets while Fullerton could counter only with a Ceballos free throw and it was 70-59 Tigers.

Fullerton tried the formula that UCSB used against the Titans. Williams hit a couple of 3-pointers but Anthony Woods, after missing a bonus opportunity, turned the next four into 8 free throws and the Titans never got closer than the final margin.

Even a return to Titan Gym couldn't snap the Titans out of their season-ending slump and a talented UC Santa Barbara team held off a late Fullerton rally.

Forward Gary Gray, who had totaled only a handful of points in three previous encounters with Fullerton, exploded for 25 points to join with usual stars Eric McArthur and Carrick DeHart in the headline making. For Fullerton, Cedric Ceballos had another strong game with 27 points and 21 rebounds but he got less help. Mark Hill endured a career low 3-point effort and Wayne Williams had to come off the bench for the first time in his career after being late to the locker room.

Fullerton grabbed the early momentum and built a lead as large as 7 points at 29-22 with 4:33 to go before intermission. But McArthur fueled a late Gaucho surge that cut the lead to 31-30 at the half.

A pair of 3-pointers by DeHart turned Fullerton's last lead of 41-40 into a quick 46-41 deficit and UCSB drew out to a lead as large as 12 at 58-46 with 6:26 to go. Three-pointers by Dareck Crane and Williams launched a rally that came as close as 73-70 in the final minute before Gray hit two free throws at 0:38 for the final score.

A defensive struggle typically breaks out when Fullerton and New Mexico State clash and this game was no exception. The Aggies scored more frequently out of their defensive efforts and a dismal free-throw performance by the Titans spelled defeat.

The Aggies hit only 7 of their last 12 free throws and gave the Titans a chance. But Mark Hill's 3-pointer at the buzzer was no good and Fullerton had 4 losses in a row.

The Aggies led by as many as 7 points before settling for a 4-point lead at intermission. The Titans tied it at 36 on Hill's jumper and took a 38-36 lead when Wayne Williams cashed in a technical foul on Coach Neil McCarthy. It looked like the last Fullerton hurrah as NMSU broke a 43-43 tie with a 12-3 run for a 55-46 lead with 8:21 to go.

But reserve guards Markon Vaughn and Dareck Crane sparked a Fullerton rally and, when Crane capped a 10-0 run with a jumper, the Titans were ahead, 56-55. Keith Hill tied the game with a free throw and the senior later hit the biggest shot of the game, a 3-pointer to beat the shot clock at 1:56 for a 63-59 lead. Van Anderson countered with a 3-pointer but William Benjamin hit two free throws at 0:31 and Fullerton couldn't get the last shot to go down.

The first nationally televised (ESPN) basketball game out of Titan Gym kept viewers glued to their sets until the very end, a bitter end for Fullerton. Van Anderson's bank shot from inside the paint bounced off the rim and David Moody's attempt at an offensive rebound was battered away.

A pair of 3-point field goals in overtime by freshman Lucious Harris proved decisive in the tightly played contest. Neither team led by more than 4 points in the first half and Long Beach led the entire second half, but never by more than 6 points. Fullerton got the lead once in OT at 65-64 on a short jumper by Agee Ward but Harris hit his first three 10 seconds later. Moody tied the game at 67 with a pair of free throws but Harris struck again at the 2:50 mark. Cedric Ceballos hit a pair of free throws at 1:24 to pull Fullerton within one. The Titans got their chance to win when Wayne Williams stole the ball from Tyrone Mitchell.

Long Beach concentrated its defense on Ceballos and Mark Hill with a triangle and two. Ceballos got only 3 shots in the first half but Hill exploded for 18 points. After intermission Hill got only 4 points, however, and Ceballos was forced to pick up the slack despite constant defensive pressure.

Fullerton's losing streak reached six and a frustrating low as the Titans were thoroughly outplayed by the host Anteaters, who had won only three games previously.

A 3-point barrage led by freshman Dylan Rigdon offset any hopes the Titans had of rallying. UCI hit 14 out of 22 to set a CSF opponent record, breaking the old mark of 13 set by UCI at home a year earlier.

UCI scored the first 10 points of the game and the Titans never got closer than 5 at 12-7. In the second half, they made an early run to cut a 15-point halftime deficit to 9 at 48-39 with 16:48 to go. But Ricky Butler stole a rebound from Agee Ward and that led to a 3-point play by Jeff Herdman. A Fullerton turnover preceded a 3-pointer by Rod Palmer and in less than a minute it was a 15-point game again. The lead grew to as many as 24 points and approached the worst CSF loss ever to UCI — 26 points in 1966-67.

A road weary UNLV team wandered into a packed Titan Gym where the Titans were honoring their seniors in their final home game with hopes of a victory to snap a 6-game losing streak. But any thoughts of an upset of the nation's No. 2-ranked team evaporated in 39 seconds. That's how long it took Anderson Hunt to hit a pair of 3-point field goals and the Titans found themselves down, 6-0, after having touched the ball only one time.

The Rebels didn't run or shoot as if they were tired. They hit 68 per cent in the first half and finished the game at .649 including 5 of 7 3-pointers. They led the entire way and by as many as 27 points before the Titans made a late run, cutting the gap to 15 at 83-68 with 9:09 on a putback by Cedric Ceballos. The rally was stopped when a pair of technicals were called on the crowd for throwing candy on the floor, even though one of the instigators was wearing a UNLV cap.

Ceballos ran his career averages to UNLV to 28.2 points and 15 rebounds but UNLV became the first team to break the century mark against the Titans since Portland did it in the 1980-81 opener.

Something about playing UC Irvine in the post-season tournament brings out the best in the Titans and the 1990 Big West event was no exception. The Titans avenged their loss of Jan. 24 with a vengeance, beating the Anteaters with their own weapon — the 3-point field goal.

With Cedric Ceballos and Agee Ward out of the starting lineup because of unexcused tardies at practice the day before, Van Anderson stepped to the forefront. He hit 3 of 3 from distance as Fullerton went 7 of 11 to key a 22-point halftime lead. UCI, which had hit 14 of 22 including 7 of 7 by Dylan Rigdon in the previous meeting, went 0 for 9 for the half and Rigdon was 0 for 3.

Ceballos entered the game at the 16-minute mark and immediately made his presence felt, scoring 14 points and grabbing 10 rebounds before intermission.

UCI cut the lead to 12 at 61-49 before Hill hit four buckets in an 11-2 CSF run.

The Titans are on the wrong end of a tournament streak with UNLV. The Rebels ran their winning streak in tourney play to six over the Titans, knocking them out in the quarterfinal round with an overpowering performance by Player of the Year Larry Johnson.

After jumping to a 12-0 lead as Fullerton turned the ball over on six of its first nine possessions, the Rebels toyed with the Titans, who got 14-point first halves from both Cedric Ceballos and Wayne Williams. Fullerton hung close, cutting the margin to 7 on several occasions and trailing by 10 at the half. It was still a 9-point game at 62-53 when Ron Caldwell hit two buckets in a row. But the Rebels went on a 7-0 run to make it 69-53 and they gradually pulled away as Johnson scored 9 consecutive UNLV points in one span.

The Rebels' total of 115 points was the most scored against a Fullerton team since the 1972-73 campaign when Utah State did it in a non-conference game. The record for opponents is 117 points by Cal State Northridge in 1963-64.

Titans in the NBA

Ozell Jones

Greg Bunch

Mike Niles

Cal State Fullerton has been well represented at the professional level despite the relative youth of the intercollegiate basketball program.

Seven Titans were drafted in the past seven years and several more players have signed as free agents. The Titans hit it big in 1984 when two players made National Basketball Association rosters -- guard Leon Wood with Philadelphia and center Ozell Jones with San Antonio. Each was subsequently traded more than once. Wood is in his sixth NBA season with Minnesota. Jones has been in and out of the NBA, most recently on the summer roster of the Indiana Pacers.

Recent stars Cedric Ceballos, Henry Turner and Richard Morton also have NBA experience. Ceballos was a second-round choice in the 1990 draft by Phoenix. Morton started the 1988-89 season with the Pacers and spent this summer summer with the Golden State Warriors. Turner, who was a teammate of Morton's in the CBA, spent most of last season with the Sacramento Kings.

Kevin Henderson

Leon Wood

Another recent Titan to play in the NBA was guard Kevin Henderson, who played with Golden State and Cleveland. Other players drafted in the 1980s were Ricky Mixon (Lakers), Tony Neal (Lakers) and Kerry Boagni (Utah Jazz).

From the decade of the 1970s, the Titans saw forward Greg Bunch play for the New York Knicks and forward Mike Niles play with the Phoenix Suns. Foreign leagues have featured the likes of center Herman Webster, Boagni and sharpshooter Kevin Heenan to name a few.

The Playmakers

A group of enthusiastic basketball fans who are equally excited about seeing players complete their degree requirements describes the make-up of "The Playmakers," the "booster" group for Cal State Fullerton men's basketball.

The organization was formed by Head Coach John Sneed prior to the 1989-90 season to assist basketball players with fifth-year scholarships if needed for graduation. The average non-athlete student takes more than five years to graduate so it's typical for most basketball players to need an extra few semesters to graduate.

"The Playmakers" can be seen at home and road games in their distinctive orange sweaters. At each home game, one member is selected to serve as an honorary assistant coach. He or she attends the team's pre-game meal, sits on the bench during the game and listens in during the pre-game and halftime preparations.

Monthly meetings are held throughout the season. Scouting reports on the opposition and Titans' game plans are shared, giving members great insight toward what is happening or what should be happening on the floor. Membership is expected to grow to more than 100 members by next season.

Anyone interested in joining "The Playmakers" should contact Coach Sneed in the basketball office at (714) 773-3711.
