

Two Vallejo midshipmen who graduated from the California Maritime Academy yesterday join distinguished guests at the ceremonies in congratulating Midshipman John T. Ellis, of Wentworth, N.H., class valedictorian, on his commencement address. From left to right are Milton R. Hegeman, of Vallejo; Hugh Gallagher, of San Francisco, chairman of the academy's Board of Governors; Ellis; Rear Adm. H. C. Moore, commandant of the U. S. Coast Guard for this district, and Edward D. McDevitt, also of Vallejo.—Times-Herald Photo.

1959
AUG. 15

State Senator Luther E. Gibson, former member of the California Maritime Academy Board of Governors, is congratulated by Hugh Gallagher, right, of San Francisco, chairman of the board, after Senator Gibson was presented with a special plaque from the governors lauding him for his work and efforts in behalf of the academy during his three successive terms on the board from 1943 to 1956.—Times-Herald Photo.

1959