

- CSUCI International Week Event -

sarah aroeste

sarah aroeste band

Judeo-Spanish Sounds with a Modern Soul

November 16, 2009, 5:00 pm
Malibu Hall, 100

California State University Channel Islands
One University Drive Camarillo, CA 93012

Brought to you by:
Instructionally Related Activities (IRA),
the Spanish Program and the Center for International Affairs

Free for students, faculty and staff (CSUCI ID required)
$5 admission fee for public
Parking permit required $6 (follow signs)

Sarah Aroeste, inspired by her Sephardic roots from Spain and Greece, is the leader of the contemporary Ladino group, the Sarah Aroeste Band. Determined to help bring Ladino (Judeo-Spanish) music back to life for a new generation, Aroeste fuses 15th-century Ladino folk songs with rock, funk, jazz and blues. Performing music that spans the Mediterranean in an exotic blend of East and West, Aroeste combines flamenco melodies with Middle Eastern rhythms, and all with a modern soul. With its unique updated take, the Sarah Aroeste Band brings a sexy, fresh new sound to Ladino and Sephardic music. www.saraharoeste.com

Channel Islands
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

