

Asian American Spring Festival

San Jose State University 1988

PACIFIC RIM FILM FESTIVAL

Tuesday through Thursday

April 19 - 21

Camera 3 Cinema

10:30am and 2:30pm

Come and enjoy six foreign films, films that were the BEST of the Hawaiian International Film Festival from the past seven years. These films are brought to you by the San Jose State University's Theater Arts Department. The films are: Muddy River, from Japan; Our Sweet Days of Youth, from Korea; Other Halves, from New Zealand; Yellow Earth, from China; Butterfly and Flower, from Thailand; and Spices, from India. In addition to these award winning films, the Pacific Rim Film Festival has included events such as discussions with directors and film scholars, various lectures (at SJSU), special guest receptions, and much more. Admission is FREE! For tickets, please contact the SJSU Film and Video Society at (408) 924-4571.

Funded by Associated Students

Sponsored and partially funded by
The Asian American Studies Department

For more information, call the Asian American Studies Department office at (408) 924-5752.