Mrs. Dan Tolmach
Oxnard, California

Dear Jane:

Thank you so very, very much for your staunch support in the campaign. To have you with me meant a great, great deal to me, and I am everlastingly grateful to you.

Although we lost our primary election struggle, ours was not fundamentally a losing cause. For our differences with the Goldwater-Murphy type of Republicans on the vital issues of our time are of far deeper significance than the differences we have among ourselves in the Democratic Party.

Thus I intend to do all I can to insure that we are sustained in the general election on our stands on the issues, and on the Democratic candidates -- led by Lyndon B. Johnson and Pierre Salinger -- who will carry our banners. I hope you will do likewise.

I look forward to seeing you soon. Until then, again, with heartfelt thanks, I am,

Yours always,

Alan Cranston

Great to see you at the convention, Jane.
Hi to Dan.
