

or guardians to live in the residence halls or in other housing approved by the college. Exceptions may be made for those who have written permission from their parents to live elsewhere.

Approved Off-Campus Housing for Women

The Student Housing Office maintains a list of approved rooming and boarding houses which have been inspected and meet the college housing standards for women. Women living in approved housing will be required to observe the residence rules of the Associated Women Students. Arrangements for living accommodations should be made well in advance of registration. If women secure housing not on the approved list, the parent or guardian will be asked to assume full responsibility.

Off-Campus Housing

The Student Housing Office maintains a file of available student housing as a service to students seeking living accommodations. Students are advised to make arrangements for housing as early as possible before registration. Off-campus living accommodations are provided by private homes in the area, with a limited number offering room and board. A large number of apartments are available in the area adjacent to the campus. The Housing Office will also attempt to help students interested in sharing apartments to get in touch with other students interested in similar living accommodations.

Although the college does not supervise off-campus housing, Fresno State College students living in private homes, apartments, and other types of student housing are expected to conduct themselves in a manner which will enable them to maintain desirable relations with their landlords and their neighbors.

Housing for Married Students

The college does not maintain housing facilities for married students and their families. However, some low-cost housing is available to married students and their families through application to the Fresno City and County Housing Authority, 2520 Clinton Avenue, Fresno 3, California.

The Student Housing Office also maintains a file of privately owned rentals, some of which are near the campus. These private rentals range from $60 to $80 per month depending on the size and furnishings.

FOOD SERVICE

The Fresno State College Association, Inc., maintains the college cafeteria and a separate snack bar, The Roundup. The cafeteria provides regular meal services for all students and faculty five days a week and for residence hall students seven days a week during the time college is in session; The Roundup is open weekdays.

PLACEMENT SERVICE

The college maintains a centralized placement service which is closely integrated with the total educational process of the college, operates in cooperation with the various departments of the college, and is part of the student personnel program. Its services include educational placement, business and industrial placement, and student placement.

The placement service seeks more efficient utilization of college manpower by assisting students of the college and alumni in seeking positions which will best utilize their education, training, experience, and abilities and by aiding them in their progress toward positions of greater responsibility and personal satisfaction. It not only serves the needs of the college and its students but is vitally concerned with and directs its service toward the needs of the community, business and industry, the public school system, and to the State generally.

The specific functions of the office are to collect and make available to prospective employers personal data and confidential letters of reference of candidates; maintain a current record of employment opportunities; recommend candidates for positions at the request of employers; arrange for interviews between candidates
