Reports

Chair's Report (K. Thompson): none, absent.

SAEM Report (M. Olson): none, absent.

ASI Report (T. Hammond):

- One JUMP officer resigned.
- T. Kelly made presentation about WASC.
- Made resolution regarding budget cuts.

ACE Report (L. Vega):

- During Registration 1, double drop-in hours.
- Many students don't understand that they can apply for 20 units at second reg.
- Students on academic probation who didn't see an advisor before first reg now have registration holds until they meet an advisor before 2nd reg.

Liaison Reports:

- ☐ Athletic Council (D. Girman): meeting today—talking about what to name the gym.
- ☐ Academic Advising (D. Girman): approved vote for ONE student, not all 3;
  - Language developed as recommendation for departments in addressing advising in RTP documents.
  - Undeclared seniors—does there need to be a change to advising policy? Recommend registration holds for such students.
- ☐ Scholarship Committee (M. Buckley): Still undecided about whether letters are necessary. E-mail vote is coming up. Some scholarships do require letters, but many don't consider the letters at all. Median GPA for recipients was 3.85.
- ☐ Fee Advisory (M. Buckley): With regard to leftover money from overenrollment, 2 clubs applied for funds and were approved. Eligibility applications being reviewed this week.

Business

1. Rationale for repairing the base for academic advising: item deferred to Dec. 17 meeting due to lack of quorum.

Adjourned 10:45

Minutes respectfully submitted by J. Mahdavi.
