

VIET NAM WAR BLAMED FOR DU BOIS BOMBING

"Of course there are Communists in our organization. Anybody can join."

So proclaimed Mathew (Dynamite) Hallinan, national committeeman of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs, during a Friday Speakers Platform rally.

The noontime gathering wasn't attracting to many students until Hallinan began his oration.

He summarized the reasons for the Sunday morning bombing of the Club's national headquarters in San Francisco by saying that "the brutality of Viet Nam makes people inured to violence and murder. They are reluctant to put down any violence in the South.

"This poses a serious threat to democracy."

Viet Nam wasn't the only problem blamed for the violence the Du Bois Club currently records.

Referring to Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach's order that the Club register as a Communist front organization, Hallinan said, "I blame the violence on Katzenbach. Without his stamp of approval, it never would have come to this."

During the rally, anti-Du Bois Club literature was being circulated by unidentified students.

Listing the "facts" about the Club, it warned students that "you are the target, don't be the victim."

MATHEW HALLINAN
"people inured to violence"

frightened out?"

One student timidly replied, "yes."

Freed explained that his tactics would be to use the "blow their minds" method of fighting the order.

"We're going to blow all your minds by calling everyone comrade."

Jimmy Garrett, a student and member of SNCC who joined the DuBois Club recently, had less to say than the others, but advised everyone to "keep disrupting and keep in motion."

Dale Gronemeier agreed with the other speakers especially concerning the "total irresponsibility of the McCarran Act," which requires all Communist front organizations to register with the Federal Government.

Gronemeier, West Coast Regional Director of the National Committee to abolish HUAC, said that "the McCarran Act, written 15 years ago, has to be rewritten.

"It was constructed so that no group can register. Since its inception, 23 groups and 34 individuals have been ordered to register as Communists or Communist organizations.

"All of these cases have been thrown out of court," Gronemeier said, "but most of the groups involved have been driven out of existence."

Those ordered to register are also fined $10,000 per day until they do so. Hallinan said, "We will spend almost no time, energy or money in courts on this.

"We will step up our program by fighting against the immediate issues—Viet Nam, the civil rights issue, and other problems.

"There must be an alternative to the mess we're living in today."

Gronemeier commended the Club on its response to the Katzenbach order. "The response has been magnificent.

"The DuBois Club has become the central battleground in the fight for civil liberty. The DuBois Club fight is everyone's fight."

At that moment he took a dollar bill from his wallet and joined the Club himself, since "their fight is my fight."

Poll workers needed

In preparation for the March 28-29 election on the college union proposal, the AS is seeking poll workers, and offering $1.25 an hour to all volunteers.

Signups are being taken beginning today in Hut T-1. Volunteers will man polls in any combination of hours between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m., and workers will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

President's office: a pressure cooker

Late Gater briefs: dropping deadline

By PATRICK SULLIVAN

The president's office at SF State was likened to a pressure cooker yesterday by Acting President Stanley Paulson.

Paulson, who will leave here in September to head the speech department at Penn State University, said "political problems brought on by community concern for what the college is doing" are what warm the presidential chair.

"But a president has to accept the inevitability of that," Paulson said.

"If the college is to move forward, there will be extensive community concern about what is happening here," he said, "and political problems increase with community concern."

The decision to accept the new post was a difficult one, Paulson said, but he wanted to get back to teaching in his field rather than keep "a job that saps every bit of my energy."

He said he enjoyed the administrative responsibility in working with the faculty for college progress and the students in their experimental approaches to education.

A current problem for the acting president is the response of Gatorville residents to the announced closing of the married student housing June 30.

He will meet with attorney Melvin Belli sometime, Paulson said, but so far contact with the Belli office has been limited to a conversation with Belli's assistant, Robert Leiff.

Leiff has assured the acting president it would be desirable for the residents to meet with the administration to get all information possible on housing opportunities.

(On March 2, Gatorville's two representatives on the Ad Hoc Housing Committee, of which Paulson is acting chairman, stayed away from a meeting.)

Paulson cleared the haziness over what exactly will replace Gatorville after June 30.

A Physical Education and Nursing building is planned for the 3.2 acre site.

But until money is appropriated for the new structure—which may take two years — the land may be used for a parking lot.

On another front, Paulson said he had received "a rather long" letter from Oscar Fisher, representative of a neighborhood group that wants a playground on the 6.6 acres SF State is seeking for expansion.

Fisher wants further assurance that the college will seek no more land and will not expand past the 6.6 acre site by Lowell High School, pending legislative approval of the purchase.

Paulson reiterated that no foreseeable expansion will take place, because the 16,000 FTE (Full Time Equivalent) limit set by the Trustees for planning is for all intents and purposes the ultimate high.

ANOTHER DEADLINE

Friday, March 18, is the last day for dropping a course without penalty of the "WF" grade. To drop a course, students must file an official program change in the Registrar's Office no later than 5 p.m. deadline day.

TRIPPER'S MEETING

Students going on the visit to Sacramento should attend a meeting scheduled for today, the State Symposium on State Government has announced.

At the meeting, reports from study groups will be heard, and materials relating to the Sacramento trip will be distributed.

The meeting, in BSS 110 at 3:30 p.m., was announced to participants earlier, a Symposium spokesman said, but trips along the ZIPs caused a melange of mailing problems, and this is actually the first word students are getting about the meeting.

QUAVERING MEMORIES
Guest speaker at today's

Engineering Society meeting will be Henry Degenkolb, a structural engineer, who will discuss the Alaska earthquake of 1964. The meeting is in Sci 101 at 12:30 p.m.

CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM

A rally protesting the construction of the Panhandle and the Golden Gate freeways will be held today at 12 noon at the Speaker's Platform.

AS President Terry McGann will introduce a host of speakers, among them, Supervisor George Moscone, assemblymen John Burton and Willie Brown, and guitarist singer Malvina Reynolds will entertain.

The rally is sponsored by the Forensics Union.

IT'S NOT U.

Yesterday's story reporting Acting President Stanley Paulson's September resignation contained an error.

Paulson will become chairman of the speech department at Pennsylvania State, not the University of Pennsylvania as reported.

Black Student Union

New name for NSA

To emphasize a "positive concept of blackness," the SF State Negro Student Association has changed its name to the Black Student Union.

BSU president Marrianna Waddy explained, "In view of the current world thing and the emergence of Africa as an important entity in the world scene, we thought we would attempt to incorporate the eminent and profound concept of blackness as a positive force in the students' education at SF State."

The change in title is to "correct erroneous historical connotations of the word 'black,' she said.

The word "Negro" is considered by the BSU to be a "euphemism for irrefutable reality," Miss Waddy said.

In looking for a name, the NSA also considered Afro-American Students and Soul Students.

But the name is not all that the members wanted to change. The BSU has developed a new philosophy and program.

The BSU wants to develop not only responsibility of membership to the organization, Miss Waddy said, but the privilege and honor of being a part of the Union.

"We want to acculturate in the black student a learning experience of the depth and breadth of culture heritage, not only as he has experienced it in the United States, but also in the world," she added.

The BSU has set up a financial assistance program with a loan fund for members to pay tuition and fees and a scholarship fund based on leadership ability.

The academic part of the new program is comprised of:

- A tutorial program in which members of the organization tutor each other for classes.

• A Community Lecture Tour of Bay Area high schools and junior colleges to "give insight and encourage black high school students to come to SF State."

• A newspaper to be circulated within the Bay Area informing students of the programs and services at SF State.

Although the organization has a new name and program, they have not changed their constitution.

"Anyone," Miss Waddy stressed, "is welcome to join the Black Student Union."

Poet Creeley reads here

Robert Creeley, whose poetry is said to have "the subtlest feeling for measure encountered anywhere except in the verses of Ezra Pound," reads from his work tomorrow in the Gallery Lounge at 1 p.m.

Once associated with the "beat underground" of the Black Mountain Review, Creeley is now appreciated as a contemporary poet.

Creeley is presented by the Poetry Center in association with the Contemporary Arts Festival.

Fresno takes two of 3 from batmen

SF State's baseball team performed well this weekend at Fresno but lost two of three games to a tough Fresno State team.

The three games brought the Gators' season record to 2-5.

Tomorrow SF State travels to Moraga for a 3 p.m. game against St. Mary's.

Bob Cavalli won the lone

Gator victory with a two-hit, 5-0 job Saturday in the first game of a doubleheader. The Gators lost the second game, 8-1, and Friday's contest, 4-3.

The righthanded Cavalli limited Fresno to a single in the first inning and another in the fifth in registering SF State's first shutout of the season.

In the Friday game, Fresno came up with two runs in the bottom of the ninth to defeat the persistent Gators.

In direct contrast to last year, the Gators made only five errors in the three games. In the 1965 season, the Gators were capable of making as many as 10 errors in a single game, and many were the times they fumbled at least five times. But this season, the hitting and pitching so far have been good, and even though they've lost five games, most of the scores have been close.

Strokers wait

The first Far Western Conference golf match last Thursday at Harding Park was a laugher for the Gators as they crushed Nevada, 19½-1½.

Today the SF State swingers travel to the Yolo Flyer's Club near Woodland to take on UC Davis in another FWC match. A win will give the golfers a 3-2 season record.

Senior Bob Davis shot a 75 to take the day's medalist honors against Nevada. Three of the other four SF State men also shot in the 70's.

Davis defeated Ernie Maupin, 3-0, and John Smith downed Gary Bradford, 2-1, as they won, 2½-½, in the best-ball team play. Vic Kulik and Mike Soden combined for a 3-0 team victory, as Kulik shut out Lance Hanson and Soden did the same to Jeff McAcheron. Joel Kuechle took a 3-0 win from Fran Menante in the fifth-man match.

Coach Guido DeGhetaldi said Nevada is one of the FWC's weaker teams, mainly from a lack of practice so far this year. He rates Sacramento as the number one team.

The Gator golfers were scheduled to meet Santa Clara Thursday in a home match, but the Bronco strokers are taking final exams now, so the match will either have to be postponed or cancelled.

Player of Week

Bob Cavalli is this week's baseball Player of the Week for his two-hit win last weekend over Fresno State. He also won the only other Gator victory, against USF in the season opener.

Shades of old: Burke victory

Jim Burke, last year's 154-pound NCAA college champion and a Gator wrestler, won the 191-pound division at last weekend's open wrestling tourney here.

Other college division winners at the tournament were Sergio Gonzalez — 115, John Tusuda — 125, Bob Janko — 138, Joe Seaz — 154, Russ Camillie — 171, Pat Tovell — heavyweight.
