WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST
LA CUESTA ENCANTADA
SAN SIMEON, CALIFORNIA

Nov. 1, 1934.

Dear Miss Morgan :

Mr. Hearst has instructed me to take care of the details of your trip abroad, If there are any that I have not mentioned to you, please let me know.

Mr. Lindner of the Examiner, and Mr. Mayer the business manager there, being on the ground are assisting me.

Mr. Mayer informs me that you intend to return on the same steamship line; so I told him to get round trip ticket as you had intended doing yourself.

But in view of Mr. Hearst's letter to you, suggesting that you return by way of Southampton, I am not sure that it is desirable to get round trip ticket.

If you approve, it might be better to get ticket one way from San Francisco to Naples; then when you are returning, Miss Head in London will take care of your return ticket and reservation whenever you decide to come back and on whatever boat and date you prefer. You can let her know in sufficient time to get best reservation possible. Her address is NATIONAL MAGAZINE CO. (A M Head) 153 Queen Victoria street, London, E. C. 4.

In this way you can come back by way of New York, taking the trip from there around through the Canal or by rail or plane, as you elect.

And while in New York, Mr. Hearst says you might like to visit the warehouse at 387 Southern Boulevard, and select any furniture you desire sent out here. Mr. McGregor will be at your service.

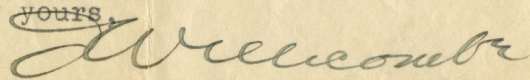

In fact, I am notifying Mr. McGregor that, if you stop in New York on your way back, he may expect you to call there and make these selections; also he has been instructed to get you whatever reservation and transportation you desire from New York to the Coast. If you will be good enough to wire him care NY American on your return when you will arrive, he will also take care of you at steamship pier, etc. To return to Mr. Lindner-Mr. Mayer, they will also cooperate with you and take care of visas for passport, also triptyches and whatever other papers are required from the Automobile Club to facilitate your trip over the borders and through the countries you are visiting.

Miss Head will have competent chauffeur at Naples to meet you and take car off boat and be at your service.

Please let me know if there is anything else you can think of and I will be happy to attend to it.

Sincerely yours,

P-S Don't forget to let me know what you decide about round trip or one way ticket.

Dear Miss Hearst:

Mr. Hearst has instructed me to take care of the details of your trip abroad. If there are any that I have not mentioned to you, please let me know.

Mr. Lindner of the Excelsior, and Mr. Mayer the business manager there, both on the ground are assisting me.

Mr. Lindner informs me that you intend to return on the same steaming line; so I told him to get round trip ticket as you had intended doing formerly.

But in view of Mr. Hearst's letter to you, suggesting that you return by way of Southampton, I am not sure that it is desirable to get round trip ticket.

If you approve, it might be better to get ticket only from San Francisco to Naples; then when you return, Miss Hearst in London will take care of your return ticket and reservation whenever you decide to come back and on whatever boat and date you prefer. You can let her know in preliminary time to get last reservation possible. Her address is NATIONAL AGENTS CO. (A) 153 Green Victoria Street, London, E. C. 1.

In this way you can come back by way of Southampton, taking the trip from there around through the Channel or plane, as you elect.

And while in New York, Mr. Hearst has you might to visit the warehouse at 337 South Street, and Mr. Mayer's furniture you have sent out here.

In fact, I am notifying Mr. McGregg that, if you drop in New York on your way back, he may expect you to call there and make these relations; also he has been instructed to get you whatever reservation and transportation you desire from New York to the Coast. If you will be good enough to write him care of your at on your return when you will arrive, he will also take care of you at pier, etc. to return to Mr. Lindner-Mr. Mayer, they will also cooperate with you and take care of visas for passport, also trip tickets and whatever other papers are required from the Automobile Club to facilitate your trip over the borders and through the countries you are visiting.

Miss Hearst will have competent chauffeur at Naples to meet you and take car off boat and be at your service.

Please let me know if there is anything else you can think of and I will be happy to attend to it.

Sincerely yours,
Don't forget to let me know what you decide about round trip or one way ticket.
