- 4.) APM 320 Policy on the Composition of Search Committees for Designated Administrative Positions. Personnel Committee.

Chair Tsukimura (Personnel) reviewed the changes being made to the APM.

Senator Kensinger (At-large) asked for clarification as to when library faculty and staff would be included on search committees. The committee unanimously approved changes to explicitly include the library and several sections and removed the striking of the Library section on Page 12.

Vice President Astone gave background on the changes being made to the APM to clarify that most of the changes were made to separate procedures from campus policy, and to eliminate the appendix that referred to specific cabinet positions.

Senator Kensinger asked about changes to the Criteria for Appointment section, specifically the deletion of Point 3 referring to the ability of candidates. Vice President Astone started that the position description itself would set the standards for hiring and be reviewed by the search committee.

Senator Kensinger (At-large) asked about deletions to Section V-E related to the elimination of references to “bone-fide qualifications”. Vice President Astone stated that these changes ensured that HR did not make changes to the vacancy announcement without consultation with the search committee, and to ensure that the vacancy announcement would not be changed after the fact.

Section V-E-4 was edited to clarify that the vacancy announcement cannot be modified after the position has been posted, and that administrators must consult with search committees before the announcement is modified and re-posted. The section was revised to read: “Once a vacancy announcement has been posted, the criteria stated in the vacancy announcement cannot be altered. Should the appropriate administrator, after consultation with the search committee, wish to alter these criteria, the appropriate administrator will consult with university Human Resources for appropriate procedures.”

Senator Kensinger (At-large) asked about Section C-3 and whether this section would allow administrators to appoint search committee chairs in administrative searches. Vice President Astone stated that this change was designed to help the committee get started with its work and to give administrators the ability to move the committee forward with staff support. Senator Ayotte suggested that allowing the election of the search committee chair would likely make the process more inclusive. The section was allowing administrators to appoint search committee chairs was deleted.
