The faculty members represent diverse specializations in the disciplines of animal science and teacher training. With doctoral degrees from many of the nation's outstanding agricultural universities, the faculty have combined philosophies of undergraduate education, research, curriculum development, industry relations, and career placement into a unique program. Their experience combines the practical and theoretical aspects of the animal sciences to provide an education second to none. Students select an adviser who assists in both academic and career planning on an individual basis. The faculty place a high priority on strong adviser-advisee relationships.

General Education requirements ..... 51

(including 12 upper-division units, to be taken no sooner than the term in which 60 units of coursework are completed)

Electives and remaining

degree requirements ..... 1-7

Total minimum requirements ..... 120

* Within the Animal Science Core, Equine Specialization majors are required to take ASCI 51 and Dairy Specialization majors are required to take ASCI 61.

** Livestock Business Management Specialization and Meat Technology Specialization majors are required to take ASCI 71 in the career specialization; therefore, two additional courses are required from ASCI 21, 31, 41, 51, 61, or 91 in the Animal Science Core.

*** The total number of units will exceed 120 if a student chooses to meet all of the veterinary school entrance requirements, as additional courses may be required (see advising note 7.) This total presumes that the student has fulfilled the Upper-Division Writing Skill requirement by passing the Upper-Division Writing Skill examination for 0 units.
