Dear Jane:

I am delighted that you have accepted such an important role in my campaign in Ventura County.

The big job we face is to get across to the people the outstanding record of performance of this administration and our plans for continued progress in the future.

I know that under your leadership we will achieve this and will have the most effective campaign in many years.

Best wishes and many thanks for your willingness to assume this responsibility. I look forward to working with you closely in the months ahead.

Sincerely

EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor
