THE NEW THEATRE

SIXTY-SECOND STREET AND CENTRAL PARK WEST, NEW YORK

April twenty-first, 1 9 1 0.

My dear Mrs. Fox:-

I should be glad if you could allow us to keep the souvenirs until April 30th, which is the end of the run of "Beethoven". If this is quite convenient to you I will have them sent direct by express to Whitefield, N. H., but if it will cause you any inconvenience we could take them out of the exhibition and send them to you by the 28th. If you would let me know your pleasure I will attend to it at once, but if it is equally convenient to you I should, of course, be glad to keep the very interesting souvenirs until the end of the run of "Beethoven".

Yours very truly,

Dinthop Somes

Mrs. Jabez Fox, 99 Irving Street, Cambridge, Mass.

I rake pleasure in sending you herewith a copy of the play. Braz do not bouble to acknowledge it.
