The show, "America's Next Top Bachelor Housewife Celebrity Hoard Makeover Star Gone Wild," and a panel following the performance are presented by University Student Union (USU) Productions to promote awareness and education for the LGBT community.

The quartet celebrates its 20th anniversary with this new musical that takes on the cultural bludgeon of reality TV, said Christine Zeledon of USU Productions. Originally from San Jose, Zeledon is a senior majoring in Recreation Administration.

"After being wowed by their performance, the audience will have the chance to meet the four divas as men during an educational panel," Zeledon said.

Presale tickets are $5 for Fresno State students and $10 for the general public. Tickets at the door are $7 for Fresno State and $12 for the general public.

Doors open at 6 p.m. and the show starts at 7 p.m. at the Satellite Student Union, located at Maple and San Ramon, south of Barstow. Parking will be enforced. Passes are available at parking kiosks for $3.

USU Productions is a non-profit, student-based programming entity that provides diverse educational activities, entertainment, social interaction and leadership opportunities that compliment the classroom experience.

For more information, contact Zeledon at 408.849.1929 or cazeledon@mail.fresnostate.edu.
