

Lupe Anguiano

From: [REDACTED]
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Wednesday, May 03, 2000 10:01 PM
Attach: Backup of Invitation.wbk
Subject: Hi

May 12

Lupe,
Long time no see. How are you doing? CREATE is having an Advisory Committee dinner at the Radisson in Santa Barbara Friday 5/12/2000. I would like for you to be my guest if you are interested in going. Attached is the invitation with all the details.
Ed

Industry and Education Partnerships

The California Regional Consortium for Engineering Advances in Technological Education

Project CREATE

Invites you to join us...

Project CREATE
Advisory Committee Meeting

Sponsored by the Project CREATE Consortium of Community Colleges:

*Antelope Valley College
Allan Hancock College
College of the Canyons
Cuesta College
Moorpark College
Oxnard College
Santa Barbara City College*

Funding for this project provided by the National Science Foundation.

www.create-california.org

Friday, May 12, 2000, 3:30 p.m.
Tour Santa Barbara City College's Computer
Networking Lab
721 Cliff Drive, Santa Barbara

- ◆ Experience on-line learning - the new trend in education. See Santa Barbara City College's Computer Networking Lab and test-drive a Cisco® course lecture on-line.

Dinner to follow at 5:00 p.m.

The Radisson
1111 E. Cabrillo Blvd., Santa Barbara

- ◆ Keynote Speaker: Orville Beach
IS Manager, Nortel Networks, Simi Valley

"Linux - What's it all about?"

Linux is a computer operating system that's an alternative to Microsoft Windows. Orville will present a broad overview of what Linux is, what it isn't, and why colleges AND private industry should pay close attention to this phenomenon.

- ◆ Project CREATE Update: Hear highlights of this year's educational advances.
- ◆ Partnerships: Share your recommendations on how the community colleges in the region can help you meet your workforce training needs.

RSVP (661) 259-7800 x3364