STANLEY MOSK
NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN FOR CALIFORNIA

November 29, 1960

Mrs. Jane Tolmach

Oxnard, California

Dear Jane:

January 20th is the day President-Elect Kennedy will be inaugurated!

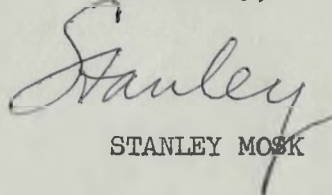

I have forwarded your name to the Committee in Washington, and you should receive your personal invitation for two sometime in December. If you can arrange to go, I am sure you will enjoy the historic occasion.

You will also be hearing directly from an airline concerning a special jet flight being arranged non-stop to Friendship Field, Washington-Baltimore, on Tuesday, January 17th. This will enable you to arrive in time for pre-inaugural activities planned on the 17th, 18th and 19th.

A hotel will be designated by the National Committee for California guests. Information concerning reservations will be forwarded with your invitation.

If you desire any further details, my office will be delighted to be of help to you.

Cordially,

STANLEY MOSK
