

Proclamation

in honor of the Launch of

The Henry L. "Hank" Lacayo Institute of Workforce & Community Studies

Whereas, California State University Channel Islands has officially opened the Henry "Hank" Lacayo Institute for Workforce and Community Studies (HLI); and

Whereas, The HLI is named for Henry "Hank" Lacayo a well-known workforce and community leader who believes that the Institute "will benefit a lot of kids, businesses and the community and will make a difference for the future"; and

Whereas, The mission of the HLI is to seek solutions to community and workforce issues that face us today and that will impact the future; and

Whereas, The HLI will serve as a resource to students and the community who will use the University's academic resources to do scholarly studies, obtain data, and host forums to address important social, cultural, environmental and economic issues;

Now Therefore, Be It Proclaimed that the Henry L. "Hank" Lacayo Institute of Workforce & Community Studies will provide many positive learning experiences for the students and the community, contributing to a shared
"Commitment to Quality Education for All."

Presented this 15th day of November 2010

Stanley C. Mantooth

Ventura County Superintendent of Schools