Time for chit chat again. So sit down and get ready to read the latest news and gossip.

DANCE

Club San Felipe will be having a dance at the Starlight Ballroom. From 8:30 to 1:00 a.m., Saturday, May 4th. Frank Camacho and Latin Five will be playing.

Admission $1.50 per person. The best original costume of squares will win a trip to Las Vegas for four days with expenses paid. So if you want a ball go to the Starlight Ballroom Saturday night.

SPORTS

Club Riviera has been warming up for this year's softball season. Looks like their shaping up pretty good. Paul R. looks like he's hitting this year. Ron H. better lose his pot if he wants to get those grounders. Frank K. no more pop-ups. Joe P. no complaints about you, so far. You're doing great in managing the team this year. Al R. we want to see more home runs this year. Papa Bear we miss your smiling face. Better quit trying to get rich and come to circulation.

Barbara Bednar, Margie Sanchez and Chris took second place on the Early-risers Bowling team. Dorothy Platt and her team took first place. But we tried, didn't we girls?

BIRTHDAYS

Happy Birthdays and hope you have many more to; Rachael Payer - April 26; James Payer, Jr. - April 8; Mark Adams - April 15.

GET WELL

To my mother Estelle Wilson. Sure miss you mom. Now we'll all get skinny cause there's no home made bread. Frank K. is still waiting for his fry bread. Don't give the nurses too bad of a time.

If you're out riding around some Sunday with the family, be sure to stop by at Ben Hancock's Service Station on Monterey Rd. He'll give you good service.

Enough chit chat now. So until next time, bye and take care.

La Comunidad de San Jose

POR
ANGIE CORONADO

It has come to my attention that "green card holders" are being used "knowingly", as strike breakers by Guimarra Farms in the Delano, California Area. This, in consistant and flagrant violation of the law and good, sound labor arbitration.

We as representatives of the Mexican-American Community protest this action and should write a letter to the address below in protest of this action, to have it discontinued.

SEND LETTER TO:

Ramsey Clark
U. S. Attorney General
U. S. Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

WHAT ARE PEOPLE ARRIBA? United People Arriba (UPA)

United People Arriba was formed in May 1967 by the leaders of the Community Progress League. The League was formed two years before -- in March 1965 -- to investigate and voice grievances against the administration and faculty of the Roosevelt Junior High School, which served the Model neighborhood residents. Primary complaints of the League were that the school was ghettoized and that racism was common. They claimed that their children were subjected to insulting epithets (even by their teachers common to ghetto gangs; to be a "chongo" (ape) was to be out; to be a "surfer" was in.

The Community Progress League's action brought results: there were staff changes at the School, including bringing in a new principal. According to an editorial in the San Jose Mercury

News (January 7, 1968) Roosevelt changed from a "problem school" to a school "with problems that are being combatted with methods that reflect good will and common sense." A political cartoon showed parents and the administration and teachers lifting the keystone of "concern" into place on an arch leading into the school building.

Encouraged by their success, the Community Progress League leaders, notably, Mrs. Sophie Mendoza, 79 North King Street, wanted to broaden their action beyond school problems, to seek improvements in health conditions, to protect the rights of welfare recipients, to resolve differences with the police, to find jobs, and get better housing. The leaders called a mass meeting at which the name UNITED PEOPLE ARRIBA (United People Arise) of UPA spontaneously arose and was agreed upon.

The organization is not tightly structured. Membership is voluntary and unrestricted; neither the membership list nor the number of members are considered public information by the organization's president. Although members may register, sign membership cards, and pay monthly dues (which are receipted by punches on the member's card) no one sharing concern over the same issues as the leaders of UPA would be excluded from meetings or denied the opportunity to help in their campaigns. There is no clear distinction between the membership and the "following" who can be attracted to UPA meetings or marches.

The officers and committee chairmen are:
President: Sophie Mendoza, housewife;
Vice-President: Ezra Hills, auto worker;
Co-Secretary: Jack Brito, warehouseman;
Treasurer: Tony Estremera, students;
Assistant Treasurer: Al Amador, student.

Committee Chairman: Health and Welfare: Charlie Harris, housewife;
Police: Mike Pena, truck driver;
Jobs: Gabriel Dominguez, laborer;

Committee Chairman are semi-autonomous, taking on issues as they claim priority for attention. The arrest of local youth, which UPA feels unjust, may stimulate the Police Committee to action. The arrival of farm-workers families who cannot find a place to live will draw attention of the Housing Committee.

The general membership meetings are intended to be held monthly, and subcommittee meetings weekly, but the schedule is irregular. Meetings are often called spontaneously on short notice.

Mexican-American, Blacks, and "Anglos" are among the leaders and membership.

Purpose and character of the organization is described in the leaflet: "What is United People Arriba"?

"We are not satisfied with things the way they are. In particular we want to change the Eastside into a better place for ourselves and our children. We are not fancy people. We don't live in rich homes or drive expensive cars, but we think we have the same rights as anybody. We mean to enjoy the same rights as the richest businessman. The U. S. Constitution says we have those rights, and we want to make it so."

Since its formation, UPA has been involved in the following civic activities: (It may be that some of the problems would have been resolved if UPA had not been active, and it may be that other individuals or organizations may claim equal credit with UPA for involvement).

1. Stop light installed at King Road and San Antonio Street, near a new School.

2. Picketed a store on Alum Rock Avenue whose proprietor practiced discrimination in hiring. A Mexican-American clerk was hired as a result.

3. Distributed bilingual wallet cards in English and Spanish outlining Constitutional rights in case of arrest.

4. Lobbied a school board to change the proposed name of a new school to either a Mexican hero (Benito Juarez) or a Negro hero (Crispus Attucks) rather than after a local civic leader. Compromised on the name "San Antonio."

5. Requested changes in the conduct of police investigations in the schools in order to improve police-juvenile relations.

6. Sponsored an immunization clinic with the San Jose Health Department.

7. Sent a representative to State Welfare Fraud Hearings, to inform local welfare recipients of proceedings.

8. Requested the Board of Supervisors to have the new Alexian Brothers Hospital designated as a County service clinic convenient to Eastside residents until a permanent clinic can be built.

9. Formed a buyers club for bulk purchases of food, and are beginning a cooperative barber shop.

UPA is action oriented. Their meetings attract several hundred members and followers and in addition they have organized marches, picket lines and sit-ins. They include in their membership a youth group: "The Black Barrets." Their heroes are activists: Emiliano Zapata, Ceasar Chavez, Frederick Douglass. Their passion is "Poor people doing things for themselves."

Today is the day of Club San Felipe Baile Del Cuadrito, wear squares, wear what you want but try to make it. We would love to have you attend so that we can all have a ball. Frank Camacho and his Latin Five will provide the best music intown. The place is the fabulous Starlight Ball Room (formally the Palomar). The time is 8:30 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. A (4) day stay in Las Vegas with all expenses paid will be the prize for the most original quadritos outfit. Admission is $1.50 per person. Bailamos??

Cops, cops, cops, if we are not careful next year's Food Drive will be just for the benefit of the cops. This year we had to pay extra for 15 minutes (1 cop) the extra was $17.00. The Food Drive can't afford that kind of wages - not even for cops. That is next year. This year we had plenty of food for the needy, if you know anyone that needs it just call Mr. or Mrs. Dolores or Hillard Payer at 286-1386 and they will bw glad to help. To Mr. and Mrs. Payer a hearty thanks they have been doing a wonderful job for (3) years. Gracias! Gracias! Gracias!

Our good assemblyman from the 24th Assembly District, Mr. John Vasconcellos said, "You have a fine candidate for the 25th Assembly in Dr. Arturo Cabrera". We thank you Mr. Vasconcellos for your fine words. Yes indeed.

Ray Flores and the Sociedad Gualupana deserve a lot of credit for the fund raising dance they had for Dr. Cabrera. However; again the cops and odds and ends sank them. They threw so many cops at them that if we are not rowdy, they certainly think so, only they are so nice grrrrrr that they don't say it, just in acts. Come on Chief get off our backs!

La Señora Ana Celia Rogers es una de las personas mas entusiastas de la Colonia Mexicana, cuando se trata de exponer la mexicanidad en todos los eventos que se celebran en nuestra comunidad, la señora Ana Celia está siempre dispuesta a tomar parte activa presentando a sus tres hijitos ataviados con trajes típicos mexicanos, tomando parte en bailes y canciones patrióticas. Su último éxito fué la fiesta internacional que se efectuó en Los Gatos el domingo 21 de Abril. Ana Celia se encargó de representar a México luciendo un lindo traje de china poblana, sus hijitos con trajes de charro y uno de ellos de zapatista con su hermosa Bandera Mexicana flotando al aire orgullosamente. Además la señorita Alejandra Pérez y su simpática hermanita lucieron un hermoso traje Yucateco y un traje típico de calle Acapulqueño. También desfiló una hermo-

SALT LAKE CITY--Reuben Garcia, Mexican Consul, and his wife, Margarita, were introduced recently to the 375-voice Mormon Tabernacle Choir by Elder Mark E. Petersen, Apostle of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The Tabernacle Choir, known throughout Latin American through radio and television, will make its first personal appearance in Mexico July 25 and 26.

Mr. Garcia spoke to the Choir members and expressed pleasure that the Choir would sing in his native land. The Choir will appear in the 2,000-seat Palacio de Bellas Artes in Mexico D. F. as part of the cultural olympics.

Beginning its tour with a July 22 concert in Dallas, Texas, the 120-year-old Choir will then proceed to San Antonio, Texas, and sing in the new 10,000-seat Convention Center at HemisFair '68 on July 23 and 24, and then on to Mexico.

In March, when the contracts for the Choir's visit to Mexico were signed, Choir President Isaac M. Stewart stated, "The Tabernacle Choir has appeared in many of the great halls of Europe, Canada and the United States and nowhere is there finer facility than the Theater of Fine Arts in Mexico City."

The Choir will be conducted by Richard P. Condie, director since 1958. Accompanists will be Dr. Alexander Schreiner and Dr. Robert Cundick.

FLASH! FLASH!

Connie Garza and Mary Lou Beltran had an exciting day, when they got locked out of their house. So, a friend from the Fire Dept. came to the rescue and soon an officer came to investigate thinking that this trio were burglarizing. Las girls from La Sonora Feminil Band, really caused a big commotion when they were in town. The local boys that were present, were really all excited. "Well boys now you realize why at times some girls go for band players". Like one guy told me, the change is good once in a while. He took so many pictures of the girl he was with that he filled up a scrap book. WOW! Nice to have Eleanor Solarez around, with her and Anna, there is no dull moment at all. Keep up the the smile, girls.

turo Cabrera is being congratulated by yours truly. Beside him is Gloria Bracamontez and two ladies from the many people present.

Mr. Cabrera is running for the 25th District Supervisor, let's all support him. He is a great man and if he wins I'm sure he'll do a good job in representing us.

Seems that Harry Evans isn't seen around like before. When Harry is around he keeps the crowd going. He is also a very good spy for his buddy, El Gordo. Kidding aside, Harry we hope to see you more.

There is a girl who wondered who the nice guy was at a dance, who else but Raul Chapa. Lots of luck to him wherever he goes, cause he deserves it.

WEST SIDE STORY

AS "MARIA"

West Side Story, the musical drama about Puerto Rican-American feuds in New York Slums that choked and delighted New York Audiences for more than two years with its tender but terror-ridden story, music and dances, is coming to the Montgomery Theatre in the Civic Auditorium on May 4, and will play additional performances on May 10, 11, 17, and 18, with matinees on the 11 and 18 at 2:15 p.m. Evening performances are at 8:30 p.m.

Hailed by all critics in New York and London as one of the major achievements of mid century theatrical history, "West Side Story" is a retelling of the saga of "Romeo and Juliet", with its action set amid the swirling street-feuds of youthful Americans and Puerto Ricans in a Manhattan slum.

As in the case of Shakespear's romantic tragedy, the Arthur Laurents libretto of the musical tells how the blossoming of a romance between a boy and girl belonging to mutually antagonistic factions leads to intensification of their strife, to heartbreak and the death of the impassioned lovers.

In this retelling of the age old tale, the youthful hoodlums of the streets create even more pity and terror, because of the race tensions between them and the starkness of their environment, than did the enmity of Montagues and Capulets.

Critics have declared in all metropolitan cities of America that the romance of the star-crossed lovers amid the brutalities of gang warfare is just as rhapsodic as was the famous romance in Verona. Instead of "swearing by the moon" as did Romeo beneath Juliets balcony, the hero of "West Side Story" sings to his beloved on a tenement fire-escape the song that has by now become a nation wide favorite, "Maria, I'll Never Stop Saying Maria."

Some of the other songs from the score by Leonard Bernstein that have become familiar to all Americans are the ominous "Something's Coming", the rhythmic "Cool" the melodiously tuneful "I Feel Pretty", "Tonight, Tonight", "I have A Love", "One Hand, One Heart", and the gaily comic satire on excusing all juvenile misconduct on psychological grounds, "Gee, Officer Krupke."

"West Side Story" was originally based on a conception by the celebrated choreographer, Jerome Robbins, and it is consequently a story that is told as much by tense and dynamic dances as by its words and Music. Anthony B. Moyer is responsible for staging these acrid, sizzling dances - expressive of "Cool" reckless, joyous slum pavement life.

The leading roles of the large cast to be seen at the Montgomery Theatre in the Civic Auditorium will be in the hands of Dorothy McDonald as Maria and Doug Haghdohl as Tony. The leaders of the two gangs will be played by Larry Zabel, and Frank Lozano. Maria's best friend, Anita will be played by Rose Soto. Otherstaking roles in the production will be, Danny Thomas, Bill Hardy, George Carson, Richard Shipe, John Gannon, Sue Simon, Melinda Marino, Joette March, Lee Garcia, Rob Garcia, Becky Marie, Mary Ballentine, Mary Cancilla, Elaine Hiddon, Cindy Huddon, Derette March, Clark Johnson, John Flamm, Hatch Forrest, Andy Garcia, Leonard Garcia, Skip Garcia, Phil Hernandez, Scott Heffner, Dennis Case, Craig Galaghan, Grace Soto, Vickie Guerreo, Susan Moffott, Chris C dena, Molly Soliz, and Dian Bahr.

CRITICA SOCIAL

FOR
BELLOUMINI

Do you believe in FORTUNE TELLING, CARD READING, PALM READING or ASTROLOGY?

CONSUELO MARTINEZ I don't believe in nothing like that, not even in LOVE; it just doesn't exist anymore. (Maybe someday you'll be in LOVE again).

MARTHA TORRES No, I don't because if PALM READING was to tell me that someday I would become rich and I believed it, it would probably take years for it to happen. Since I'm poor, I know it would never happen. And I'm not going to waste my time waiting for it to happen. (But if you were to become rich, there would be a lot of "happenings".)

MARIA MARTINEZ I believe in CARD READING because it came true to me. I was told that certain things would happen in my life and it came true. (I asked her what certain things happened, but she said it was personal.)

BELIA PERALEZ Yes, I believe in all of them, especially in ASTROLOGY. In fact, ever since I was 9 years old my father would follow ASTROLOGY. It has helped me as a guideline to my daily life and everyday affairs. (Maybe somebody could suggest to HERB GARCIA, of EL EXCENTRICO MAGAZINE, about having one in every issue???)

RACHEL RUCOBO No, because how can anybody tell your fortune by looking at your hand? (Yeah, especially on dirty hands.)

KATY BROWNE No, because once a FORTUNE TELLER predicted a bunch of malarky to my husband and it never came true. (You got to have faith.)

MARIE MICHEL I really don't know; I'm a little confused about it. (You are not alone, it's a confusing world).

RUBY RAMIREZ What do I look like, an idiot? (No comment)

BENITA REDE It's a bunch of baloney. (There you go, talking about something to eat.)

MARY JANE Well, if it sounds good, I believe it, otherwise forget it. (Very interesting).

LUPE GODINEZ I believe in CARD READING. Once I was told to be careful of my daughter or she would get burned and five months later she was burned with very hot coffee and had to receive medical treatment. Other things that have happened in my life came true by predictions of FORTUNE TELLERS. (Goes to prove that many people believe in it.)
DONNA ENERSON Yes, especially in ASTROLOGY. According to the Zodiac Signs, I'm a SCORPIO and am married to a LEO. We both have the same outlook in life and enjoy the same things. (A lot of people won't admit it, but they do believe in ASTROLOGY.)

DELFINA ROBLES Yes, I believe in FORTUNE TELLING. In fact, a FORTUNE TELLER in San Jose told me that I would get married in three months and I did get married almost on the date she mentioned. (Think I'll go and see one.)
PERSONAL MESSAGE TO: Bertha C. San Francisco de Ramos Aguascalientes, Por favor regresa a tu casa. Manuel Medina ya no puede vivir sin ti. El pobre camarada se esta haciendo pedazos pensando en tu amor. No seas mala, "Come home". (Este anuncio fue gratis por parte de CRITICA SOCIAL).
