00:00:42:14 - 00:00:45:21

Speaker 2

Girls such.

00:00:45:24 - 00:00:47:03

Speaker 1

Obviously.

00:00:47:06 - 00:00:51:13

Speaker 3

Ernie called me.

00:00:51:15 - 00:00:58:18

Speaker 1

Like, I don't like him. We have some kind of.

00:00:58:21 - 00:01:35:05

Speaker 4

Landing craft, you know? Well, we had targets that with the.

00:01:35:08 - 00:01:51:05

Unknown

Background that he'd have to so.

00:01:51:07 - 00:02:07:13

Unknown

Well, we got to go around the room and start to get the base.

00:02:07:15 - 00:02:09:25

Speaker 1

That's pretty awesome. Yeah, that's pretty.

00:02:09:27 - 00:02:12:22

Speaker 6

That's why they of want to get over there.

00:02:12:25 - 00:02:18:03

Speaker 1

Father.

00:02:18:05 - 00:02:21:07

Unknown

Ladies and gentlemen.

00:02:21:10 - 00:02:44:01

Speaker 2

This is a great day for us here. We worked for a long, long time in acquiring this building. Is a historical building in memory of all the veterans who served their country well in this area. I want to be very brief, but the thing is that I want to introduce the four people who were here. And I believe you've been very instrumental in providing us this, memorial building.

00:02:44:03 - 00:02:45:17

Speaker 2

First off, I'll call her. Right.

00:02:45:17 - 00:03:05:07

Speaker 4

Jordan He did our small share in this by declaring it an historic landmark years ago and and are very pleased that now it's going to be protected for all time for our valley. You know, it's not so important that the building be here as a place for a war, but rather that it be here as a place for peace.

00:03:05:10 - 00:03:30:08

Speaker 4

To remind us that, vigilance and the ability to maintain our our military strength and preparedness will mean peace in the future. And that, we can gather near and in community service and community activities in remembrance of the past so that the future will always be a safe place. And, Jack, I add my respect to you and all those who worked with you to make this happen.

00:03:30:10 - 00:03:52:11

Speaker 4

I welcome the, visiting dignitaries. there's so many generals here today that this old Navy lieutenant, wanting to salute. I don't know about this, but, it's very nice to have them all here, and I think it's a measure of the, respect for this activity today, this parade that we have, such a strong showing of the military support from across the United States.

00:03:52:13 - 00:04:13:12

Speaker 4

So Jack and the members of the National Guard Commission, thank you for doing this. And for all of you who are involved in the activities here, celebrating our our independence and our our willingness towards peace, by making sure that we maintain our vigilance. I Congratulations, General.

00:04:13:14 - 00:04:27:03

Speaker 2

I will now have a few words by Councilman George here. Carla, who is representing the city of San Jose, and the mayor, Susan Hamer.

00:04:27:05 - 00:04:51:18

Speaker 1

My father, Paul, to the Honorable Robert here, Don. So I may have to read my brief speech, but on behalf of the city of San Jose, I am honored today to been given the opportunity to make the dedication. We are dedicating this historical marker at this armory in memory of the men and women who have served in our nation's armed forces as the Sherco Alvarez family of three generations of United States Army veterans.

00:04:51:20 - 00:05:12:07

Speaker 1

It was also particularly pleasing for me to be here with you. This armory, as many of you know, was built in 1933, and the city has set a historical marker that when we place out in the streets, as you can see that prior to the post, but during that era, armories were often the focal point of a community building activities and of course, civic pride.

00:05:12:09 - 00:05:33:16

Speaker 1

Such was the case of our armory here. Many days of physical training was around this building. Not only this army play an important role in the peacetime affairs of our citizens. It was the same for mobilization of support of field units during war work. To the men and women who served in Korea and Vietnam have also marked, as always, the 11 Memorial.

00:05:33:20 - 00:05:50:26

Speaker 1

It is fitting that this facility is being used today as a training site and headquarters of the California National Guard Third Brigade, 40th Infantry Division. Thank you very much with all the distinguished guests.

00:05:50:29 - 00:06:20:25

Speaker 2

I want to make note that John Shackleton just arrived from San Francisco, representing the war for the rescue of civilians in San Francisco. John, just being down here, he's been supporting us throughout the United States and our parade. And we appreciate that. The next person who we would like to say a few words that we appreciate is our adjutant general for the state of California National Guard, Robert Thrasher.

00:06:20:27 - 00:06:47:18

Speaker 3

Don't go away. Distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen, it's a pleasure to be down here this morning from Sacramento. I was reflecting that the Army and I are just about the same age, and it looks a lot better than that. But this has been an important building in the city of San Jose for many, many years. I wished all the distinguished soldiers who served in this armory could be with us here today as you rededicate to building the city of the city of San Jose.

00:06:47:22 - 00:07:07:04

Speaker 3

And this county have always been supportive of the National Guard, the state of California, and my two Jacks and Ernie Glaze sustain that interest. I did a good deal of time back and forth over the years with them, and I don't mind that at all. They do some things for our soldiers that I wish was occurring throughout the state.

00:07:07:06 - 00:07:24:21

Speaker 3

For all of you who took the time to be here this morning for the dedication, we appreciate it very much. We're looking forward to the parade. We're particularly honored that we have with us here this morning. And we will be introduced our team from the National Guard bureau. That's an important milestone in itself to the first time he's been back.

00:07:24:23 - 00:07:40:06

Speaker 3

So, again, happy veterans Day for all you veterans. Thank you for what you're doing and it's good to be with you. Thank you.

00:07:40:09 - 00:07:54:28

Speaker 2

Thank you. Last but not least, is the chief of the Army National Guard, Kenneth General John Connally.

00:07:55:00 - 00:08:16:23

Speaker 7

But thank you, Jack. And well, I'm going to get Bradford right off the bat. John, it's good to see you here. I might tell you what your balls. Secretary of Defense Kay and I are members of the same Breakfast club and with Secretary Lew on, we have breakfast about twice a month together. But it's an honor for me to be here and be here, particularly.

00:08:16:26 - 00:08:29:22

Unknown

At a time like that.

00:08:29:24 - 00:08:51:29

Speaker 7

Usually when we're at Arlington Cemetery or someplace for a ceremony, we have to stop by. The Jets come in today for airport. So you all have a lot to be here at this historic armory, which, by the way, is one year older than I am. And to be here, we're such great Americans. The national Guard people. As my predecessor and previous boss, Herb Temple General Temple was the commander here.

00:08:51:29 - 00:09:21:18

Speaker 7

And guys like General Bill Jeffords as part of this great, the 40th division, which we're really proud of. Last year, we celebrated the 50th anniversary of the total mobilization of the National Guard on the steps, that river entrance to the Pentagon. And we had the 19 divisional flags there that were mobilized in 40 and 41. And of course, one of those was this great 40th division to the commissioner and the councilman that's here.

00:09:21:18 - 00:09:44:27

Speaker 7

And to all of you, or of course, to Ernie, the president of this great organization of the National Guard and the Veterans Council Commission here in San Jose. I appreciate the opportunity to be here. My vice was here last year. Gerald obviously says you got to go do this. Gerald Temple says it's a great thing. You got to go out there and get the hospitality of the great San Jose people.

00:09:44:29 - 00:10:02:09

Speaker 7

And I really am glad to be here and I appreciate the job the Guard is doing in California. You make us proud, Gerald Reiser. You and all the people that are here and and the Air Guard down here, the rescue unit I know is adding value to America like the Army Guard is on a daily basis. Go up.

00:10:02:11 - 00:10:25:16

Speaker 7

Colonel, appreciate you being here and a great job that you're doing as well. And if you're up, you just keep playing this for all those rescuers and we'll keep going. But it's an honor to be here for this historic armory this December 13 in Washington, D.C., downtown, we will celebrate the 355th birthday of the National Guard, the oldest military there is in this country.

00:10:25:18 - 00:10:41:01

Speaker 7

They did a superb job in the recent call, up with over 80,000 called up and almost 50,000 went to the desert. About in Baghdad. I want to thank you for the opportunity to be here. And I look forward to this great parade today in the largest city in the Bay Area.

00:10:41:08 - 00:11:16:07

Speaker 2

Thank you, General. Are General members of the Board of Supervisors and representing their city council and their power. And all of you people. Before closing, I'd like to just make one little statement. This building here is the rebirth of the veterans in San Jose and Santa Clara County. And we also much to the military preserving and maintaining those quarters here.

00:11:16:10 - 00:11:26:04

Speaker 2

And we look forward to the day when this becomes a historical museum for the National Guard as well as for all of them. We'll be an incubator for all the resources for.

00:11:26:09 - 00:11:27:07

Speaker 7

The veterans.

00:11:27:09 - 00:11:44:17

Speaker 2

Of all for Senator Kim. So in closing, I appreciate you all being here. And let's move along now. We've got a big day ahead of us. And thank you. I know.

00:11:44:17 - 00:11:48:00

Speaker 3

That I do it all and I know do after.

00:11:48:07 - 00:11:49:14

Speaker 8

The speech was fabulous.

00:11:49:18 - 00:11:53:29

00:11:57:27 - 00:11:59:04

Speaker 1

A little harder. So try to get a.

00:11:59:04 - 00:12:00:04

Speaker 2

00:12:00:04 - 00:12:14:13

00:12:23:04 - 00:13:18:05

Speaker 2

Well, that's what I'm saying. That's what went over your.

00:13:18:07 - 00:13:24:22

Speaker 1

One day parade. This is sponsored by the United Veterans Council. If it doesn't work like.

00:13:24:25 - 00:13:31:23

Unknown

That, it might be only in the city of San Dad. I am for the day of your master ceremony.

00:13:31:25 - 00:13:54:11

Speaker 1

My name is Jack McCarthy. If you have any complaints, would you give it to my assistant grade coordinator? Who is Jack? Tell me. And if you have one of those, would you give it to the president who is any great. Doesn't have any complaints. You know what the chain of command, John and I would appreciate it if you would protect me from any of the problems that may arise today.

00:13:54:13 - 00:14:29:00

Speaker 1

We are now getting prepared for the sky diving announcer for the sky diver will be the launches from the third quarter 91 and the steel. It was going to be three aircraft credited with two Iraqi gunboats being destroyed and 44 reservists. Reservists were recalled to active duty and he was one of them. So I'm on his presence.

00:14:29:02 - 00:14:38:08

Unknown

Microphone over to our announcer for the sky. Divers, little monsters.

00:14:38:10 - 00:15:06:25

Speaker 1

That you just have to read the gentlemen. I share those words on behalf of the team and those members of the Potomac Water and the master of the. Thank you very much. Wow. I just great and cleared to make that job. That should be in about 7 minutes. After that we're having an exciting going to be very exciting for them to be dropping off the building So we get a good reception, which we usually don't have a clap around.

00:15:06:27 - 00:15:26:11

Speaker 1

And but one thing you'll be able to fly by the people on the front, falling down, wave anything on the building. I don't know if anybody's working up there today, but I see some windows open, some curtains drawn. I think they're getting prepared to watch the coverage. We have five members of our team and between them, they have nearly 9000 jobs and a lot of experience.

00:15:26:14 - 00:15:56:14

Speaker 1

They will be helping them out. And Randy and I will be jumping our P.O.W. blood and we honor those flags. We are the most we've been having a particular occasion to jump off a flag, particularly the P.O.W. flag. And many years ago throughout California, we got that rise because they requested do it because we want to. There are questions that we want answered by putting our P.O.W. and I jumping for many years.

00:15:56:16 - 00:16:15:10

Speaker 1

He runs his own parachute up in here in California, and he just recently retired from their National Guard over here. And my feel that has nearly 30 years of jumping and 2400 jumps. He resides in New York. You'll be jumping bird flying in 72 different ways of getting it across. Yeah, right here.

Every other 41 years and 2500 jobs. He just recently retired from the Army, so exercising his G.I. Bill and going to college and resides in Monterrey. We did a lot of jumping down there to just take a man from a journalist who's a Hayworth. And it's hard to watch Yellow flag, right? I want you probably to read my writing or watch quick.

00:16:41:22 - 00:17:12:17

Speaker 1

My dad is still out the door, but it's Love grenade. Yeah, that gives a good indication of U.S. troops. Our shirts open. But I think inside of buildings moving up to that is starting to feel like the wind is about the wind and also about the forward leaning stories. You you sometimes be 25 to 30 miles an hour leave.

00:17:12:22 - 00:17:48:02

Speaker 1
