

The Japan American Cultural & Community Center
presents

"Chicanisma 1993"

an evening of Chicana Poetry & Music

featuring

Poetry by

¿Y QUE MAS?

Maria Cabildo
Adela Carrasco
Frankie Estrada
Liz Gonzalez
Evangeline Ordaz
Michele Serros

Music by

LAS TRES

Friday September 3
(Labor Day Weekend)

8:00 p.m.

Japan American Cultural & Community Center
244 South San Pedro Street (between 2nd and 3rd Streets) - Downtown L.A.
Admission $10

For tickets and information call Sean Carillo @ 213.617.0790

Listen for ¿Y Qué Mas? on KPFK Radio (90.7 FM) as part of "Chicano/Latino Arts Radio Series", a three part broadcast spotlighting some of Southern California's most talented Chicana/o and Latina/o artists. The programs will feature poetry, performance art, music and comedy, plus panel discussions concerning the future direction and sustainability of Chicano/Latino arts. This program will be broadcast on three consecutive Saturdays: August 21, August 28, and September 4, from 10 p.m. to midnight.