

MAKE SURE TO ATTEND THE FABULOUS PRESENTATION BY:

Michele Serros

Award-Winning, Best-Selling
Author, Poet & NPR Commentator

Known for her stories about life as a Latina writer

SEE HER IN ACTION:

- READINGS FROM HER BOOKS & POEMS!
- A Q-&-A SESSION!
- HER LIFE STORIES!

Author of the books:

How To Be a Chicana Role Model*
&
*Chicana Falsa

Thursday, April 11
Noon-1:00pm, Common Time
In the Carleton Chapel

"The kind of [woman] who will shape America's new century....

One of the top young women to watch for....

Her tales of never quite fitting in are both poignant and hilarious."

-- Newsweek

"One of the most distinctive and accomplished Latina voices in literature today." – Estylo

"Serros writes with sly humor and warmth about growing up Chicana."

-- San Antonio Express-News

Sponsored by the:

American Studies Department * Dean of Students Office * English Department
Latin American Students Organization (LASO) * Latin American Studies Program
Multicultural Affairs Office * Nason Distinguished Women Visitors Fund