DR. ELLIS McCUNE

1957

On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff I should like to welcome you to Pioneer Stadium and express our appreciation for your participation in College events. The Cal State athletic program is helping to make the College a more integral part of the community.

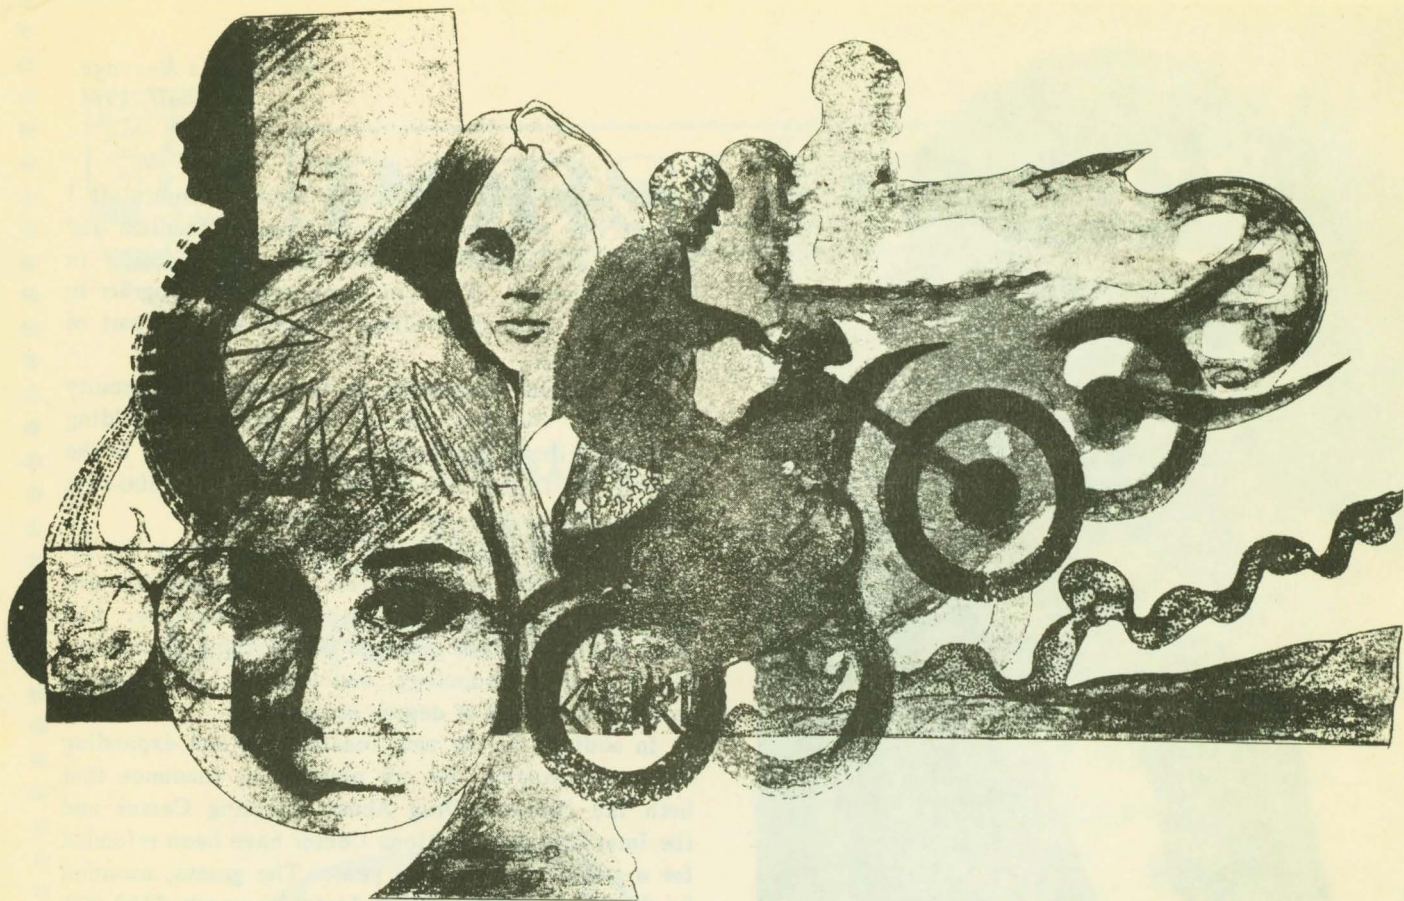

The campus is growing as fast as the community it serves. Our new Library-Administration Building is being utilized for the first time this fall, as is the Speech and Drama Building which houses a 500-seat theatre, classrooms and technical facilities.

With a fall enrollment of 13,500 students, an increase of 2,000 over last year, the demand for new and diversified curricula continues to increase. Cal State has added this year the B.A. in liberal studies, the M.A. in anthropology, and the M.S. in education to its growing list of degree programs.

In addition to the new construction and expanding academic program, we are pleased to announce that both the National Drug Abuse Training Center and the Inter-Cultural Relations Center have been refunded for a second consecutive year. The grants, awarded by the federal government and totaling nearly $400,000, will enable Cal State to continue to serve the College community with these unique programs.

As part of the continuing effort to develop special programs aimed at bringing the College closer to the community, a new organization, "Friends of California State College, Hayward," is actively soliciting members. It is our hope that you will have an opportunity to join with the "Friends" and participate in its program, which is designed to provide a channel of communication between the campus and the community and to broaden contacts between the College and the citizens it serves.

BOB RODRIGO – Head Coach

The 1971 football campaign will feature a totally new look beginning right at the top with newly appointed head coach Bob Rodrigo.

Coach Rodrigo is highly regarded in California as one of the top offensive coaches on the coast, having had many successful years as an offensive coordinator for San Francisco State College and Cal State College, Hayward.

During his stint here at Cal State, the Pioneers offensive team continually improved, and was one of the highest scoring outfits in the country during the 1969 and 1970 seasons.

While attending San Francisco State College, Rodrigo was named to the NCAA College All-American team in 1954-56-57 as a fullback. He is still regarded as one of the top players to ever play in the Far Western Conference, having been named to the All-Far Western Conference team in 1954-55-56-57, and as an All-Pacific Coast selection for four consecutive years.

Before joining the Pioneer staff, Rodrigo was the offensive coordinator for the Gators of San Francisco State. He held that position for eleven years before joining the Hayward staff in 1968.

A 1958 graduate of San Francisco State, Rodrigo went on to receive his master's degree in physical education from the same institution. As a member of the Department of Physical Education at Cal State, Hayward, coach Rodrigo also serves as the head golf coach during the Spring.

DON SAWYER – Offensive Line Coach

Sawyer enjoyed one of the most illustrious careers as a lineman of any player in the East Bay during his prep and college seasons.

A two year letterman at Castro Valley High School, coach Sawyer went to Chabot Junior College and was named to the Golden League Conference All-Star team for two consecutive years in 1966 and 1967.

While a starter for the Pioneers at Cal State, Hayward, Sawyer was named the most valuable lineman in 1967, and was an All Far Western Conference selection during that season.

Coach Sawyer signed as a free agent with the Oakland Raiders in 1968 and was regarded as one of the best linemen to ever come out of the Northern California Bay Area.

TOM MEEKINS – Line Coach

Meekins, a standout football player at Lincoln High School, was named to the All-Conference Eastern League in San Diego in 1961. While attending Lincoln, coach Meekins was an All-Conference selection in wrestling, and was the 1961 Southern Section C.I.F. runner-up in wrestling as a heavyweight.

Coach Meekins attended Cal Western University in San Diego, and was named to the NAIA Western team in football during the 1963 and 1964 seasons as a linebacker. Upon his graduation from Cal Western in 1965, he signed a pro contract with the San Diego Chargers and played one year in the AFL as a defensive back during the 1965 season.

DON CHU – Offensive End Coach

Chu was a former prep quarterback at Edison High School in Fresno during the 1958-59 seasons, before entering the service.

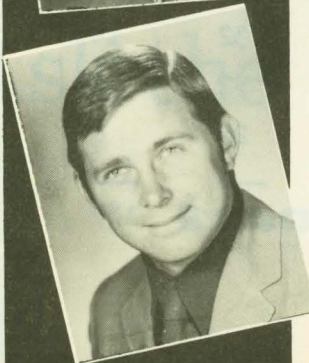

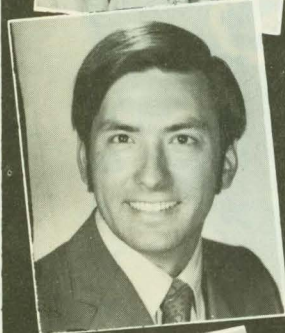

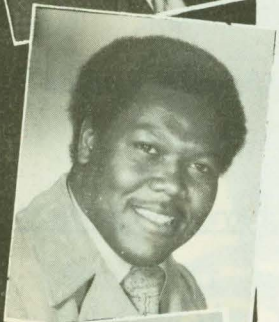

After returning from his service duty, Chu played football for the Fresno City College Rams in 1964 as a defensive back. That year, the Fresno club had one of its most successful years in the valley, winning the Valley Conference Football championship in 1964.

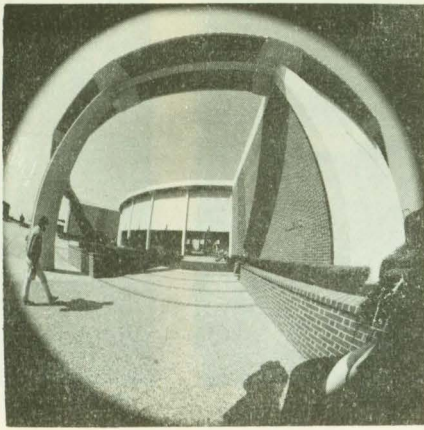

During the 1965 and 1966 seasons, Chu played at the defensive back position for the Pioneers here at Cal State, and led the Pioneers in interceptions during the 1965 season with seven steals.

TIM TIERNEY – Defensive Coordinator

A 1964 graduate of San Francisco State College, Tierney was an All-Far Western Conference defensive back in 1963 and again in 1964. After graduation he was highly sought after by the Philadelphia Eagles, and he played in the Eagles organization for two years from 1965 to 1966. After two years as a defensive back in the pro ranks, Tierney returned to San Francisco State to begin his coaching career working with defensive backs.

From 1966 to 1968 Tierney spent three years coaching on the prep level at St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco. During the 1969 and 1970 seasons Tierney was the defensive coach at Homestead High School in Sunnyvale.

As a member of the Cal State, Hayward college community, you are cordially invited to join the "Friends of California State College, Hayward." The purpose of this new group is to create a broader area of awareness and appreciation of the contributions the College is making to the Bay Area.

Your participation will help to open new channels of communication between the college and your community. Together with the faculty, the student body, and the Cal State administrative staff, the Friends can enjoy a direct and personal involvement in the progress and growth of the college.

Members will have the opportunity to work directly with the committee and President McCune on both social and academic events. Your membership will entitle you to receive calendars of events, a College-community newsletter, and other publications and announcements concerning College development and activities.

Please complete and mail the application and $5 annual membership fee and you will be added to the Friends mailing list.

PIONEERS ON THE GO!

PIONEERS VERSUS THE AGGIES

The Cal State Hayward Pioneers, current leaders of the Far Western Conference, play host to the U.C. Davis Aggies today at 1:30 p.m. Cal State carries an overall 6-0-1 and 3-0-1 Far Western Conference record into the game, while Davis stands 6-1-0 and 3-1-0.

Offensively, the Pioneers are led by freshman quarterback Mike Jacinto, who engineered last week's amazing comeback victory over Humboldt State. Fleet flanker Wes Jackson, who does his ceremonial victory dance after each touchdown pass, is having a great year. Halfback Bert Castelanelli, fullback John Shew, and offensive linemen Monty Consani, Curtis Thomas, and Scott Yeaman bolster the Pioneer offense.

Defensively, the Pioneers are led by defensive tackle Clinton "Sundown Brown," safety John Yavasile, linebacker Gary Feletar, et al. The tenacious Pioneer defense is the key to this year's success.

The U.C. Davis Aggies boast an outstanding quarterback in Ron Van De Pol, who has completed 61 percent of his passes this season. Tight end Mike Bellotti and running backs Jim Campbell and Carey Laine compliment the potent Aggie offense. Defensively, the Aggies are led by Jim Fiack, Bob Weinger, and Bruce Groefsema.

Besides being the annual homecoming game, today's battle will probably determine the eventual winner of the Far Western Conference football championship. U.C. Davis, Cal State Hayward, and Chico State College are all in a heated battle for this honor.

PROGRAMS AND FACILITIES AT CAL STATE

California State College, Hayward is one of the 19 institutions comprising the California State Colleges, the largest and most diverse system of public higher education in the Western Hemisphere. Located in the hills of Hayward (population 94,000) on the east shore of San Francisco Bay, the College is a young and expanding campus serving the varied educational needs of the large urban complex in which it is located. Rapid growth in faculty, student body and physical facilities has been accompanied by growing concern for the development of new ideas and approaches to higher education.

The campus facilities currently include modern instructional buildings devoted to music, fine arts, physical education, and the sciences; a large general classroom building; a student union-bookstore building; a cafeteria, and a 10,000 seat football stadium. Construction on the speech-drama building and the administration-library complex was completed and occupied in the Fall, 1971.

Cal State, Hayward offers programs leading to the baccalaureate degree in 33 majors and the master's degree in 20 fields of study. Other programs lead to teaching, pupil personnel services, and supervisory credentials. The College has a distinguished faculty carefully selected on the basis of education and experience. Approximately 60 percent of the full-time faculty hold the doctorate degree.

A broadly planned program of social, cultural and recreational activities augments the academic offerings of college life, adding variety and individuality to student life. The college is constantly seeking to bring notable people or groups representing many fields to give lectures or other special programs. Field trips and other activities also serve this purpose.

The many exciting social functions, life in the residence hall, student government, student publications and involvement both as spectator and participant in various sports all add personal diversion to student life.

AL MATHEWS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

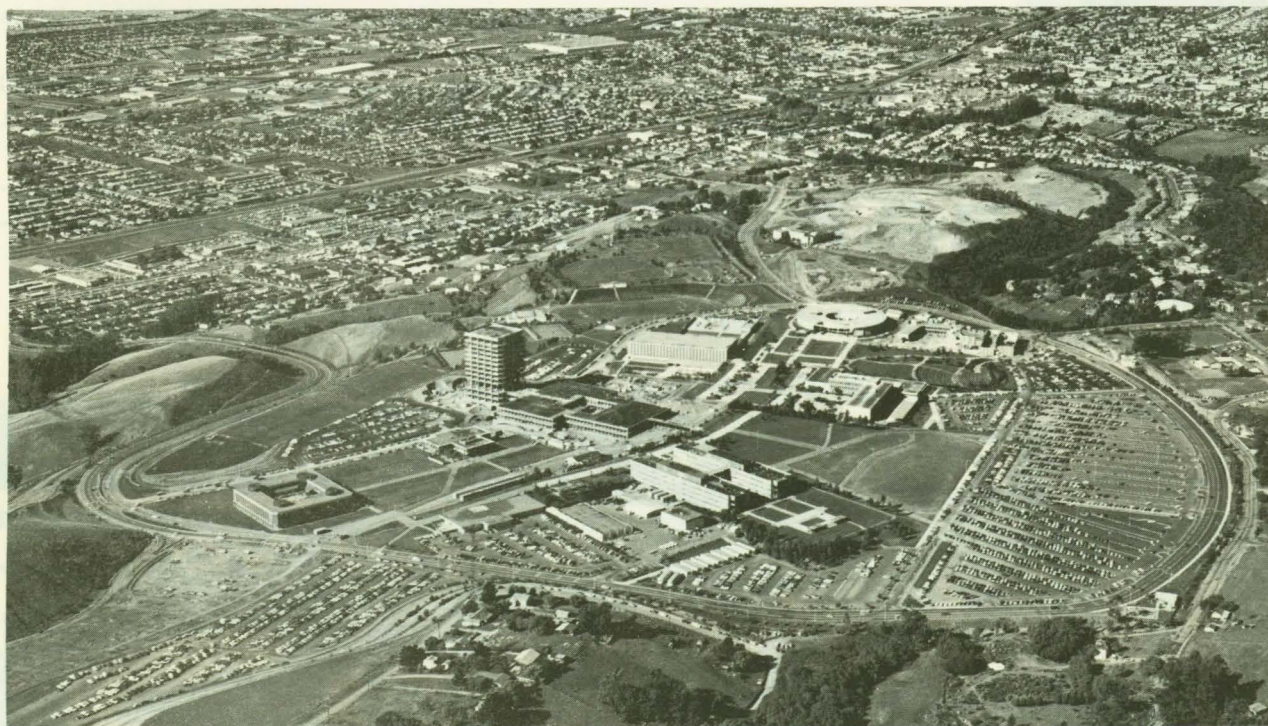

DR. AL MATHEWS

Cal State opens their 1971-72 season in fall sports and it will also be the opener for newly appointed Director of Athletics Al Mathews. Mathews resumed his new post last February, and guided the spring sports activities through their most successful seasons, as the Pioneers won Far Western Conference titles in track and field and tied for the FWC Championship in baseball.

Mathews is highly thought of by faculty members and students, and offers to the athletic department many years of progressive service experience and background in physical education and athletics. A member of the Faculty Senate at Cal State, Hayward, Dr. Mathews is continually involved with both faculty and student organizing committees. He is currently chairman of the Division of Education Library, and a member of the Auxiliary Foundation.

In 1957 Mathews served as an assistant baseball coach at the University of California, Berkeley — the year the Bears won the NCAA National title. From 1959 through the 1963 seasons Mathews coached the Cal frosh squad, finishing his final season with Cal's best-ever from record, 27-2.

As head baseball coach at Cal State, Mathews is considered one of the top baseball coaches in Northern California. A former All-Pacific Coast player while attending Cal, Mathews' experience as a player and coach have proved to be most valuable to the players at Cal State, Hayward.

JONATHAN STAGGERS

Jonathan L. Stagers is the new head mentor of the California State College varsity basketball team. Coming to Cal State from Lincoln University in Missouri, Stagers brings with him a history of unparalleled success.

Coach Stagers' basketball teams have compiled a composite record of 320 wins and 128 losses. One club which he coached compiled an incredible 80-1 record over a five year span.

Active in both community and professional organizations, Stagers complements his coaching status with outstanding service to his total environment — educationally, socially, and athletically.
