

- (b) Grades of B (3.0) or better in 30 semester units or 45 quarter units;
- (c) Proficiency in the language of instruction, as specified below;
- (d) Faculty recommendations.

Cost to the student ranges from $2,000 to $2,500 and includes round-trip transportation from San Francisco to the study centers, room and board for the academic year, and health and accident insurance. For 1971-72, these costs are: Taiwan, $2,000; France, Germany, Ghana, Portugal, Spain, $2,200; Colombia, Israel, Lebanon, Peru, USSR, $2,300; Italy, Japan, $2,400; Denmark, Greece, India, Netherlands, Sweden, United Kingdom, $2,500. Students remain eligible for any financial aids available at the college, and payments may be made in installments over the year.

Proficiency in the language of the host country is a requirement for the programs in France, Germany, Latin America, Portugal, Spain, and the USSR. Ordinarily, two years of college-level study of the language, or the equivalent, will satisfy this requirement. In the USSR, however, three years of language study is mandatory. Even where language proficiency is not required, competence in the language of the host country will assure broader curricular opportunities.

Application for the 1972-73 academic year should be made early in the fall semester 1971. Detailed information may be obtained at the office of the Dean of Students, or by writing to the Office of International Programs, The California State Colleges, 1600 Holloway Avenue, San Francisco, California 94132.

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

The Latin American Studies major and minor are designed to meet the needs of students interested in an academic interdisciplinary major, those who wish to broaden their studies in a given discipline with a background in the Latin American area, and those who are interested in obtaining a teaching credential. Students following this program will be assigned to a faculty adviser in the Foreign Language or History Department.
