

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION DINNER

The Beverly Hilton Hotel

Beverly Hills, California

Sunday, July 10th 1960

International Ballroom

and Grand Ballroom

Paul -

Dear ~~Friend~~.

The 1960 Democratic National Convention events will be officially opened with a gala fund-raising dinner on July 10th at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Beverly Hills.

Each of our potential Presidential nominees has been invited and will be expected to speak briefly. In addition, there will be a spectacular entertainment program presented by the Committee of the Arts. The combination of national Democratic personalities and the best in show business should insure an exciting evening.

The purpose of the dinner, of course, is to provide a substantial fund to finance the Presidential campaign. Each contributor of $100.00 will be entitled to one dinner ticket.

Although both the International and Grand Ballrooms of the Beverly Hilton will be utilized, the joint capacity will accommodate only 2500 persons. Since we have the problem of satisfying the requests of the other forty-nine states, in addition to California, we want to give you an early opportunity to make whatever reservations you desire. An invitation and remittance envelope are enclosed.

With all good wishes and regards.

Cordially,

Paul

Paul Ziffren
General Chairman
Dinner Committee

June 8, 1960