ST. PAUL'S WILL RESUME IN FALL

Need of Repairs Reason for Discontinuing Services at Church Early

In order that some much needed repairs to the church fabric may be started within a few days, services at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church will be discontinued until the second Sunday in September, the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector, announced to his congregation at the morning service yesterday. This action was voted at the stated meeting of the rector, wardens and vestrymen held last week, when the finance committee consisting of Glen E. Stanfield, Dr. Fred J. Crease and C. E. Wakefield, Jr., reported that sufficient funds had been pledged to warrant a beginning of the alterations.

The present building, standing on the site of the first St. Paul's Church erected by the Reverend H. Horace Clapham in 1886 and later moved to East Bakersfield, was built under the rectorship of the Reverend Edward Morgan in 1901, being opened by the Right Reverend William F. Nichols, D. D., Bishop of California, January 1, 1902. The passage of time has caused several cracks in the masonry especially in the chancel arch and the arch over the west front door. The strengthening of these arches will be one of the main undertakings this summer.

Another item which will involve dismantling the nave of the church and removing all the pews, will be the removal of the two platforms on which the pews stand. These platforms have for years been a source of danger to members of the congregation through catching their heels in stepping down to the floor proper. It is planned to give the floor a thorough scraping and retouching and to put down a new carpet for the center aisle.

Later in the year the finance committee hopes to raise additional funds to take care of additional repairs to the church and Guild hall which should be done, but can wait a while longer.

The Reverend Mr. Patrick left today to join his family at their Rincon del Mar beach cottage, near Carpinteria where he can be reached by telephone in the case of emergency calls.

REPORT OF ST. PAUL'S ALTAR GUILD 1936

It has been said that all the Altar Guild does is polish the brass once or twice a year. For that reason, I'd like to give a detailed account of the many interesting duties that we perform weekly. The flowers or berries for the altar have to be gone after, as a rule, before the altar can be decorated. The communion vessels are arranged, the credence shelf is put in order, and so on.

On an average of two surplices are washed and ironed weekly by the members on duty for that particular month, and as the congregation leaves the church, some members of the Altar Guild go to the back to put things in order. We do try to polish the brass twice a year, besides arranging the altar for weddings, funerals and extra communion services that are held during the year. There is one member that takes as her responsibility the laundering of the Fair Linen Cloths, and we consider this quite a responsibility. At the end of every month, the cut-glass cruets for the wine and water are polished, also the silver that we use; and the extra pieces of linen, such as the corporals, purificators, etc., are left freshly laundered for the next members who will serve the following month.

The Altar Guild work is quite a responsibility, but it is such a vital part of our church life that it is thoroughly enjoyed by those who are willing and able to give the time to it. We would welcome some new members. There are no dues and very few formal meetings--we had only one during 1936 for election of new officers; but there was a working meeting forty-eight Saturday afternoons during 1936. We may not have money-making events, so, our linens, ribbons, silver and glass are all donations. There are only five "Saturday afternoon members" at present, but we are hoping for some new members in the near future.

The officers for 1937 are: Laura Covel, Secretary and Treasurer, Katherine S. Wakefield, President.

Respectfully submitted,

Katherine S. Wakefield

President

Man of Many Decorations to Speak Here November 14

FORMER commander of the Third corps area and the Fourth field army, Major Paul B. Malone, Armistice day speaker here who is widely known as a public speaker, had a distinguished record of service in France during the World War, receiving many decorations for bravery.

The distinguished service cross was awarded him in 1921 for extraordinary heroism in the battle of Soissons in July, 1918. He also won the distinguished service medal in 1919 for exceptionally meritorious services in France; four silver stars citations for gallantry in action; the Croix de Guerre of France with two palms and one star; and has been named an officer of the Legion of Honor of France and a commander of the Crown of Italy. He holds the victory and other American campaign medals for service in battle.

Lieutenant-Colonel in 1917

Leaving for France as lieutenant-colonel in July, 1917, General Malone served with the operations section, GHQ; was promoted to colonel and became chief of the training section on the general staff; and in February, 1918, was assigned to command the Twenty-third U. S. infantry, second division, and commanded his regiment in the trenches south of Verdun, in the Aisne-Marne defensive, in the Chateau-Thierry operations, and in the Aisne-Marne offensive.

By coincidence, the Reverend William E. Patrick, who will introduce General Malone on Armistice day, was chaplain of the regiment which he commanded in France. The Reverend Patrick, past national chaplain of the American Legion, also won the distinguished service cross.

Brigade Commander

General Malone in August, 1918, was assigned to command the Tenth brigade of the Fifth division, leading it in the St. Mihiel offensive and Meuse-Argonne offensive, and in forcing the Meuse river and capturing the high ground to the east. In October he was made brigadier general temporarily, an appointment made permanent in 1922, and commanded the Tenth brigade after the Armistice in Luxembourg, and later the Third brigade on the Rhine.

The speaker is a member of the Rotary Club, San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the Baltimore Association of Commerce, the Elks, Pacific Union Club of San Francisco, the Army and Navy Club of San Francisco and the American Legion. He is well known as a public speaker on many subjects, such as insurance, transportation, unemployment, community welfare, art, music and religions, according to Z. V. Hoskins, Legion chairman in charge of Armistice day preparations.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The Institutes

Thanks to the teachers of St. Paul's Church, Bakersfield, the institute of the department, for the Southern Deanery, was a great success. The superintendent, Miss Margaret Gardett, and most of the teachers were present.

Canon Graves presented the principles underlying the Christian Nurture Course, laying emphasis on the training in worship and service and in Church loyalty, the education of the emotional life of the child, a part of the Christian Nurture principle which is so often neglected for the informational side of the work. Mrs. Carrie G. Templeton, at one time director of Religious Education for the Diocese of Oklahoma, presented the subject, of the preparation of the teacher for her work, the preparation of the lesson, and the general subject of the standards to teacher training set by the department of Religious Education of the National Council. She told of the National Accredited Teachers Association, and how it was possible for teachers to acquire credits looking toward the receiving of diplomas.

Miss Gardett was the only administrative officer present, so the Rev. Otis L. Mason, courteously waived his place on the program, and held a personal conference with her.

After the institute the teachers of the school entertained the group at a pleasant and bountiful luncheon in the parish hall. It was a great satisfaction to us all that the bishop was able to be present for part of the session, and the luncheon, but a disappointment that neither Porterville, Lindsay, Visalia or Taft were represented.

The institute for the Central Deanery proved to be less successful.

The Birthday Offering

The children of the Church have shown their love and loyalty by their splendid Birthday Thank Offering of $32,386.29. It was presented to Bishop Creighton and will be used for Hooker School. There is an old saying "The King is Dead: long live the King"—which means that as soon as one ruler has passed away, allegiance must be transferred to the one who succeeds him.

It is so with the Birthday Thank Offering. Just as soon as one Offering is presented we must begin gathering the next one, and we shall have a splendid cause for which to save our birthday money during the next three years. The next Birthday Thank Offering will be used to build and equip a ward for children in St. Luke's International Hospital, Tokyo.

St. Luke's Hospital, Tokyo, was begun by Dr. Rudolf B. Teusler a quarter of a century ago in an old building with eight patients. Dr. Teusler is one of the outstanding missionaries in our Church. His name is known all through the Orient. Under his leadership the hospital grew to be the best-known one in the Far East, with many beds and a training school for nurses. He had just laid the foundation of another building which should be large enough to take in all who came for help when the terrible earthquake and fire of September, 1923, destroyed St. Luke's and nearly all the other buildings belonging to our Church in Tokyo.

Nothing daunted, Dr. Teusler hastily assembled an impromptu hospital barracks and tents and went on with his work of mercy. Now plans have been made for a fine new hospital which shall be "quakeproof" and fireproof.

It is for the children's ward in this new hospital that the Birthday Thank Offering to be presented in 1931 will be given.

The Department hopes that all teachers will interest themselves in this work. From time to time pictures and stories will appear in the Missionary Magazine of the Young Churchman. We hope that these will be emphasized in distributing them to the children. Also, there is a very appealing story called "We Must All Work Together" which tells in story form of St. Luke's Hospital and its work for children. It may be had of the Book Store 281 Fourth Ave., New York City.

Another matter in regard to the Birthday Offering has been brought to the attention of the department. It seems that in some parishes at least there has grown up a custom for the boys to avoid making their birthday offerings for fear of the traditional way that boys have for celebrating each

THE RECTOR OF STOCKTON
The Rev. Seth C. Hawley

The Rev. Mr. Hawley was born in New York City. After graduating from school he spent several years in business, and at the age of twenty-six he started his preparation for the ministry. He began his ministry in 1912 at Jackson, Wyoming, in the famous Jackson's Hole country, which was then real wild and woolly West. He then served at Manitou, Colorado, Hulls Cove, Maine, Mendham, New Jersey, and for the past five years he has been at Elko, Nevada.

CHANGE IN THE CANONS

In accordance with the rule of convocation the committee on canons here reports the changes in the canons which it expects to introduce at the coming convocation.

Article III of the Constitution:

The Ecclesiastical Authority of this Missionary District is vested in and exercised by its Bishop, or in case of his disability, through absence or otherwise, and while such disability lasts, shall be vested in and exercised by the Council of advice, acting under and in subordination to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, its General Convention, Constitution, Canons and Regulations.

(This change is intended to bring our constitution into conformity with the canons of General Convention).

Canon XLIII, Sec. 432 (c) Repeal the section and substitute the following: (c) The Parishes and Missions shall be classified, and the amount required shall be distributed among them in a proportion which shall be determined by the Executive Council, subject to the review of the Convocation.

Canon XXIV, Sec. 246. Repeal the section and substitute the following: Sec. 246. The books of the Treasurer of the District shall be audited to the close of each fiscal year by a public accountant, not a member of convocation, to be appointed by the Executive Council. The Auditor's certificate that he has examined all the accounts of the Treasurer, with the result of his findings, shall be transmitted to the Executive Council within sixty days of the end of the fiscal year, and a copy of such certificate shall be appended to the Treasurer's Report as published in the Diocesan Journal.

Canon XLI, Sec. 415, Delete the last sentence and substitute the following:

Such report shall be audited by a public accountant, not a member of the convocation, to be appointed by the Executive Council. The auditor's certificate that he has examined such report, with the result of his findings, shall be transmitted to the Executive Council within sixty days of the end of the fiscal year, and a copy appended to the report as published in the Diocesan Journal.

others birthdays. The department suggests that there be a Sunday set for the receiving of all birthday offerings that have been elided during the past year. We suggest the Sunday after Epiphany, in which the gospel tells of our Lord's attaining his twelfth year.

THE SERVICE LEAGUE

Mrs. Ikin has asked Mrs. Adams, of St. John's Service League, Stockton, to write of the Triennial meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary for the Bulletin. She writes as follows:

"No word could do the Convention and the meeting of the Auxiliary justice. The opening meeting in the open air amphitheater on Mt. St. Alban was a magnificent sight, one never to be forgotten by those who were fortunate enough to be there. The amphitheater seats twenty thousand and every seat was taken.

"There were fifteen hundred in the procession. First came the vested orchestra of twenty-five pieces, then the choirs, led by the Crucifers and flag bearers, then the clergy and bishops. It was a most beautiful and colorful procession. President Coolidge was escorted by a delegation of bishops and seated on the speaker's platform. Bishop Freeman opened the service, followed by an address by the president, who spoke convincingly. He was then escorted out by three bishops, and Bishop Anderson, of Chicago, preached a splendid sermon.

"The following day more than four thousand and five hundred women attended the United Thank Offering Communion Service at half past seven in the morning at the cathedral. Thirty women dressed in white cassocks, with purple ribbons on their shoulders, and purple mortar-boards, acted as ushers. They were most dignified and performed their office in a beautiful manner. A number of bishops took part in this service, among them was our own beloved Bishop Sanford. It was a proud moment when the Thank Offering was presented.

"The meetings were all very helpful. The noon-day meditations by Miss Grace Lindley, were most inspiring. The religious pageant, "The Cross Triumphant," written by Mrs. Minnegerode Andrews, was a magnificent sight, a thousand people taking part in it.

Bishop and Mrs. Freeman gave several teas in their lovely garden. They were most gracious hosts.

"I do not know of a more beautiful place for a convention than Washington. The Washington women were very cordial, and everything was done for our pleasure and comfort. I am sure the delegates all went home feeling inspired and happy and grateful that they had been permitted to be present on so many memorable occasions."

The Store Room

Mrs. Young writes, "much interest is being manifested throughout the diocese in the store room which was founded by the supply department this fall.

"A great deal of good used clothing has been collected. Many groups are sewing on various articles, some are patching quilts, others making altar linens. A very gratifying report of the contents of the store room will be sent to headquarters the first of the year, and it is hoped that every unit of the league will have some part in that report."

THE REV. MR. BELLISS

Mr. Belliss, who was associated with us for so long, at Selma, Coalinga, and Lindsay is now chaplain of the City Missions Society of San Diego.

The society has placed a car at his disposal, and during the past year he has traveled 8,138 miles in the prosecution of the work of the society. In a report presented recently he told of 2698 visits with the sick and lonely folk in the institutions of that city and county, 61 services in the county hospitals, 1333 radio services, 41 drives in which he gave 130 patients a breath of the outside world, and many other ministrations. Through his solicitation friends have given victrolas, records, comfortable chairs and other comforts to the inmates of these institutions.

This will give a little picture of his life and work to those who are interested in him. Mrs. Belliss and their daughter Margaret are with him. His son, Cyril and daughter Dorothy are both in Manila, where Cyril is rector of the cathedral, and Dorothy in teaching in a Church school.

Marriage of the Rev. Geo. G. Hoisholt

The bishop has received word that on the 5th day of November, the Rev. George G. Hoisholt married Miss Mary Spencer at Pueblo, Colorado.

DECEMBER 15, 1928

NUMBER TEN

THE BISHOP'S LETTER

The General Convention of 1928 is over. There were enthusiastic gatherings, both religious and social, some able reports and constructive legislations, and a fine Pastoral Letter from the bishops which illuminates the two great problems which face us as Christians and citizens: church and world unity.

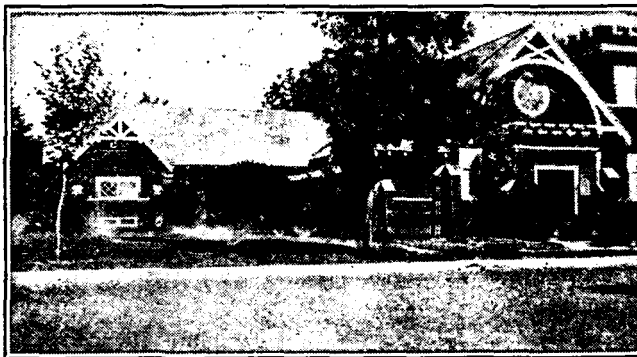

We are grateful for the completion of prayer book revision. The new book will be available in February. The cloth bound edition for the pews will cost twenty-five cents but will not be handled through the trade. A pertinent notice appears in another column. I am suggesting that in those parishes and missions where some other method of placing copies in the pews is not preferred, that each person buy two books, one for himself and one for his neighbor, and donate them to the congregation.

The General Convention adopted a missionary budget for the coming three years and has apportioned next year's quota to the several dioceses. We here have added to our share of the general obligation so much as is needed to supplement the salaries of the diocesan clergy and have apportioned the sum to the parishes and missions in proportion to their relative ability as measured by the item "current expenses" in the annual parichial report. And by this time the parishes and missions will have added their local budget to the parish's share of the general and diocesan expense, and will have begun to canvass their membership. I hope the canvass in each congregation will be a thorough one; for I am convinced that where the parishioners are adequately informed as to the use made of their contributions and asked personally to share in the enterprise there is no difficulty in meeting the budget.

The new church year began with this month and our eyes are turned towards Christmas. Many people think of Christmas with a sigh because the burden of giving presents has increased until what started as a spontaneous expression of affection has become a wearisome chore. When for any of us it becomes that, it is time to stop. It requires courage to fly in the face of a social convention but unless our gifts are prompted by the same urgency of love which we attribute to the Father who so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, they would better not be made. I am pleading for sincerity. The extravagance and sordidness of so much of the social exchange at Christmas tide is a perversion of the Christmas spirit. Nevertheless, underneath the social custom, though often deeply buried by trash, lies the motive which is pure and wholesome and beneficial. Let us relate our giving to that motive.

With the hope that in our social intercourse as well as in our fellowship at the Altar we may learn anew the joy of sharing in the love of the Heavenly Child who came to us as at this season, I wish you all a blessed Christmas.

History of the Diocese

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH, MERCED
(The Rev. W. A. Cash, Vicar).

We all know Merced as the Gate Way to Yosemite, know it by the dome of the court house which is the first thing we see as we approach it on the highway. But how many know it by St. Luke's Church, with its beautiful plant and its well kept lawn and gardens?

Merced, and St. Luke's mission with it, has not developed as rapidly as some others of our county town and missions. The reason for this lies in the great ranches, with their manor houses, which surround it, and occupy a large part of the arable land about it.

The division of these great ranches, and their settlement as small farms has been very slow, so the city has not grown as rapidly as have Modesto, Hanford, Visalia and Fresno.

The Mission

Merced was one of the many places where Church work was begun by the Rev. D. O. Kelley when he came to the San Joaquin Valley forty-nine years ago. In those days it seemed far from Fresno, the base of his operations. He held occasional services and began to get acquainted, but it was two years before regular services were begun.

In the fall of 1880, the Rev. L. Mott came to assist Mr. Kelley. He made his home in Modesto and began regular ministrations at Merced, organized a ladies guild and on the 20th of August, 1881, the Mission of St. Luke. During the summer of 1883, chiefly by the efforts of Mr. Mott, lots were secured facing the court house park, and a considerable building fund was raised for a chapel. Mr. Mott died suddenly in September of this year, not seeing the completion of the building, which was well under way. The chapel was completed, and the first service was held in it by the Rev. Kelley on Sunday, December 30, 1883. Mr. Kelley remained in charge until the following October.

Then came evil days to the county and the mission. A series of dry years discouraged everybody, and the few Church people who remained in Merced became disheartened and for a time the chapel itself was abandoned to the ravages of the weather and roaming beasts.

It was in this condition when Bishop Nichols found it at the time he made his first visitation five years later. Immediately determining to rescue the mission and the chapel from its forlorn state, he asked Mr. Kelley, who had again become general missionary of the valley, to give it his first interest.

It was not easy to persuade the discouraged people to try again, but with the promise of continued and consistent help from Bishop Nichols, they were gradually won to helpfulness, and within eight months Sunday School, guild and regular parish work were going smoothly, the chapel had been refitted, and a fine confirmation class presented.

Mr. Kelley then turned his attention to other fields, and was followed in Merced by a number of men, the most of whom did not stay very long.

Bishop Sanford Comes

When Bishop Sanford came in 1911, he called the Rev. W. L. Greenwood to become vicar, and during his ministry the present vicarage, one of the most adequate and pleasant in the diocese was built.

In May, 1913, the Rev. W. H. Hawken became vicar. During his tenure the old chapel was moved to the rear of the church grounds, made over into a parish hall, and the present splendid church edifice erected, and beautified with many memorial gifts, secured by him. Gradually the debt was paid, and in the Spring of 1917, the mission celebrated the end of that work. With the convocation of the diocese as its guest, the Church was presented to Bishop Sanford, and consecrated.

Mr. Hawken continued the ministry of the mission four years longer, and then, at the request of Bishop Sanford, resigned to become archdeacon of the diocese, and was succeeded at Merced by the Rev. W. H. Pond. Four years ago the Rev. W. A. Cash became vicar and is still in charge.

The chief difficulty under which the mission labors is the tendency of its people to move. Last year the mission had a strong Church School, but when Mr. Cash began his work this fall, he found that half the families who had been represented in the school had moved away.

There has come a change in the character of the county and city. Gradually the big ranches are being subdivided, and the city is improving in economic status, and in appearance. With this change has come a new hope for the work of St. Luke's Mission, and it is the expectation of the executive council that the next five years will make a great change in its life.

The most neglected word in public worship is "Amen." It is printed in the same type as the preceding prayer, where the prayer is to be said together by minister and people; it is in italics where it is used as the response after a collect said by the minister alone. In either case it is to be used by the congregation. But when it occurs in italics it is almost universally ignored. Probably on this account the custom has arisen of singing the amens. It is not however in

The Service League

At the afternoon session, which was held in the (enlarged) Guild Hall, Mrs. Guy Manson of Fresno, was elected Vice-president, and she appointed Mrs. W. G. Uridge as Secretary. The sum of $8.50 was voted to the Emily Tillotson Memorial, a chapel in Windham House, New York. Mrs. Uridge, Educational Secretary, urged the study of the text book "The New Africa." Mrs. Carrie G. Templeton of Hanford told of her formal work as Educational Executive in the District of Oklahoma.

The Joint Session

Mrs. Sanford gave the most interesting and definitely informing talk that we have heard on the women's part at the convention. She told of the opening service, the women's auxiliary corporate communion and the offering of the United Thank Offering.

good liturgical taste to sing it if the preceding prayer is read. Nor if the amen is to be sung is it requisite to boom it out on the organ. A congregation trained to appreciate the beauty of the service can easily accustom itself to saying the Amen if the prayer is read, and, taking the note from the officiant to sing amen if the prayer is intoned.

A word about the Advent barrels. These little barrels give you one grand opportunity to help the Church's Program. Take advantage of it. Do you recall that last year, St. Paul's, Bakersfield, with a school of 210 pupils, raised $180.18? And do you know what it would mean if every school in the diocese did as well as they did? It would mean that we would have an Advent offering of not less than $1,020.00; just about three times as much as our last year's total.

Church Schools, emulate St. Paul's, Bakersfield. Let St. Paul's Church School be a challenge to you. Turn in a record Advent offering for 1928. We need it badly!

and the mass meeting in the evening when many missionaries were introduced, and the amount of the offering announced, $1,101,-450.40. She said that the Corporate Gift had been over subscribed and told how it had been divided among the Indian fields. She told of the devotional services, the pageant, the study classes and the social functions. In concluding she told us that the corporate communion of the Auxilliary was the first service to be held in the nave of the new cathedral, and how it was proposed to erect a tablet in commemoration of the event to which we ought to subscribe some amount.

Dean MacDonald told entertainingly of the work of the House of Deputies, laying stress on the spirit of good will and co-operation, of mutual courtesy and forbearance that had signalized the convention.

The Bulletin wishes every member of our diocesan family a very blessed and happy Christmas.

In these days when Christmas is being used so energetically by merchants, it is a little hard to hold fast to the Christian idea of it as a religious festival and to remember that the first duty of every Churchman is to go to church and make his communion. It is the feast of the birthday of our blessed Lord, and we who love Him should remember that and make Him first in our joy.

It should be a great source of pride to us all that fresh honors have been bestowed on our bishop. The House of Bishops has made him chairman of the committee to prepare the Pastoral Letter that the next General Convention will set before the people of the Church. That means that it has selected him to be its foremost spokesman to the whole Church when next it speaks officially.

Another honor is that he has been selected to be the preacher at the consecration of the Rev. Thomas Jenkins as Bishop of Nevada. This will be on the St. Paul's Day, the 25th of next January. This is why the convention of the Service League of the Diocese will be on Monday, January 21, instead of Thursday, as usual.

CHURCH INFORMATION
(How the Church does her work)

Christmas! "Peace, good will to men." It is with this thought that the Church Information column turns to:

Social Service

One of the departments of the National Council is devoted to social service, and most of the dioceses have social service departments.

Social Service is a very old thing. It is only the name that is new. It is the effort to apply the ethics of Christ to all our social and business relationships, and to the institutions of our nation and the world. For all its life the church has been trying to make human society Christian.

It is impossible to understand modern social service without some understanding of what is called the "Industrial revolution."

The industrial revolution was the change in human life and relationships that came with the invention of power tools. It began about the year 1800.

(1) Gradually steam and electricity drove out the small hand tools of previous generations. Craftsmen could no longer own the tools of their crafts. Fancy a locomotive driver owning his engine, and a right to run it on the tracks. Workman became dependent on those who could own the tools, for opportunity to work, for livelihood for their families.

Another example: Of old a man could own a grist mill, driven by water, the wind, or his own horses, own it and work it. No man could own and operate the great flour mills of today.

(2) Men had to live near their tools, the factories, so great industrial cities grew, and with them the slums.

(3) The owners of factory and mine ran them for their own profits, and repudiated any social responsibility for the people who were dependent on the operation of the tools.

Religion and the Revolution

At the time that this great change came upon our world, social religion was at low ebb. For two hundred years the emphasis of protestant religion had been on personal salvation, personal holiness. Even today our social ethics has not caught up with the problems of our industrial life.

The workers banded together in unions to secure fair play from the owners of their means of livelihood. There were great industrial wars. It is a long sad story.

Then came two great churchmen in England, Charles Kingsley and Frederick Maurice. They began an awakening of the Church to its duty to the people who were dependent on the owners of coal mines, factories, whatnots.

In our country there was formed the Church Association in the interests of Labor, to help bring industrial justice and peace, and to educate the people who were independent of "jobs."

The National Council

When the National Council was organized, the leaders of the movement tried to co-ordinate all the societies that were serving the Church, and put them under one budget, the idea that is followed in our community chests.

So well had the C. A. I. L., and others, done their work of educating Church folk, that Social Service became one of the departments of the National Council. Dean Charles Lathrop, a nationally known social service worker, became its executive secretary.

The work of the department has developed into five "Divisions."

(1) Educational work. Only as we, the common members of the Church scattered throughout the land, serve, can the Church serve. The officers in New York cannot take magazines to our jail, etc. The officers in New York can only awaken and guide us. So the department tries by publications, in-

CHANGES IN THE DIOCESE

There are to be a number of changes in the diocese with the coming of the new year.

The Rev. Ernest A. Shapland, who for the past six years has been vicar of the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, in the cathedral parish is going to an independent work as Vicar of St. John's Church, Lodi.

A new office of student pastor of Fresno State College has been created, and the Rev. Lee A. Wood, who has been vicar of St. John's Church, Porterville, for the past sixteen years has been appointed student pastor, and that he may have a base from which to work, he was elected vicar of the chapel of the Holy Spirit, at a meeting of the Cathedral Chapter held on the tenth of December.

The Rev. John Burleson, a brother of the Bishop Burleson who is nationally known as the Bishop of the Indians in South Dakota, and the author of "The Conquest of the Continent," and "Our Church and Our Country," is coming to Porterville to succeed Mr. Wood.

stitutes, summer schools and other ways to train the diocesan leaders, clergy and candidates for the ministry.

(2) Work in the public institutions like the county farms, jails, and sanitoriums, especially the county jails. The spirit of officialism often makes these inhuman institutions. The National Council Department is ready and eager to help local Christians, of parish social service departments deal with the problems rising from these institutions.

(3) Rural life. The drift to the cities has changed the character of our farms. They have been left in a back-water of our national life, where the work is incessant and cheerless and Christianity is disappearing. The department has been trying to waken the Church to its responsibility to the farmers and the rural communities, and is training both clergy and candidates for this work.

(4) Church Institutions. Our Church has always been foremost among Christian Communities in the number of its institutions for the less fortunate members of our communities. It has now 77 Church hospitals, 54 homes for the aged, 82 children's institutions, 11 houses of mercy, and many settlement houses.

In all institutions of this kind there is a tendency for the spirit of loving service to grow cold and impersonal, and the unfortunate inmates cannot do much to help themselves. It is part of the work of the department to keep the spirit of Christ alive, and to keep those in control in touch with the newest methods.

(5) Industrial Relations. A change for the better is coming over the spirit of many industrial managers, and the department is developing a division of industrial relationship that promises to be of great help in the humanizing and Christianizing of relations between employer and employee, a relationship that for many years has been held to be purely commercial.

In addition to these words the department has tried to keep before the conscience of men the horror and sin of war and to foster a spirit of good will between ours and other nations.

In our own diocese the Executive Council has a Department of Social Service consisting of the Dean, the Rev. A. L. Walters, and Messrs. Geo. A. Osborn, and F. A. Eckstrom, whose duties are similar to those of the National Department.

"O COME LET US SING"

The Good Manners of the House of God
(By Bishop Sanford)

A correspondent has asked whether the congregation should keep on singing the recessional hymn after the choir has left the church. What has already appeared in this column has doubtless been read by many with disapproval. But if the choir is to come in or go out singing a hymn it is the privilege of the congregation to join in it. The custom which prevails in some places of asking the congregation to be silent when the choristers are outside the door is intended to prevent the awkwardness caused by the congregation singing in one tempo and the choir in another while the distracted organist tries in vain to pull the two together. There is no rule about it. It is the privilege of any

My dear Mr. Patrick:

I am writing at this time to call to your attention that there are unpaid assessments that stand in the way of your having full standing in the Fund. It would be very gratifying if this balance could now be paid, so that there will be no possibility of any pension that may be called for in your behalf being reduced.

The unpaid assessments are in the amount of $30.02, including interest, due for a period in 1938, from St. Paul's Church, Bakersfield.

Very sincerely yours,

St. Paul's Parish Sixty Years

The Protestant Episcopal Church in Bakersfield is the second of the non-Roman Catholic churches to be established, the first being the First Methodist Church.

Occasional services had been held prior to 1879 by the Reverend Messrs. W. H. Hill, A. Todhunter D. O. Kelley. The latter, indefatigable founder of San Joaquin Valley Churches, was appointed missionary-in-charge by the first Bishop of California, the Rt. Rev. Wm. Ingraham Kip, D. D. and in November 1879 organized St. Paul's Mission with D. G. McLean as warden. The Reverend Thomas A. Griffiths was the first clergyman to take up residence in Bakersfield as Archdeacon Kelley looked after such, contiguous places as Fresno, Modesto and Bakersfield, often travelling by buckboard.

When the third pastor, the Reverend H. Horace Clapham (1884-1892) was using what is now the Emerson School for services, Mrs. Alfred Harrell, then superintendent of the school and now the venerable publisher of the Bakersfield Californian for these forty years past and sometime vestryman of St. Paul's Church and Mrs. H. P. Bender, who as a young girl drove into Bakersfield from Greenfield to sing in the choir with the late Mrs. C. M. Chittenden as organist and still sixty years later an active communicant, - were teaching in the school.

On the third visit of Bishop Kip to Bakersfield in 1886 the first St. Paul's Church was opened on the 17th. Street site. In 1891 when Bishop Nichols consecrated the Church, the mission became a parish with Captain Charles E. Jewett and Dr. John Snook as wardens; C. Bickerdike, treasurer and Joseph V. Morley as clerk.

The Reverend Messrs. F. D. Miller, David Holmes, Hobart Chetwood and Edward Morgan served as Rector in last.

decade of the gay nineties. In 1898 the Guild Hall still in serviceable use was built. Active in the Guild, which was largely instrumental in sponsoring the erection of a Guild Hall and Sunday School building, were Mrs. Alfred Harrell and Mrs. A. C. Maude, regular communicants to day.

The Reverend Messrs. Walter B. Clark, David M. Crabtree, Charles Hitchcock, Benjamin E. Diggs, George E. Relison and William A. Cash served the parish in succession

"FAITH, hope and love are the great gifts of God" the Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, D. Ornaments Stolen From St. Andrew's Church by Vandal
 (Special to The Californian)
TAFT, March 2.—Police here are looking for a thief without a conscience. He stole the ornaments from the altar of the St.
 Andrew's Episcopal Church over the week end.
 Reverend Aubrey Bray, pastor, says the articles are practically without intrinsic value but are all memorial gifts. Reverend Mr. Bray issued a plea to whoever desecrated the church to please return the stolen articles.
 The list of missing items includes one carved white maple altar cross made especially for this church by Mr. Robinson; two brass candelabra, given by the son and daughter of the late Mrs. Jennie Hall; and one large eucharistic candle, presented to the local church by St. Paul's of Bakersfield.

 Bishop to Preside
 The final meeting of the confirmation class of St. Paul's Episcopal

 Remington, D. D., bishop of eastern Oregon, will visit St. Paul's Church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock to administer confirmation, assisting the bishop of San Joaquin, the Right Reverend L. C. Sanford, D. D., who has not sufficiently recovered from his long illness to make parochial visitations, according to Reverend William E. Patrick, pastor.
 Holy communion will be celebrated in the church tomorrow at 10 o'clock, followed by the all-day meeting of St. Paul's Guild. Other meetings this hall Thursday at 3 o'clock; children's

SACRILEGE AT TAFT
 Editor The Californian:
 It seems that every time I set a limit, in my imagination, below which human depravity is incapable of going, somebody comes along and goes a little deeper. Ask you to tie this one if you can. Saturday night someone went into St. Andrew's Episcopal Church at Taft and stole the brass candelabra, Eucharistic candle holder and carved maple wood altar cross off the altar. I do not remember Les Miserables so very well, but it is my recollection that Jean Val Jean stole only from the bishop. Even he did not fall into such degradation as to steal from the altar.
 If the articles were taken for their financial value, the party or parties would have placed a lot better financially if they had applied to the vicar for relief, while the replacement of these articles will be a burden upon the small congregation, already burdened with building expenses; their resale value will be very small, much less than the vicar would give freely and out of hand to one in need.
 This church regrets the loss principally for the reason that these things were memorial gifts given in loving memory of dear ones passed on by various peoples. Imagine how they must feel to have these sacred memories trampled under foot like that.

 Church, Taft, Calif.

Children's Lenten Service Scheduled
 The weekly Lenten service for children will be held at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Reverend William D. Patrick will tell a missionary story. Prayers for the Pas-ter class service will be practiced.

SUFFRAGAN BISHOP HERON

Sleep Sharpens Brain, New Suffragan Bishop Declares

BISHOP BREWSTER

Dr. Heron Advocates Rest for Building
Nerve Energy

The new Episcopal suffragan bishop of Massachusetts, whose election was approved by every diocese throughout the world, is a cleric who thinks people ought to have more sleep.

Consecrated in Trinity Church the Rev. Raymond A. Heron of Lawrence became today a top official in one of the wealthiest and most powerful Protestant denominations.

Bishop Heron is an unusual clergyman. He is the rare combination of piety, frankness and clerical modernism.

In one breath he tells you that consecration ceremonies ought to be compressed to an elopement—that sleep improves the intelligence of many Christians and that planting onions in a truck garden (without a robe) is good for a bishop's state of mind.

SYMBOLIZES ERA

The new suffragan bishop is a symbol of streamlined Christianity. He flicks a Phi Beta Kappa key in strong, firm hands. He speaks modestly of the fact that he was lifted—not from a fashionable parish—but from a congregation of mill workers.

He skips lightly over his "unemployment center" in Lawrence, which carried 2000 communicants over the depression bumps in 1929.

He had a "good time" recently organizing a market-garden on the property of a summer camp which has been named Camp Heron.

Funds for the market were supplied by the comfortable parishioners as jobless mill workers burrowed in the garden. When Bishop Heron had time—and if he has time in the future—he would strip off his robe, roll up his sleeves, and get going on onions, broccoli and potatoes.

BUILDING RESERVE

As for sleep to sharpen brains?

Bishop Heron advises:

"Sleep is a much more active thing than we suspect. There are, of course, familiar examples of men waking up in the middle of the night to find that the sleeping mind has solved some problem they have wrestled with.

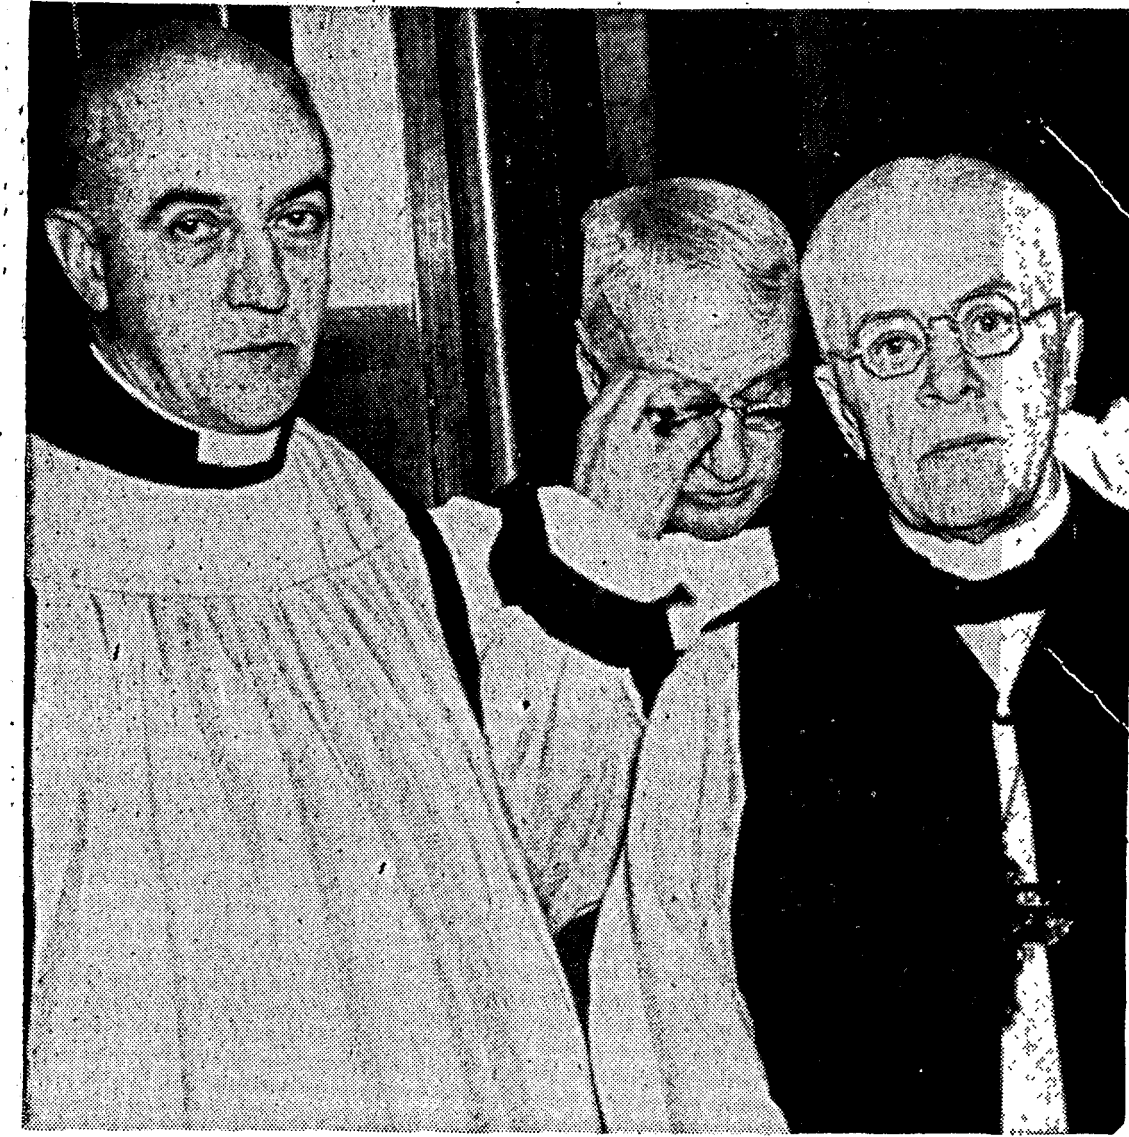

"More sleep builds physical and nerve reserve for the wide-awake mind. The mind, when it is awake, must have confidence. The human intellect's scope is much less limited than we think.

"A simple example of this is the self-conscious person who is sometimes capable of sallies of penetrating brilliance."

But the bishop insists a person who proceeds with calm, unworried assurance will constantly outstrip previous efforts.

As for today's consecration exercises.

"I wish," he said flatly, "that I could have been consecrated like some people who get married and just elope."

bishop at the consecration ceremonies. Co-consecrators were Bishop William Lawrence and Bishop Sherrill, with the latter also the preacher.

SEES WORLD FLIGHT

Bishop Sherrill said, in part, in his sermon:

"No special intellectual brilliance is required to see that the world of our day is in a serious condition. The fact is blazoned before us daily, in newspaper headlines, magazine articles and in many other ways.

"The world places the blame upon extreme nationalism, competitive armaments, racial antagonisms and high tariff barriers. The plain truth is that we are now paying the inevitable price of the breaking of the spiritual law of God. The law of God abides from generation to generation and continues to operate whether we are conscious of it or not.

"Our life has become increasingly secularized. As a positive force, God has been neglected in the realm of business as He has been ignored in the affairs of the family.

"Education has become so sophisticated that in a large measure religion in intellectual life has been killed by indifference."

The church itself is to blame in part for these conditions, Bishop Sherrill said. One reason it is to blame, he said, is that it has admitted "too many of the defects current in our generation and civilization."

ANOTHER REASON

Another reason for present-day conditions, Bishop Sherrill declared, is that people, nowadays, have come to place "too great stress on their own economic security."

The presenting bishops were Bishops Babcock and Moulton, and attending presbyters were the Rev. Malcolm Endicott Peabody, rector of St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, and the Rev. Archie Henry Crowley, rector of Grace Church, Lawrence.

Bishop William Appleton Lawrence read the litany and the Rev. Charles Hastings Brown, rector of Grace Church, Norwood, was deputy registrar.

Masters of ceremonies were the Rev. William Edward Gardner, assistant minister at Trinity Church; the Rev. Henry McFarlan Brinckerhoff Ogilby, rector of the Church of Our Savior, Brookline; the Rev. Wolcott Cutler, rector of St. John's Church, Charlestown, and the Rev. Arthur Carl Lichtenberger, rector of St. Paul's, Brookline.

AIDED CEREMONIES

The Rev. Francis Ellsworth Webster, secretary of diocesan convention which elected Bishop Heron unanimously, read the certificate of election.

The canonical testimonial was read by the Very Rev. Henry Bradford Washburn, dean of the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, where Bishop Heron attended, and the certificates of ordinations were read by the Rev. Frederic Whitney Fitts, rector of St. John's Church, Roxbury, and the Very Rev. Philemon Fowler

As Episcopal hymns were sung scores of clergy marched in a long procession. The Rev. William Edward Gardner was master of ceremonies.

Sturges, dean of St. Paul's Cathedral.

Consents of the standing committees were given by Judge Philip S. Parker, chancellor of the diocese, and the consents of the bishops by Bishop Brewster of Maine.

1000 GUESTS

Nearly 1000 guests were invited to the luncheon at the Copley-Plaza which followed the consecration ceremonies.

Spakers, here, included Suffragan Bishop Heron and Bishops Sherrill, Tucker, William Lawrence and Babcock.

The final feature scheduled for the day's program was a reception and tea in the crypt of St. Paul's Cathedral, with a general invitation issued by Bishop Sherrill and his standing committee to all in the diocese to meet the new suffragan.

2 Girl Bandits Get Life at Hard Labor

One Weeps; Other Stolid as Judge
Gives Sentence for $2.10 Killing

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 16—Hard-faced Ethel Sohl and flut-tery Genevieve Owens reached the end of their thrill trail today.
Found guilty of slaying William Barhorst, suburban bus driver, in a $2.10 holdup last December, both girls were sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor.

Genevieve burst into tears and buried her face in a handkerchief when Judge Daniel J. Brennan pronounced sentence. Ethel, true to type, received the sentence without a quiver in her pale, set face.

OLDER SISTER SHAKEN Genevieve's older sister, Mrs. Minnie Koval, screamed and collapsed with loud sobs.
"Oh, how awful—how awful," cried the heart-broken sister, as attendants with difficulty half-dragged her, screaming and hysterical, outside.
Ethel dabbed at her eyes as she realized the penalty she and Genevieve must pay for the $2.10 hold-up murder of Bus Driver William Barhorst on Dec. 21—the culmination of their brief career of crime.
But no tears came.

When Genevieve began sobbing, Ethel turned and looked at her disdainfully, as if with her widely heralded Svengali influence she would control the childish weeping of her dark-haired Trilby.

SLEW BUS DRIVER
The two girls, pals in a weird companionship that led them to emulate the gun molls glorified in gangland movies, waylaid Barhorst in his passengerless bus at Belleville, just outside of Newark, on the night of December 21.

Stalking the bus in a stolen automobile the girls overtook it as its last passenger departed. Parking their car on a side street, Ethel Sohl hailed the bus. Then, with a .22 caliber rifle concealed beneath her cloak, she greeted Barhorst with:

"This is a stickup."
Before he could resist she fired, the bullet piercing his heart. She then snatched his change-carrier, containing $2.10, and fled.

Returning to their car, she threw the change carrier into the lap of her pal—whom she considered her one-girl mob—and took the wheel.

"NOW HE CAN'T TALK"
"I shot him," she said calmly.

"Good," Genevieve replied.
"Now he can't talk."
Captured when Chippy reported to her probation officer—she was on parole—she first mentioned casually that a boy friend had killed Barhorst. Turned over to detectives, she finally identified Ethel's picture in a fogues' gallery group.

Their trial began ten days ago.
Ethel based her defense on her addiction to marijuana cigarettes—
they doped her, she said.

Chippy said she had been a dupe, a pliant Trilby to the Svengali-like influence of her dominating "leader."

2 Hurt as Crash
Car Turns Over

Two persons were hurt this morning when their automobile turned over at Clarendon and Boylston streets after collision with another car.

Driver of the overturned machine was Frederick Mecci, 32, of Valentine road, Arlington, and riding in the car with him was Amilio LaCarbanara, of Freemont street, Somerville. Both were treated for cuts and bruises at Boston City Hospital, and released.

The driver of the other machine,
Michael A. McMahon of Baker street, West Roxbury, was uninjured.

Special to Boston Evening American

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16—After nearly a quarter-century of anxious waiting, 76-year-old Mrs. Edith Curtis began a search here today for the son who asked her never to hunt for him when he left home
in 1914.

He is Raymond Curtis, now 49 years of age, a former toolmaker and designer of Detroit, Michigan.

"I want to find you—before it's too late," the silver-haired mother wrote in an open letter she asked the Hearst papers to publish.

"Three years left for me to be

French Workers
Delay Big Strike

PARIS, Feb. 16 (AP)—Premier Camille Chautemps' government, harassed by spreading resentment in Socialist and Communist labor ranks, today won an eight-day delay from 70,000 northern metal workers who had voted a strike for wage increases. A congress at Lille of 33 workers' syndicates voted to grant the cabinet's request for more time to find a compromise.

The DAILY WASHINGTON
MERRY GO ROUND
TRADE MARK REGISTERED

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—Jimmy Roosevelt, who once sold a quarter million dollar insurance policy to the Columbia Broadcasting Company, now has come quietly to the aid of the big broadcasters in the fight over a government radio station.

Representatives of the State, War and Navy departments have been holding secret conferences lately with a view to erecting a government radio station. Chief factor behind this is the German and Italian radio programs in South America and the necessity of doing something to counteract the spread of Nazism below the Rio Grande.
The War and Navy departments also are anxious for a government station as an aid to national defense.

Accordingly, most of the details for the station had been worked out. Roosevelt had given his O. K. and the departments were planning to throw administration support to the Celler bill authorizing the construction of such a station.
Then suddenly son Jimmy stepped
in.

Jimmy summoned Chairman Mc-Ninch and T. A. M. Craven of the Federal Communications Commission and asked what they thought of the government radio station idea. Craven, always considered friendly to the big broadcasters, expressed his emphatic opposition.
McNinch did not express himself very definitely either way.

However, Jimmy Roosevelt did.
Very pleasantly but pointedly, he indicated that he thought the government radio station bill should be tabled.

This word went across the street to the State Department where Judge R. Walton Moore, its trouble-docking counselor, seized it as a good opportunity to side-track the whole business.

The President, however, is understood to be strong for building a government station. So State, War and Navy officials are planning a showdown to see whether he or his son is the real boss on the New Deal radio policy.

ROOSEVELT RADIO LOBBY—
When Frank McNinch was asked by the President to become chairman of the FCC, a job which he did not greatly relish, he inquired if he was to have a completely free hand.
The President replied that he would. "Tasha McNinch, remember.

ing that Elliott Roosevelt had been criticized for appearing before the FCC regarding the transfer of some Southwest radio stations, asked:

"Does that apply to the family too?"

The President laughed and assured him that it did.

STOCK MARKET STAMPEDE
—News that ex-Governor O. Max Gardner of North Carolina was slated to be the new czar of the New York Stock Exchange touched off such a storm from Wall Street die-hards that the whole plan for reorganizing the exchange is threatened.

The denizens of Wall Street are divided into three groups: liberals, middle-of-the-roads and die-hards.
In the latter category is the House of Morgan, of which Charles Gay, retiring head of the exchange, is unofficial spokesman.

This group has let out a bellow of indignation at the idea of being ruled by anyone remotely friendly to Roosevelt, and now is pushing General "Ironpants" Johnson or Lewis O. Douglas, former director of the budget (not to be confused with William O. Douglas, head of SEC) for the job. Both men have turned bitterly against Roosevelt.
So die-hard brokers think they can be trusted.

Note—In Wall Street it was believed that John Hanes, SEC commissioner and close North Carolina friend of Gardner, had let out the story about Gardner's ten-tentative selection. Hanes, however, had nothing to do with it.

MERRY-GO-ROUND — Mrs.
Roosevelt went to see a play about a dictator last week. It was Max Gordon's "Save Me the Waltz", by Katharine Dayton . . . Senator La-Follette went to the Department of Agriculture to see Secretary Wallace. He parked his car in a space
"Reserved for Government Officials." A guard, not knowing him, made him move the car . . . A letter came to the State Department on the subject of foreign treaties. Out-doing Mrs. Malaprop, it spoke of "open convents openly arrived at."

Ministerial Union at St. Paul's

THANKFULNESS was the theme of the discourse preached by the Reverend Grover Ralston at the union Maundy Thursday service held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church last evening under the auspices of the Bakersfield Ministerial Association. The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Church, officiated at the celebration of the holy communion. Other ministers attending the service were the Reverend Messrs. Burton Barrett, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church; John Murdoch, First Presbyterian Church; Leonard Birkin, Brethren Church; and Captain Andy Telfer of the Salvation Army.

In giving out his notices, the Reverend Mr. Patrick said that he had been asked by the Parent-Teacher Association to bring before the Ministerial Association and the church members generally the importance of enlisting public sentiment in favor of concrete action on the part of the responsible authorities to take immediate steps to provide more sanitary conditions for the people who now occupy the "jungles" of Bakersfield and vicinity.

St. Paul's choir under the direction of C. E. Wakefield, Jr., choir director and Mrs. Laura E. Nichols, organist, sang Gounod's communion office and a selection from Stainer's sacred cantata, "The Crucifixion."

The annual interdenominational "three hour service" was held at the First Congregational Church this afternoon with the following ministers participating, the Reverend Messrs. Captain Andy Telfer, Grover Ralston, Burton C. Barrett and A. S. Donat.

St. Paul's Church observed Good Friday with two services, the traditional "three hour service" conducted by the rector and the final lenten service for children at 4 o'clock.

The ministerial association is sponsoring a sunrise service at Greenlawn, on the bluffs, at 6 o'clock Sunday morning, with the Rev. Leonard Birkin of the Brethren Church, and the Reverend John Murdoch of the First Presbyterian Church, in charge.

Bishop Visits

St. Paul's Guild of St. Paul's Church enjoyed the presence of a distinguished visitor yesterday at the weekly luncheon in the guild in the person of the Right Reverend Robert Gordon, suffragan bishop of the diocese of Los Angeles, who was the guest of the Reverend William

E. Patrick. The Los Angeles bishop was on his way south after making visits to several San Joaquin parishes representing the Right Reverend L. C. Sanford, D. D., bishop of San Joaquin, whose health will not allow him to make his parochial visitation this year. Bishop Gordon administered confirmation at St. Philip's, Colliana, Sunday morning; at Church of the Saviour, Hanford, Sunday evening; St. Paul's, Visalia, Monday evening; and St. John's, Porterville, Tuesday evening. Mrs. O. G. App and Mrs. William E. Patrick were hostesses for the luncheon in the Guild hall.

Announcement was made of a cooked food sale to be held in the Guild hall Saturday, Mrs. Frank Smith, chairman.

St. Paul's Guild Planning for Sale

Members of the Altar Guild and St. Margaret's Guild will meet at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to decorate the church for Easter. Parishioners donating flowers are asked to leave them at the church not later than 5 o'clock.

The sacrament of infant baptism will be administered by the Reverend William E. Patrick at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Consecrate Dr. Heron As Bishop

With impressive ceremony, and with bishops from far sections of the nation participating, the Rev. Raymond Adams Heron was consecrated today at Trinity Church as suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts.

The services, at 10 a. m., participated in by the Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church and also bishop of Virginia, were preceded by a procession made up of several hundred dignitaries.

They included leaders in the Episcopal, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist Episcopal, Unitarian, Presbyterian and Universalist churches.

Also in the procession were the members of Bishop Heron's theological school class of 1916, who walked in a body.

Eight bishops, including Bishop Tucker, took part in the colorful and impressive rites at old Trinity, in Copley square.

The others were Bishop Arthur Wheelock Moulton, bishop of Utah; Bishop William Lawrence, bishop of Massachusetts; Bishop W. Appleton Lawrence, bishop of Western Massachusetts; Bishop Benjamin Brewster, bishop of Maine; Bishop Henry Knox Sherill, bishop of Massachusetts; Bishop Samuel Gavitt Babcock, who resigned January 1 as suffragan bishop and whom Bishop Heron succeeds; Bishop Vedder Van Dyck, bishop of Vermont.

Bishop Tucker was presiding

Hymn 172

1. Jesus Christ is risen today,
Our triumphant holy day,
Who did once upon the cross,
Suffer to redeem our loss.
Alleluia!
2. Hymns of praise then let us sing
Unto Christ, the heavenly King,
Who endured the cross and grave,
Sinners to redeem and save.
Alleluia!

"Jesus Christ Is Risen Today"

3. But the pains which He endured,
Our salvation have procured;
Now above the sky He's King,
Where the angels ever sing.
Alleluia!
4. Sing we to our God above
Praise eternal as His love;
Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
Father, Son and Holy Ghost;
Alleluia!
Amen.

BENEDICTION

Recessional Hymn 170 "Come Ye Faithful, Raise the Strain"

1. Come, ye faithful, raise the strain
Of triumphant gladness;
God hath brought His Israel
Into joy from sadness;
Loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke
Jacob's sons and daughters;
Led them with unmoistened foot
Through the Red Sea waters.
2. 'Tis the spring of souls today;
Christ hath burst His prison,
And from three days' sleep in death
As a sun hath risen;
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying
From His light, to whom we give Laud and praise undying.
3. Now the queen of seasons bright
With the day of splendour,
With the royal feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who with true affection
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus resurrection.
4. Neither might the gates of death,
Nor the tomb's dark portal,
Nor the watchers, nor the seal,
Hold Thee as a mortal;
But today amidst Thine own
Thou didst stand bestowing
That Thy peace which evermore Passeth human knowing. Amen.

SIR KNIGHTS: And unto the Lamb forever and forever.

Then Shall the Minister Say:

Dearly beloved Sir Knights and brethren: The Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness; and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God, our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by His infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought, at all times, humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we chiefly so to do when we assemble and meet together to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at His hands, to set forth His most worthy praise, to hear His most holy word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore, I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying—

GENERAL CONFESSION

To Be Said by All Present While Standing

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father. We have erred, and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep; we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou, those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Jesus Christ our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life. To the glory of Thy holy Name. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

OUR FATHER, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

PRELATE: O Lord, open Thou our lips.

SIR KNIGHTS: And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

PRELATE: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

SIR KNIGHTS: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

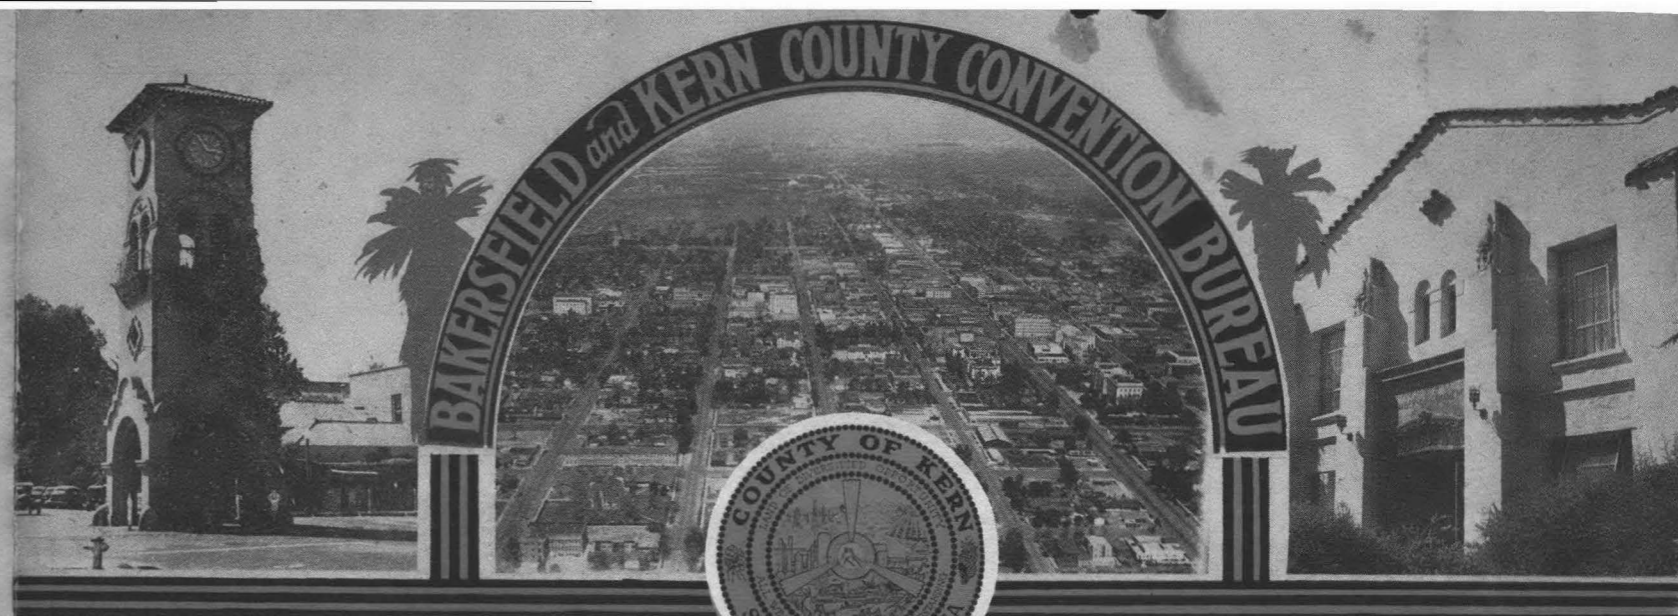

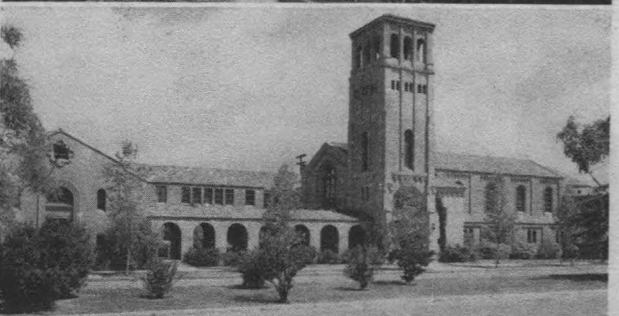

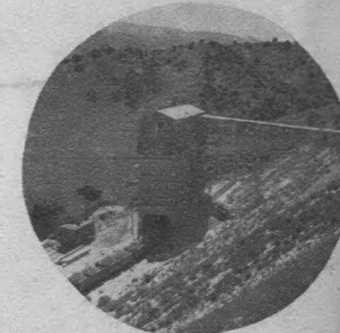

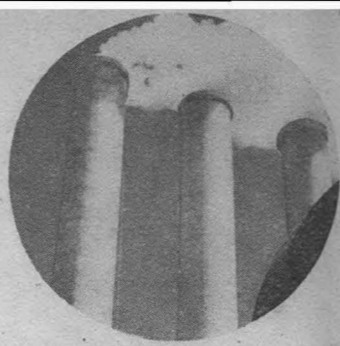

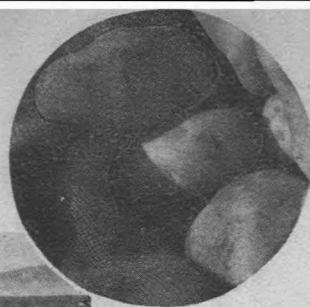

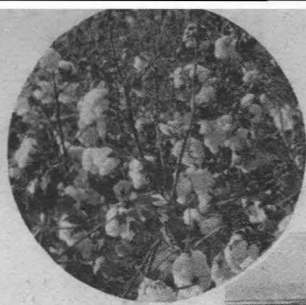

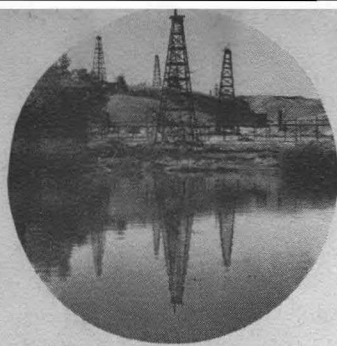

PRELATE: Praise ye the Lord.

SIR KNIGHTS: The Lord's name be praised.

"BAKERSFIELD A FRIENDLY CITY . . . CAPITAL OF KERN COUNTY . . . IN A LAND OF DIVERSIFIED OPPORTUNITY WHERE WEALTH COMES FROM UNDERSTANDING".

Dr. R. Quinn, Memorial day guest speaker, in El Tejon hotel at 6:15 o'clock tomorrow evening, followed by Sunday evening services at 7:45 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will open observance of Memorial day in Bakersfield by all patriotic organizations of the city. On Monday morning at 9:15 o'clock services will open at Union cemetery.

Native of Kern

The joint committee headed by John F. Watts of the American Legion has arranged the tomorrow evening dinner. Mr. Quinn, chairman of the state veterans' welfare board, is a charter member of Frank S. Reynolds post of the Legion and was first commander of Merle Reed post at Delano. A native of Kern county, he became both state and national commander of the American Legion. He was the first chairman of the veterans' board, resigning to enter business at Los Angeles, where he became chairman of the Board of Supervisors. A year ago he was reappointed to the veterans' board. Mrs. Stockton is chairman of the dinner committee and asks that donations be made with him of the legion hall. Members of all organizations.

Church Service

The Reverend William E. Patrick, pastor of St. Paul's Church and national chaplain of the American Legion, will conduct the Sunday morning services and deliver the address. The services will open with an organ recital by Mrs. Laura E. Nichols. The Reverend Patrick, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will read the scripture lesson.

Singing of hymns will be alternated with Kipling's "Recessional" sung by the Legion Auxiliary Glee Club, "The Stars and Stripes Forever" by the Elks Glee Club, and the offertory, Gounod's "Send Out Thy Light," by the combined choirs and glee clubs. Taps sounded by Bugler George Naser of Frank S. Reynolds post will conclude the observance.

Cemetery Rites

For the Union cemetery services Monday morning all organizations will unite, and after the address by Mr. Quinn, will march to the G. A. R. Plot for the annual ritual and salute. Memorial day was inaugurated in memory of those who died in the Civil War. Afterward each organization will retire to its own section of the cemetery for individual services.

Mrs. W. B. Lyons, of the American Red Cross, will continue the custom she originated several years ago of placing an American flag on each World War veteran's grave.

Need Flowers

A shortage of flowers today led Mrs. H. C. McClain, committee chairman for the American Legion Auxiliary, to appeal for donations of blossoms for the 200 graves in the World War memorial plot. She asked that anyone having flowers telephone Legion hall, 2293.

At the close of the cemetery exercises the auxiliaries of the veterans' organizations will join in a very large luncheon in Legion hall at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ida Betz, of the Women's Relief Corps, will be in charge as in past years.

Approximately 500 persons attended funeral services conducted this morning for Dr. N. N. Brown, well-known Bakersfield physician who was killed Sunday in an automobile accident. Scores of the doctor's friends stood bareheaded outside the overflowing Flickinger-Digier chapel while the last rites were conducted by the Reverend William E. Patrick. The casket was surrounded by a solid bank of flowers. Vocal selections were sung by Mrs. Frank Digier, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. A. R. Hoisington at the organ. Interment followed in Bakersfield Memorial Park.

While it is fitting to express grief for those who died in their country's service, Memorial day would be meaningless without inspiration for the future, said the pastor. Though we may lose faith in men, we have never lost faith in our country, he said.

Faith Is Theme

Drawing an analogy between the race in the Bible text and the course of the nation toward peace, he said that Americans should lay aside the "weights" of greed and selfishness which constitute self-imposed barriers, and added that impatience in the race, one of the faults of the American people, is what has brought dictatorship to European peoples seeking a shortcut to Utopia.

An organ recital by Mrs. Laura E. Nichols was a prelude to the Reverend Patrick's address. Music by the choir, the Elks glee club and the American Legion Auxiliary glee club added to the impressive service, which was concluded with "Taps" played by George Naser, bugler, of Frank S. Reynolds post, American Legion.

New Bishop Consecrated at Solemn Ceremony

PROUD MOTHER SEES CONSECRATION

Proudest of those in Trinity Church yesterday for the ceremonies of consecration for Bishop Raymond A. Heron was his mother, Mrs. Virginia A. Heron, shown here with him.

Continued From First Page

Elected on Dec. 15 to succeed Suffragan Bishop Samuel G. Babcock, retired, Bishop Heron was elevated to his high office by a laying on of hands in which six bishops participated.

Presiding over the ceremony which filled Trinity to the eaves and through which hundreds stood to pay homage to the incoming bishop, was the presiding bishop of the National Episcopal Church, the Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, D. D., of Virginia, who is bishop as well of that Commonwealth. It was his first official act and his first consecration in the role of presiding bishop, so the diocese of Massachusetts was doubly honored.

The processional, led by the crucifer and the choir of Trinity, focused all eyes because of the dignity of those composing it, and the pageantry and color it contributed to an otherwise sombre scene. Brilliant hoods signifying the honorary degrees possessed by many in this long line varied from salmon pink through cardinal to deep purple, with here a green hood and there a blue one and frequently a combination. These, and the white vestments of the clergy, the choir, the white altar and the ascension lilies upon it, with the flickering tapers were the relieving notes.

First came the masters of ceremonies who were the Rev. William E. Gardiner, D. D., of Trinity; the Rev. Henry McF. B. Ogilby of Brookline; the Rev. Wolcott Cutler of Charlestown, and the Rev. Arthur C. Lichtenberger of Brookline. These were followed by the students, faculty and trustees of the Episcopal Theological School. Representatives of the class of 1916, which was Bishop Heron's class, had special place in the line, also the vestry of Grace Church in Lawrence, Bishop Heron's last rectorship which turned out 200 parishioners for his consecration.

Other celebrants in the line were the Rev. Francis Ellsworth Webster, secretary of the convention who read the certificate of Bishop Heron's election at his consecration; Archdeacon Howard Key Barstow of New Bedford and Archdeacon Arthur O. Phinney of Lowell; Judge Philip S. Parker, chancellor of the diocese; the Very Rev. Philemon F. Sturges, dean of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and then the attending presbyters, the Rev. Malcolm Endicott Peabody, rector of St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, and the Rev. Archie Henry Crowley, who is rector of Grace Church in Lawrence.

Hierarchy in Procession

The bishop to be consecrated, Raymond A. Heron, was followed in the procession by the presenting bishops, the suffragan bishop retired, Samuel G. Babcock, D. D., and Bishop Arthur Wheelock Moulton, D. D., missionary bishop of Utah; the co-consecrators, Bishop William Lawrence, D. D., LL. D., D. L. C. and Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill, D. D., LL. D., bishop of Massachusetts, who preached the consecration sermon with Presiding Bishop Henry St. George Tucker, last.

In the church sat Mrs. Virginia Heron, watching with proud, tear filled eyes the consecration of her son as a bishop of his church. Afterward, at the luncheon at the Copley-Plaza Hotel, Bishop Heron paid open tribute to his mother, saying that she had entered the ministry with him when he became a curate in 1916 and now she would begin her life as a bishop with him.

Another group in the church which gave Suffragan Bishop Heron happiness was a detail from the headquarters of the Boston fire department. He has been their Memorial Day orator and is held in high esteem by the whole department. Captain Patrick Mahoney of Enigne 1, president of the Officers' Club; Lieutenant Thomas M. Manning of Engine 12, of the Officers' Club, and William Ryan, Edward Coveney and George Fraser, representing the Russell Club and the Boston Firemen's Charitable Association, after the consecration service offered their congratulations in a body.

In all 10 bishops participated in the ceremony of consecration, four of whom had seen service at Grace Church in Lawrence. The four were Bishop William Lawrence; his son, Bishop William Appleton Lawrence of Western Massachusetts, Bishop Arthur W. Moulton of Utah and Suffragan Bishop Heron. Other bishops of the church taking part were Bishop Benjamin Brewster of Maine, Bishop John T. Dallas of New Hampshire and Bishop Vedder Van Dyck of Vermont.

1000 at Luncheon

At the luncheon which followed at the Copley-Plaza Hotel more than 1000 clergy and laity attended.

Bishop Tucker in the principal address declared this to be a real time of crisis for Christianity; with what we do at home and the example we set individually as Christians to prove that Jesus Christ can uplift and save in these modern times counting more than anything missionaries can do.

"There were more Christians in Japan in 1600 than there are today but it is not because missionaries have not done their work but because of the example of Christian countries in Europe, continually at war," said Bishop Tucker.

Depends on Example

"China and Japan are asking whether Christianity is worth adopting under conditions today. Whether either country becomes Christian depends on the example set by the Christian countries."

Bishop Sherrill presided at the luncheon and both Bishop Lawrence and Bishop Babcock testified to the high spiritual and ministerial qualities of Bishop Heron.

When it came his turn to speak, Bishop Heron took as his text—"This is the day that the Lord has made. We will rejoice and be glad in it."

"It is glorious and as much yours as mine. There is no group I would rather be with. God bless you all for giving this privilege to me."

Society Welfare

Later, he said that the church must be more effective in service and more vital in religion.

"The church must be very conscious of the welfare of society, for society is the heart of democracy and the church has a great responsibility to so interpret it," said Bishop Heron.

A reception in the crypt of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul in the late afternoon closed the day's programme. In the receiving line with Bishop Heron were Bishop and Mrs. Sherrill and Dean and Mrs. Sturges.

POLICEMAN SLAIN OVER $7.70 FINE

Man Shoots Officer After Conviction as Drunk

ROCKLAND, Me., Feb. 16—Patrolman John D. Chapman, of the local police force, was shot and killed in the business section here tonight, by a man he had arrested earlier in the day, after he tried in vain to befriend him.

The man, police announced, is Harry B. Hall, 60, a former cattle dealer. Eight hours before police arrested him with a smoking revolver near the policeman's body, Hall had been found guilty of a drunkenness charge in court and ordered to pay $7.70 costs.

AT BUSY CORNER

The shooting occurred at Park and Main streets in the heart of the business section. The policeman had gone on duty at 6 p. m. and 25 minutes later he lay dead on his beat.

Eye witnesses to the shooting, police said, told them that Hall walked behind the officer for several feet and suddenly shouted, "Chapman."

Officer Chapman turned around and heard the man say: "You fool with me and I'll fix you."

Then a shot rang out. The policeman fell against a business block, reaching for his gun. Before he could draw, he dropped dead, the bullet having struck him above the right eye.

Horrified citizens ran for cover, while others telephoned to the police station. Hall, police said, stood 10 feet away from the policeman's body until three officers arrived and took him into custody. He handed a pearl-handled .32 calibre revolver over to a local policeman.

Chapman was a member of the police force for five years and was on his usual beat when slain. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

The only explanation police could offer for the shooting tonight was that Hall was angered over his arrest.

Ironical was the fact that Hall, police declared, was apparently unaware that the officer had tried in vain to befriend him earlier in the day before he arrested him.

Tried to Take Him Home

Hall was arrested early this morning by Officer Chapman, after the latter had been sent to a local hotel, where there had been a disturbance.

The officer reported to his superiors that he had "coaxed" Hall to the street and was about to take him home in his own automobile, when Hall became abusive and the officer was forced to arrest him.

In court later, Hall pleaded guilty to the drunkenness charge and was ordered to pay $7.70 costs. The fine was waived by the court.

Officer Chapman was not in court. Tonight at 6 p. m. the officer reported for duty. Before going on the street he told his three brother officers of the night shift of his experience with Hall earlier in the day.

At 6:25 the officer was dead. Officials trying to piece the shooting together tonight expressed the opinion that Hall had encountered Officer Chapman on Maine street and followed him. The officer, officials believe, was walking away from the man, rather than argue with him.

After the shooting, Michael Armata, owner of a clothing store, told police that he was one of the eye witnesses. He said that he heard Hall mumble, "you fool with me and I'll fix you..." before the gun went off.

Armata said the policeman slumped to the sidewalk, dead, before he could get his revolver out from under his uniform.

Officer Chapman, after the early-morning arrest, told brother officers that Hall had been drinking in the hotel with a traveling man, and that he had acted all right until Chapman tried to take him home, after walking him out of the hotel. Arrest became necessary because of Hall's abusive actions at that time, he said.

Charged With Murder

Patrolmen Myron Drinkwater, Forrest Hatch and Robert Sadler, were quickly on the scene, following the shooting. Officer Drinkwater took the revolver away from Hall, he said.

Hall was taken to the county jail for questioning by Sheriff C. Earl Ludwick and County Attorney Jerome Burrows. Sheriff Ludwick said that Hall will be arraigned in court in the morning on a charge of murder.

Jury's Verdict Meant Hearing on Plea Crowds Choked

FATHER HUGS WRIGHT

Dr. J. J. Wright is to be seen here with a jury which had convicted the airport deaths of his wife and John Kimmel, that he was insane at the time of the deaths. Giebler is at right.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16 (AP)—Paul A. Wright, former airport executive who killed his wife and his best friend, was technically freed today by the same jury which convicted him last week on two counts of manslaughter.

The jury convicted Wright in three hours on his straight plea of innocence, but deliberated 18 hours before it found him innocent by reason of insanity. He had been charged with the murder of Mrs. Wright and John Kimmel.

WRIGHT COLLAPSES

"It appears to the court that the defendant has regained his sanity," Superior Judge Ingall W. Bull announced. "I therefore remand the defendant to the custody of the sheriff until his sanity has been decided in the manner prescribed by law."

Under routine legal procedure, Wright's case will be referred to a psychopathic court for a hearing. If, at that hearing, it is determined that he is sane, he will be given his freedom.

The court indicated later that Wright will be in custody for only a day or two, or until the examination to determine his present mental condition is held.

The courtroom was in an uproar after the verdict was read. Halted by bailiffs, cheering broke out again after Judge Bull left the bench.

Wright collapsed and was carried from the courtroom, where he had spent the last month fighting for his life.

Wright turned to Jerry Phillips, "My ginny," on the clerk's torn abrupt.

There is always a toward which men forge, there is always a far truth which is never reached the expression of life, give local high school graduates baccalaureate services, yesterday
Reverend William E. Patrick
"Truth is the cement around life is built," quoted Reverend Patrick from the famous poet Dryden, and truth is the goal needs emphasis in the lives of only graduates, but in the older people as well, the said.

"Freedom"

Another aspect of life in America was touched upon by Reverend Patrick, the aspect of freedom. The word "free" has degenerated during the course of its usage. Reverend Patrick stated, and pointed out that all of the American people have boundaries beyond which they can not go.

There is a definite need for restraint, especially for high school students,
according to the Reverend Patrick, who stated that while Americans are not entirely free, it is absolutely necessary to have some discipline, some law, and some means of character training. He cited the example of progressive education, which,
while it does teach a child individuality, fails to provide certain needed discipline.

Plea for Truth

The Reverend Patrick concluded his sermon with a plea for truth and restraint on the part of each graduate.
"Remember the story of the attorney,"
the Reverend Patrick said,
"Who when asked if he had ever broken the Golden Rule, answered no, but said that he had bent it quite a few times."

The baccalaureate program included numbers by the high school-junior college orchestra; the Processional by the graduates; the invocation;
reading of the Scripture numbers by the girls' glee club of the high school, directed by Miss Carol Buchner; the prayer; the singing of "America" by the congregation; the benediction; and the Recessional. The sermon, presented by the Reverend Patrick, was entitled "Looking Forward."
The reverend heads St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and was in charge of the religious ceremonies for the baccalaureate services. Harold J.
Burt directed the orchestra.

The Greek girls who presented their national anthem were Evelyn Gombos, Helen Agalos, Callope Antonaros, Angelle Fotis, Mary Koukis, Pearl Balasis, Anna Gombos, Irene Antonaros and Irene Gombos. They were directed by Mrs. M. J. Calmaras and accompanied by Gregory Poullogianis.

One hundred members of the Sunday School enjoyed a picnic at Jastro Park Saturday. After lunch, games and races were conducted under the direction of teachers and members of the Young People's Fellowship.

Patrick to Deliver Harvard Invocation

To the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church has been accorded the honor of delivering the invocation at the memorial service at 4:15 o'clock, June 21 in connection with the twenty-fifth reunion of the 1912 graduating class at Harvard University.

The reunion is expected to bring 41,000 or more persons to Cambridge.

Giving details of the reunion plans, a publication known as the 12-25 Express has been received by alumni along with the program of the memorial service. Mr. Patrick contributed a page to the former, under the caption "A Chaplain's Chronicle." Well written and humorous, the article recounts visits of alumni to California and gives much local color. The publication is replete with messages, pictures of sons and grandchildren of class members of '12, and personal anecdotes and cartoons.

Announcement of St. Paul's Events

The service scheduled for 11 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal Church Sunday will be omitted, because of the baccalaureate service at the high school auditorium at which the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Church, will be the preacher. Members of the congregation are asked to attend either the early communion at 8 o'clock next Sunday or the Sunday school service at 9:45 o'clock. There will be no further choir rehearsals until September.

San Joaquin Bishop Confirms Class at Church

The Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, bishop of San Joaquin diocese, and the Reverend William E. Patrick, seated before the confirmation class yesterday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

"FAITH, hope and love are the great gifts of God" the Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, D. D., bishop of San Joaquin told the large congregation that welcomed the bishop at St. Paul's Episcopal Church yesterday morning. "Those who exemplified these favors in their daily lives were answering St. Paul's prayer 'We beseech that ye receive not the grace of God in vain,' which the speaker quoted from the Epistle for the First Sunday in Lent. Those failing to support the missionary work of the church had received the grace of God in vain, the bishop concluded.

The following persons received the historic laying on hands in confirmation: Mesdames Carrie Macdonald, Ida Lea Johnson, Elizabeth S. Preston; the Misses Barbara Ann Conley, Audrey Forrest, Constance L. Macdonald, Elizabeth J. Moore, Sidney C. Moore, Marguerite E. Siddall and Burnice A. Steward; Messrs. Clarence D.

Jones, Clarence A. Preston, George E. Preston, Jr., Vance Preston and Robert J. Smith. The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector, officiated at the service of morning prayer and presented the candidates for confirmation, with W. W. Simons, Jr., crucifer, and Burton Covell as flag bearer. ## WILLIAM PATRICK ADDRESSES GROUP

Special Armistice Services at Church Draw Throng of 500 Persons

"To honor the dead who made the supreme sacrifice, to affirm a new duty to the disabled and to determine to build a firmer structure for the safeguarding of peace—these are the obligations upon all Americans." Such was the statement of the Reverend William E. Patrick, past national chaplain of the American Legion, addressing a crowd of approximately 500 persons at a special Armistice Sunday service at the First Baptist church last evening.

The speaker went on to outline three ways in which America could continue the peace which she has enjoyed the past 18 years.

Peace Program

"An adequate national defense, strict neutrality on the economic front as well as the military in case of other nations' quarrels and congressional legislation for the drafting of capital, industry and man power on the basis of equality with special privilege and profit for none in the event (which God forbid) of our participation in another armed conflict," he said, "should be the major points in our peace program."

Members of the Bakersfield posts of the American Legion and of the Veterans of Foreign Wars together with the two auxiliaries, attended the service in a body with their respective colors. At the close of the service, Bugler George Nazir of Frank Reynolds Post 26, American Legion, sounded taps.

THE NARROW GAUGE

The action of Winthrop town meeting members in accepting the report of a Massachusetts Institute of Technology expert to guarantee the retention of service on the Narrow Gauge undoubtedly reflects the sentiment of the town as a whole. An advance in fare from 10 to 15 cents and the curtailment of service between rush hours in another day would be far from popular.

Declining revenues today seriously threaten this most necessary transportation system. Winthrop residents generally appear willing to do their part to retain it.

BISHOP HERON

The consecration of the Rev. Raymond Adams Heron as suffragan bishop of the Massachusetts diocese advanced one of the State's most brilliant churchmen to a position of honor and authority that was well earned. The sacred services which took place yesterday were attended by men and women of many different sects. As they saw the vestments of his office bestowed on Bishop Heron at Trinity the noisy world outside the edifice teemed with grating problems of a troubled civilization. To the new bishop will go the work of easing and assuaging the manifold troubles those problems have brought. Bishop Heron, sturdy, far-seeing and understanding, is well equipped for the office he takes.

REV. PATRICK IS ACCORDED HONOR

Invited to Serve as Honorary Guard to President During Coming Inauguration

The Reverend William B. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and Past National Chaplain of the American Legion, has received a signal honor in an invitation to act as one of the eight national officers of the Army and Navy Legion of Valor who will serve as honorary guards to the President at the United States at the inauguration in Washington on January 20.

The local pastor, who received the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism in action in the Meuse-Argonne while Chaplain of the Twenty-third U. S. Infantry, Second Division, A. I. E. is serving his second term as national chaplain of the Legion of Valor, an organization composed of holders of the Congressional Medal of Honor, Distinguished Service Cross and Navy Cross, the highest decorations for bravery in the military service of this country.

Headed by Lieutenant John Davis, U. S. N., retired, of Newport, R. I., present national commander of the Legion of Valor and past commander, Lieutenant George Bradley, U. S. N., retired, of Newport, both Congressional medal of honor men, the honorary guard will include some distinguished veterans both of the Spanish and World Wars, including Brigadier General J. Leslie Kincaid, D. S. C., New York; Captain Robert C. Bunge, D. S. C., Cincinnati; Lieutenant Ben Prager, D. S. C., Pittsburgh, Penn.; Chief of Staff Frederick Kohl, D. S. C., Washington, D. ## Speaks Before Club

On Wednesday evening, with the Honorable Rice Means, former Colorado senator and past commander of the Spanish War Veterans, the local pastor was a speaker at a dinner at the Army and Navy Club in Washington. The eastern climate was too severe for Mrs. Patrick, who was confined to her hotel room throughout their stay and followed the festivities by the radio.

Chaplain Patrick attended service at St. Thomas Church last Sunday morning when President and Mrs. Roosevelt and their grandchildren attended. The congregation rose until the President had seated himself just before the choir marched in and no one left the church until the President and his family had withdrawn.

Visits Officials

On the day before the inaugural, Mr. Patrick visited the House office building, enjoying short visits with congressmen he knew, including Congressman B. W. Gearheart of Fresno, John Steven McGroarty of Los Angeles, Robert Luce of Wallham, Massachusetts and a college classmate, R. E. Wigglesworth of Milton, Massachusetts. Congressman Stubbs' son reported that his father was in the hospital at Washington. On Monday evening the local pastor was a guest at the annual dinner of the Yankee Division Association.

While the city was crowded with visitors, thousands of them made no effort to see the exercises or parade, the Reverend Patrick said. As regards weather possibilities, January 20 showed itself just as uncertain as March 4 has always been. At home by your own fireside and radio was the logical place to be.

BOOK MUSIC ENJOYED

Pea Given by Church Guild Proves to Be Charming Afternoon Event

Counting the artistry of Margaret Mitchell's "Gone With the Wind" as reviewed by Mrs. Lafayette Baynes and the voice of Mrs. Hugh Gormely, St. Margaret's Guild entertained at a tea in the Guild hall of the St. Paul's Episcopal Church Thursday afternoon.

Introduces Soloist

Mrs. Laura Nichols introduced Mrs. Gormely, soprano soloist and accompanied her at the piano when she opened the program with "The Green Cathedral," "Joy of Spring and Love," and "Mighty Lak a Rose." Mrs. Percy Neate, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Baynes.

Praises Book

Margaret Mitchell wrote the book because she couldn't find anything to read when she was bedridden and had exhausted her friends' libraries as well as those disclosed in the review. The last chapter she wrote first and the others followed in a spasmodic alternation that amazed her publishers as well as the bulk of the manuscript that was carried to New York in a specially purchased suitcase. Parts dovetail perfectly although they were written so peacefully and without access to authentic sources until after the scenes were laid. The amount of detail and research that Margaret Mitchell put into the book makes it the "most true and perfect book of that American history," Mrs. Neate never said.

Bakersfield, California

October 31, 1938

Dear Friend:

The undersigned have been appointed a Finance Committee by the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, to arrange for the annual canvass for subscribers to the maintenance of St. Paul's Church, and to our share in the General Missionary Work of the whole church for the ensuing year.

In order that you may understand the parish needs the Vestry has adopted a tentative budget of approximately $5000. It is necessary for this amount to be raised if we are to carry on successfully for the year 1939. In addition to this, we will need approximately $700 for the general Church Program, which is taken care of by the pledge on the red side of the envelope.

You will note that the Pledge Card is a duplex one. Please fill in on the left side what you desire to contribute by the week, month or quarter -- to indicate your support of the Parish; and on the right side, what you desire to give to the cause of Missions. A convenient ratio is - four to one. For example:

$1.00 for Parish support and 25¢ to Missions

On behalf of the vestry the Committee wishes to thank you for your support in the past and hopes you will give a ready and willing response for the New Year.

Please fill out your card and place on the Offering Plate at some service, or mail to Mr. Wakefield -- before November 10th.

Sincerely yours,

G. E. Stanfield, Chairman
C. E. Wakefield, Jr.

FORMER commandant of the Ninth corps area and the Fourth field army, Major Paul B. Malone, Armistice day speaker here who is widely known as a public speaker, had a distinguished record of service in France during the World War, receiving many decorations for bravery.

The distinguished service cross was awarded him in 1921 for extraordinary heroism in the battle of Soissons in July, 1918. He also won the distinguished service medal in 1919 for exceptionally meritorious services in France; four silver stars citations for gallantry in action; the Croix de Guerre of France with two palms and one star; and has been named an officer of the Legion of Honor of France and a commander of the Crown of Italy. He holds the victory and other American campaign medals for service in battle.

Lieutenant-Colonel in 1917

Leaving for France as lieutenant-colonel in July, 1917, General Malone served with the operations section, GHQ; was promoted to colonel and became chief of the training section on the general staff; and in February, 1918, was assigned to command the Twenty-third U. S. infantry, second division, and commanded his regiment in the trenches south of Verdun, in the Aisne-Marne defensive, in the Chateau-Thierry operations, and in the Aisne-Marne offensive.

By coincidence, the Reverend William E. Patrick, who will introduce General Malone on Armistice day, was chaplain of the regiment which he commanded in France. The Reverend Patrick, past national chaplain of the American Legion, also won the distinguished service cross.

Brigade Commander

General Malone in August, 1918, was assigned to command the Tenth brigade of the Fifth division, leading it in the St. Mihiel offensive and Meuse-Argonne offensive, and in forcing the Meuse river and capturing the high ground to the east. This morning the Reverend Mr. Patrick motored to Tehachapi to speak at the grammar and high schools of the mountain town.

Ball, Grid Game, Fireworks Slated as Closing Events

MARCHING feet and martial music echoed the stirring days of 1918 today as Bakersfield celebrated the twentieth anniversary of the signing of the armistice, marking 20 years of uninterrupted peace for the United States. Before thousands of patriotic citizens who lined the downtown streets, gaily decorated floats, brilliantly uniformed marching units and cars filled with distinguished guests, city and county officials participated in the annual parade.

Special significance of this year's Armistice day celebration lay not only in the fact that it was the twentieth anniversary of the signing of the armistice but that it also marked the first observance of the day as a national legal holiday.

Continuing the Armistice day observance, hundreds of citizens crowded the Fox theater to attend memorial exercises which featured Colonel C. H. Mason, chief of staff of the first reserve area, as principal feature. A pageant entitled "Twenty Years Ago" also was presented.

In the afternoon Bakersfield High School tangled with Pasadena in a football game at Griffith Field arranged under auspices of the American Legion.

Fireworks Display

One of the outstanding features of the celebration will be the gigantic fireworks display tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the fairgrounds, depicting episodes in the history of Kern county. It will be presented by Frank S. Reynolds Post of the American Legion.

Concluding event of the celebration will be the official Armistice day ball tonight at 9 o'clock at La Granada ballroom.

Heading the first division of the parade this morning were nine black and white cars of the California Highway Patrol, followed by 14 motorcycle officers of the patrol. They were followed by four cars carrying Gold Star mothers.

In the next car rode Colonel C. H. Mason, distinguished guest and speaker at the memorial exercises; Wesley Waldon, commander of Frank S. Reynolds Post of the American Legion; Phil C. Pifer, general chairman of the Legion's Armistice day celebration committee; and Verne Austin, parade chairman.

They were followed by a car carrying Mrs. C. H. Mason; Mrs. H. E. Powell, president of the American Legion Auxiliary; and the Reverend William Patrick and Paul Malone, aides to Colonel Mason.

Official Groups

Succeeding cars carried Superior Court judges, county officials, members of the board of supervisors, the city manager, and members of the city council. A car representing the 20-30 Club was also included in the first division.

Concluding the first unit were two city fire trucks and four county fire department trucks. Leader of the first division was Captain E. K. Baum, Lieutenant William A. Howell was liaison officer.

Although entirely unscheduled, the 40 and 8 Voiture's engine and box car provided a feature attraction when it capsized on Truxtun avenue, halting the line of march for several minutes, and bruising the occupants of the Voiture's somewhat erratic vehicle. Cannoneer Sam Pinnell was the most seriously injured, having landed on his trigger finger. A turn cut too sharply was blamed for the mishap, which achieved no damage.

COL. C. H. MASON SPEAKER AT HUGE ARMISTICE MEET

Nonaggression Policy Is Credited With Peace for United States

AMERICA'S 20 years of peace since 1918 have been achieved through the nation's steadfast dedication to a policy of nonaggression.

That was the Armistice day message, brought to citizens of Bakersfield today by Colonel C. H. Mason, chief of staff of the first reserve area, who delivered the principal address at exercises held at the Fox theater after the parade.

Need Alertness

Colonel Mason declared that America had never been the aggressor in act or in thought, but that she must be constantly on the alert to continue the 20 years of peace already experienced, the longest period in American history that has been free from wars of any type.

"Peace comes through the will of human beings; it is not a natural state," said the speaker. He called attention to the fact that "peace is created by soldiers; in America they are never the ones who start the wars."

Chairman

Colonel Mason was introduced by Wesley Waldon, commander of Frank S. Reynolds Post of the American Legion, under whose auspices the entire day's celebration was staged.

The Reverend William E. Patrick of Frank S. Reynolds Post served as chairman of the meeting and delivered the invocation. The meeting was called to order by Commander Waldon as though it were a regular meeting of the Legion Post.

Participants in the day's activities who were introduced by the Reverend Patrick were the following:

Commander Waldon; Phil C. Pifer, general chairman of the Armistice day celebration; Mrs. H. E. Powell, president of the American Legion Auxiliary; Verne Austin, chairman of the parade committee; H. W. Brockway, commander of Private Harold Brown Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars; William Eissler, commander of the Spanish-American War Veterans.

Game Committee

Ray Lobre, commander of the Disabled American Veterans; Ted Cheney, commander of the Canadian Legion; Harry Shirley, chief "waker-upper;" John Watts, chairman of the football game committee.

Wayne P. Nelson, chairman of the dance committee; Al Burton and Rocky Miller, chairman and assistant chairman of the fireworks show; Zeke Hoskins, chairman of the ticket sales; and Dave Chernist and Miss Mary Owens, who were in charge of the skit presented as a part of the program.

Twenty Years Ago was the title of the skit presented before the principal address. It represented a Salvation Army canteen in 1918 and was put on by high school and junior college students, costumed as soldiers, Red Cross nurses and Salvation Army workers. Several songs of that period were sung.

Taps were sounded by George Naser, Stanley Woodward and Owen Conway, all members of the Legion drum and bugle corps.

RED CROSS WORK TOPIC OF PASTOR

Training for Emergency Is Outlined for Work in Kern County

"What to do as well as what not to do in cases of accident, injury or sudden illness, is the basis of the truly co-operative service of the First Aid committee of the American Red Cross, Bakersfield chapter," comments the Reverend William H. Patrick, member of the chapter board, in outlining work being done by the committee in Kern county.

Training against such emergencies is being given to many this year, he says, through work directed by a voluntary committee composed of R. J. Williamson, vice-chairman, C. H. Phillips, E. A. Goss, Captain L. R. Galyen and Dr. R. E. Scherb, medical adviser.

Training School
An institute for Red Cross instructors has been conducted by H. P. Terwilliger, of the first aid department of the Pacific area. Out of this institute, eight persons received new appointments and six became new instructors.

Four other instructors have acted as medical officers for CCC camps in this district. In all, 17 classes have been conducted by these 13 instructors, training 224 new first aid operators. Fifteen junior, 183 standard and 26 advanced certificates have been issued through the service of these volunteer instructors.

Sponsor Groups
Sponsoring groups include the Boy Scouts, CCC companies of Isabella and Inyokern, Kern County Union High School, Kern County Camp Fire Girls, McFarland High School and night school, P. T. A. of Standard School, fire department of Shafter, Shafter women, state highway maintenance department, Wasco branch committee of Red Cross, WPA of Bakersfield, Delano and Wasco.

In addition, the committee supervises two highway first aid stations, by which much suffering may be alleviated before medical aid and hospital care could be secured for injured persons. Kits at these stations have been frequently refilled, and "Emergency First Aid" signs have identified the stations for all.

CHURCH SERVICES CHANGED TO HALL

Episcopal Building Will Be Repaired. Choir Will Assist at Rates

Beginning tomorrow the church building of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Parish will be closed and all services and meetings of Sunday school and other parochial organizations will be conducted in the Guild hall until the work of strengthening the chancel arch is completed, the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Parish, announced today. This action was taken by resolution of the rector, wardens and vestrymen at a specially called meeting held in the church study last evening.

To Repair Arch

Originally planned as part of an extensive alteration program of the summer vacation, the work was postponed because of the desire of the committee to have the counsel of the whole vestry.

Services had been resumed early this month, but further inspection of the break in the masonry of the chancel arch has revealed the possibility of a collapse of this central feature of the building. Therefore, upon the advice of Roy H. Hubbard, Bakersfield building inspector, the officers of the parish voted to proceed immediately with the repairs and close the building in the interest of public safety rather than expose the members of the choir, Sunday School and congregation to possible injury. The committee in charge consists of Glen E. Stanfield, Dr. Fred J. Crease and C. E. Wakefield, Jr.

St. Paul's choir has arranged the following order of music for the 11 o'clock service tomorrow in the guild hall, Mrs. Laura E. Nichols, organist, using the piano for accompaniment: Prelude, Mountain Idyll (Schmink), Song of Joy (Becker), processional hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee" (Sullivan); Venite, Benedictus es, Jubilate, Anglican chants; hymn, "O, for a Closer Walk With God" (Dykes).

Other services tomorrow include early celebration of holy communion at 8 o'clock, Sunday school at 9:45 and first meeting of the Young People's Fellowship at 7 o'clock.

Young People of Church Convene

Earl Snow presided at the short business meeting. Christmas hymns and carols were practiced, Eleanor Patrick playing the piano. In addition to the host and hostess who entertained the group, other adults present were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wardhaugh.

Veteran Railroad Employee Honored

A railroad career of 51 years will be closed on September 30, when Walter B. Lyons of Sunset avenue retires from the service of the Santa Fe Railway Company with which he has been associated over a period of 34 years. Mr. Lyons was honored being the first apprentice instructor appointed at Topeka. He continued to impart knowledge to embryo mechanics until 1912, when ill health within his family made a change of climate necessary, and Point Richmond was his next home, later coming to Bakersfield in a supervisory position, that of day assistant round-house foreman.

At a shop council meeting Monday E. L. Burton, boiler foreman, in eulogistic words presented Mr. Lyons to the council, and he, in responding emphasized the parting with his fellows as his "most difficult job."

"First, however, the speaker said, 'let me pay tribute to one who has ever been my constant companion and helpmate, who has always sent me out with a good breakfast, a kiss on my lips and a pat on the back, who always welcomed me home after a hard day's work with a smile on her face and a cheery word of welcome—gentleman my wife!'"

Stressing the difficulties confronting the department, the speaker said: "I am proud to say my boys have handled this work with credit to both themselves and me for we have had very few engine failures out of Bakersfield due to poor workmanship. I also feel extremely grateful in saying that I think I am retiring after 46 years of service with the friendship and good will of everyone, not only in the mechanical department, but with the confidence and good will of the engineers and firemen as well. So all I can say is—boys, I am proud of you all—good-bye and God bless you—I thank you all!"

Mr. and Mrs. Lyons long highly respected residents of Bakersfield will continue to make their home in this city.

Episcopal Church Meeting Is Held

The quarterly meeting of the executive council of the Protestant Episcopal Missionary District of San Joaquin was held at St. James' Cathedral, Fresno, yesterday. A meeting of the Council of Advice followed to recommend for ordination to the priesthood the Reverend John Stewart Snyder, deacon, recently elected rector of the Church of the Saviour, Hanford.

Mrs. William E. Patrick returned last night from Stockton, where she attended a meeting of the executive board of the Diocesan Church Service League held at St. John's Church.

Rev. Barnes Addresses Club on Religion Theme at Meet

ONE'S religion should give intellectual integrity, psychological soundness and social courage, said the Reverend Canon C. Rankin Barnes, pastor of the largest Episcopal Church in San Diego, when he spoke Monday night at Hotel El Tejon at a dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

His subject was "Religion in the Life of the Average Business Woman of Today." He defined his terms and showed the peculiar need of the person who is making a daily adjustment of hearth and market place, for "loyalties to value objects of paramount importance in life."

Impediments

The speaker said impediments to religion include: being repelled by pettiness in the lives of certain people who claim devotion to religion; sheer ignorance; and pseudo-scientific attitudes. The confusion of fear with wonder in the source of religion was commented upon as was the "low market value of religion, which gives nothing to exhibit." The speaker distinguished between science with its facts and religion with its values higher than religion and cited convincing illustration to show no conflict between the two.

Moderns Groping

That the world is groping for something to afford a renewal of resources is evidenced in the popularity of such books as Link's "Return to Religion," he showed. He quoted the Sherwood play "Petrified Forest" in which the chief actor carries the book "Modern Man in Search of a Soul," and read excerpts from Westcott's "The Modern Family."

Music Enjoyed

The evening's musical program was one of particularly satisfying content. Miss Aileen Hartzog, pianist, Mrs. Jack Tyler, violinist, Mrs. Walter Jaynes, vocal soloist, and Mrs. A. R. Hoisington and Miss Hartzog, accompanists, combined to create an interlude of much delight.

Two other features gave charm to the evening. One was a simple portrayal of the club's emblem arranged by Mrs. John Crawford and her committee through an electrical device, and a "charge" to new members, delivered by Miss Dorothy Donahoe, central district president.

Special Guests

The speaker was introduced by the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, who has been a friend of Canon Barnes for more than 15 years.

ST. PAUL'S WILL HAVE BUSY WEEK

Social Service Sunday Held; Convocation to Be Shared by Many in Fresno

"Many people criticize the Christian Church because the church does not advocate particular schemes for changing the social order, does not (or should not) advocate the cause of any especial economic, political or social theory and does not (or should not) espouse the cause of any one political candidate or any one party group," said the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, yesterday morning in observance of "Social Service Sunday," as suggested by the National Department of Christian Social Service. The rector quoted the following four suggestions made by the editor of the Living Church as to what the church could do as follows: "The church should impress the sense of personal responsibility alike upon employers and upon employees; the church should define the moral issues connected with industry; the church should be absolutely non-partisan as between disputants and the church should point the way toward a Christian social order."

Local church meetings this week include an all-day sewing meeting of St. Paul's Guild, Wednesday; choir rehearsal Wednesday night at 7 o'clock and St. Margaret's Guild, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Bishop Urges Joint Effort To Defeat Paganism

Sanford Is Speaker At Opening Sessions Of Episcopal Convention

The twenty eighth annual convocation of the Episcopal Diocese of San Joaquin opened today at St. James' Cathedral with a plea by Bishop Louis C. Sanford for the laity and clergy to plan their common efforts intelligently "to meet the pressure of the new paganism which is triumphantly knocking at our doors."

"We of the clergy are often unaware," said Bishop Sanford, "of the weakness of our faith or the imperfections of our technique. Sometimes we regard our job as a static one, so many services to be held, so many sermons to preach, so many calls to make. A static clergyman in a static job soon will produce a static congregation and static congregations inevitably diminish."

Mistake Congregations

"Often times we regard the congregation as a flock of sheep or an army, figures often improperly used to picture a helpless, mindless aggregation steered into whatever pastures the herder chooses, or a body of goose steppers whose only function is to obey the captain in command for the day."

"The autocratic pastor who herds his people like sheep or issues orders destroys initiative and interest. Planning together with them, we can challenge the interest of the wisest and strongest in our communities."

First reports of the committee on revision of the diocesan canon law, inaugurated in 1934, were heard during the sessions. Proposed changes include removal of distinction between parishes and missions, application of rotation in office to the diocesan executive council and decision of certain elections by plurality vote.

The bishop was celebrant at ordination ceremonies for C. Aaron King of Fresno, for some time lay reader and supply pastor in the diocese.

Bishop Shirley H. Nichols of Kyoto, Japan, was a visitor at the convocation late today and will speak tonight at the annual convocation dinner in the Hotel Fresno. Bishop Sanford will be the toastmaster.

Church Service League meetings will open tomorrow and continue through Thursday. A scheduled feature is an address, set for tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock by Miss Abbie Nicholson, assistant supervisor of migrant work, western area of the Council of Women for Home Missions.

Final report on the canon law revisions and election of officers will conclude the convocation sessions tomorrow.

Kyoto Bishop Defends Japan's Policy In China

Bishop Shirley H. Nichols, Episcopal bishop at Kyoto, Japan, said in Fresno yesterday the attitude of Americans towards China was a case of "sympathy run wild."

He said he considered himself pro Chinese until he found out "what Americans do not know, or will not know, about the Oriental situation."

"The nine power treaty guaranteeing the territorial integrity of China, which Japan has been accused of breaking," Bishop Nichols said, "has only cloaked the exploitation of China by the great powers, who speak on disinterested principle as far as it is convenient and act according to their interests."

Bishop Nichols was present at the twenty eighth annual convention of the Episcopal diocese of San Joaquin, which held closing sessions at St. James' Cathedral yesterday, and a speaker at a diocesan dinner meeting in the Hotel Fresno. Bishop Nichols has been in Japan since 1911 and is returning from the recent Episcopal general convention in Cincinnati.

Forced To Act

"Japan," Bishop Nichols said, "cut off by tariff walls from supporting its population industrially, and cut off by exclusion acts from sending their people abroad, has been forced by other powers to turn to China as the only source of raw materials and the only market for its goods."

He said Japan unquestionably aims at setting up a Chinese government in China favorable to Japan.

Porterville Man Reelected

William Payne, rector of St. John's Church at Porterville, was reelected diocesan treasurer.

Clerical members of the executive council chosen are William A. Cash of Merced, James M. Malloch of Fresno, W. E. Patrick of Porterville and A. L. Walters of Reedley.

PRELATE: I know that my Redeemer liveth.
 ANSWER: And that He shall stand at last upon the earth.
 PRELATE: And after my skin hath been destroyed.
 ANSWER: Yet without the flesh shall I see God.
 PRELATE: Christ is risen from the dead.
 ANSWER: And become the first fruits of them that slept.
 PRELATE: For since by man came death.
 ANSWER: By man came also the resurrection of the dead.
 PRELATE: For as in Adam all die.
 ANSWER: Even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
 PRELATE: Blessings and honor and glory and power be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne.
 ANSWER: And unto the Lamb forever and forever.

Then shall the minister say:

Dearly beloved Sir Knights and brethren: The Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness; and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God, our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by His infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought, at all times, humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we chiefly so to do when we assemble and meet together to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at His hands, to set forth His most worthy praise, to hear His most holy word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore, I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying—

General Confession

To be said by all present while kneeling

Almighty and most merciful Father. We have erred, and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep; we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou, those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Jesus Christ our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life. To the glory of Thy holy Name. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

PRELATE: O Lord, open Thou our lips.
 ANSWER: And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.
 PRELATE: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
 ANSWER: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
 PRELATE: Praise ye the Lord.
 ANSWER: The Lord's name be praised.

 CAPTAIN GENERAL: Sir Knights, Attention!

The Easter Psalm

All standing

PRELATE: The earth is the Lord's and all that therein is;
The compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.

ANSWER: *For He hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.*

PRELATE: Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
Or who shall rise up in His holy place?

ANSWER: Even he that hath clean hands and a pure heart; and and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbor.

PRELATE: He shall receive the blessing from the Lord,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

ANSWER: *This is the generation of them that seek Him;
Even of them that seek Thy face, O God of Jacob.*

PRELATE: Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

ANSWER: Who is this King of glory? It is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

PRELATE: Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

ANSWER: *Who is this King of glory? Even the Lord of hosts,
He is the King of glory.*

Episcopal Group to Visit Fresno

The Right Reverend Henry St. George Tucker, D. D., presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, will preach at a special service at St. James' Cathedral, Fresno, this evening at 8 o'clock. As this will be the only opportunity for clergy and members of the San Joaquin Episcopal Churches to hear the presiding bishop, a large delegation is expected from different points in the valley.

Bishop Tucker, formerly bishop of Kyoto, Japan, and more recently bishop of Virginia, was elected to the office of presiding bishop at the general convention of the church, held in Cincinnati, Ohio, last fall. While in Fresno Bishop Tucker will be the guest of the Right Reverend Louis C. Sanford, D. D., recently retired as president of the Province of the Pacific after 14 years in that office, having been succeeded by the Right Reverend Arthur W. Moulton, D. D., of Salt Lake City, Utah. Bishop Sanford will continue in his office of missionary bishop of San Joaquin.

The customary weekly choir rehearsal at St. Paul's Church will be omitted this evening as the choir has been invited to join with the cathedral choir at Fresno in the service in honor of Bishop Tucker's visit.

The Reverend William E. Patrick and Mrs. Patrick returned Monday from Las Vegas, Nevada, where they attended the Provincial Synod meeting last week. They made the return motor trip by way of Reno and Berkeley, to bring their daughter, Miss Eleanor Patrick, home from the University of California.

On Thursday, Ascension Day, the Reverend William E. Patrick will celebrate the holy communion. In accordance with the custom of recent years, the offering will be devoted to the "United Thank Offering" of the women of the parish.

The quarterly session of the southern deanery was held yesterday at St. John's Church, Tulare, the rural dean, the Reverend Duncan G. Porteous, vicar of St. Paul's, Visalia, celebrating the Holy Communion and the Reverend William E. Patrick of Bakersfield giving the address, a report on the Synod held last week at Las Vegas, Nevada. Following the communion service the delegates from Tulare and Kern county churches enjoyed a picnic lunch at Mooney's Grove where the business sessions of deanery and service league were held. Mrs. William E. Patrick, vice-president of the Diocesan Service League, presided at the women's meeting and gave a report on the provincial auxiliary meeting at Las Vegas.

Those present from Bakersfield were Mesdames W. A. Alexander, P. T. Neate, Lewis Robb, Frank Smith and the Reverend and Mrs. William E. Patrick. The fall meeting of the deanery will take place at St. Andrew's Church, Taft.

Mr. Patrick, returning home from the north, offered to transport into town a young man or so stranded when their car was broken down near Pixley. Before he set off on his journey Mr. Patrick found 10 young men in the car already occupied by himself and Mrs. Patrick. His passengers were cadets of the California Nautical School. Before he had finished delivering his last guest the clergyman found it was past 2 a. m.

Young "Sleeping Sickness" Victim Is Gaining Steadily

KERN county's only known victim of encephalitis, commonly referred to as "sleeping sickness," is declared by Dr. Joe Smith, superintendent of county hospitals, to be showing remarkable improvement. Burton F. Covell Jr., 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Covell, 432 Bell, Riverview, became infected with the mysterious disease following an attack of measles.

Young Covell is a freshman at Kern County Union High School and will, in spite of the loss of time from his present illness, progress to sophomore work because of his excellent grades during the past year, according to Superintendent H. A. Spindt.

Epidemic encephalitis is a highly communicable disease which is very rare in the United States and of which comparatively little is known. Encephalitis as a result of a lesser disease occurs in less than one-half of one per cent of such diseases, which makes its incidence quite low, according to health authorities. Young Covell acquired the disease following an attack of measles. Prompt recognition of the rare malady; early treatment, including a blood transfusion; combined with the fact that the boy has a strong heart and well-cared-for body, are responsible for his quick rally from the drowsy stupor common to the disease, according to Doctor Smith.

"All acute infectious diseases such as measles, smallpox, mumps, influenza and other very common diseases are sometimes complicated by nervous disorders which indicate an involvement of the brain, spinal cord or meninges," said Doctor Smith; "The utmost care should be taken of persons afflicted with even the most trivial illness in order that such complications may be avoided. Vaccination will prevent smallpox, typhoid, diphtheria and other communicable diseases," Doctor Smith said.

Consecration Rites Conducted in Fresno

The Right Reverend Louis C. Sanford, D. D., of Fresno, bishop of San Joaquin, read the gospel. San Joaquin clergy who marched in the procession of vested clergy were the Very Reverend James M. Malloch, Fresno; the Reverend Aubrey O. Bray, Taft; the Reverend Robert S. Snyder, Hanford, and the Reverend William E. Patrick, Bakersfield.

Glories upon glories
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love Him
 One day to be shared;
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;
 Nor of these hath uttered
 Thought or speech a word;
 Forward! marching eastward,
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight.

Far o'er yon horizon
 Rise the city towers,
 Where our God abideth;
 That fair home is ours:
 Flash the streets with jasper,
 Shine the gates with gold;
 Flows the gladdening river Shedding joys untold.
 Thither, onward thither,
 In the Spirit's might!
 Pilgrims to your country,
 Forward into light!

To the eternal Father
 Loudest anthems raise;
 To the Son and Spirit
 Echo songs of praise;
 To the Lord of glory,
 Blessèd Three in One,
 Be by men and angels Endless honour done.
 Weak are earthly praises,
 Dull the songs of night:
 Forward into triumph!
 Forward into light! Amen.

ORDER of CONSECRATION

of THE REVEREND KARL MORGAN BLOCK, D. D.

as BISHOP COADJUTOR OF CALIFORNIA ✠ ✠

GRACE CATHEDRAL ✠ SAN FRANCISCO
 THE FEAST OF ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS
 THURSDAY MORNING ✠ SEPTEMBER THE TWENTY-NINTH ✠ NINETEEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-EIGHT ✠ AT TEN-THIRTY O'CLOCK

Announcements

AS no announcements will be made during the service, members of the Congregation are asked to note the following:

Opportunity to communicate having been provided at the early celebration, it is expected that only the Bishops and other officiating Clergy, and the family of the new Bishop Coadjutor will receive the Holy Communion at the Service of Consecration.

The Offering will be given to the Bishop Coadjutor for such special purposes in his work as seem to him necessary.

Members of the Congregation are requested to remain in their places until the Choir and Clergy have withdrawn at the conclusion of the Service.

The Bishops will not be accessible at the close of the Service until they have signed and sealed the Letters of Consecration.

And then for those, our dearest and our best,
By this prevailing presence we appeal;
O fold them closer to Thy mercy's breast!
O do Thine utmost for their souls' true weal!
From tainting mischief keep them white and clear,
And crown Thy gifts with strength to persevere.

And so we come; O draw us to Thy feet,
Most patient Saviour, Who canst love us still!
And by this Food, so awful and so sweet,
Deliver us from every touch of ill:
In Thine own service make us glad and free,
And grant us nevermore to part with Thee. Amen.

And immediately before the Benediction, shall be said this Prayer.

MOST merciful Father, send down, we beseech thee, upon this thy servant thy heavenly blessing; and so endue him with thy Holy Spirit, that he, preaching thy Word, may not only be earnest to reprove, beseech, and rebuke, with all patience and doctrine; but also may be, to such as believe, a wholesome example in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that, faithfully fulfilling his course, at the latter day he may receive the crown of righteousness, laid up by the Lord Jesus, the righteous Judge, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

RECESSIONAL

HYMN 531

Forward! be our watchword, Steps and voices joined;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind;
Burns the fiery pillar
At our army's head;
Who shall dream of shrinking,
By our Captain led?
Forward through the desert,
Through the toil and fight!
Jordan flows before us;
Sion beams with light.

¶Then the Bishop Presiding and Bishops present shall lay their hands upon the head of the Elected Bishop, kneeling before them, the Bishop Presiding saying,

RECEIVE the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. And remember that thou stir up the grace of God, which is given thee by this Imposition of our hands; for God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and soberness.

¶Then the Bishop Presiding shall deliver him the Bible, saying,

GIVE heed unto reading, exhortation, and doctrine. Think upon the things contained in this Book. Be diligent in them, that the increase coming thereby may be manifest unto all men; for by so doing thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the outcasts, seek the lost. Be so merciful, that you be not too remiss; so minister discipline, that you forget not mercy; that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, you may receive the never-fading crown of glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Then the Bishop Presiding shall proceed in the Communion Service; with whom the newly consecrated Bishop, with others, shall also communicate.

THE OFFERTORY (from the Oratorio "St. Paul") . . . . Mendelssohn

Now we are ambassadors in the name of Christ, and God beseecheth you by us, in the name of Christ.

How lovely are the messengers that preach us the gospel of peace. To all the nations is gone forth the sound of their words, throughout all the lands their glad tidings.

¶The offering will be given to the Bishop Coadjutor for such special purposes in his work as seem to him necessary.

COMMUNION HYMN 333

And now, O Father, mindful of the love
That bought us, once for all, on Calvary's tree,
And having with us Him that pleads above,
We here present, we here spread forth to Thee,
That only offering perfect in Thine eyes.
The one true, pure, immortal sacrifice.

Look, Father, look on His anointed face,
And only look on us as found in Him;
Look not on our misusings of Thy grace,
Our prayer so languid, and our faith so dim;
For lo! between our sins and their reward,
We set the Passion of Thy Son our Lord.

¶ Then shall the Veni Creator Spiritus be said over him; the Bishop Presiding shall begin, and the Bishops, and the others that are present, standing, shall answer by verses, as followeth,

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above,
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Where thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee, of both, to be but One:
That, through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song:

Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

¶ That ended, the Bishop Presiding shall say,

Lord, hear our prayer.

Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY God, and most merciful Father, who, of thine infinite goodness, hast given thy only and dearly beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be our Redeemer, and the Author of everlasting life; who, after that he had made perfect our redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven, poured down his gifts abundantly upon men, making some Apostles, some Prophets, some Evangelists, some Pastors and Doctors, to the edifying and making perfect his Church; Grant, we beseech thee, to this thy servant, such grace, that he may evermore be ready to spread abroad thy Gospel, the glad tidings of reconciliation with thee; and use the authority given him, not to destruction, but to salvation; not to hurt, but to help: so that, as a wise and faithful servant, giving to thy family their portion in due season, he may at last be received into everlasting joy; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

WILL you maintain and set forward, as much as shall lie in you, quietness, love, and peace among all men; and diligently exercise such discipline as by the authority of God's Word, and by the order of this Church, is committed to you?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

WILL you be faithful in Ordaining, sending, or laying hands upon others?

Answer. I will so be, by the help of God.

WILL you show yourself gentle, and be merciful for Christ's sake to poor and needy people, and to all strangers destitute of help?

Answer. I will so show myself, by God's help.

¶ Then, all standing, the Bishop Presiding shall say,

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things; Grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that, he accomplishing in you the good work which he hath begun, you may be found perfect and irreprehensible at the latter day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN 493

O Master, let me walk with Thee
In lowly paths of service free;
Tell me Thy secret; help me bear
The strain of toil, the fret of care.

Help me the slow of heart to move
By some clear, winning word of love;
Teach me the wayward feet to stay,
And guide them in the homeward way.

Teach me Thy patience; still with Thee
In closer, dearer company,
In work that keeps faith sweet and strong,
In trust that triumphs over wrong,

In hope that sends a shining ray
Far down the future's broadening way,
In peace that only Thou canst give,
With Thee, O Master, let me live. Amen.

PROCESSIONAL

HYMN 519

Ancient of Days, Who sittest, throned in glory;
To Thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
Thy love has blest the wide world's wondrous story,
With light and life since Eden's dawning day.

O Holy Father, Who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the Fire and Cloud,
Through seas dry-shod, through weary wastes bewildering,
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour,
To Thee we owe the peace that still prevails,
Stillling the rude wills of men's wild behaviour,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-giver, Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity, and peace.

O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;
Pray we that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favour, kept to us always. Amen.

THE COMMISSION TO CONSECRATE, read by THE VENERABLE WILFRED
R. H. HODGKIN, D.D., Archdeacon of the Diocese of California.

¶The Bishop Presiding shall begin the Communion Service (Prayer Book, page 67) in which this shall be

The Collect

ALMIGHTY GOD, who by thy Son Jesus Christ didst give to thy holy Apostles many excellent gifts, and didst charge them to feed thy flock; Give grace, we beseech thee, to all Bishops, the Pastors of thy Church, that they may diligently preach thy Word, and duly administer the godly Discipline thereof; and grant to the people, that they may obediently follow the same; that all may receive the crown of everlasting glory; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Then, the People being seated, the Bishop Presiding, sitting in his chair, shall say to him that is to be Consecrated,

BROTHER, forasmuch as the Holy Scripture and the ancient Canons command, that we should not be hasty in laying on hands, and admitting any person to Government in the Church of Christ, which he hath purchased with no less price than the effusion of his own blood; before we admit you to this Administration, we will examine you in certain Articles, to the end that the Congregation present may have a trial, and bear witness, how you are minded to behave yourself in the Church of God.

ARE you persuaded that you are truly called to this Ministration, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the order of this Church?

Answer. I am so persuaded.

ARE you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same Holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach or maintain nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the same?

Answer. I am so persuaded, and determined, by God's Grace.

WILL you then faithfully exercise yourself in the Holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer for the true understanding of the same; so that you may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome Doctrine, and to withstand and convince the gainsayers?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

ARE you ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Church all erroneous and strange doctrine contrary to God's Word; and both privately and openly to call upon and encourage others to the same?

Answer. I am ready, the Lord being my helper.

WILL you deny all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world; that you may show yourself in all things an example of good works unto others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

That it may please thee to increase the number of the Ministers of thy Church, that the Gospel may be preached to all people;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to hasten the fulfillment of thy purpose, that thy Church may be one;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to grant that we, with all thy saints, may be partakers of thy everlasting kingdom;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. Hearken unto our voice, O Lord, when we cry unto thee;

Answer. Have mercy upon us and hear us.

Minister. O Lord, arise, help us;

Answer. And deliver us for thy Name's sake.

Minister. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness;

Answer. And let thy saints sing with joyfulness.

Minister. Lord, hear our prayer;

Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

O God, who dost ever hallow and protect thy Church; Raise up therein, through thy Spirit, good and faithful stewards of the mysteries of Christ, that by their ministry and example thy people may abide in thy favour and be guided in the way of truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the same Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall be said this Prayer following.

ALmighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in thy Church; Mercifully behold this thy servant, now called to the Work and Ministry of a Bishop; and so replenish him with the truth of thy Doctrine, and adorn him with innocency of life, that, both by word and deed, he may faithfully serve thee in this Office, to the glory of thy Name, and the edifying and well-governing of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

¶ And another Bishop shall read the Epistle,

I Timothy iii. 1.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (for if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

¶ Then another Bishop shall read the Gospel.

St. John xxi. 15.

JESUS saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

¶ Then shall follow the Nicene Creed.

DEDICATION OF THE BISHOP'S CATHEDRA

Given in memory of The Right Reverend and Mrs. William Ford Nichols by their family.

HYMN 451

God of the prophets! Bless the prophets' sons Elijah's mantle o'er Elisha cast;
Each age its solemn task may claim but once:
Make each one nobler, stronger than the last!

Anoint them prophets! Make their ears attent
To Thy divinest speech; their hearts awake
To human need; their lips make eloquent
To assure the right, and every evil break.

Anoint them priests! Strong intercessors they
For pardon, and for charity and peace!
Ah, if with them the world might pass, astray,
Into the dear Christ's life of sacrifice!

Anoint them kings! Aye, kingly kings, O Lord!
Anoint them with the Spirit of Thy Son:
Theirs not a jeweled crown, a bloodstained sword;
Theirs, by sweet love, for Christ a kingdom won.

Make them apostles! Heralds of Thy cross, Forth may they go to tell all realms Thy grace:
Inspired of Thee, may they count all but loss,
And stand at last with joy before Thy face.

O mighty age of prophet-kings, return!
O truth, O faith, enrich our urgent time!
Lord Jesus Christ, again with us sojourn:
A weary world awaits Thy reign sublime! Amen.

¶Then shall follow the sermon; which being ended, the Elected Bishop, vested with his Rochet, shall be presented by two Bishops of this Church unto the Bishop Presiding, sitting in his chair, near the Holy Table; the Bishops who present him saying:

REVEREND Father in God, we present unto you this godly and well-learned man, to be Ordained and Consecrated Bishop.

¶Then shall the Bishop Presiding demand Testimonials of the person presented for Consecration, and shall cause them to be read.

THE CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION, read by THE REVEREND BRITTON D. WEIGLE, Secretary of the Diocese of California.

THE CERTIFICATES OF BAPTISM AND CONFIRMATION, read by THE REVEREND DAVID R. WALLACE, Vicar of St. Augustine's Mission, Oakland.

THE CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION TO THE DIACONATE, read by THE REVEREND JOSEPH K. TSUKAMOTO, Vicar of Christ Church Mission, San Francisco.

THE CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD, read by THE REVEREND DANIEL G. C. WU, Vicar of True Sunshine Mission, San Francisco.

THE CERTIFICATE OF CONSENTS OF THE STANDING COMMITTEES, read by THE REVEREND MARK RIFENBARK, D.D., President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of California.

THE CERTIFICATE OF CONSENTS OF THE BISHOPS, read by THE RIGHT REVEREND WALTER MITCHELL, D.D., Bishop of Arizona.

¶The Bishop Presiding shall then require of him the following Promise of Conformity to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IN the Name of God, Amen. I, KARL MORGAN BLOCK, chosen bishop Coadjutor of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of California, do promise conformity and obedience to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. So help me God, through Jesus Christ.

¶Then the Bishop Presiding shall move the Congregation present to pray, saying thus to them:

BRETHREN, it is written in the Gospel of Saint Luke, that our Saviour Christ continued the whole night in prayer, before he chose and sent forth his twelve Apostles. It is written also, that the holy Apostles prayed before they ordained Matthias to be of the number of the Twelve. Let us, therefore, following the example of our Saviour Christ, and his Apostles, offer up our prayers to Almighty God, before we admit and send forth this person presented unto us, to the work whereunto we trust the Holy Ghost hath called him.

¶And then shall be said the Litany for Ordinations.

O God the Father,
Have mercy upon us.

O God the Son,
Have mercy upon us.

O God the Holy Ghost,
Have mercy upon us.

O holy Trinity, one God,
Have mercy upon us.

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord; and that it may please thee to grant peace to the whole world, and to thy Church;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to sanctify and bless thy holy Church throughout the world;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to inspire all Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, with love of thee and of thy truth;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to endue all Ministers of thy Church with devotion to thy glory and to the salvation of souls;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless this our Brother elected, and to send thy grace upon him, that he may duly execute the Office whereunto he is called, to the edifying of thy Church, and to the honour, praise, and glory of thy Name;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to guide by thy indwelling Spirit those whom thou dost call to the Ministry of thy Church; that they may go forward with courage and persevere unto the end;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

AT THE recent breakfast of the executive board of the Church Federation, an inter-denominational organization of the church women of Bakersfield, Mrs. William E. Patrick, vice-president of the diocesan service league of San Joaquin, spoke of the adoption of a resolution by the National Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Protestant Episcopal Church expressing sympathy with the Jewish people of central Europe. Whereupon the Bakersfield church federation board adopted the following resolution:

"We, the executive board of the church federation, representing the women of the various churches of Bakersfield, desire to express our grief and dismay at the persecution of the Jewish people in central Europe.

"At this Christmas season when we remember a Jewish family for whom there was no room in the inn at Bethlehem, we are sorrowfully aware of the countless numbers of their race who are today seeking shelter for themselves and their children.

"We call upon the women throughout the church to celebrate the birth of Our Lord Jesus Christ by showing in simple, friendly ways their sympathy with their Jewish neighbors and by making welcome refugees who have come to this country. We also urge them to promote international government action for the relief of refugees and to work for a larger measure of justice and consideration for all Jews and other minority groups in our national life."

He is survived by a son, a lawyer in Chicago, and a daughter, also in Chicago where she is a graduate student at the University of Chicago.

To members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the San Joaquin valley, Doctor Langdon is well known, having served for many years on the diocesan executive council and the council of advice and has been a deputy both to the Provincial Synod and the general convention of the church. The Reverend William E. Patrick, long associated with Doctor Langdon in the councils of the San Joaquin district, was notified this morning by the bishop's office in Fresno that the executive council meeting planned for next Tuesday had been postponed until January 9 because of the passing of Doctor Langdon. It was only recently that the local pastor was the guest of Doctor and Mrs. Langdon at luncheon at their home in Stockton, so that news of his old friend's death came as a great surprise and shock. Doctor Langdon visited St. Paul's Church, Bakersfield, at the time the diocesan convention was held in this parish 11 years ago. At that time Doctor Langdon was senior warden of St. Luke's Church, Merced, the Reverend William A. Cash, vicar.

Doctor Langdon was a member of the American Medical Association and the California Medical Society and was well known here among physicians as well as church workers.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church

Bakersfield, California

February 22, 1939

Dear Friends:

During Lent we shall have a week day celebration of the Holy Communion Wednesdays at 10:00 a. m. and on Fridays the Children's Service at 4:00 p. m. The Sunday Services will be at the usual hours.

On Sunday morning, February 26th, at 11:00 a. m., the Right Reverend Louis Childs Sanford, D. D., Bishop of San Joaquin, will administer the Rite of Confirmation. Since his consecration in 1911 the Bishop has missed only one year of visitations when he was ill two years ago. We rejoice in his restored health. Because of his long service on the National Council and as President of the Province of the Pacific, Bishop Sanford is now one of the "Elder Statesmen" of the House of Bishops. As an evidence of our esteem and affection let us welcome him with a crowded church Sunday morning.

In accordance with custom the offering Sunday will go to the Bishop's Visitation Fund, which the Bishop generally uses towards the missionary work in our own District. As a further testimony of our appreciation let us present a generous offering for this purpose. Enclosed you will find a special envelope.

Faithfully yours,

WILLIAM E. PATRICK, Rector.

Preston; the Misses Barbara Ann Conley, Audrey Forrest, Constance L. Macdonald, Elizabeth J. Moore, Sidney C. Moore, Marguerite E. Siddall and Burnice A. Steward; Messrs. Clarence D.

Propaganda Danger Described by Judge as Paramount Peril

DEVELOPMENT and maintenance of a "stern conviction of permanent peace for America and a steadfast will to keep out of war regardless of what future contingencies may arise," was the theme of guest speaker, Judge Leonard Wilson's speech at today's Armistice Day program in the Fox theater. The judge asked his comrades of 21 years ago and all Americans to do all in their power to prevent this country from entering into another World War.

The program began at 11 a. m. as the last bugle call floated into the morning sunshine and Armistice Day parade contingents disbanded and streamed into the Fox with hundreds of parade followers and participants in time for the singing of "America," and the invocation by the Reverend A. S. Donat. With the Reverend William E. Patrick, past national chaplain of the American Legion, presiding, many patriotic events filled the program.

Delusion

In his speech, Judge Wilson declared that for many years Americans have been deluding themselves that World War No. 1 was to end all wars and to make the world safe for democracy. "As a matter of fact," he said, "17 major wars have taken place since the first Armistice."

The speaker remarked that this Armistice Day "finds us approaching the celebration in an entirely different attitude and with an entirely different problem confronting us." He pointed out that the principal problem today for Americans is that of building up a strong shield against the growing force of propaganda, which was used so effectively to drag us into the last war and "which is rolling up its big guns again today."

Judge Wilson stated that the majority of United States citizens say, "I do not see how we can keep out of this war," and when asked why we cannot, they have no convincing answer. He asked his audience to work actively for the retention of America's peaceful relations with other countries of the world.

Chorus Sings

Following the invocation by the Reverend Mr. Donat, "Prayer of Thanksgiving" was sung by the combined chorus of the American Legion Auxiliary glee club and the mother's chorus of the P-T-A, led by Charles E. Wakefield, Jr., with Miss Florence Bayless at the organ.

Presiding Officer Reverend Mr. Patrick presented Commander Z. V. Hoskins, who gave a brief talk on Armistice Day and Americanism. Commander Hoskins was followed by the introduction of commanders and presidents of service organizations. The combined chorus then rendered "God Bless America," after which Judge Wilson was presented to make the principal speech.

After the judge's speech, on "Permanent Peace for America," "Taps" was sounded by George Naser, American Legion bugler, and the audience remained until Bakersfield's Gold Star Mothers withdrew.

Local Church Unit May Affiliate South

Providing the next step in what may be affiliation of Bakersfield Federation of Church Women with the Southern California Church Federation, Mrs. H. M. Horn of South Pasadena, extension chairman, will speak here in January. The invitation was extended when Mrs. O. M. Armstrong, president of Bakersfield federation, accompanied by Mesdames F. L. Hayes, William E. Patrick and Ray Walt attended a session of the southern women's organization at First Methodist Church, Los Angeles, yesterday. The gathering was shared by interdenominational church women from San Diego to Santa Barbara. The local group was accompanied south by the Reverend William E. Patrick, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The Reverend William E. Patrick spent yesterday visiting his brother, Ralph L. Patrick, former adjutant of Frank S. Reynolds Post, American Legion, who is visiting in Los Angeles, following his discharge early this week from the Veterans Hospital after a four months' convalescence. The Reverend Mr. Patrick said that his brother is still weak, practically learning to walk again after his long illness.

FULL program for Armistice Peace Day services of Kern County Ministerial Union Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock were announced today. The setting will be Trinity Methodist Church, corner of Niles and 1st street, and the rites will be preceded by a half-hour organ meditation by Mrs. Gladys Freelan.

MOTIVEL

By BETH DYE

"THERE are many things in our world and in our country for which we cannot be grateful," said the Reverend Benjamin B. Baird, pastor of First Christian Church, in delivering a sermon glistening with common sense, this morning. The occasion was the annual Thanksgiving gathering of hundreds of Bakersfield's faithful at First Baptist Church. He continued, "Our annual crime bill is $5,000,000 more than the cost of all our educational institutions, all our churches and all our charities put together. Who can be grateful for that? Our American poverty, who can be thankful for that?"

"We have 34,000,000 young people between the ages of 5 and 18 years in this country and barely half of them are receiving any formal religious instruction, Catholic, Protestant or Jewish. Unemployment, war, legalized gambling, selfish makers of armaments, purveyors of liquor, promoters of selfish business and contemptible policies—all these and more stir within us something altogether other than gratitude!"

Some Grateful Reasons

After this challenging introduction, which followed a text from Ezekiel, "The foundations thereof shall be uncovered," the pastor summarized substantial reasons Americans have for being grateful.

He contended that they have grown impatient with the spirit of gratitude that is little more than refined selfishness—gratitude for abundant crops, good business, health and other things on a material plane and that there is a growing gratitude for the spirit that makes for righteousness. He illustrated his point with quotations from thousands of young folk in conference and from Albert Einstein, who paid high tribute to the church as a force against Hitler's campaign for suppression of truth. The speaker concluded: "There is a spirit abroad that is breaking down men's faith in physical force. Let us be grateful that trust in hate and brute force is losing its power and better foundations for life are being uncovered."

Choir Sings

The choir of First Baptist Church, directed by LeRoy Gates and accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Ronald Clark, presented a program of Thanksgiving music, including the anthem, "Praise the Lord" (Mauder), with Mrs. Carlton Minner as the soloist.

Patrick, responsive reading; the Reverend Floyd Hawkins, scriptural reading; the Reverend Anthony S. Donat, President Franklin D. Roosevelt's proclamation.

AID SALVATION ARMY WORK

This will be my fifteenth year in Bakersfield. During all these years I have been struck with the kindness and generosity of the people of Kern county towards those in our midst who are in need.

This Christmas season is no exception. In the true spirit of Christmas people are opening their hearts and their purses to assist others, not so fortunate. Churches, civic and fraternal organizations and service clubs as well as many individuals are taking part in this good work.

Thursday afternoon I visited the Salvation Army. Adjutant Strathdee informed me that the Kiwanis Club had given $100 toward the Salvation Army Christmas baskets. The Lions Club is arranging a toy matinee for next Wednesday through the courtesy of the Fox theater, the toys to be divided between the Salvation Army and the P. T. A., for the Christmas baskets include both food and toys. On Friday, Manager Homer Gill is arranging a food matinee, the food given for admission to be turned over to the Salvation Army. Shoppers are generous in dropping money into the kettles.

With Christmas only nine days off, however, the Salvation Army authorities are greatly concerned about their ability to meet the demand. Counting those promised and those already registered over 300 families to date will receive baskets. Yesterday afternoon 40 representatives of families were seeking to register their names for assistance. The registration is insisted upon in order to avoid duplication with other agencies and the lists are carefully checked. If this rate of registration continues, the Salvation Army will be unable to fill all the baskets asked of them unless there is an increase of donations beyond the estimated receipts from kettle collections and gifts from sources above indicated.

As the senior clergyman in point of active service in the city of Bakersfield, I am glad to endorse the Christmas work of the Salvation Army and in view of the great need I hope that further aid will be forthcoming the next few days, on the part of the various service clubs and civic organizations as well as individual citizens of the community who may not be aware of the extent of the responsibility placed upon the Salvation Army. I feel sure that the community will respond in the generous way for which Bakersfield has always been famous.

WILLIAM E. PATRICK,
Rector, St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

REV. PATRICK TRACES ST. PAUL'S GROWTH

"The first services according to the Prayer Book of the Protestant Episcopal Church to be held in Kern county were conducted by the Right Reverend William Ingraham Kip, D. D., first bishop of California, in October, 1855," the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Church, told his congregation at the morning service yesterday. Bishop Kip held services and baptized several children at the Fort Tejon army post before moving along by slow wagon train up the valley to Fort Miller and Stockton, a weeks-long journey from San Pedro. The address, in part, was as follows:

"In addition to Roman Catholic services, itinerant Episcopal clergymen held services at the old county seat of Havilah. Their names have long been forgotten. After the removal of the county seat to the new town of Bakersfield occasional services of the Book of Common Prayer were conducted by the Reverend Messrs. W. H. Hill, A. Todhunter and D. O. Kelley.

Organized in 1879

"To Archdeacon Kelley, indefatigable founder of missions throughout the San Joaquin valley, goes the credit of definite organization of St. Paul's mission in November, 1879. The Reverend Thomas A. Griffiths was the first resident clergyman, resigning on account of ill health in 1883.

"When the third pastor, the Reverend H. Horace Clapham (1884-1892), was conducting services in what is now the Emerson School, Alfred Harrell, publisher of The Bakersfield Californian and former vestryman of St. Paul's Church, was city superintendent of schools. One of his teachers, Mrs. H. P. Bender, still an active communicant, used to drive into Bakersfield from Greenfield as a young girl to sing in the choir with the late Mrs. W. A. Chittenden as organist.

Open First Church

"On the third visit of Bishop Kip to Bakersfield in 1886, the first St. Paul's Church was opened on the Seventeenth street site. In 1891 when Bishop William Ford Nichols consecrated the church, the mission assumed independent parochial status.

"The Reverend Messrs. L. Y. Jessup, F. D. Miller, David Holmes, Hobart Chetwood ministered in the old church. In 1898 the Guild hall still in serviceable use was built. Active in the guild, which was instrumental in sponsoring the erection of a Guild hall, were Mrs. Alfred Harrell and Mrs. A. C. Maude, regular communicants today.

"In 1901 under the leadership of the Reverend Edward Morgan the new church was constructed.

"The old church was moved to East Bakersfield where for many years it was known as St. Barnabas' Chapel.

New Church Built

"On January 1, 1902, Bishop Nichols of California opened the new church, at the same time blessing the beautiful marble altar, the gift of the late Mrs. William S. Tevis, known as the Romualdo Pacheco Memorial, in memory of her father, former governor of California. Under the Reverend Charles Hitchcock nearly all the indebtedness on the church was erased making it possible for the Right Reverend Louis C. Sanford, D. D., who had been elected first missionary bishop of San Joaquin, when the great valley and mountain counties adjoining were set off as a separate jurisdiction, to consecrate the church May 18, 1915, the Reverend Benjamin Diggs being rector.

The instrument of donation was read by Thomas A. Metcalf, senior warden.

Convocation in Kern

"Consecration of the church was held at the same time the first convocation of San Joaquin visited Bakersfield. Alfred Harrell was toastmaster of the convocation dinner held at the Southern hotel. In addition to Bishop Sanford, the speakers included Colonel A. S. Crites, Colonel Ira Hochheimer and Judge T. N. Harvey.

"Under the Reverend David M. Crabtree, rector from 1907 to 1912, the pipe organ now in use in St. Paul's Church was installed. Preceding Mr. Crabtree for two years was the Reverend Walter B. Clark and following him were the Reverend Messrs. Charles Hitchcock, Benjamin E. Diggs, George E. Renison and the Reverend William A. Cash, who moved to Merced in 1924.

"Convocation met in St. Paul's Church for the second time after 13 years in January, 1928. Bishop Sanford was then on a tour of the missionary work in the orient, at the request of the National Council. The Reverend William E. Patrick presided at the convocation dinner.

Baptize 288 Persons

"The rector in the last quarter of the 60 years' history of the parish has baptized 288 children and adults, presented 213 persons for confirmation and officiated at 311 burial services, in addition to carrying on the regular Sunday and week-day services of the church.

"In the church school we should give a certificate of merit to Miss Margaret D. Gardett, superintendent, who has given 28 years to Sunday School work and to Mrs. W. B. Lyons, who is finishing her twentieth consecutive year as superintendent of the primary department."

January 1940

At the present time the Reverend Mr. Patrick is president of the Council of Advice, vice-president of the Executive Council, dean of the Camp Sierra Summer School, chairman of the Diocesan Promotional Department and a member of the Council of the Province of the Pacific. Other church offices held include those of rural dean of the Southern Deanery, chairman of departments of finance, field, religious education and social service at different times, chairman of the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the San Joaquin District and of Bishop Sanford's consecration held in Fresno in 1935; deputy to the Denver General Convention in 1931 and delegate to the Provincial Synod.

A director of the original Community Welfare Fund, past president of the Ministerial Association, the Bakersfield Lions Club, the local pastor is a director of the Red Cross Chapter, the Camp Fire Council and the Anti-Tuberculosis League, and a member of the California Advisory Committee of the National Youth Administration. He is a past national chaplain of the American Legion, of the Second Division Association, and of the Army and Navy Legion of Valor as holder of the Distinguished Service Cross.

Mrs. Patrick is educational chairman of the Diocesan Service League and has been several times a delegate to the National and Provincial Auxiliary. In the community she has been president of the Emerson P. T. A. and of the Legion Auxiliary.

SIXTY YEARS OF ST. PAUL'S PARISH

Services of the Protestant Episcopal Church were first held in Kern County by the Right Reverend William I. Kip, D. D., first Bishop of California, who visited Fort Tejon in October, 1855, and then passed the site of Bakersfield on his famous wagon pilgrimage from San Pedro to Stockton.

Occasional services had been held in Havilah by itinerant clergymen and in Bakersfield by the Reverend Messrs. W. H. Hill, A. Todhunter and D. O. Kelley. To D. O. Kelley, indefatigable founder of missions in San Joaquin, goes the honor of organizing St. Paul's Mission in November, 1879, with D. G. McLean as warden. The Reverend T. A. Griffiths was the first resident clergyman.

When the third pastor, the Reverend H. Horace Clapham (1884-1892), was using what is now the Emerson School for services, Mr. Alfred Harrell, now the publisher of The Bakersfield Californian these forty years past and sometime vestryman of St. Paul's Church, was city school superintendent. Mrs. H. P. Bender, one of the school teachers, as a young girl, drove into Bakersfield from Greenfield to sing in the choir under the late Mrs. W. A. Chittenden, organist.

On the third visit of Bishop Kip to Kern County in 1886 the first St. Paul's Church was opened on the Seventeenth Street site. In 1891 when Bishop Nichols consecrated the Church, parish status was assumed with Captain Charles E. Jewett and Dr. John Snook as wardens; C. Bickerdike, treasurer and Joseph V. Morley as clerk.

The Reverend Messrs. F. D. Miller, David Holmes, Hobart Chetwood and Edward Morgan "ministered" in the old Church. Active in the Guild, which was largely responsible for the erection of the Guild Hall in 1898, were Mrs. Alfred Harrell and Mrs. A. C. Maude, regular communicants today.

Successors to Father Morgan were the Reverend Messrs. Walter B. Clark, David M. Crabtree, Charles Hitchcock, Benjamin A. Diggs, George E. Renison and William A. Cash. Changed conditions with quicker methods of transportation caused the giving up of the missions in Rosedale, Greenfield and East Bakersfield. Bishop A. R. Graves, retired bishop of the Platte, had charge for the summer of 1912. The present rector, the Reverend William E. Patrick, will complete his fifteenth year as rector in March, 1940.

The present Church was opened by Bishop W. F. Nichols of California on January 1, 1902, when he blessed the beautiful marble altar, the gift of the late Mrs. William S. Tevis, in memory of her father, Romualdo Pacheco, Governor of California. In 1915, the first time San Joaquin District held Convocation in Bakersfield, the Right Reverend L. C. Sanford, D. D., who had been elected first Bishop of San Joaquin when the district was set off from the parent diocese, consecrated the Church.

Bishop Sanford was absent on the second occasion in 1928 when Convocation assembled in this parish, having been sent on a missionary tour around the world by the National Council. Now 12 years later St. Paul's Parish welcomes Convocation a third time and is especially pleased to congratulate the head of the episcopal jurisdiction, who for half the organized history of the parish has been our bishop. We extend our sincerest greetings to him and Mrs. Sanford and to the visitors from the other parishes of San Joaquin.

The 1940 vestry consists of Dr. Fred J. Crease, senior warden (senior member of the vestry and forty years a member of the parish); G. E. Stanfield, junior warden; W. A. Alexander, clerk; C. E. Wakefield, Jr., treasurer; Handel W. Kelly, J. S. Kirkendall, W. E. Peterson and F. S. Wheeler.

Presidents, vice-presidents, secretaries and treasurers of the parochial societies as named are as follows: Altar Guild, Mrs. C. E. Wakefield, Jr., Miss Laura Covell; St. Paul's Guild, Mesdames B. F. Covell, Sr., Ed Rose, Fred W. Keller, Percy T. Neate (U. T. O. custodian); St. Margaret's Guild, Mesdames Heber B. Kelly, Ed Miller, Miss Nora Trafton and Miss Elizabeth Hammond. Young People's Fellowship, B. F. Covell, Jr., Ruth Patrick, Audrey Forest and Constance Macdonald.

Superintendent of the Church School is Miss Margaret D. Gardett, who has been active in the work for 28 years. Head of the Primary Department for 20 continuous years is Mrs. W. B. Lyons. Miss Helen Moore, secretary; Miss Mary Lynn Tuttle, organist and Miss Katharine Wakefield, pianist for the Primary, complete the list of officers with 16 teachers.

C. E. Wakefield, Jr., is choir director and Mrs. Laura E. Nichols, organist.

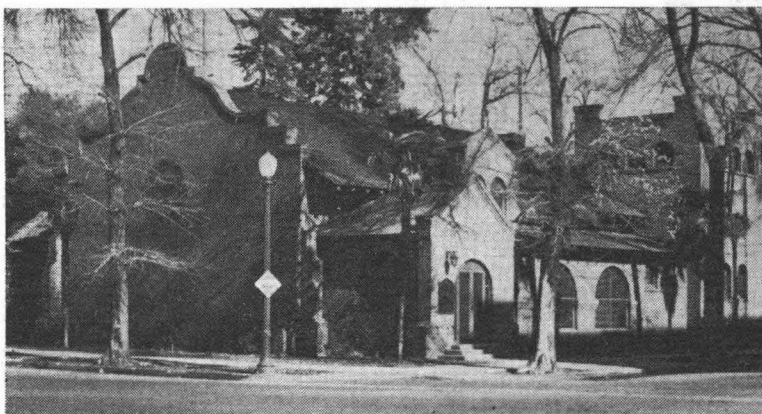

In addition to those above named, the family names taken from three parish registers of Coons, Taylor, Brundage, Mills, Packard, McGrann, Lechner, Drury, Scott, Williams, Miller, Baker, Barker, Planz, Jameson, Thomas, Wright, Hughes, McMurdo, Conley, Webster, McCray, Ikin, Seabrook, Deabill, Campbell, Cooper, Elbert, Potts, App, Wrenn, Cooke, Sweitzer, Smith, Schuler, Oldershaw, Wilson, Gault, Johnson, Wykes and hosts of others, represent active workers in present and past history of choir, Altar Guild, St. Paul's Guild, St. Margaret's Guild, Sunday School, Service League, as well as on parochial and diocesan committees.

The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of the parish for the last quarter of its 60 years of history, is a native of Cambridge, Massachusetts, a graduate of Harvard University and the Episcopal Theological School. Ordained by Bishop William Lawrence he served first as curate of Grace Church, New Bedford, and then, after two years service overseas with the A. E. F., he was rector of St. Paul's Church, North Andover, moving from Massachusetts to California in 1922 to take charge of St. Paul's Church, Santa Paula, in the diocese of Los Angeles.

A BISHOP SPEAKS

Church Stresses Family Sanctity as Divorce Foe

BISHOP LOUIS C. SANFORD, bishop of the San Joaquin Episcopal diocese, in a dynamic message to the thirtieth annual convocation of the church at St. Paul's Church today on "The Letter and Spirit of the Marriage Canon" said emphasis of the church has been shifted from the individuals in the marriage relationship to the sanctity of the family. Speaking of the revision of the marriage canon in 1931 and the change in the church's attitude, the bishop said that before the change the only exception to church discipline on the breaking of union by divorce was permission for the innocent party in a divorce for adultery to remarry. The bishop said in part:

Mutual Responsibility

"The emphasis has shifted from the relationship of the individual man and woman to each other to the preservation of the integrity of the family and guarantee of the spiritual nurture of children. It is recognized that marriage is a relationship in which the private concern of the individuals immediately involved must be subordinated to the welfare of society. Making adultery the sole justification of divorce singled out a physical act as the only violation of a spiritual union which, common sense testified, may be destroyed by any one of a number of factors.

"The church is more emphatic now than ever in its insistence upon the permanence of the marriage relation as in accord with the mind of Christ, but it has become more realistic in the administration of discipline. It has substituted the positive effort to train people for Christian marriage for the negative attempt to discourage divorce by condemnation; it has centered attention on sanctity of the family."

Visiting Clergymen

Clergy assisting Bishop Sanford in the convocation service this morning were the Reverend William E. Patrick, gospeller; the Reverend A. L. Walters, epistoler; the Reverend William A. Cash, Merced, server; the Reverend William Payne, Porterville, bishop's chaplain; the Very Reverend James M. Malloch, dean of St. James' Cathedral, Fresno, and the Reverend Thomas C. Maxwell, Modesto, administering the holy communion.

The Reverend Mr. Walters acted as master of ceremonies and Lloyd A. Patrick as crucifer. Other clergy assisting in the choir were the Reverend Messrs. Loral W. Pancake, Lone Pine; C. A. King, Fresno; R. H. Cox, Madera; A. O. Bray, Taft; E. A. Shapland, Lodi; L. A. Wood, Fresno; F. B. Becker, R. S. Snyder, Hanford; Paul Shimmom, Keyes; D. G. Porteous, Visalia; G. F. Pratt, Stockton; Chester Hill, Sonora, and C. H. Powell, Independence.

Pastor and Wife Entertained Here

The Reverend and Mrs. Raymond H. Kendrick of Springfield, Mass., left this morning for Yosemite en route east after a Fourth of July visit with the Reverend and Mrs. William E. Patrick, 725 Holtby Road. On Wednesday evening Mrs. Patrick, assisted by her daughters, the Misses Eleanor and Ruth, entertained the following guests in honor of her visitors: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dmon, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wakefield, Jr., Mesdames Percy Cooke, Percy T. Neate, Curtis Wardhaugh, Messrs. James S. Kirkendall and F. S. Wheeler.

Yesterday the visitors were taken by their hosts for an auto ride to Santa Barbara and Carpinteria by way of Santa Maria. Last evening the Reverend Aubrey O. Bray, vicar of St. Andrew's Church, Taft, was a visitor. The eastern clergyman was quite impressed with the distance traveled by Californians, when he realized that the Reverend Mr. Bray and his host were the only Episcopal clergymen in a county as large as the whole state of Massachusetts.

Old friends from the early ministry of both of the clergymen in New Bedford, Mass., the two families have had close ties for many years. The Reverend Mr. Kendrick was an usher at the Patrick wedding, later succeeding the local pastor as rector of St. Paul's Church, North Andover, which parish he left three years ago for his present position as canon of Christ Church Cathedral, Springfield.

The Reverend Mr. Patrick is godfather of Edmund H. Kendrick, the only son, a student at Yale and now on a naval reserve cruise. While all the family were pleased to see the Kendricks on their first visit to California, Raymond Holmes Patrick was particularly pleased to meet the man for whom he had been named.

The monthly meeting of the rector, wardens and vestrymen of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will be held in the church study tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The Reverend William E. Patrick, rector, will preside.

A CALL to Christians to unite in a national day of prayer for peace to the world will be answered by Bakersfield and Kern church folk on Sunday when they will join with millions of other devout American citizens in the National Day of Prayer proclaimed by President F. D. Roosevelt.

In a proclamation the President set aside Sunday, September 8, as America's Day of Prayer when members of all denominations were asked to pray "for this land and for the troubled world, a righteous, enduring peace."

Bakersfield and Kern pastors, co-operating fully with the President, have arranged services in practically all churches to the end of praying for "peace." They have selected sermon topics that will emphasize the duties of Christians as patriotic citizens during times of national stress.

"Every loyal and patriotic churchman should be in his pew to engage in public prayer next Sunday," the Reverend W. E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, said today. The Reverend Mr. Patrick served chaplain during the World War and held this office nationally for the American Legion.

Patriotic groups are invited to attend services in groups at the various churches.

In England a few months ago, every church was crowded to capacity on a similar occasion.

The spiritual basis of democracy will be the theme of the American National Day of Prayer for local pastors and their congregations.

National Prayer Day Is Observed

"The shattering of idealism and principles of justice, freedom, racial equality is the tragedy of the present world situation," said the Reverend William E. Patrick, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, at his opening service of the fall yesterday at St. Paul's Church.

Special prayers for our country and the peace of the world were read by the rector at the close of the service in accordance with the President's proclamation.

St. Paul's Sunday school opened its regular sessions yesterday with H. W. Kelly as superintendent; Miss Helen Moore, secretary; Mrs. Eleanor Kelly, treasurer; Miss Charlene McFadden, organist; Miss Merle F. Scates, acting head of the primary department; Miss Katharine Wakefield, pianist.

Meetings of St. Paul's organizations this week include the stated meeting of the rector, wardens and vestrymen at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening, the first all-day session of St. Paul's Guild on Wednesday, with the business meeting at 2:30 choir rehearsal Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock and St. Margaret's Guild Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.
