give him the honorary rank of Commodore of the Maritime Academy.

Elden, in his first official act as a new member of the board, proposed that the new engineering building be named in honor of the late Dr. R. C. Dwyer, former dean of instruction. His motion passed unanimously. The building will be called Dwyer Hall.

Attending yesterday's board meeting at the academy were Riley, Kettenhofen, Commander Cook, Hogan and Elden, members; Captain Richter, Cmdr. Ed. Keeley, business manager; Capt. Al Gallant, USN, president of the Northern California Chapter of the Academy Alumni Association; Kenneth Moore, an officer of the same group, and Bob Otto, business manager of the CMA Alumni Association. Kettenhofen and Elden are both graduates of the academy.

Riley has been with Gibson Publications since 1941 when he was city editor of the Times-Herald. He has been managing editor since 1946. He was a Navy lieutenant during World War II. The new chairman was appointed to the board of governors by Governor Brown in 1960. He is serving his fourth term as a member of the Solano County Democratic Central Committee. Riley is a graduate of St. Mary's College.

He and his wife, Marjorie, reside at 720 Georgia St. They are parents of seven children.

Riley Will Head CMA Governors

Wyman Riley, managing editor of the Vallejo Times-Herald and News-Chronicle, Gibson Publications, was elected chairman of the board of governors of the California Maritime Academy yesterday. He succeeds Ralph D. Sweeney, prominent Los Angeles attorney, whose term on the board has expired. Riley was nominated by Ernest Kettenhofen, San Rafael, with a second from George Hogan, Sacramento. His election was unanimous. Cmdr. John Cook, USN (ret.), vice-chairman, continues in that capacity.

Riley also was named president of the California Maritime Academy Foundation, again succeeding Sweeney. Capt. H. E. Richter, USN (ret.), superintendent of the sea school, was named secretary.

Present at the meeting for the first time was a new member of the board of governors, Rodney M. Elden, Los Angeles, operating manager of Joshua Hendy Corporation who was appointed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to succeed Sweeney as a member of the board. Sweeney had been a member for 20 years and chairman for three different terms.

The board voted to send the former chairman a letter of commendation for his services and to
