Absent: Jennifer Mahdavi, Rick Robison

Minutes of 3/19/08: Approved with this change in ACE Report: There will be changes in the process of hiring faculty who will teach University 102 courses; these changes are being discussed under the bargaining agreement.

Agenda for 4/2/08: Approved.

Reports:

Chair's Report: Karen Thompson

- Provost's update on the WASC review: Overall, SSU is in "good shape," but there is still more work to be done.
- Resolution on the FYE program's limited status was approved.
- RTP: Review is ongoing and is now available online. Input is encouraged.
- Diversity statistics were provided comparing SSU with the CSU trends: Should SAC provide input on this document, specifically on matters related to student affairs? Should we invite Gustavo to visit SAC and talk to us about admission and retention issues?

SAEM: Mack Olson

- "Seawolf Day" will be held on April 5. About 2000 are expected to attend.
- There is discussion on the need for an "International House" on or off campus.
- The new University Center plans will be finalized by the end of the semester. This new center will connect Salazar, Recreation Center, CCGS, the Bookstore, and the Food Court as the hub of student life.
- Enrollment targets this year: 12,269 applications; 7527 offers; 801 have made deposits to date. Target FTF: 1600; Transfers: 600; PostBac: 500.

ACE: Janet Swing: No report

Fee Advisory Committee: Maureen Buckley: No Report

Advising Subcommittee: Derek Girman: No Report

Athletics: Rick Robison

- (Via Karen Thompson): Policy on communication between coaches and athletes regarding scholarships has been written and is being discussed.

Campus Climate Committee: Leny Strobel: No Report

Business:

Item 1. Priority registration: Subcommittee has submitted recommendations for Pres. Arminana's final approval. The Freshman Interest Group Peer Advisors were recommended for priority registration in fall 2008. The Priority Registration Subcommittee recommends a review of the application process to include a verbal presentation from the applicants, and an earlier deadline for feedback.

Meeting adjourned: 10:45am.      Submitted by: Leny Strobel
