

Academic Affairs

OFFICE OF RESEARCH AND SPONSORED PROGRAMS

Presented By:

Barbara Thorpe, Associate Vice President
Amanda Quintero, Director

Program Summary

The Office of Research and Sponsored Programs (ORSP) is central to the University's mission. The office facilitates faculty development, student learning, and community outreach through assisting faculty and staff to secure external funding. ORSP is the grants and contracts point of contact for the campus. ORSP assures that requirements for submitting grants with systemwide, state and federal regulations are met and handles the administrative routing process, which is required for approval of all grants and contracts at CSUCI.

2005-2006 Profile

2005-2006 ORSP PROFILE

In academic year 2005-2006 a total of 46 proposals were submitted to multiple funders including federal, state and local agencies and private and corporate foundations; amounting to $10.8 million.

- 31 of 46 proposals were awarded totaling $2.6 million
- 10 of 46 proposals were declined totaling $7.9 million
- 4 of 46 proposals are still pending review totaling $290,726
- 3 of 46 proposals were governmentally-directed federal earmarks totaling $1.5 million

ORSP
Advisory Committee,
Faculty Co-Chair
Dr. Manuel Correia

ORSP
Advisory Committee,
Faculty Co-Chair,
Dr. Gregory Wood

Review Board

INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD FOR THE RIGHTS OF HUMAN SUBJECTS

At California State University Channel Islands, the administrative authority for the protection of human subjects, in funded as well as non-funded research, has been delegated to an appointed Institutional Review Board (IRB) for the Rights of Human Subjects, which works under the sponsorship of the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs to ensure the protection of the rights of human subjects and serves as the University's Institutional Review Board for purposes of local, state, and federal requirements. The IRB's charge is to facilitate scientific inquiry while preserving the dignity of individuals and the rights of various social groups. It has the ultimate responsibility to determine risk with regard to human subject research conducted at and/or under the sponsorship of the University or its auxiliaries.

IRB for the Rights of Human Subjects,
Chair, Dr. Joan Karp

The faculty member - chaired IRB for human subjects research is supported by ORSP's existing infrastructure. In academic year 2005-2006 the IRB reviewed and approved a total of 33 research proposals.

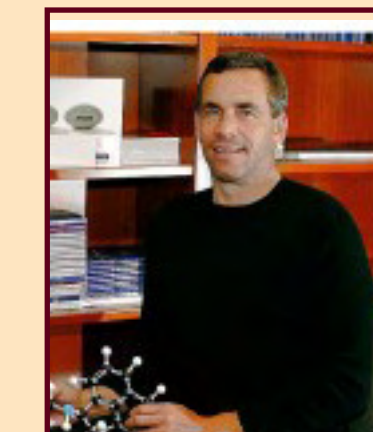

- 15 of the 33 proposals were undergraduate student research proposals
- 11 of the 33 were faculty/staff research proposals
- 7 of the 33 were graduate student research proposals

A Closer Look

Dr. Mary Adler

SPONSORED PROJECT: John Steinbeck: Voice of a Region, Voice for America
AGENCY: National Endowment for the Humanities
AWARD: $118,729
RECOGNITION: Prestige Federal Grant

Dr. Gilbert Rishton

SPONSORED PROJECT: Collaborative Research and Option Agreement
AGENCY: AccelaPure Corporation a wholly owned subsidiary of APriori Pharma, Inc.
AWARDS: $300,000 and two student fellowships
RECOGNITION: Model Research Contract

Dr. Antonio Jiménez-Jiménez

SPONSORED PROJECTS: Faith Leaders and Domestic Violence; Child Abuse Training and Technical Assistance
AGENCIES: California Department of Health Services; Department of Justice / California Department of Emergency Services
AWARDS: $453,000 & $800,000
RECOGNITION: Culturally-competent Interpretation Services

Dr. Ching-Hua Wang

RECOGNITION: Outstanding contributions to the development of Biotechnology Recipient of the Dr. A. Andreoli Biotechnology Service Award for faculty who have made outstanding contributions to the development of biotechnology in the California State University.

Dr. George Morten

SPONSORED PROJECT: Education Talent Search
AGENCY: U.S. Department of Education
AWARDS: $880,000
RECOGNITION: Federal Student Services Award

Dr. Cynthia Wyels

SPONSORED PROJECTS: Hewlett Packard Higher Education Technology for Teaching Grant; Summer Research Experience for Minority Undergraduates; Student Travel Grant MAA Diversity Initiative.
AGENCIES: Hewlett Packard; Mathematics Association of America.
AWARDS: $68,500; $25,775; & 1,500
RECOGNITION: New Investigator Award

• ORSP facilitates faculty development, student learning, and community outreach by assisting faculty and staff to secure external funding.

• ORSP provides campus-wide training/professional development opportunities (grant seeking tools, proposal writing workshops, principal investigator tutorials, protection of human subjects in research compliance certification, and supervision of student research).

• ORSP supports university scholarly research and creative activity.