

Senior Typist — Hazel Mizusaki, age 19, came from San Luis Obispo and became a treasured addition to the typing corps. Her additional duties included taking care of all exchange papers and keeping the Grapevine morgue.

Reporter — Alice Sumida, a sweet and sensitive girl of 19, had been a freshman and reporter for the school paper at Fresno State College. She had an excellent command of English and contributed many fine articles and editorials to the Grapevine.

Senior Typist — Marion Nakatsuma was the head typist and chief stencil cutter. Formerly of Fresno, this 22 year old young lady with her pleasing personality and dependability, was a greatly appreciated staff member.

Cartoonist — Eddie Kurushima was a super talented cartoonist. He accomplished his drawings with speed and deftness. At 19, his artistic ability won him well deserved acclaim from the entire community. He was the center's "Good Humor Man".

Technician — Shunji Yamagata was in large measure responsible for the fine work of the technical department. This hard working 28 year old bachelor kept the mimeograph equipment in good operating condition due to his constant observation and overhaul.

Secretary — Mari Asakawa assumed the duties of private secretary to the editor from the start of the paper. This petite and comely 19 year old young lady from Monmouth, took care of all correspondence, office files and editorial typing.

Assistant Editor — Seico Hanashiro, hard working and unassuming 18 year old came from Fowler with a year's experience as editor of the Fowler High School paper. He served as assistant to the City Editor and displayed a knack for setting up newspapers. During what little spare time he had, he played outfield for the Delano Packers baseball team.