

Los Angeles Examiner
OFFICE OF THE PUBLISHER
BROADWAY AT ELEVENTH ST., LOS ANGELES

Sept. 27, 1926.

Dear Miss Morgan :

"I do not ring for the souls of the dead but for the ears of the living" is a good inscription; but perhaps we can find something in modern American poetry that would be more inspiring than a Latin quotation.

Sincerely,

W R Hearst
jed