DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE of
CALIFORNIA

September 7, 1967

Mrs. Jane Tolmach
656 Douglas Avenue
Oxnard, California

Dear Jane:

As a climax to an intensive effort to form a 1968 campaign organization throughout California, the Democratic State Central Committee will sponsor a two day campaign kick-off conference in Fresno, January 13-14, 1968.

State Chairman Charles Warren has asked me to invite you to meet with him in order to help lay the original plans for the format of this key campaign event. The task of our group will be to bring our combined experience to the challenge of planning an effective and meaningful conference-workshop for Democratic leaders throughout the State.

Our first meeting will be with Charles Warren on Sunday evening, September 17th.

Time: 7:30 p.m., September 17, 1967

Place: 427 So. McCadden Place, Los Angeles (1½ blocks north Wilshire, 1 block east of Highland Avenue.)

We hope you can join us in this effort. Please R.S.V.P. to Lois Yudovin, 939-3832.

Sincerely,

Joyce Fadem

JF/ly

*P.S. If you can't make it, please let
