Book Your Own fuckin' life #7

1999 Edition

A do it yourself resource guide

It's

been almost a year since

I rifled through a copy of MRR and caught the blurb that the 1998 BYOFL was not to be. I'm not in a band, I don't run a label or put out a zine, and my days as a college radio

DJ are in the past, but when I discovered that there would be no BYOFL, I was disappointed.

BYOFL Searchable

Website:

<http://www.byofl.org/>

I still have the first issue of BYOFL – the cover is kinda beat up from when I carried it around in my backpack all the time. I read that issue from beginning to end and marked all the bands and labels from which I wanted to get music for airplay. I did some calling and writing, and subsequently received demo tapes and 7"s that I and other DJs played. Some of those bands were all but unknown in 1992 and have since become common names amongst the DIY hardcore community. Without BYOFL, it would have been years before I'd have discovered them and shared them with the listeners.

So when I saw that there would be no 1998 BYOFL, my first thought was of the newbie DJs that wouldn't have the opportunity I did, and then of the multitude of newly formed bands that wouldn't have access to a resource that could give them autonomy from the music industry machine I detest. My third thought was why a 6-year-running resource guide done in conjunction with the most well-known of punk zines would suddenly find no support. Apathy, perhaps?

I was disappointed. I was disheartened because someone else wasn't putting forth the time and effort to provide what I considered to be a valuable noncorporate alternative. That's hardly a Do It Yourself attitude...is that the attitude that led to the lack of a 1998 edition?

Unlike the collectives that have produced BYOFL in the past, The Amoeba Collective is not an ongoing organization. I contacted people at the station where I DJed, then at a neighboring college station, and gathered a handful of people that felt BYOFL should continue to exist. We headed up to an MRR meeting and before you is the result of that initiative.

The positive response from all of you to BYOFL's revival has been overwhelming and has been a great sustainer through the challenges of simultaneously producing a print guide and a web database. Thank you for all the encouragement. Many of you submitted suggestions, comments, criticisms, etc. which also have been helpful. Some of the issues brought up have been briefly addressed on page 153.

I hope when The Amoeba Collective completes its contribution to the struggle of musical and ideological independence in this increasingly capitalistic world, there'll be somebody else rifling through that remembers what's at the root of DIY and keeps BYOFL alive.

On Frydays, when skipping school, smoking drugs and masturbating, it only made sense for the music to begin - and evolve. "Motivation" is the first song the band ever wrote - Matt "E" and Matt wrote it about doing whatever you want. An "I don't care who gives a shit about what I'm doing" kinda song. Being the first—and only—punk band from their small town, the motivation to continue was always supplied by those people who really didn't give a shit. That philosophy still motivates the band and they still play the song. They give a shit.

POLITIKILL INCORECT

Helen, 1075 Queen St West, Toronto, M6J 1H3, ON, Canada. 416-533-0752, litalin@globalserve.net

Still crazy after all these years...mind splitting punk drenched in beer and emotion. You'd sound like us if your livers were as swollen as ours. 6 members, one really big bar tab. Split 7" w/Toxic Narcotic out Feb/99 on Never The Bride/Rodent Popsicle.

RANDOM KILLING

Jim Moore c/o Raw Energy, 65 Front St West, Suite #0116-42, Toronto, M5J 1E6, ON, Canada. 416-410-6749, fax: 416-465-6171, rawnrg@passport.ca, <http://rawenergy.passport.ca>

"Stranded" their fifth album, is their most deathdefyingly fastest and at the same time bonecrushingly heaviest. Always keeping their music fresh sounding by adding new talent to the songwriting process, it's no different this time; with the addition of Mark "de rock" Watts (ex-Dark Legion) on lead guitar, this album is not for the lame of heart. Random Killing has produced a CD that will be making ears bleed for years to come.

THREE IMPOTENT MALES

c/o Raw Energy, 65 Front St West, Suite #0116-42, Toronto, M5J 1E6, ON, Canada. 416-410-6749, fax: 416-465-6171, rawnrg@passport.ca, <http://rawenergy.passport.ca>

Growing up and living in Sarnia, Ontario (a border city), the band found plenty of inspiration for their music. Guns, drugs, violent crime and teenage boredom are prevalent in Sarnia but the boys have made it work for them.

TIREKICKERS

c/o Raw Energy, 65 Front St West, Suite #0116-42, Toronto, M5J 1E6, ON, Canada. 416-410-6749, fax: 416-465-6171, rawnrg@passport.ca, <http://rawenergy.passport.ca>

Brian Wicks (son of Ron Wicks, the legendary NHL referee) began playing in a punk rock band after first being a Scooter Boy and listening to bands like The Jam. Oil and ska also played a big part in forming his musical tastes. Like Brian, Arnel and Ivan listened to Oil, punk and a lot of British stuff too. But hooking up with Jason was somewhat of a musical clash as his favourite band growing up was, um... Van Halen.

TOE TO TOE

c/o Raw Energy, 65 Front St West, Suite #0116-42, Toronto, M5J 1E6, ON, Canada. 416-410-6749, fax: 416-465-6171, rawnrg@passport.ca, <http://rawenergy.passport.ca>

Toe To Toe hail from Sydney, Australia and Raw Energy has licensed their heavy-as-fuck album, Tao from Shock Records for sale in North America. Toe To Toe completed tours last year with Agnostic Front, 59 Times The Pain and Strife, while headlining a national tour with labelmates One Inch Punch, Mindsnare and Downtime. Exploding with crushing guitar, Toe Toe Toe's uncompromising "Tao" album brings Australian hardcore into the nineties.

Five idiots hailing from suburban Burlington, Ontario and hurtin' since 1993, Trunk are idealists who believe that "trying is the first step towards failure." No matter, they've managed to release two CDs, a couple of videos, tour throughout Canada and the U.S. and get hot chicks. Not bad for a bunch of fucking hurtin' units, eh?!?!?

45 REVOLUTION

Mike/Raygunn/Mckinley/Pat, 406 Ximeno Ave, Long Beach, CA 90814. 562-930-0277, <http://www.45revolution.com>

Put on Thurs. night showcases at a local bar called the Que Sera. Basically 2 bands/3 bucks, though the formula may vary at times. After we pay the expenses (about $50) we take about 75 cents a head, sometimes less depending on the draw. We are a record store, not a booking agency so don't expect guarantees or deli platters. But do expect us to give the bands most of the take. The bar will give you a free cocktail and unlimited non alcoholic drinks. Come by the store early and maybe we'll share a pizza and beer. Oh yeah, unfortunately since this is a bar it's a 21 & over thing. Underage band members are OK, but can't really hang out too long. Let us know what's up and maybe we can take care of you some how. Lodging: no. Food: maybe.

This is a very hierarchical station, which was taken from students a decade ago, however the "Student Radio Now" campaign has succeeded in wresting 15 hours from the management's hands. There are great shows, including Mutant Pop (Weds 8-10p mst), Heather vs. Heather (Thurs 9-10p mst), and Left Out (news and radical politics Fri 8-9p mst). MRR's own netpunk, Mark Hanford, hosted Mutant Pop for 12 years. The website listed allows you to listen to the programming while shows are airing. Accept: vinyl, CD, cassette, DAT.

I have a big basement in my house where I do shows, can fit around a hundred. Have had some real good shows there. I have also done many rental hall shows and can do those as well, for bigger shows up to 300 people. Occasionally I can do guarantees, but I very much prefer to give bands everything above cost, which in a basement show is very little. I know it can be rough on the road so I try to be as generous as I can. Lodging: yes. Food: yes.

ELECTROJET BOOKINGS

816 Bancroft, Port Huron, MI 48060. 810-987-0135

Style: HC/punk/metal. The human race is at war!!!! Each day is a battle to save our very humanity from the so-called "bosses" who will tell us to strive for machine-like perfection and robotic, unquestioning servitude and call it a "work ethic." From those who will have us see ourselves as they do: as mere components of a huge machine to be tossed away as useless when our gears are stripped. From an industry of witch doctors who will tell us that the human body is inherently a rotting, putrid entity whose state can only be fixed through use of their magic elixirs and balms. Believe it or not, accept or deny, we are all the last human family and must rise up to save ourselves before it's too late!

PROMOTERS/VENUES

ANDY BAYLIFF

879 Princewood Ave, Dayton, OH 45429. 937-434-7256, blueash@cheerful.com
I can help book shows in the Dayton area. We work with a variety of venues, mostly rental halls and a few house shows. The kids here are nice and enjoy good music. I pretty much deal with every genre (punk/hc/grind/emo, etc) so if you haven't played here before, check it out, and if you have, well, come back! I usually won't do guarantees, so rock stars need not apply. If you think your band is well-known enough to warrant a guarantee, then you'll probably make enough $$$ at the door. If I rent a hall, bands split the door after cost (if I don't break even, I pay the bands as much as I can first). If your show is at a house, the bands split the door. Thanks! Lodging: maybe. Food: yes.

YANKEE WUSS

Dominic, 3639 NE 78th Ave, Portland, OR 97213. 503-331-0652, skullguy@teleport.com

Angry, opinionated punk rock. Musically, been compared to every one from Capitalist Casualties to the Minutemen, lyrically, harsh. We talk about our songs when we play, which seems to bother some people. We think punk is more than music, it's also action and communication. We also book shows and can put up travelling bands/people.

MUTANT POP RECORDS

T. Chandler, 5010 NW Shasta, Corvallis, OR 97330. fax: 541-757-9753, mutantpop@aol.com, <http://members.aol.com/mutantpop/index.html>
Pop-punk. Period. Demo tapes generally get put in a big pile and may eventually get listened to for 30 seconds. For all intents and purposes, the way to hook up with my label is to put out your own 7" vinyl or CD release and make me fall in love. DIY is much cooler than having some dick like me put out your record anyway. Pop-punk fans write for a free catalog, I have nearly 1000 poppy punk titles available.

BOISLEVE

Y. Boislevé, BP 7523, 35075 Rennes Cedex 3, France.

Already 5 CDs out, = 45 international punk/Hc/SxE/crust bands. More stuff (reissues or new raging bands) out in late 99. I still believe South American, Asian, East European or African bands have more to offer than any of your favourite anglo saxon band. (I apology for having a mind on my own).

I have been organizing DIY tours for bands in Norway since 1992. I only work with bands that I personally like the music from. There's no point in calling me unless you have sent me your promo stuff: one bio, photo, poster & CD (no vinyl or MC). I like vinyl a lot, but I only have a CD player at where I can be all by myself listening to new bands. I will answer all that send me their CDs, but remember I only work with bands I like, and of course have time for. Here's some of the bands I've organized tours for in Norway: MU330, Link 80, Ex-Cathedra, Nutcase, Machine Gun Etiquette, Tequila Girls, Punishment Park, Bad Preachers, Grimsunk, Twigs, Post Regiment, The Guttersnipes and lots more. Most of these bands have been in Norway for more than one tour. Styles I like: punk, hardcore, ska, folk, and some metal.

The record company Esan Ozenki was born thanks to the group Negu Gorriak in 1991 as a bet to the musical independence and the self-management which enable us to decide freely our destiny in a record company world which we consider to be more and more confined, remote controlled, supervised as well as uncooperative. Ready to break all language barriers that the mighty impose us. We keep Euskera (Basque Language) as a vehicle of expression and as a main sign of identification for the firm and the bands we represent.

We do live interviews, reviews, talk, have fun and even read interesting columns! Our goal is to promote aims and principles of the DIY underground movement inspired by libertarian ideas. We always search for new DIY bands and labels, or anything else that could be of interest for the punk population. This show is a great opportunity to reach non-punk/HC people too, and to step beyond the limits of the punk/HC ghetto. Considering the fact that we live in a poor country and that the whole show is a volunteer job, your support will be great help for us! If you are interested, please send promo material (tapes, zines, records, CDs, books, or whatever). Accept: vinyl, CD, cassette.

SPEAK CLEAR

Marcos Felipe, Rua Tirol 141/708 - Freguesia - Rio de Janeiro, Rio de Janeiro, 22750-001 Brazil. speakclear@yahoo.com, <http://www.web-brasil.com/speakclear>

Formed in early July 1998, Speak Clear showed up intending to spread a positive and conscious message through it's lyrics, even singing in English. We won't change the world, we don't even have this pretension, but if we reach the most people we can, that's already very good. It's kind of hypocritical trying to spread a message singing in English, but we are disposed to show the meaning of our lyrics for whoever wants it, and besides that we'll put the lyrics' translations in our first demo tape's booklet. By the way, that tape is already being recorded. At first, there will be four or five songs in a "old school with new school" style, very influenced by bands like Strife, Agnostic Front, Earth Crisis, Paura, Youth of Today, and others. The lyrics subjects are basically going against vices of any kind, and also against all this control that the society we live in forces us to face, with it's false dogmas and values.

Started out as a gig organising company in 1992. Released a recording in 1994. Restarted this year with an indie-film soundtrack. DIY to a fault (using a non-DIY distribution service since there's no effective/reliable DIY distro here in Malaysia). The releases are however available through some distro and mail-order for half-the-price at the local shops. Built on punk rock but eager to accommodate any sincere/DIY bands—reggae to indie-pop to noise. Punk is not just a straight-jacketed musical genre! If you have a release we would like to hear it and distribute it here!!

DULL ENTERTAINMENT PROGRAMME

Lee and Acai, Lot 88, Jalan Nuri, Bukit Sekilau, 25200 Kuantan, Malaysia. 6-09-5139806, fax: 6-03-2011745, dullmusic@yahoo.com, <http://members.tripod.com/~JoeKidd/index.html>

A new label. Restarted this year with new partner (Lee). Previously released three tapes. Distribution is total DIY, by hand and local DIY distros. New release is a German band playing psychedelic rock, so we are open to all types of good, sincere bands. Affiliated to a cheap rehearsal studio in our city, also a loose collective organising a monthly gig there.

The gigs here around Malaysia are not regular. A few small towns have their own network of people and I'm in contact with them, so I can help in arranging a few gig. Gigs also only happened on weekends, basically Saturday or/and Sunday. I helped set-up Fugazi's show in KL early last year (or is it 1996?), anyway that's a big show which is not that normal. Usually the gigs are held at nightclubs, recently there's a regular show at a theatre (with sittings but real cheap, about USD 1.50!). Payment is not a lot since we work by equal distribution of profit. Lodging is available but not to more than four people. And we can't pay for your flight! If your band is coming around from Japan to Australia or vice-versa, then it'll be nice if you'd stop over in KL. We'll arrange something, but do notice us about two months before. Cheers! Lodging: maybe. Food: no.

NEWCASTLE FREE RADIO, 107.8 FM

Tabetha, C/- PO Box 678,, Hamilton NSW 2303, Australia.

We are a pirate radio station in Newcastle Australia and we play mainly anarcho punk music. This of course is only non-commercial punk music, we have no time for anything that's even very remotely connected with a commercial record label.

We have been disappointed to see a lot of very good punk/hardcore from o/s being sent to Australia to the so-called community stations and the we have to listen to it next to Green Day or some other horrible thing these middle class kids that dominate the things come up with. If ya can afford it send it to us (even a tapes cool) and we'll play it on the airwaves of freedom!! Accept: vinyl, CD, cassette.

Comments and Responses

- Why don't you weed out the dishonest listings?

How are we any better equipped than you to distinguish between honest and dishonest listings?

- Stores in my area don't carry BYOFL.

Talk to them, they may not carry it because they don't think there'd be any interest. If you or a store are interested in selling/distributing BYOFL, contact either Mordam Records (info on back cover) or MRR. Or just mailorder your own copy.

- Expand the musical coverage beyond punk/HC.

That would only reduce it's effectiveness. If you think there should be a guide to some other genre(s) of music, then make one.

NOTES

amoeba

The nutty one that says yes to things that don't pay rent and no to things that do. Lives at <http://www.arancidamoeba.com/> rancid

Smurph

Logs insane numbers of hours on the air as a KZSU DJ and is heroically learning Perl and SQL as he writes the BYOFL database search engine.

J. Squirrel

In addition to designing the graphics for the subdivisions in this here print guide, she also is a DJ at KFJC and designs lots of other stuff.

Rocket

Hannah

Mae

Designed graphics for the BYOFL website and spends plenty of her time as KZSU music director.

Mary

Helped tons with the nitty gritty details of printing and counseled a rancid amoeba during some rough times.

Secret

Agent

Suffered through the yucky grunt work of typing in submissions and proofreading pages and yep, he's a KZSU DJ too.

Debra

Another poor soul that typed in submissions. Also is a KZSU DJ, writes the "Like Yeah You Know What I Mean" zine, and has started collectives of her own.

Cover art by Reid Cain.
Thanks to MRR and all the previous BYOFL collectives.
