

the Doctors said he'd be out in ten days they thought - they sewed up his side. and put him to bed. We were all so relieved - Today all the Papers have very wild accounts of it one that he fell from the roof. Mr Shoulton took down the Papers and he smiled with satisfaction as he read, they all reported him impossible to recover or - We paid twenty dollars today to the Hospital to have him taken care of - Mother gave ten and Julia and I each five - he was in great pain today in back and limbs - Wasn't it an escape?

So excuse this drily letter - Its after twelve - I'm very tired and the implements are very bad - With lots of love I am Don't it a bad year? your
