

The Special Gift

We made our way through the tourist tide
Enjoying the sights during the detoured ride.

A glitch at the gate stood in our way,
But you found a way to save the day!

Soon we all soared through space,
Then launched again at a faster pace.

Off to captured harbors we did go;
Pirates threatened with their "Ho! Ho! Ho!"

Next we braved a rocky adventure,
But had to escape without the treasure.

We rested on a jungle boat,
Past jungle animals we did float.

C3PO blasted us through the stars
Battling enemies from near and far!

We returned to land in a world so small,
Filled with the voices of joyful dolls.

We wanted to experience many more thrills,
So we rode a runaway train over the hills.

Our well-tooned car sped around town,
Jaunting through curves both up and down.

We enjoyed a harrowing street race,
Even though we lost first place.

Pooh was there, and Tigger, too!
But I had more fun being with you!

Thanks for making my birthday a fabulous bash,
You really made it quite a splash!
