No Floods In L.V. - Kudos To John Lauten

By Betty Murray

The fact that Leisure Village survived the "100 Year Storm" in January in such admirable fashion can be attributed to the work of John Lauten V.20 many years ago.

The January storm, fortunately for us, did not inundate the Newbury Park/Thousand Oaks area with more rain than the drainage facilities and Conejo Creek could handle (as opposed to Santa Barbara's 8 inches of rain in 24 hours). Therefore, our flood control capabilities were not strained.

Without detailing the hassles and red tape that Lauten had to cut through, he was responsible, more than any other individual, for getting the Conejo Creek bed cleared of undergrowth and debris, monitoring the height of the levee bordering the Village, and recommending construction of a higher bridge over Conejo Creek on Highway 101, just 1 mile from L.V. These measures gave the Village enough flood control protection to qualify for a lower insurance rate for flood damage.

The former Boards of Directors did not succeed in having corrected flood plain maps approved, but the current Board has mentioned its intention at last to do so, which should result in a substantial insurance saving.

John Lauten did the ground work 15 years ago, and he is still analyzing the potential behavior of the creek relative to development plans.

YNCG To Discuss Malathion Spraying

By Harry Becker

"Malathion Spraying: Its Adverse Effects" will be the subject of a discussion at the next meeting of Your Neighbors Care Group, Monday, February 6, at 7:30 p.m., in the Assembly Room.

This will be the first time that residents of Leisure Village will be given an opportunity jointly to express their concerns on this matter. Heretofore, Villagers were told there was no danger from this substance and there was nothing we could do about the contemplated six months spraying schedule.

Now an authoritative analysis will be given by Dr. Nacmen Brautbar, Clinical Professor of Medicine, UCSC, School of Medicine. His fields of expertise: Internal Medicine, Nephrology, Toxicology, Pharmacology, Immunotoxicology, Chemical Exposure, Kidney Disease, Hypertension, Clinical Nutrition, Occupational Medicine.

Dr. Brautbar is a Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine, and a Diplomate of the American Board of Nephrology.

Current Issues Forum To Feature Camarillo Officials

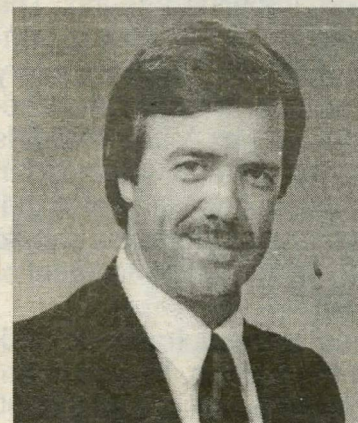

By Jack Whalen

Three high ranking Camarillo City officials will attend the first Current Issues Forum of 1995 on Friday evening, February 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the AR.

Topic for the evening is "Where Will Our Tax Dollars Be Going in 1995?"

As concerned citizens, many LV residents want to know about the financial plans for the city.

We want to know their thoughts about such items as the proposed baseball stadium, additional movie complexes and shopping malls.

L.V. '95-'96 Budget Reduces Fees by 3%

By Bob Atz

The tentative budget for L.V. for FY 1995-96 was presented to approximately 50 residents in the AR on January 12. The high light of the presentation was the announcement by Board Pres. Donna Duke that the homeowner's fee would be reduced by 3%, effective April 1, 1995.

The budget development process was outlined by Board member Herb Warneke. Dick Griswold, treas., presented details. There were no comments or questions by homeowners offered following the presentation.

The final version is scheduled to be adopted by the LVA Board at the open meeting on February

All three guests have impressive credentials. Mayor Mike Morgan, a 20 year resident of Camarillo, has a BA in psychology from Cal State Long Beach and a Master's Degree in public administration from USC. He served as Mayor in 1983, is very active in civic and professional organizations and is a former member of the U.S. Probation Department, Los Angeles.

City Manager Bill Little earned a BA in political science from Wichita State University in Kansas and two years later obtained a Master of Arts in public administration. He has been a city manager here since 1988.

Tony Boden, Director of Planning and Community Development, assumed his present position in May 1972. He is past president of the League of California

Smoke Detectors - Cheapest Life Insurance

By Herman Waltzer

Smoke detectors were characterized by an official of the Los Angeles County Fire Department as the "cheapest life insurance policy." The recent fires here in the Village, which caused considerable damage, should serve to remind residents of the need for these warning devices in each unit.

Although one detector was installed in each dwelling during construction, devices installed before 1985 may not work properly. This may be verified by pressing the test button, assuming the battery is in good condition. This will cause a high-pitched sound. The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) recommends routine replacement of smoke detectors every ten years. Also, local laws require two smoke detectors whenever roofs are replaced on residences. It is most essential that batteries be regularly replaced in the devices (usually on an annual basis), and also that devices are regularly tested monthly. Batteries should be of the long life alkaline variety, such as Duracel or Energizer.

Detectors should be placed at the entrance to bedrooms, and in the vicinity of the kitchen. Village maintenance will install the devices for a total cost of $27.00 each, including parts and labor. Those able and willing to do their own installation may purchase units ranging in price averaging about $12.00-$14.00.

For those who may not hear the warning signal due to hearing loss, studies have shown, according to Consumers Research, that most hearing impaired persons can be awakened from sleep by the intensity of a flashing strobe light that rapidly flashes near the person's head. However, these devices are much more expensive than standard smoke detectors (about $105.00). Electric wiring is also required for strobe type units.

For a detailed technical discussion of smoke detectors, an excellent presentation is given in the Consumer Reports magazine of May, 1994. A properly functioning smoke detector is well worth the expense and effort when you consider that it may save your life.

Food Distribution Program

To the LV residents and clubs that contributed to the LV Food Distribution Program during the holiday season:

Your sharing with money and food items will enable this weekly distribution program to continue well into the year. We distribute food and household supplies which we purchase mainly from Food Share, Inc. in Oxnard. It enables our clients to use their limited funds to round out a healthy and adequate diet. We appreciate your gifts along with the gift of time and services of our delivery volunteers.

Any LV resident whose income is limited basically to the level of social security is eligible to receive distributions.

Poisonous Spray

Can you recall when government scientists and bureaucrats assured us that DDT, Agent Orange, asbestos, and nuclear radiation were safe?

Now they claim that malathion, a pesticide, a neurotoxin, sprayed upon us, also is safe.

Why then are some of us in Leisure Village agitated and activated by the pesticide sprayings, and urging action by the L.V. Board of Directors?

Because we have read the literature - by biologists, medical doctors and entomologists. Dr. Marc Lappe headed, for the California State Department of Health, the 1980 original evaluation of health risks of spraying malathion. In testimony before a Legislative committee he now says: "I strongly believed then as I do now that the State has misled the public in its reporting of this risk assessment."

Dr. Lappe's statement now is in a packet of materials in the Leisure Village library, along with comments by Jorge Mancillas, from the Department of Anatomy and Cell Biology at UCLA, and E. J. Dietrick, a founder of modern entomology, who believes aerially spraying the medfly is an ineffective and unnecessary treatment. There is more.

For your own information about malathion safety for you and your neighbors, please peruse the library's materials.

Plan to attend the Monday, February 6, 1995, meeting of Your Neighbor's Care Group at 7:30 p.m., in the A.R.

Fight City Hall

When I was a kid growing up in New York there was a very popular expression for explaining away the mouse-like acceptance of the wrongs that were laid on us by the political powers of the day. "You can't fight City Hall," they'd say.

I grew up to learn that you sure as hell CAN fight "City Hall." I spent a lot of my years doing just that. And, take my word for it, I won many a battle and tamed my fair share of the enemy.

Not too many years ago, in the deep South there was a lady by the name of Rosa Parks. She got fed up with the "You can't fight City Hall" routine when they told her to go to the back of the bus like all black people were supposed to do. She stood her ground and she changed history, didn't she? She fought "City Hall" and she won.

Here in the village our Board of Directors is telling us that we can't "Fight City Hall" when we express our opposition to the malathion poison being sprayed on us. Instead of being representative of the best interests of our people here in the Village, they bow to the politicians who bow to the power of the farm lobby. "You Can't fight City Hall" they say. That's hogwash.

There is a strong movement in our Leisure Village to stop this assault on human beings in the name of lettuce and tomatoes. We have the voting muscle. We voted them in. We can vote them out.

We invite you to join us. Together we can "Fight City Hall."

Robbie Karlin, V.38

I just wanted to let you know that I appreciate your telephone calls, get well cards and your loving care and concern for my health.

Although it has not been easy for me, those cards and calls have helped to cheer me and for that I want to thank you very much.

Trusting I will be up and around soon and able to thank every one of you.

Gert Garten, V.20

What a wonderful world we Leisure Villagers live in!

On Thursday afternoon before Christmas my wife Evelyn had a health emergency. LV Security was called and within minutes officers were here to lend aid and comfort. One minute later the fire truck and Pruner Ambulance arrived. Paramedics provided medical assistance necessary before transfer to Pleasant Valley Hospital.

After some time in Emergency, she was assigned to a room. On Friday after various procedures, she made remarkable progress and she was sent home on Saturday.

No mere words could convey our appreciation and thanks to all the wonderful people involved in this frightening episode.

ESO REPORTBy Ken Wilson

Emergency Services begins 1995 with confidence. We lack a First Aid Chief and are not yet 100% staffed with Coordinators, but the team is in dynamic motion. Al Bennett's surgery was successful and he'll be back with us right away.

We regret that our First-Aid/CPR classes must be postponed, possibly until April. Our dedicated instructor, Randy Hauman, has other obligations. We apologize to those waiting for the training.

Village Coordinators are gathering data on each resident's special needs in an emergency. We appeal to every resident for help in getting this data to your Coordinator. Include equipment needed for walking, breathing, and home medical procedures requiring assistance. This data will be given to Security for your confidential personal file.

If you do not know your Coordinator, please do two things for us and for your welfare 1) Call Bill Klee at 484-0278 and ask him for the Coordinator's name, 2) Please make every effort to get to know these volunteers who could someday be your lifeline. You should also ask how you can help in the service they provide.

You are welcome at Emergency Services meetings each third Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in the MPR. A special time is set aside to hear your comments.

55 ALIVE

The next 55 Alive class is scheduled for February 16 and 17, 1:00 p.m. in the MPR. Cost is $8.00. For information and registration call Naomi Balfour 987-9851 or Viola Emmerson 388-2524. Class is limited to 30 pre-paid participants.

Camarillo Senior Peer Counseling ProgramBy Lillian Hawthorne

A new class for senior peer counselors is being offered by Camarillo Health Care District and Jewish Family Service of Ventura. Seniors age 60 and over are trained to help other seniors cope with such issues as grief, loneliness, illness, anxiety and depression.

Professional therapists provide training and on-going supervision. This is a free non-sectarian program. Trainees must be Camarillo residents; both men and women are needed as counselors.

The first class is Wednesday, February 1, 1995. For further information about this rewarding volunteer opportunity, call 659-7189.

NOTES FROM THE PAST

This column, gleaned from back issues of ILV, reports events that occurred 5, 10 and 15 years ago. We believe this will interest residents who are new to the Village, as well as those who have been here only a few years and maybe those who were here when the events occurred.

5 YEARS AGO

A group of approximately 600 residents attended a Special Meeting of the Board of Directors that was convened to consider whether any changes were needed in the way the Village was being operated. Aside from a few comments about needing to improve landscaping and exterior-maintenance, the primary concerns were about security. A proposal to automate the East Gate was met by overwhelming disapproval, the saving in cost not being worth the potential degradation in security.

10 YEARS AGO

Max Moses was named

Issues.....from pg 1 Cities, is a member of the American Planning Association, the Urban Land Institute and is the recipient of a Rotary Foundation Group Exchange to Scotland.

Each guest will present an overview of the subject and issues involved from his particular perspective. This will be followed by a question/answer period as Chief of the Security Department for Leisure Village.

Bus service was initiated from Alta Colina (now called Los Pueblos) Drive to the Oaks shopping center in Thousand Oaks.

15 YEARS AGO

Construction began on the Santa Rosa Plaza shopping center. Village 41 was accepted by the Association, Village 35 was accepted for landscaping purposes only.

WOMEN'S CLUB

By Eileen Cohen

On January 5, the Leisure Village Women's Club installation luncheon for the 1995 board was held at Charley Brown's in Thousand Oaks.

Installation was accomplished in the form of a brief musical comedy when Dorothy Karlin, accompanied by the popular Frank Umbro Trio, introduced each new board member with a song and original lyrics that were both amusing and appropriate.

The able new board members for 1995 are: Renee Greene, pres.; Aileen Chuck, 1st v.p., programs; Dorothy Sparkman, 2nd v.p., bazaar; Alice Hinig, rec. sec.; Sylvia Mopper, treas.; Velma Hughes, corres. sec. and Kay LaPrel, parliamentarian.

A large and active membership, 623 and counting, has made possible the many gifts and donations to worthy causes throughout our area; last year's total was over $13,000.

Call Carol Heyerick, 482-6381, for happy occasions as well as sad.

Those who attended the meeting last August will recall the delightful program "Dance in America." Janice Guerrero will return with a new and different show for the February meeting. Janice does costume changes on stage!

Thursday, February 2 in the AR: Trading Post at 10:00 a.m., meeting at 1:30 p.m.

BINGO

By Cy Maller

The Wednesday evening Village Bingo Games continue to be the favorite pastime of our villagers. Recently, on a rainy Wednesday evening, we were still able to play a full program of games. Jackpots and regular games paid off a little lower than usual because attendance was lower. The 6:30 p.m. starting time will continue until further notice. Terry Sochacki, who schedules the callers is seeking more volunteers to add to the panel of callers she already has. Volunteers will be trained by experienced callers, and may be called upon once a month.

LOOKING AT CHANNEL 12

By Janet Hof

On Wednesday, February 1, Channel 12 will air the delayed broadcast of the Women's Golf Putting Contest at 10:00 a.m. The following Saturday will have another of the popular Larry Sawyer "Shared Experiences," this time with Lois Bello, the talented director of the Rhythmettes.

On Monday the 6th, the Leisure Village Board meeting will be broadcast live at 10:00 a.m., with the budget presentation aired that evening at 7:00 p.m.

Those who like to travel and be educated at the same time will be interested in the February 8 overview of Elderhostel USA.

Some regular programs will be Lee Edwards' movie review of February 13, the Players' Guild version of a Burns and Allen show on the 15th, an interesting 40-minute film on Death Valley on the 20th, Old Tyme Showcase's "Rumor" on the 21st, and Kurt Godfrey's music and discussion on the 25th.

On February 27 we will present the "Poets' Corner" with Donnie Weigel and Ailsa Muldoon, a new Channel 12 offering.

We appreciate those who have called in with suggestions and kudos.

BOWLING

By Jack Whalen

The first half of L.V.'s 1994-95 season of bowling is over and it was a 3-team race to the final day with Team #10 just beating out Teams #16 & 14.

Our congratulations to the winning combination: Rae Sohr, Caroline Di Lallo, Ben Perry and Charlie Bellante.

In individual performances, we thought that Al Defusco's 606 in high series scratch would take top honors but along came Joe Jacobson with a score of 669. All three games were above 200.

Ernie Slabotsky's 243

was high game scratch while Al Sparkman with a 172 high average was two pins ahead of Joe Jacobson. Al also took high series handicap with a 718 while Leo Garten's 276 was high game handicap.

In lady bowling, Esther Knopf's 533 won high series scratch and her 150 average was four ahead of Rosemary Hanson's.

Lois Kissinger's amazing 204 was high for a scratch game while Vee Flowers with a 242 had best in high game handicap. Caroline Di Lallo's 674 high series handicap was the best in that category.

L.V. Billiard Club

By Irene Cunningham

New Billiard Club Officers are poised and eager to start a promising 1995. Under the leadership of our President, Dutch Filbry, it should be an interesting year.

The billiard room had to be closed two weeks in December. Due to earthquake damage, an area of the ceiling tiles had to be repaired but after it dried the crack appeared again so more extensive construction had to be done.

Our membership drive is in full swing. Be sure to come to the February 28 meeting.

The Leisure Village Recreational Vehicle Club's final meeting for 1994 was highlighted by President Dan Bernard handing out Certificates of Recognition to the old board and Certificates of Appreciation to members who had worked on the Club's three top events: The Annual Pancake Breakfast, The Annual Picnic, and the Holiday Party at Ottavio's Dinner Theater.

Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of the month, and 1995 dues are being accepted now.

Discussion leaders from outside the Village are Bob Edwards, John Soyster and Miji Working. Topics include Prayer, History of the Bible, and the Holy Spirit.

ROUND DANCE CLUB

By Bob Vanicek

The L.V. Round Dance Club looks for another fruitful year under our role model instructors, Al and Ruth Siegel, who are dedicated to teaching Intermediate Level, Phases 2 and 3 dances. If we progress, it might even be possible to include a few Phase 4 numbers.

It was interesting to note that a good number of round dancers attended the L.V. New Year's Eve celebration. Admittedly elbow room was at a premium, but this didn't deter anyone, even though it is known that round dancers prefer more space.

Follow the Sound of Music Sunday mornings into the AR -- you are welcome to observe, and might catch us dancing to strains of the "Rainbow Connection" -- waltzing toward that elusive pot of gold!

AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

By Benson Smithkin

The new year for the LV Amateur Radio Club began with a bang when Pres. Dick Travis (K06KU) blew a Morse code message on his party horn. While most were too stunned to copy, treasurer Ben Perry (KC6PQT) heard that dues are due at the next meeting, now upped to $5.

Services of our club ham operators are not restricted to Leisure Village. Marge May (KB6HAG), Floyd Cook (AC6FG), Dick Travis, and Mina Maxfield (N6UHK) worked the Camarillo Christmas parade, sending messages which kept the floats in line, reported breakdowns, and relayed information to the media. Mina worked with the Mayor, giving him the news for his announcements. All our people were truly indispensable.

Dana Street (KA6IUT) was the featured speaker at the last meeting. The subject was the operation of the pacemaker, and the importance of patients avoiding electrical or magnetic fields which can cause a pacemaker to malfunction.

Even a transmitting attic antenna can produce electrical fields strong enough to disturb a pacemaker, and hand-held transceiver antennas should be turned away from the head. The strength of an electric field can be very strong at close range, thus questioning the effect of an electric blanket.

The LVARC will meet in the Sun room on Tuesday, February 7 at 10:00 a.m., and all are welcome.

VILLAGE SWINGERS

By Sig Jaffe

One of the December dances of the Village Swingers Square Dance Club featured an "As You Were" display for which members brought old photographs of themselves, most of which were taken while they were children. It was a great deal of fun guessing which child matched the grey haired owner of the present corpus. The Club collected food for the needy which was distributed in time for Christmas.

The holiday celebrations were a great success. On December 20, the members all wore red and green costumes and the tables were decorated by Gerry Fuller and her committee with colorful flower arrangements with gold candles. A delicious Christmas potluck dinner was served under the supervision of Minna and Hal Hudson and their committee. Bill Kramer called a series of holiday related dances, and Norman Fuller played round dance tapes. The Pre-New Years Eve dance on December 27 featured round dancing cued by Bill Burrier and square dances called by Bill Kramer. Arnold and Faye Rich supplied champagne and non-alcoholic sparkling cider with which we toasted the New Year.

The Swingers wish everyone a happy and healthy new year and thank the Boyntons, the Richs, the Gimpels, Mary Kay Franey and Mary Kovach for guiding us through another pleasurable year of dancing.

LIBRARY NOTES

By Eileen Cohen

Harold Michael has generously donated to the Village Library a treasure trove of old photos taken by former Villager and photographer Al Levinson. They will be displayed in the Library, several at a time. If you can identify any people or scenes, write them on the card nearby. You are welcome to take the ones of yourselves.

MEET YOUR NEIGHBOR

By Carol Heyerick

Meet Your Neighbor invites you to the first meeting of 1995 in the Garden Room January 27 at 1:30p.m. Chairman Hildi Lustig Taylor will give a few remarks about Leisure Village. She will display the Vial of Life as well as the two papers available to residents.

New comers will be introduced and invited to give a few facts about themselves especially how they found L.V. and their former employment. We welcome them warmly.

Guest speaker will be Maxine Chapman who will talk about various articles of clothing needed in China where it is the Year of the Pig. She lived in the Orient a few years and will tell some of her experiences.

Two members of ESO (Emergency Services Organization) will give us pointers about how to act should an earthquake, fire or flood hit our homes. Ken Wilson and Dick Travis are Co-chairs of ESO and have participated in several dry runs (DPXs) to test if advance planning is adequate.

HEARING IMPAIRED SUPPORT GROUP

By Gabriel Barkley

The Hearing Impaired Support Group will hold its next meeting Wednesday, February 22 at 1:00 p.m. in the MPR.

The guest speaker will be Leo Maggio. Mr. Maggio is the Southern California Chapter Coordinator for the Self Help For The Hard Of Hearing (SHHH) organization. His topic is going to be "How does your hearing loss affect your life today?" Mr. Maggio's function with SHHH is in conducting rap sessions. So, as part of his program, he will conduct a rap session involving participants of our group.

This should be a most interesting meeting for the hearing as well as the hearing impaired.

WOMEN'S GOLF

By La Rue Boynton

Some exciting Women's Golf Club plans are in the making for 1995. June Rose and Elsie Eymann, hospitality chairman for the 19th Hole parties are heading the committee for a great "Chili Bowl" party. Ginny Mettler is in charge of the golf tournament that precedes it.

Evelyn Lacy is planning weekly tournaments for the coming months. Joyce Bookwalter, membership chairperson, is welcoming members to the growing club.

Here are December scores for the two tournaments.

Winner for low gross: Dorothy Praeger, 62 gross. She had a fantastic game with Birdies and Pars, no doubt.

Low Net: Meriam Laird, very good 72-26= 50.

Niners: Low Gross; Marge Kelly, 32B. Low net; Savinah Harpending, 38-16=22B.

Regulation golf and Leisure Village 3 par golf offer a great deal of pleasure and challenge for our lady golfers.

SAWDUSTERS CLUB

By Martin Alfred

The Sawdusters Club meets on the third Thursday of each month at 2:00p.m. in the Lanai Room and we invite anyone interested in woodworking to attend. If you are unfamiliar with power tools, the club is planning to have instruction sessions for neophytes. If you already have the know-how but have not been cleared to use the shop's equipment we can arrange that for you.

An exciting new project in the planning stage is a program to make toys for the Women's Club Trading Post and needy children in our area. So for woodworking fun and satisfaction, join us. For questions call Phil Farber at 482-0973 or Glenn Eidem at 987-4355.

MEN'S GOLF

By Herb Warneke

The news from the Men's Golf Club is that there is no news. Because of the holidays, there was no Mixed Couples Tournament or 19th Hole party in December. Then, much needed rain canceled the regulation golf tournament scheduled for Los Robles on January 5.

When you read this, January will be almost over, including the Mixed Couples and 19th Hole Chili Bowl on January 22. Next month will be busy, with regulation golf at Elkins on February 2, on the 7th the weekly tournament plus Super Seniors (75+) and a Super, Super tournament for those men 80 and over.

Also the women will host the Scotch Twosome on February 21 and 22, with Luncheon in the AR on the 22nd. If you don't have your tickets as you read this--hurry or you will miss out on a great time.

February 26 is the Mixed Couples Tournament and 19th Hole party hosted by the men. Finally, the second shoot-out and mini-picnic celebrating our 20th Anniversary will be held on February 28. Players were determined by drawing at the January 10 golf meeting.

CAMERA CLUBBy Sam Weinstein

Camera Club enters 1995 in excellent shape with experienced officers, gung-ho committee chairs and an active, interested membership. New officers are: Pres, Marion Sevren; VP, Howard Cohenour; Secy, Sam Brown and Treas, Milt Mankoff. Marion and Milt are hold-overs and we acknowledge with thanks their contributions during the past years as well as those of outgoing Vice President Lil Mankoff and Secretary Selma Seps.

The competition meeting on January 4 had the assignment "Street Scenes." The judge was Scott Nelson, a Camarillo professional photographer who specializes in commercial photography. It was Scott's first appearance at our club and we found him to be delightful, discerning and exuberant. He has a great sense of humor and his critiques never stung.

The winners in the "Street Scene" category were first place and Picture of the Month to Sam Weinstein for "Southwest Diner", second place to Duane Waln Jr. for "Extravaganza" and third place to Imogene Gregory for "Bergen Tram".

The winners in the "Open" category were first place and Picture of the Month to Duane Waln Jr. for "Aspen Glory", second place to Sam Weinstein for "Oiling the Hot-Box" and third place to Bill Huffman for "Make an Offer."

The Camera Club meets every first and third Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Village Room.

CERAMIC PLUS CLUBBy Don Holmes

The Ceramic Plus Club had its Annual catered luncheon yesterday. This is always a good "feed", and is combined with a short business meeting. Remember, Annual Dues are due!

PLAYERS GUILDBy Hunter Cohen

What a one-two punch! President Lorraine Kaplan followed by President Milt Mankoff!

Milt, our new president of Players Guild started out as a cantor and continued liturgical singing until, at age 16, his voice changed and he began entertaining at clubs as an emcee. His act included singing, monologues and comedy. He has performed on radio in New York City in the early 1930's. In the WPA theater, he was a man of all trades - stand-up comedy, directing, scenery, lighting and acting in a repertory company.

Marriage to Lil in 1940 dictated a career change but no change in his love of theater, opera, classical music and jazz.

After a Navy tour from 1942 to 1946, with service in the Pacific, they moved to California in 1950.

Leisure Village claimed them in 1989 and soon after there was involvement with the Players Guild -

HAPPY HOOVERSBy Dorothy Karlin

The Happy Hoovers entered the year of 1995 with members well and at-the-ready for all the events coming up. We are planning a trip to Palm Springs, to see the famous "Follies" performed by some senior ladies there. Also, we are planning to attend the March performance of Liza Minelli at the new performing arts center in Thousand Oaks.

The Hoovers are busily engaged in learning new routines and practicing and polishing old routines. Tap dancing is a great way to exercise and give the old brain a bit of work, too. Memorizing is good for the mentality, while tapping works out the muscles. If you would like to participate, the tapercise group meets every Monday at nine in the A.R. Come and join us so that you, too, can keep on dancin'!

work backstage, music for shows and varied duties in major productions. He was elected vice president in charge of monthly workshop programs and served in that capacity for two years. He joined the Thousand Oaks Library and used their resources for research and development of workshop programs.

Milt stated, "I look forward to a year of varied and interesting programs for our monthly meetings under the guidance of Jackie Solway. A core group of eight people has been formed and each one will take responsibility for a Workshop program."

"Plans are going ahead for our Spring production of "Damn Yankees," directed by Joan Johnson and we will be selecting a play for our Fall presentation."

Players Guild membership is open to all residents of the Village. Meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month in the AR at 7:30 p.m. Annual dues are now payable and should be brought to the next meeting.

WRITERS ROUND TABLEBy Cele Porges

Poetry opened the December meeting of the Writers Round Table. Poetry in all its forms was read and discussed.

The beginning reader was Jim Rogers who wrote a clever and humorous story "The Fruit-Fly Festival." Bernice Epstein read her tribute to a friend she had worked with and loved dearly. Joan Bernard gave another section of her memoirs about her great-grandfather, which she hopes will eventually become an historical novel. Hilda Zelanko concluded the readings with the continuation of her memoirs.

The group meets the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Please watch Channel 12 for meeting dates.

FARMERS CLUBBy Hunter Cohen

Whew! Anticipation has been replaced with realization. The best is yet to come - you are all invited to join the Farmers Club in admiring the plants as they grow. The new, safe paths will allow for an easy walk through "The Farm". We know that, as our guests, you will respect the fact that the plants are private property.

Club members are busy planning their gardens, starting seedlings, investigating new varieties, preparing the soil and dreaming of future harvests.

The University of California and the Santa Barbara Botanical Garden are offering free advice on pests and diseases, fertilizers and plant varieties. Call them at 645-1455 on Tuesdays or Thursdays between 2:00 and 5:00p.m.

Farmers look forward to more diversity in plantings in addition to the ever-present tomatoes. Bess Lopatin has plans for asparagus and garlic; Joe Kremer will be growing his famous corn; Elizabeth llovsky will have several varieties of peppers; other members will be growing lettuce, herbs, strawberries, onions, peas, beans, various squashes, broccoli and cabbage. It is amazing how much variety a small, well-planned garden patch can produce!

L. V. GARDEN CLUBBy Doris Achterkirchen

The Garden Club met on Thursday January 12 with Rosalie Ashburn, president, presiding. Georgia Schneider, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Jan Wasserman, a well-known bird-bander, who showed slides and birds of Leisure Village.

On Friday, February 3, the club will hold a card party in the AR. Doris Kadish and Lucille White are co-chairmen. There will be a social hour at 11:30 a.m. followed by a luncheon catered by Ethel Smith. At 1:00 p.m. there will be games and bridge. The cost is $8.00.

Profits from this party will go toward the Garden Club Beautification Fund. The gazebo area is a charming addition to the Village, and this event will help defray the cost. All villagers are welcome to attend the card party.

Annual dues are now being collected. They are $6.00 per person or $10.00 per couple.

L.V. TRADING POSTBy Irene Cunningham

The Trading Post has enjoyed the time off over the Holidays. Now we must once again turn our attention to collecting treasures from our Villagers and prepare for our first sale of 1995, Thursday February 2, 10:00 a.m. in the AR.

There is a wide variety of things to choose from; a bicycle, patio chairs, electric typewriter, large toaster oven, an assortment of flower pots, and things too numerous to mention.

For pickup of salable items, please call Betty 484-5606 or Irene 987-2627.

LEISURE VILLAGE CHORALEBy Sally Yale

Rehearsals will commence for a Spring Concert and members will be shown a video of the program the Chorale presented at the Women's Club Holiday meeting. Please bring all the old Chorale music and be prepared to sing.

President Miriam Hasen says we have a great theme for the next concert. Come join us if you love music and would like to sing with this active group.

THE LV ORCHESTRA

By Don Holmes

The Leisure Village Orchestra has resumed its regular Thursday night rehearsals, held in the MPR at 7:00. Some members have expressed an interest in the works of Vivaldi. Because we don't have any of his music, and no funds to purchase any, we are using the lighter classics of Handel, Beethoven and Mozart.

If you play an instrument, we urge you to come play with us. Just let me know far enough ahead so that I can get out music for you. We frequently have a couple of listeners who just drop in at rehearsals, so feel free to do that if you like.

We are scheduled to play at the Club Camarillo, a Senior Group, and at the convalescent hospitals. We also plan to play at Board meetings as we have done in the past.

THE GEM AND MINERAL CLUB

By Don Holmes

After the Gem and Mineral Club's Annual Christmas Party there was no more activity in December. At the January meeting Jack Bennett showed his slides of the Village trip to the Canadian Rockies, which was sponsored by the Travel Committee last August. The Club welcomes visitors.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, February 22 at 7:30 in the MPR.

New Name for CR

Henceforth, the "Club Room" will be known as the "Village Room." Name change was approved at December Board meeting.

RHYTHMETTES

By Margaret Hines

The Rhythmettes are practicing as usual every Tuesday. Holiday music is put away for now. The program now is to play for pleasure and see if anything special comes up.

The Rhythmettes sponsored a dinner-show on January 20. Everyone enjoyed the social time, the food, and especially the entertainment by Ken and Ginny Baker.

The Rhythmettes turn out for practice just for the pleasure of being together and improving their sound.

RACQUET CLUB

By Shirley Law

With a wine and cheese party to close the holiday season, the Racquet Club is now getting down to the business of 1995. Everyone is welcomed back to play and try out the courts which look beautiful since the resurfacing has been completed.

Gil Borenstein announced that paddle tennis lessons for beginners and intermediates will resume on Wednesday, January 18 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on the paddle tennis courts. Gil, David Ovadia, George Nolte and Stan Feldman will instruct.

Plans were announced for the upcoming annual tennis and paddle tennis tournament with Mission Viejo which will be held in L.V. on the weekend of April 22. Jerry Doctrow will chair the tournament and decide partners according to their expertise. George Nolte will handle the paddle tennis and Ben Miller the tennis games. Lenny Friedman is in charge of travel arrangements and plans for the April 22 dinner-dance. More details about the tournament in coming months.

The Racquet Club meets the 2nd Wednesday of the month; the next meeting is February 14, St. Valentine's Day. Refreshments will be served.

LV EXERCISE GROUP

By Lillian Mankoff

Members of the LV Exercise Group are looking forward to activities being planned for their enjoyment in the new year. A boat trip from the Ventura Harbor is scheduled for March 6th (cost is $18.00 per person) to view the annual migration of the whales as they travel south to Baja California. Bring a picnic lunch to enjoy at the end of the trip.

On March 17 we will travel to Santa Anita Racetrack for a "Day at the Races." The $15.00 for each person covers bus transportation from the Village, admission fees and program.

We are encouraged to learn that plans are moving ahead for rebuilding the poolside cabana damaged in the earthquake last January.

No matter the vagaries of the weather, our invigorating, healthful and fun-filled exercise program continues Mon-Fri from 8:30 to 9:00 a.m. poolside, or in the AR if it rains. Everyone is welcome!

SELF AWARENESS GROUP

By Maxine Fritz

The Self Awareness Group meets every Monday in the Lanai from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Self awareness involves change. The change in one's self, not in anyone else. One realizes that is the only change possible. However, many times those closest to us change as a result of our change in attitude and behavior.

Expecting others to change and blaming others for one's unhappiness is futile. Happiness is a personal responsibility.

Marriage is in style! L.V. Lifeguard for 3 1/2 years, Shelly Richardson, and Sergeant Jerry Runge are pictured at their wedding on November 5, 1994, at the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church. Sgt. Runge, who has been on the L.V. Security Staff for about nine years, met Shelly at the pool on his "patrols." This is a neat combination, with both the Runiges in the business of keeping L.V. safe and secure. Villagers wish them happiness.

Frank Goldstein, Survivor And Radio Pioneer

By Herman Waltzer

There have been a number of fortuitous circumstances in the life of Frank Goldstein of Village 37, which enabled him to survive terrible deprivation and physical abuse as an American Prisoner of War in the Philippines and, later, Japan. These included a hair-raising escape from Bataan to Corregidor, thereby avoiding notorious atrocities such as the infamous Death March, cooperation of the Japanese military with U.S. medical officers permitting him to receive proper treatment for serious wounds, woolen underwear sent to him in a Red Cross gift package while he was exposed to tropical heat and humidity.

After induction into the Army in 1940, Frank was assigned to the Tank Corps in Fort Knox, Ky. There he installed and repaired communication equipment in tanks. His unit was sent to the Philippines in late 1941. After the beginning of hostilities, the unit was sent to the southern part of Bataan to counter possible enemy landings. When the hopelessness of the military situation became very obvious, Frank conceived the idea of using one of the boats in the area to evacuate the troops. The members of his unit then commandeered a thirty foot vessel used for transporting drinking water. Eighty one soldiers were cramped into the craft. Almost miraculously, they were able to make their way to Corregidor through heavily mined waters. Frank used his knowledge of Morse Code to communicate by visual signals with Naval forces on Corregidor. Naval personnel were thereby able to guide the vessel through the mined waters by flashing signals visible to the ship. Frank received the Bronze Star for this exploit.

On Corregidor, he was assigned to beach defense as a machine gunner. Shortly before the surrender of Corregidor, Frank was severely wounded. After a stay of 13 months in the prison hospital he was sent to Clark Air Force Base to dig revetments in temperatures exceeding 100 degrees, with correspondingly high humidity. There he lost four front teeth as a result of a beating by guards. At this time, Frank received a Red Cross gift package from home containing heavy woolen underwear among other goodies. Actually, this undergarment helped him cope with the cold of northern Japan where he was later sent.

In 1944, Frank was aboard a freighter with one thousand others packed "as sardines," headed for Japan. He spent 14 days in the hold of this "Hell" ship under unimaginably horrible sanitary conditions. To everyone's amazement, all survived the voyage. It was even more incredible since many Japanese ships in the immediate vicinity were torpedoed by U.S. submarines.

Half of the group of 1,000, including Frank, were sent by train to the mountains of northern Honshu for work in copper mines. In this rigorous cold climate, the woolen underwear was no longer a joke but a very useful item. From Autumn 1944 to late Summer 1945, the prisoners performed heavy labor in the mines. Eight prisoners died during this period from malnutrition, tuberculosis, and accidents.

After the Japanese capitulation, the ex-prisoners were sent to the Philippines for rest and recuperation. At this time, Frank weighed 98 pounds. He feels to this day that he died during his imprisonment and was reborn upon his liberation.

After his honorable discharge in 1946, Frank studied electronic engineering. Following graduation he worked for Admiral Corp. as a design engineer. Later, he and several associates formed an FM Radio Transmitting station, one of the first in the nation. Several years later, Frank was employed by the Victor Adding Machine Company, Chicago, in the development of electronic components. He and spouse Shirley moved to Leisure Village after retiring from Victor in 1980.

Frank had been interested in radio communications since his early teens. At the age of 16, after successfully passing a Morse Code and Radio test, he received a license from the Federal Radio Commission (forerunner of the present Federal Communications Commission).

Later he received proficiency certificates including one for communicating with persons in one hundred countries.

When he moved to the Village, Frank wanted to renew his interest in amateur "ham" radio. However at the time of his relocation here, no amateur "ham" radios were allowed due to protruding antennas. Later, he became aware of several residents who had managed to operate "ham" radios by placing the antenna in the attic. He then installed a "ham" radio in his home. Since completing the installation, Frank has been in contact with other "Ham" operators from far flung locations. He also shares this fascinating hobby with other members of the L.V. Amateur Radio Club.

According to Frank, the fun is gone from today's amateur "ham" radio. In earlier days, transmitting and receiving systems were assembled component by component, whereas modern counterparts can be purchased only as complete assemblies.

His other interests include computers. He also bakes excellent bagels, according to his wife Shirley.

Finally, Frank's survival and subsequent life as a productive member of society is indeed a tribute to his resilience in the face of extreme hardship.
