

My Darling -

My mind and body act for you.

I am content with nothing for you are not here. All these days with you I cherish beyond words. You make me so happy here. I feel your every controlled breath, sense the pins and need, I see you racing ahead at your commands.

I love you my darling. This thing of time which we ~~are~~ speak of last winter is a barrier - but one of wealth.

What's our goal to conquer and then we will be free to open to ourselves.

Go to it my darling. I will try with all my might to bring back to my S. J. normal me - being a distance from you - but not apart.

Realization that I'm ~~can~~ close to me tens and full self when I can feel the secret ~~and~~ model of buildings, void of crowds, when I can turn about and touch endless view of billboard story. If I could but visit each man and take an hour like, replace the stone with your feet, touch your hand...

Thank you so much for sharing me up series.

At this moment I need to actually catch something - and that is smoking for he knows my thought & it is part of you.

Yours
Peterson
