Paramedics Are Here To Stay

Every citizen of L.V., Camarillo, and its outlying areas owes a great vote of thanks to Anthony Manzella, V. 11, who has spent 4 years, almost to the day, bringing the Paramedics Program to us. He began July 1, 1978 when he became Chairman of the L.V. Public Service Committee. The last payment of $27,000 was made to Pruner Ambulance on July 2, 1982.

During this time, Anthony was assisted by many people but it was he and his wife, Mary (who handled the telephone, correspondence, and financial records), who spent the whole 4 years on this project.

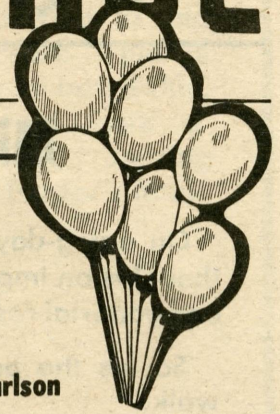

The first step was Candidates' Night, October, 1978 when Supervisor Ed Jones was prevailed upon to lend his public support and personal help to establish the campaign.

Donald Pruner of Pruner Ambulance, sat in on many planning sessions and a non-profit corporation was formed. Paramedics for Camarillo Incorporated, was certificated July 30, 1978. Anthony was later named Chairman of the Board.

$90,000 was needed. The methods of raising the money were many. Some were: personal appeals, door-to-door calls, letters on car windshields, appeals to business and industry, participation at fiestas, an automobile raffle, film sales, the collection box in the Village Rec. Center.

By March 5, 1980, $45,000 was raised and delivered to Pruner Ambulance who agreed to initiate the service and accept the balance as it could be raised. The average population of L.V. during these 4 years

CIRCUS BAZAAR Is Coming To Town

By Jeanne Carlson

The circus is coming to town! The L.V. Women's Club has chosen a circus theme for the annual Bazaar which will be held Saturday and Sunday, September 25 and 26.

There will be wild animals (stuffed), clowns (toys), entertainment every hour, a side show, refreshment stands: all under the Big Top (the A.R.)! The W.C. Workshop has worked since January preparing items for sale. In addition to the popular hand-made toys, there will be holiday decorations. The Needlework booth will have a big selection of gifts. Everything is hand-made and a bargain at uninflated prices. Trading Post will also be open with special large merchandise; and that's another chance at bargains.

A raffle will be part of the Sunday program. Tickets are now on sale (50¢) at all entertainment events. First prize is three days at a Palm Springs condominium on the golf course; second is a custom garment; third is an afghan; fourth is $25 in cash!

The club depends on the Bazaar as its main source of income for the year. Profits are always divided equally between local charity and Leisure Village. Some recent donations have been the new benches throughout the Village; funds have also been given to Hospice, Camarillo Boys' and Girls' Club, Interface and Tony Lamb's special emergency funds.

Do plan to come to the circus for fun, bargains, and the knowledge that good things are being done!

75 Pioneers Attend Luncheon

By Mildred Oberg

Manager David Houghton, praised the Pioneers Thursday noon, July 22nd, in the auditorium as being the group responsible for the success of Leisure Village. "Without the Pioneers there would be no Leisure Village today", he said to the group of 75 assembled for luncheon to celebrate a reunion. The Wagonmasters Mr. and Mrs. George Holtfrerich arranged for a delicious lunch which was served by Lorraine Nelson and assistants. The dec-was 3,000 while that of the service area was about 50,000. The recorded amount of contributions from L.V. was $23,274.41 and some contributions were made through other channels.

Anthony Manzella says, "May God keep us all in good health. However, if in need, may we thank God for Paramedics For Camarillo, Inc. We say, "Thank you too, Anthony!"

orations were done by Mrs. Rachel Holtfrerich, Helen and Gordon Nash, Ruth and Donald Jay, and Mildred and E.B. Oberg with baskets of fresh flowers on each table and pioneer items on the stage.

During the Happy Hour at 11:30 a.m. members enjoyed organ music by Nell Crane, the display on the stage and seeing old friends again.

After the lunch, Wagonmaster Holtfrerich introduced Mr. Houghton, who gave us a brief update report on the Village. Nell Crane played a medley on familiar songs. Piff DeSimone sang a nostalgic song (with her own words about pioneers). Nora Gardner (of Village 11) was honored as the oldest member there. She gave some special words of wisdom on the peace of old age. Credits go to Jack East, and to the ticket sellers: Ruth and Don Jay, Village 8, Nancy and Walt Whitaker, Village 6, Marian and Frank Tavano, Village 9, and Elaine and Paul Sopko in Village 11 for a very successful affair.

Mid-Summer Daydream

On a dog-day August afternoon it is difficult to focus one's thoughts on important matters. Yet there is a deadline to meet and editorial responsibilities to fulfill.

So, as the probability theorists say, let's take a "random walk."

What with following the daily war bulletins from Lebanon, noting the yoyo stock market nervously reacting inversely to the rise and fall of interest rates, happily marking the absence -- at least for the day -- of the thundering jet planes bound for Pt. Mugu and mulling over the 15 statewide ballot propositions that will confound the voters on November 2nd -- all these tidbits and more are enough to inspire one to seek relief at the nearby Camarillo State Hospital.

Hospital? Or prison? Perhaps the Mayor's $5,000-funded "task force" has the answer.

But don't bet on it.

SERENDIPITY IS THE NAME FOR IT

In 1754 Horace Walpole wrote a tale which he called "The Three Princes of Serendip". It was a fantasy about three princes who were sent by their father on a quest for something which I have forgotten and it doesn't matter here anyhow. They never found the object of that quest, but they encountered so many unexpected pleasures along the way that the word "serendipity" was coined to fill a need in the English body of language.

Sometimes it is only in retrospect that we realize that just such pleasures have happened to us. So it has been with my retirement and me. Oh, like anyone else, I had looked forward to the pleasure of not having to go to work every day whether I felt like it or not. I had happily anticipated moving to the same town where my son and his family live. In L.V., I was going to do oil painting and ceramics, filling my own house with masterpieces and having lots left over for Christmas presents. I would write about my childhood, and the grandparents, aunts and uncles, cousins and the family lore I have been taught. This would be a valuable heritage for my children and grandchildren. Oh what a useful and creative old age I would live!

It hasn't worked out quite that way. Children and grandchildren now live many miles away. I have not made a single pot nor painted one picture. I have written some things about my family that have been considered well-done and interesting by professionals, but these are a long way from being complete.

What has happened is that I have found me. This is not to say that I had ever considered myself 'lost' as psychologists say kids are today. I always have known who I am and what my roots are. I also have had more goals than I could possibly fulfill. Alone, I had reared three children of whom I was proud. I had at least an adequate sense of personal worth most of the time. However lately, I have come to realize, that in all those years I had found no time to just be myself. Even reading I had snatched, hurriedly and guilt-laden; mostly short articles and condensed versions of novels.

Now with the clearest conscience in the world, I can and do read (and sometimes re-read) the longest of novels with my bed unmade and dishes in the sink. (Having nobody around to care CAN become a gratifying experience if you use it right.)

That's pure serendipity!

Without the pressures of a living to earn or children to rear, and having discarded many established routines I have freed myself to daydream a little and to explore a world that is almost as free as I remember it from my early childhood. There is now no guilt attached to wasting time. Time belongs to me. There is the chance to do the things that I really want to do and I can do them if I eliminate all those non-essentials which I never wanted to do in the first place. Even more importantly, when economic reasons for seeing some people socially are removed I can choose to see only those friends that I really enjoy. I can practice true friendship, my way. There is the time to think about each day and what I want to do with it. Now as never before, I can care about myself and the people I love.

That is what a happy retirement is all about. It comes with the freedom to choose and the leisure to use that choice. What a marvelous opportunity.

That is a wonderful word, Mr. Walpole. Serendipity. Thank you for making it up.

Frances

Read a License Plate Lately?

By Eva Divin

Of late friends mention deriving fun while driving by reading the words or statements spelled out on license plates on cars ahead of them. Something available, we understand, by special order through DMV for a mere $25.

Have you noted the one in the Village that reads RIC HEL? Or the companionable HE AND ME? Someone swears he saw a single, exuberant (or frantic?) JO! Then there is the devout one that asserts 4 GOD, while an apparent young couple brags FIRST KID. And we must have a clothes horse in the area, else why would he have ordered MR CHIC?

Good old American Enterprise seems to have pounced upon the fad as a fine way to advertise. It must be a laundromat that assures us of 24 DRYERS, while someone in construction claims I BILD IT. Then yesterday, I heard my favorite, along with its accompanying story.

A wife told her darling that

PROFILE:

To Help and to Serve — The Gordons

By Jeanne Carlson

When any Village family has a problem of long-term illness, someone is sure to say, "Why don't you call Marion Gordon and ask her advice?" Helping is what Marion does constantly and best. "My main value to the Village," she says, "is simply to act as a referral person in nursing home care." There is more to it than that. •

When Marion was a small girl in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, her mother was already a chronic invalid, nearly blind and with a lifetime of illness ahead of her. The young girl saw a need and as soon as she was old enough, studied nursing and earned a degree of R.N. from Mt. Sinai Hospital in Milwaukee. She has spent her whole life in helping.

The day that ILV interviewed the Gordons was the 65th birthday of Marvin Gordon. As a sidelight, Marion said that she had also helped him celebrate his 19th birthday when she was a high school senior and he was a freshman at Marquette University. They were married five years later. Marvin Gordon has spent 32 years as a highly successful insurance agent. Many of the trips that they have enjoyed were the result of his winning sales contests. He has also devoted himself to supporting Marion's career. He says simply that he is very proud of her work; he has caught the helping habit from her. Their two daughters, Jeanne, a social worker, and Arlene, a speech pathologist, follow the family tradition of service.

Although Marion worked as a nurse for several years at Columbia Hospital, she realized she was more interested in the problems of the chronically ill, the handicapped and the aging, than in regular nursing.

She then served several years as Director of Occupational Evaluation for Goodwill Industries, as Special Rehabilitation Counselor in Physical Restoration for Curative Workshop, and finally as Director of Nurses at St. John's Home, Milwaukee. The latter is a model combination of several types of care for the elderly: residential, supervised and outpatient care, and full-time nursing home. Marion offered workshops, taught and trained nurses, and also obtained a B.S. in Health Arts from the College of Saint Francis at Joliet, Illinois. All during this time she took care of her mother, her own family and her home.

At her retirement party from St. John's in 1979, Marion told the guests, "My immediate plans are to attempt retirement, but within several months I expect to find an outlet for my energies in a field relative to gerontology on a part-time basis."

The Gordons had already purchased their handsome home in Village 17 some time before. They had hardly moved in before Marion was looking for her "outlet". She found it.

In L.V. Marion works closely with the Your Neighbors Care Group in the Blood Pressure Program. She is in charge of the nursing unit of the Emergency Services Committee, a sub-committee of Security and Safety. She is also a member of Community Relations Committee.

Within the Ventura County community, Marion belongs to the following: the Area Association on Aging, an alternate delegate and a member of the Camarillo Council on Aging. She is a member of the Health Services Agency Task Force on Alternatives to Long-Term Care, Committee for Mental Health Outreach Program, Advisory Council Ventura County Ombudsman Program and Dos Caminos Advisory Task Force.

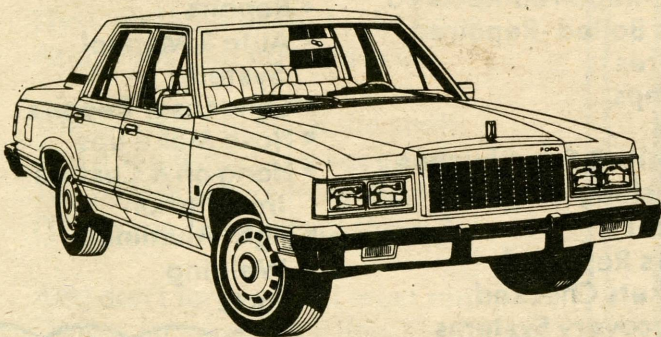

All this background gives Marion practical knowledge of the health resources of Ventura County. She understands the mysteries of Medicare and Social Security. She knows what aid is available to the handicapped and how to go about getting it.

One such instance is the Task Force on Alternatives to Long-Term Care. Everyone wants the best possible care for relatives, friends, or themselves. For this reason Marion works hard with this group.

It should be said first that nursing homes have suffered a "bad press". But often they represent the very best care for the individual. People tend to be critical of them for two main reasons: 1) The severe illness they see on visiting these homes makes them apprehensive; 2) The guilt, frequently quite undeserved, which people feel when they place someone in such an institution, hurts them. Often the fact that there are more people around with whom to interact causes the lonely patient to improve and experience some degree of recovery. Marion feels that the nursing homes with religious or fraternal affiliations are sometimes (not always) the best ones because there is a specifically-related Board of Directors in charge.

The Task Force has a list of seven needed services in Ventura County which would make it possible for many patients to stay in their own homes. These are:

- 1) Adult Day Care Health Centers which would provide for out-patient treatment and therapy in a community setting.
- 2) Adult Day Care, ie., social and structured programs also in a community setting.
- 3) Alcoholism services: counseling and treatment.
- 4) Drug abuse education and counseling. This is for drug abuse which comes from over-medication and not following prescription directions, or from taking too many different drugs.
- 5) Support Services Pool, ie., household help, volunteer, publicly or community supported workers, or even other senior citizens.

6) Senior food and sundry cooperative stores with lower prices.

7) Grocery and medicine delivery.

It is easy to see that some of these ideas might help Leisure Village. Items 1 and 2 might be very important.

The Omsbudsman Program began in the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, in the early 70's. In 1978 it became law: The Older Americans Act. Federal funding was given to states to devise advocacy programs on behalf of patients in long-term care. Members of this service work as liaison between the 17 nursing facilities of the county and the public. When complaints or problems arise, they can be settled by investigation and compromise.

The Dos Caminos Advisory Task Force offers much potential for L.V. and the community. Pleasant Valley Hospital hopes to build a geriatric center in several stages to fill a marked community need. The first stage would be a 99-bed long-term care unit which would be constructed in connection with the present acute-care hospital. A second stage would add a residential or congregate housing unit. All levels would be able to make use of all hospital out-patient facilities. Such a plan is under way but there are many problems to be solved before any real action begins.

All these outside meetings, study, speeches, plus the many calls for help within L.V. make Marion a very busy lady. She does not just attend these meetings, she works hard at whatever she does. To meet this gentle person with the calm voice and sweet manner is reassuring.

Marvin says his wife is gone about three days a week with her meetings and assisting Villagers who need advice or information on techniques in Yankee Doodle took first place in our July program. It was the choice of at least four performers. And, yes, we did have our usual requests for, "New York, New York".

Tomorrow, August 27, 1982, we will salute summer time.

Sunday, August 8, the club sponsored a concert by Del Castillo, a prominent guest organist. A good crowd heard a wide selection of music and enjoyed it very much. A highlight was a duet with Bill Million, a local performer, at the piano with Mr. Castillo at the organ. They then reversed instruments and played another duet.

It was a lovely summer concert and we hope to have them more often.

Besides the noble art of getting things done, there is the noble art of leaving things undone. The wisdom of life consists in the elimination of nonessentials.

The true value of horse sense is shown by the fact that the horse was afraid of the auto during that period when the pedestrian laughed at him.

Current Issues Forum

By Harry Becker

About 275 Villagers attending the July 30th meeting of the Current Issues Forum heard Mike Farrell, former Wisconsin State Legislator, describe the program of People for the American Way, the organization founded by writer and producer Norman Lear to protect First Amendment rights.

The meeting opened with the showing of Lear's film, "The Moral Majoritarians". The picture vividly portrayed the views of the Radical Religious Right (notably Jerry Falwell, Pat Robertson, and others), favoring book censorship and political action directed against the American pluralistic society.

Farrell said the moral majoritarians have a right to express themselves, but they should not impose their views on others.

October 1:-- On this date, in lieu of a September meeting, the Forum is planning a debate on the proposed California Handgun Registration law.

The Forum meets at 7:30 p.m. in the AR. All Villagers and their guests are invited.

Audience participation in the discussion was quite lively and in general agreement with the statements of the speaker.

Counting Calories

By Lillian Wallace

I have a list of calories
 That I must read each day
 It tells me how much I can eat
 And what to push away.

It shows the carbohydrates
 The proteins I should know
 The supplements that I can have
 And foods that I should grow.

The vitamins to stack the shelf
 The fresh fruits I can squeeze
 The health drinks to be made at home
 (There are long lists of these.)

And don't forget that I must run
 Or jog, so much each day.
 And when I bend, it's from the hips
 To touch the floor that way.

I know, I can go on and on
 And quote from books I've read
 But, I'm so tired and hungry
 I'll do it from my bed.

One thing for sure, the time is now
 If I can have my way -
 I'm going to eat a chocolate bar
 And hate myself all day.

home care. How wonderful it is to find someone who understands insurance forms, can interpret the statements of benefits, or can find places for long-term or specialized care.

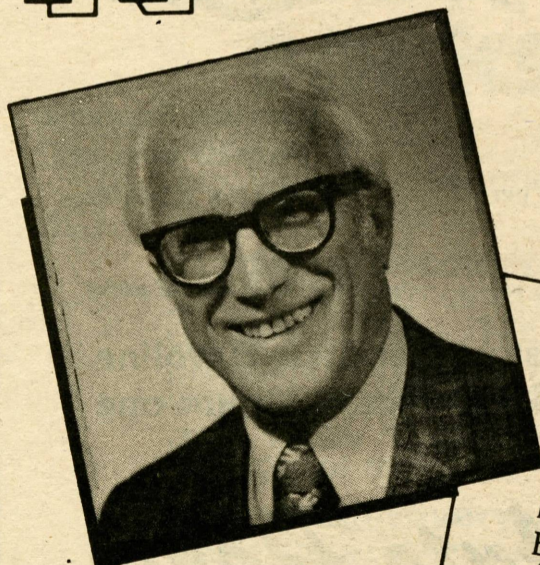

The future application of gerontology (the scientific study of aging as opposed to geriatrics, the medical care of the aging) is Marion's main interest. L.V. cherishes the many retired nurses living here who devote many hours to volunteer health care. But Marion Gordon's special knowledge is invaluable.

The Gordons' retirement is really no retirement at all. When Marvin is not answering the telephone (a big job in this household), he devotes himself to gardening, golf, and the Camera Club (of which he is a past president). When Marion has free time, she shares in the golfing and camera enthusiasms. They both love music and travel. Only recently they returned from a two-week stay in Denver where they took care of three grandsons, an activity for which the oldest boy told them they should have received the Medal of Honor.

Marion Gordon's career is really a living memorial to her mother. Her expertise and dedication have helped and will continue to help everyone who asks. She once wrote a sentence that applies to both her and her husband: "To play a role in the improvement of another's condition is indeed a privilege."

WORLD TRAVELERS
LEISURE VILLAGE

By Lee Edwards

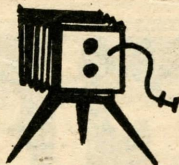

Our August General meeting featured a special presentation on HAWAII. We saw an interesting film, and Pepper Dabby of Avante Travel Service, gave us all the details on our 15 days, 14 nights HAWAIIAN TRIP, which is leaving October 25. She told us that while the price is now reduced to $995.00 per person, we will be staying in better hotels, and more meals and sightseeing is included, as well as all flights and transportation from LV to LAX and return. The trip includes 4 nights Waikiki, 3 nights Maui, 2 nights Kona, 2 nights Hilo and 3 nights Kauai. Pay $100 deposit now, final payment by September 15.

Hal Convissar reported that our next General Meeting will be Friday, September 3rd at 7:30 pm in the A.R., and will feature MEXICO. We have planned a very special 7 days, 6 nights trip to MAZATLAN, December 8 to 14, staying at the Playa Mazatlan for only $399. per person, including airfare and transportation to LAX.

Helen Behrman told us that she is working on a trip to CHINA in May 1983, price will be around $2,700, and will feature 16 days in China and 4 days in Hongkong.

A member of the audience asked about other trips scheduled for this summer. They are: EUROPEAN EXPLORER, a repeat of our popular trip last spring, departing August 28 for 22 days, 7 countries, $1,995.00. SUMMER SEAS: Departing September 11 for 15 days from $1,932., 3 nights Madrid, 3 nights Barcelona and a 7-day cruise from Barcelona thru the Western Mediterranean. LEGENDARY LANDS: Departing October 15 for 18 days from $2,460.00. A special cruise to Greek Islands, Egypt and Turkey on the MS ITALIA for 14 days, and also including 3 nights in Copenhagen

REMEMBER, it is IMPORTANT that you sign up promptly.

CLUB

By Charles Possel

Camera Club had a good response from members on the questionnaire regarding programs and would like more since the program committee needs feedback to plan future activities.

The slide presentation at our August meeting was an awesome display of the power of nature's forces. The volcanic eruptions of Mount St. Helen, photographed by the U.S. Forestry Service, impressed us with the havoc wrought by this cataclysm. Chuck Mears helped obtain the slides and loaned us the sound projector.

Our dues structure has been changed so that the one amount applies to a family. They are now payable.

President Irving Kaplan appointed Harold Convissar, Dr. Rankin McIntyre, and Gene Spalinger to the planning committee.

See our picture of the month in the lobby of the Recreation Center.

By Charles Possel

In response to a question by Villagers, the Ceramic Club certifies that the objects displayed in the case in the Atrium were designed, crafted and made from scratch by the members of our club. They were made from raw clay and bisqued, glazed and fired again in the kilns in the Ceramic Room. We welcome visitors any Thursday morning from 9 a.m. until noon.

New officers for next year Al Pachter, Pres.; Phil Farber, Vice-Pres.; Dorothy Wisehart, Sec., and Charles Possel, Treas.; will serve our needs. Next meeting will be on September 2 when Joe Polia, program chairman, will present an interesting program.

GROUP

By Jeanne Carlson

In spite of heat and vacations, Book Review Group has continued with a series of excellent and well-attended reviews.

Space did not permit mention of the July super-review by Grace Back who covered Joan Fontaine's "No Bed of Roses". As always, Grace was outstanding. August featured Co-Coordinator Betty Tytler in a report on "The Biggest Company on Earth", A Profile of A.T. and T." by Sonny Kleinfeld. Betty has an extensive business and financial background and chose the perfect book for her skills. This was a thoroughly interesting book and review.

Members can also look forward to September when Josh Fallick of Village 3, reads some of his original poetry and displays the striking photography with which he matches his poems. Josh gave a similar program last year and all who heard him were impressed with his work. His photos are on display now at Santa Barbara Savings.

Book Review meets the second Wednesday of each month. The next meeting will be Wednesday, September 8, at 10:00 a.m. in the W.C.R. Everyone is welcome!

VILLAGE
WORKSHOP

By Millicent Hofmann

Roles have been assigned for the Broadway hit, "You Can't Take it With You", by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart, to be presented on the evenings of Nov. 11 through the 14th, under the direction of John Zoller, assisted by producer, Sylvia Altes. Rehearsals will begin in September.

Featured at the Players' August meeting will be guest speaker Mr. Charlie Davis, affiliated with the Thousand Oaks Conejo Players.

SCRABBLE
CLUB

By Pearl Greenfield

The Scrabble Players Club has moved into new quarters together with a change in meeting days. We are now meeting on the second and fourth Monday of each month in the M.P.R.

Our July 24 meeting was very well attended, especially by Village 42. Yolana Lipscher won the first prize for the highest total score for the two games played. Ann Pierce, on her first day of club play, won second prize. Pearl Greenfield won a prize for the highest single work score.

We welcome your participation. You will find players at all levels as well as handouts designed to improve your game. Pearl and Murray Greenfield are always available to answer your questions and to help you.

Join us for an interesting, educational, and competitive evening.

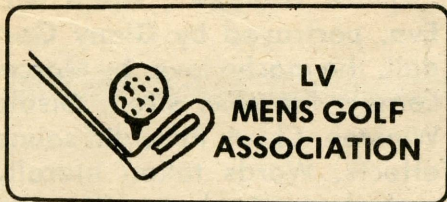

Village Painters

By Carmen Read

Clara Smith, V. 8 presented an informative demonstration on making brass rubbings in the traditional English style at the Club's monthly meeting.

Following Clara Smith's presentation, the Village Painters had a demonstration on canvas stretching. This method uses a plain support frame made of smooth pine wood. The support frame and the canvas stretching requires equipment which costs about $100. However, the canvas does not require a decorative outer frame and, according to the demonstrator, the canvas can be painted on both sides and used as an area divider in a room

Thursday, August 5th, the Village Painters held a luncheon at the Mercury Bank. Miriam Harolde of Village 6 gave the demonstration in oil portrait painting, which delighted her audience. Miriam pitched in to substitute for the scheduled artist who suffered a death in the family. Thank you, Miriam. You saved the day.

Saturday, July 10, the Bocce Club had a very successful Bake Sale in the M.P.R.

The roofing of the arbor at the courts is completed and gives good shade. Come out and watch, or play during the summer evenings.

Our General Meeting, July 29, included Men's Doubles Tournament Awards presented by Hy Harris to: 1st place, Sam Bearman and Joe Baker; 2nd, Ray Fencil and Gabriel Catalogne; 3rd, Joe Carfagna and Tony Mayer. Women's awards presented by Joe Carfagna went to: 1st place, Mary Chesney and Pat Salem; 2nd, Carmen Read and Maxine LaPorte; 3rd, Mitzi Brockman and Emily Rapp.

Hy Harris and Joe Carfagna teach Bocce every Tuesday and Thursday, 2 p.m. respectively.

At the end of the meeting, Entertainment Chairwoman Marguerite Abdelnour introduced the delightful Camarillo Darlings, drill and dance team, who entertained an appreciative audience.

We will have a film on John Muir's Yosemite for our August 26 meeting.

Billiard Club

By Joe Carfagna

At the Billiard Club's July meeting, a target date of September 12 was chosen for the start of the Tournament. It was determined that contestants would be paired from random drawings of Group A (more experienced) and Group B (less experienced). The entry fee was to be $1.00 for each contestant. The drawing took place Tuesday, August 10th.

Club members present unanimously voted to amend the By-Laws to indicate new classification of officers as follows: Pres., Vice-Pres., Treas., Rec. Sec., and Corr. Sec. A letter of intent and a copy of the By-Laws as amended will be delivered to Ann Johnson, Education and Recreation Director.

By Will Schreiber

154 members of Shuffleboard Club attended the summer barbeque and enjoyed the excellent hamburgers prepared by chefs Nick DeSimone and Walt Whitaker, together with all the fixings including Dorothea (Dot) Fuller's Famous Baked Beans. Thanks go also to the ticket sellers, the cake bakers, the servers, the ticket takers, and the cleanup people.

The event brought to a close the dedicated efforts of our 1981-82 Pres. Orpha Hughes, who turned the gavel over at our July 6 meeting to Bee Schreiber. Other officers installed were: Louise Colbert, Vice Pres.; Bert Kunz who continues as Sec.; Harding and Marie Simons, joint Treas. and Membership Chairpersons; and Will Schreiber, Publicity Chairman.

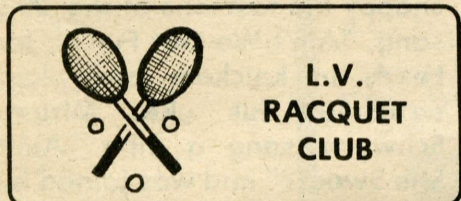

The Aug. 3rd meeting was the first full meeting conducted by Bee Schreiber and she was complimented by many. As first business, Bee presented a well-deserved plaque to Orpha Hughes, outgoing President.

The inscription read, "In appreciation for your diligence and efficiency in leading our club during your second term as President". The large trophy with the added plates of names of the winners of the May tournament was on display.

It was decided that when team play starts on Thursday evenings, each player will decide whether to take part in team play or individual competition. Howard Bell will supervise the team play.

Instead of the barbeque planned for September 30th, we will run three tournaments, men's, women's, and mixed doubles in September and trophies will be awarded at a catered luncheon in October. Dates and places will be announced soon. Will Schreiber will supervise the tournaments.

There is a need for copies of the Official Rules of the California Shuffleboard Association and we will try to acquire enough for everyone.

By Anne Janoff

The tournaments continue to highlight Racquet Club monthly activities. Winners for the month of July were: Paddle Tennis (a) Doug Ross and Jerry Banchik. (b) Walt Zukerman and Damon Durham. (c) Bob Chass and Lou Dektor. Tennis (a) Al Siegel and Leo Gardarian. (b) Jerry Doctrow and Jack Slusser. (c) Zo Simmons and Art Rosner.

Due to the growing popularity of paddle tennis, an innovative "novice" category was added to the August tournaments. Novice entrants are: Dorothy Alexandre, Dene Dunn, Marty Fanta, Maxine King, Sid Leppy, Faith Saunders. Lou Saunders. Zita Wayne, Rose Woronow, Eddie Herberts, Oscar Shepard, Bea Shepard, Emil Sitka.

The next meeting will be a luncheon on Tuesday, September 14, at Mercury Savings & Loan, 12 noon. Guest speaker Stan Taylor Jr., President of Ventura County Paddle Tennis Association, will present important information. Free drawing for paddles and other surprises will also take place.

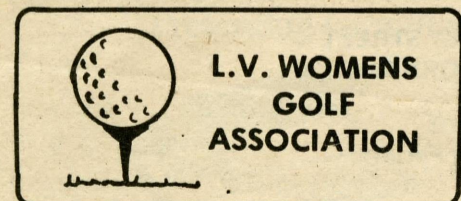

Sign-up sheets for forthcoming paddle and tennis tournaments are posted on the bulletin board.

Looking ahead, our Fall social event, a dinner dance at the Officers Club Pt. Mugu, is being planned for October 9.

quaint new members with rules, handicaps, and tournament play. Henrietta Britebart won a year's club membership.

In order to make the "Golf Shack" more comfortable for those who do the scoring, the Women's Golf Club has purchased window-shades, a window screen, a fan, and a heater. The Women's Rest Room was also repaired.

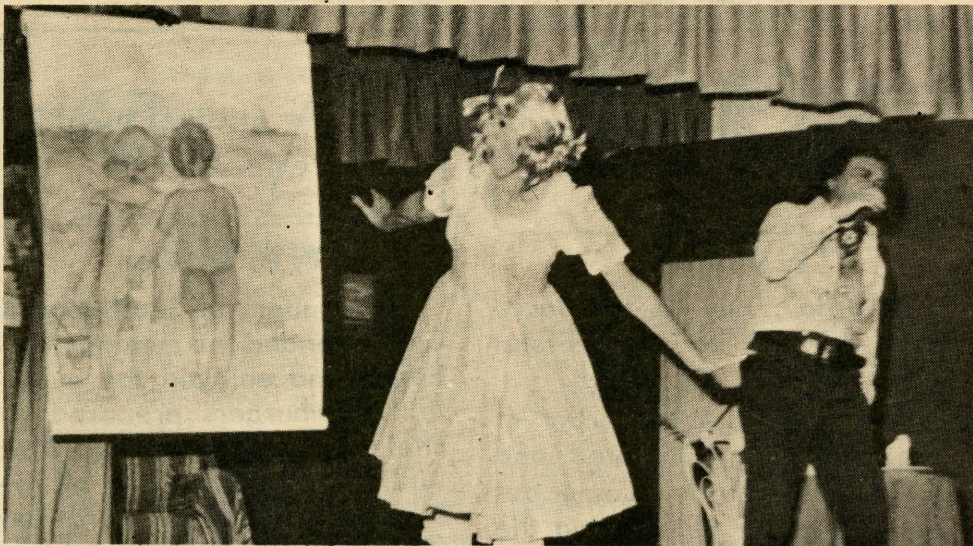

The last Sunday of the month, the Men and Women's Tournament will be on and will be followed by the 19th Hole Party in the A.R. Everybody come!

The Summer fare of the Variety Guild, "Those Fabulous Decades" was presented August 12 in the A.R. to a capacity audience. Gaiety was the mood of the evening with 10¢ root beer and popcorn at Intermission.

The opening was by the Arthur Kates Combo (Art Kates, Carl Lowenthal, Norman Fleming, Jerry Robbins, and Freda Drezner), playing favorite melodies to an enthusiastic audience. Pianists Rawza Kates, Bill Marvel, and Freda Drezner accompanied the singers.

Heidi Pommer directed the first act, a melodrama with most exaggerated pantomime.

Dorothy Karlin introduced Elaine Shainhouse who sang, "She Is More To Be Pitied Than Censored", accompanied by Pauline Shenkman. As narrator, Dorothy, in dramatic fashion, proceeded to tell of the "Square Triangle". There was Eva, portrayed by Ginny Cordell; the macho lover by Marcel Lerner; the sexy siren, Gisele Winston. Chuck Puro did sound effects. Words taken literally and dramatized, ie. "turning pale" was turning a pail on a string, were fun.

Miriam Hasen wrote and directed the 2nd act brilliantly.

Roie Beck introduced each scene. The background was the Cotton Club and the waiter, Ralph Greene, served. Dancing and singing by Jack Fosdick, Kay Avery, Ruth and Jim Zupa, Bob Barrus in a duet with Carol Fellman, showed the flavor of the time. The scene ended with Gangster Robbie Karlin, with his moll, Sylvia Altes, slinking in with a gun in hand, and shooting.

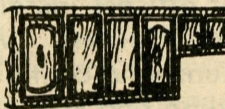

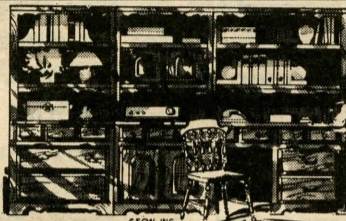

In the "Kollege Kid" scene, 14 Happy Hoofers, dressed in snappy kid fashions of the '20's sang, "Ain't We Got Fun?"; Irv Leeds in knickers and plaid strummed his uke. Miriam Schwartz sang a nifty "Ain't She Sweet?" and was joined by the dancers who tapped a neat PRETTY PATIOS AND POTS Men - Women - Is your patio an extension of your beautiful interior home? It should be! Good design is easy-do, easy-care gardening.

The interior may be the woman's field, the exterior can reflect a man's strong influence. Color, comfort, calm, character! The September 9th meeting of the Club should attract the men who like to putter in pots and patios.

Come to the W.C.R. at 9:30 AM (second Thursday of the month) for crumpets and inspiration. (Sorry, fellas, no dancing girls!).

Our club's latest contribution to L.V.'s beautification is the raised brick planter bed at the main entrance to the Recreation Center. HAVE A LOOK!

The Hoofers are now practicing for a charity show for muscular dystrophy in September.

"Mom, you should write a book about your life!"

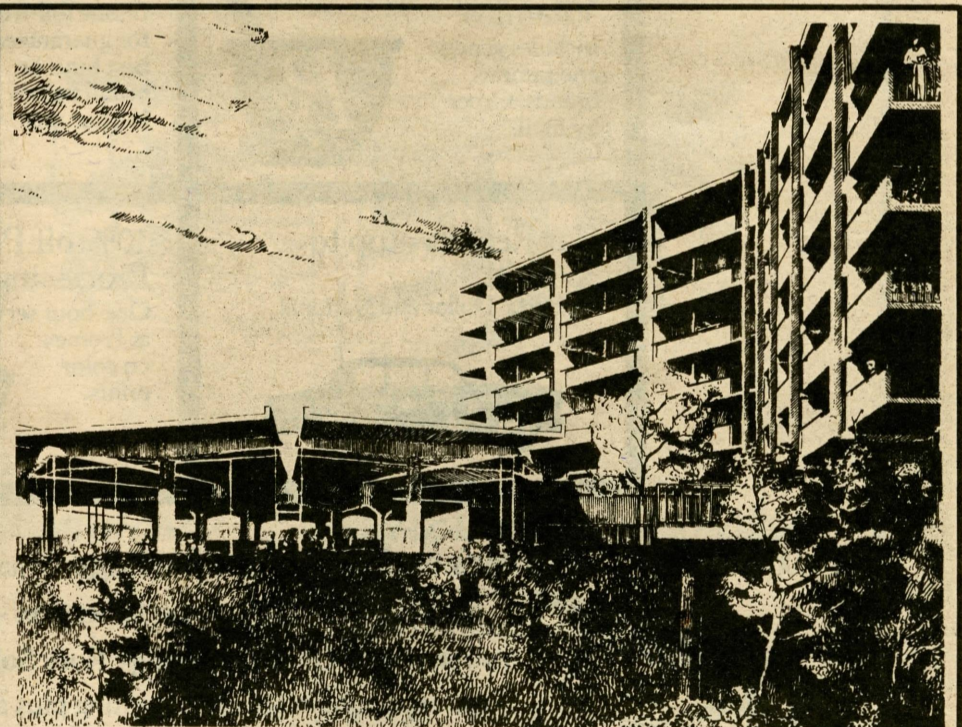

A client being interviewed in her home for a Voice Portrait.

Dad, too. We're hearing it more and more these days. Your children and grandchildren want to know more about you. Your childhood. Memories of YOUR parents and grandparents. The day you got married. What you've learned about life, just from living it. But how do you get it all down? How do you even get started?

It's easy. A call to Voice Portraits, in Malibu, will bring partner Sara Bragin or Alexandra Abrams to your home. They're skilled interviewers, good listeners.

From the comfort of your favorite chair, they'll take you on a refreshing trip back through your life -- and forward into your future. It's all captured on two hours of audiotape and packaged beautifully so your family can cherish it for years -- even generations -- to come.

A Voice Portrait is a living heirloom. It's the unique story of your life told in your own style, your own voice. And if you don't tell it, who will? For more information, call Voice Portraits at (213) 457-1140.

beat to finish with a Charleston.

In "The Dirty Thirties", Roie tells of the euphoria that is over and the bubble bursts. Miriam Hasen sings "Second Hand Rose" behind scenes; A poor lady, soulfully portrayed by Amy Puro, rummages through the garbage for something to eat or wear. "Apple Annie" dressed perfectly by Ann Fosdick and Ruth Weiss, tries to earn a 5¢ piece.

Former millionaires, Edith and Herb Schwartz, left destitute, passed across the "stage of life".

In this sad period we have Renee Greene, looking elegant, singing in great blues voice, "My Bill". Sylvia Altes and Herb Schmidt, in tattered clothes, walked across; each holding a loaf of bread on a string. "A Bread Line"

George Goldfarb, Bob Barrus, Bill Muldoon, Chuck Puro, with Verna Murphy on electric harmonica, sang, "Brother Can You Spare A Dime?"

Roie next takes us off to Broadway to the "A Train" by the elegant Hoofers in pink and white satin. "The Gold Diggers of '33 is the rage." Irv Leeds sings out "Broadway Melody" much like Harry Richman. The Combo plays "Yankee Doodle Dandy" which leads to a scene of 42nd St., artfully drawn by Helen Gold. Tap dancers Piff De Simone and Ginny Cordell in snappy black and white tux costumes, top hats and canes posed dramatically against the scene then danced while Bob Barrus sang "Top Hat" backstage. Comic relief was Irv Leeds and Jack Fosdick.

The finale was a fantastic effect as the Happy Hoofers tapped to "42nd St." in their tux outfits with hats and canes.

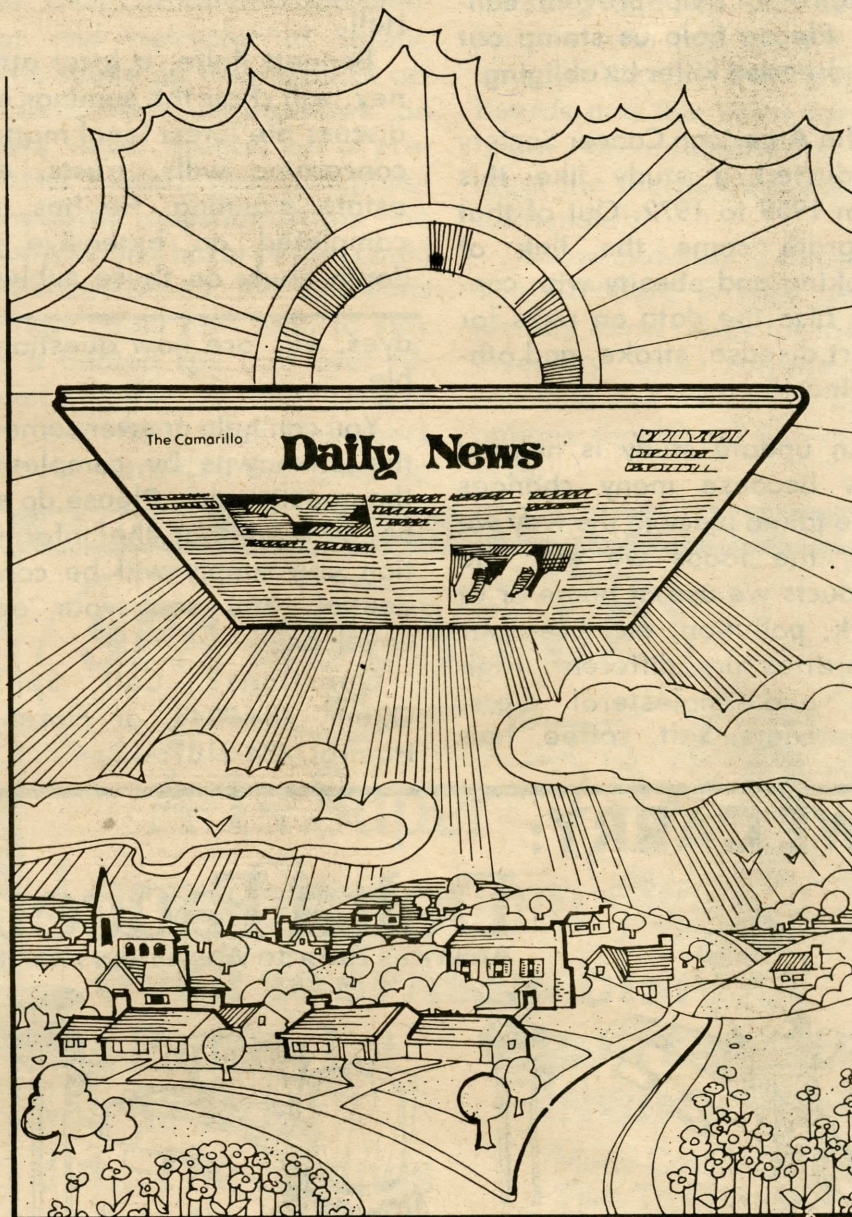

The Production Staff was comprised of Ginny Cordell, Lil Heimowitz, and Joan Johnson. Mimi Chuntz, Girl Friday, was responsible for props and much more. We thank those who did much to make this an excellent performance including the crews on lighting, behind the scenes, etc. Space does not allow for naming everyone.

The program was preceded by a General Meeting at which time the new officers of 1982/'83 were named. Installation will be August 22. Will report in next issue. Till then, have fun.

Cancer Prevention

By Sandy Okum

One of your neighbors may soon ask you to fill out a questionnaire to help prevent cancer. Please help us stamp out this dreaded killer by obliging.

The American Cancer Society conducted a study like this from 1959 to 1972. Out of that program came the link of smoking and obesity with cancer; also the data on risks for heart disease, stroke, and other illness.

An update study is needed now because many changes have taken place in the way we live, the foods we eat, the products we use at home or at work, pollution, etc. Even our cigarettes are different. High fats and cholesterol diets, sweeteners, salt, coffee, hair

Wills and Estate Planning

To continue updating your will, estate and investment planning matters, Your Neighbors Care has invited attorney Bennett Rolfe, Glenn Fitzgerald, Gerald Dutra, and Mrs. Helen Ashley, to hold a seminar on Monday, September 20, at 7:30 p.m. in our Assembly Hall.

Bennett Rolfe, a local attorney, will chair the seminar and discuss the latest legal matters concerning wills, trusts, and estate planning. He has just completed an extensive in-depth study on these subjects

Brandeis University National Women's Committee

By Ruth Schwartz

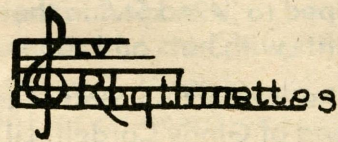

A coffee hour held August 3 at the home of Esther Lomkin, V. 39, resulted in the formation of the first chapter in Ventura County of the Brandeis University National Women's Committee. The chapter is now part of a nation-wide group of women dedicated to the support of the libraries of Brandeis University in Waltham, Mass.

Membership gives the opportunity to take part in study courses. The women work in small groups and are guided by the syllabi prepared by the university faculty.

The first study groups will be formed at the meeting to be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, August 18, at the home of Esther Kopelow, 35103, V. 35. All interested women are cordially invited to join this non-sectarian organization.

By Jeanne Carlson

Food and fashion added up to a lot of fun at the last W.C. meeting. The food was the traditional salad-tasting luncheon, potluck style. Consequently there were wall-to-wall salads of all kinds and all super!

The program was a fashion show arranged by The Flip Side. The clothes and jewelry were truly lovely. Earl Cunningham provided music. Among the models were three W.C. members: Piff De Simone, Gertie Dorward and Anne Fosdick and they were beautiful!

Because of the full program, business was held to a minimum, although it's getting close to blast-off time for the Bazaar. President Beverly Peck asked for contributions of small paper or plastic bags for packaging. Such bags should be brought to the M.P.R. any Tuesday 9:30 to 11:30. Sign-up for donations of goods for the Bake Sale was circulated. Mary Dullam, in charge of the raffle, marshalled her sales forces and sold tickets throughout the meeting. Membership total to date is 438 but Kay Varley, Membership Chairwoman, has her heart set on a goal of 500.

Beverly also said that it is very important that all members attend the September meeting for last minute information etc. The program will feature the Village Players. In the meantime, think BAZAAR!

Brandeis Continued from page 18 at the August 3 meeting were: Pres. Esther Lomkin; Vice-Pres of Study Groups, Shirley Miller; Vice-Pres. of Book Fund, Ruth Schwartz; Treas., Esther Kopelow; Fin. Sec., Lillian Bein; Rec. Sec., Florence Fingold.

Other members are: Shirley Kossack, Mildred Prella, Mary Wilson, Elinore Uslan, Gertude Garten, Isabel Hamerman, Libby Anekstein, Ruth Dubin, Esther Golub, Ruth Weiss, Shirley Start, Freda Drezner.

By Don Holmes

At the July meeting, the club hosted an interesting speaker from the American Red Cross, Mr. Dale Carnathian, Coordinator and Instructor of Safety, who spoke on treatment of accidents and emergencies on field trips. Instead of a prepared speech, Mr. Carnathian answered questions from the floor, on the hazards that could be encountered. The questions ranged from how long to stay in a heated spa (not over fifteen minutes) to heart attacks in the field, (all members should learn CPR and keep up to date), and covered such wide-ranging topics as mashed fingers, eye injuries, snake and insect bites, sprained ankles, burns, heat stroke and heat exhaustion. He told us that the tourniquet is no longer used; there are other ways to control bleeding.

This was an interesting meeting and we had several visitors who are always welcome. Watch the Bulletin Boards and the Voice for program announcements. We meet the fourth Wednesday of each month.

"Show-and-Sell" Chairman Ben Goldberg is busy getting jewelry items ready for the Anniversary Sale. Anyone who can help him with work or donations should call Ben at 987-1725.

By Romaine Lambert

The Village Swingers Square Dance Club was enthusiastic in its response to guest caller Clyde Drivere's July dance, and is looking forward to dancing to Phil Farmer of Anaheim on August 31st. Wyane Simpson's "All Singing Calls" on the 17th was no disappointment either.

President Jack Broude has invited Murray Hertzberg and Al Siegel to serve with him on a By-Laws committee which will review our present by-laws and suggest changes if advisable. If amendments are indicated the entire membership will be notified in advance and proposed changes considered at a meeting with a two-thirds majority of members present necessary for passage.

Other committee appointments are: Historian, Fran Linick; Photographer, Mort Linick; Posters, Art Gregerson; Table Decorations, Gerri Fuller and Fran Gunningham; Membership, Joe and Ceil Priore; Jack and Helen Dain, Norm and Gerri Fuller; Sunshine and Retention, Bob and Mary Kay Franey; Telephone tree, Edna Hoffman; Publicity, Romaine Lambert; Visitation, Isabel Dominguez and Mae Greger-son; A Square D representative, Art and Mae Gregerson.

The Committee for the New Club Dress, Isabel Dominguez, Martha Kent and Helen Hertzberg hopes that all the Village Swingers will soon be in the pretty pink. Call Isabel if you need information.

MEMBERS, don't forget the picnic Sunday, the 29th, 2:00 to 6:00.

ALL HART

By Ruth Hart

Note: During Ruth Hart's Vacation, our guest columnist will be Millicent Hofmann. If you have an item for the column, please call Millicent at 482-3885.

Are you all enjoying our lovely summer smog, or whatever? We are lucky to be living in Camarillo. Have you taken a drive to the valley lately? Don't! Just relax and give thanks to whomever is responsible for our living here in L.V. (I wonder if our sales office ever reads my column; I have never received any goodies.)

Happy Anniversary to: Sam and Gertrude Katz, V. 33, August 5, 48 years; they celebrated with a cruise to Alaska; Bea and Josh Fallick, V. 3, 38 years, August 3. Bea has just returned from a tour of the Canadian Rockies and a cruise to Alaska. Irene Marstella, V. 30, and Hal and Betty Keeler, V. 37, were also on this tour. Clyde and Rose Fagnan, V. 23, 55 years, September 4. The Fagnans have only lived in L.V. 10 months but feel they have found Paradise. Al and Ruth Levinson, V. 22, 57 years, August 2; Bill and Ginny Snyder, V. 4, 45 years, August 25; and Bob and Katie Anderson, V. 15, 45 years, August 11. The Andersons are on a 6 week tour of Australia (where their son lives), then New Zealand, Fiji, Tonga, Samoa, Tahiti and home in September. Many more happy days to all.

Jennie Hall, V. 17, took August off to cruise to Alaska with relatives and then spend some time in Montana before returning home.

Zelda Robinson, V. 20, came home from a 2 week tour of England, Scotland, and Wales, then after a short rest took off again for Seattle and a meeting with her new daughter-in-law to be, Daniela Birch. The wedding will be in September in Seattle and Zelda and her mom Rebecca Cartman, V. 38 (mother and grandmother of the groom, Jonathan Seal) will be there with bells on.

Ben and Rhoda Smithkin, V. 4, and Al and Sharon Green, V. 41, recently returned from a 2 month, 5,000 mile trip, driving all through Europe. France, Monaco, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Germany, Luxembourg, and Holland. Ben is anxious to show his 600 slides to everyone. They met another L.V. tour group in Florence, Italy. I also heard that the Smithkins and the Greens are still friends after all that time and togetherness.

Roselle Mayfarth, V. 25, is happy these days after having 2 week visit with her 17-year-old granddaughter, Pamela Louise Littlejohn from Nashville, Tenn. It was quite a reunion for both as it was Pam's first flight and she and Roselle had a lot of catching up to do as it was 6 years since they had seen each other.

Emmy and Richard Sacks, V. 20, are enjoying a 3 week visit with friends from Philadelphia (Selma and Henry Burns), showing them all the sights, even Catalina.

Sophie Lebetkin, V. 20 is beaming over the birth of her third grandchild last month. She says you may call him Adam Tattleman.

Remember that old song, "So Long for a While" from Your Hit Parade? By the time this column is printed, Woody and I will be on our way to New England in the Fall (home to us), and touring the East Coast in our R.V. for a couple of months. Don't anyone go away or do anything exciting until I get back, you hear?

'Til next time, "You know you're getting older when you walk proudly with your head held high, and then discover it's only because you're trying to get used to your new bifocals".

The Saturday Night Ballroom Dance

By Ben Drasin

The Ballroom Dance has had a good year.. The 36 regular committee members and alternates worked very hard together. We made new tapes to add to our large inventory. Our special events, such as: Hawaiian Night, Hallowe'en, Christmas, Valentine's, Western Costume and Anniversary were all beautiful dances well-attended by enthusiastic crowds.

Also, the Group was involved in assisting the Recreation Dept. with the New Year's Eve party which many claimed was the best ever. We played tapes which were especially geared to the New Year.

To satisfy requests for occasional live band dances, we were given permission to research and hire the bands, but on condition that we be responsible for the affair and any possible financial losses. We accepted and offered to return any profit remaining after expenses, to the Recreation Dept. Special-Events Fund. The first band dance in March was well-received; the July dance (with a different band) was a smash. We intend to have the latter group back again. From these two dances, a substantial sum was presented to the Rec. Dept. fund.

Other contributions during this period were the repair of 27 banquet tables in the A.R., purchase of 50 folding chairs, 2 large coffee urns, and 20 8' banquet tables (total cost, $2,115.00).

We feel it was a most enjoyable, productive and satisfying year, from both entertainment and practical aspects.

We take this opportunity to thank all the hardworking committee people, our Hosts and Hostesses, and all you dancers who attend. Thank you!
