Neckid Guys Invade Lollapalooza

By Bill Lognea

The strangest part of touring is the new people you meet, and the guys from The Chameleon definitely meet a lot of them. While at the show in Chicago they encountered the "neckid guys". What you say are the "neckid guys", well lets just say they enjoy experiencing Virtual Reality in the Buff. " We see ourselves as nudist for the 22nd century," said one of the naked guys, " let's just say we see a future without clothing required." In a virtual world you could construct your own Virtual wardrobe". Are these guys making a statement about the future or just guys who like to show off their penises? I can't answer this question for you, But I have also experienced the urge to strip in the face of technology. As a matter of fact I'm naked as I write this. According to Paul the Chameleon technician who was operating the ride no sexual acts were performed on the ride, it was just a couple of guys that like to get neckid'. Paul also offered some suggestion for getting neckid' on The Chameleon, first keep all important items away from the seat belt latches, and watch the seat belt for friction burn. Also undressing while upside down on the ride can be difficult, but the thrill of seeing your clothing hit the ceiling is well worth the effort. Please remember that no more than three neckid' people should be on a ride at any time.
