

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FRESNO

All students enrolled at California State University, Fresno are members of the Associated Students of California State University, Fresno. The A. S. is a non-profit association chartered by the Trustees of The California State University and Colleges to operate a student government and its sponsored activities. The membership fee, which is mandatory and paid at the time of registration, is $10 per semester. The fee supports athletic activities, publications, music, drama and other cultural programs, a child care center, forensics and a variety of other student services. A non-transferable membership card permits participation in activities, elections and admission to all A. S. programs without charge or at a reduced fee. The A. S. executive branch and the Student Senate exert budgetary control and determine management policy for all operations, services and activities sponsored by the Associated Students.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Membership in the Associated Students entitles the holder to copies of publications financed by the Associated Students fee. The Daily Collegian is the official news publication. The university literary magazine, Backwash, is available to students at a nominal charge.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association seeks to advance the welfare of the university, to promote common interests of its students and alumni, and to serve as a liaison with the university, alumni, and the community. The self-directed group sponsors numerous activities during the year, provides scholarship assistance to students, and supports the development of the university. Membership is open to graduates and to any student who has attended one or more semesters at CSU, Fresno. Annual dues are $10; life memberships are $150.

The University Alumni Trust Council is a charitable organization which receives contributions from alumni and friends of the college. Funds received by the Trust Council are used to support scholarships and programs of the Association, and to promote the welfare of the university.
