

ETHNIC STUDIES PROGRAM

Franklin Chew Lun Ng, Coordinator

The Ethnic Studies Program is designed to promote academic and professional knowledge of, and sensitivity to, historical and cultural developments important to ethnic groups in the United States. Offered through the program are courses in Asian-American Studies, Black Studies, and Native-American Studies, as well as courses of a more general and comparative nature. Many of these courses are team taught so that the students may benefit from the multi-ethnic perspective provided by the Ethnic Studies team of teachers. Many of the Ethnic Studies courses may be used in the social science major. Minors are offered in Asian-American Studies, Black Studies and Ethnic Studies. Ethnic Studies is an ideal minor for those persons planning to enter professions whose primary emphasis is some type of work with people. A major thrust of the Ethnic Studies offerings is to assist university students pursuing careers in criminology, nursing, social work, sociology, education, liberal studies, business, agriculture, communicative disorders, health science and recreation.
