

THE HISPANIC BOOKCASE

The Hispanic Bookcase bookstore begins its 1995 Spring book signing and reading series with the award winning poet, writer and the author of...

*"Chicana Falsa and Other
Short Stories of Death, Identity and Oxnard"*

Michele

M.

Serros

Friday, March 24

7:00 p.m.

Michele M. Serros will sign, discuss and read from her hot selling book
"Chicana Falsa"

Her book has been described as a new kind of poetry that is stylish, focused and inordinately on beat and delivery. Serros uses humor to address issues such as racial and gender identity and family values.

- Chicana Falsa is Familiar: with the sights, smells, tastes and sounds, for anyone who remembers afternoons with best friends and the Mickey Mouse Club, evenings of Mexican novelas, Schwinn Stingrays, filling up on KFC dinners, chorizo, and, of course, chicharrones.
- Chicana Falsa is Femininist: our heroines refuse to swallow and cry later but rather learn how to bite hard and laugh last while taking on neighborhood bullies, men with phallic car speakers, and corporate male management.
- Chicana Falsa is Fierce: battling the racist realities found in academic learning facilities, West L.A. womens gyms, the dry cleaners, and Ralph supermarkets.
- Chicana Falsa is Funny: life-long grudges, anatomically incorrect comic book characters, the eternal quest for the biggest snow dome collection.
